QUESTION: Are there any pertinent or time related issues Awareness would like to discuss for today's session?

THE GREAT DEPRESSION OF 1929

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would indeed like to begin with a discussion of the efficient nature of the energy levels of this time. In viewing a program recently the Interpreter noted an anniversary that falls on this date, an event that happened 80 years ago on October 29, 1929. That event was the great stock market crash that began that experience known as the Great Depression.

It struck the Interpreter that this was exactly 80 years since that event happened. It was given to him for a reason with the understanding that this is the 80th anniversary of that event, for it coincides with certain events that are indeed at this time underway, not the least of which is the event of another manipulation and crash of that which is the stock market.

The energies around the number eight have much to do with financial matters, financial energies, prosperity and abundance. Those who are in charge of these areas understand the significance of this date and this anniversary, and are working towards repeating that which was once achieved, which was once pulled off. The Great Depression was followed by much misery, much manipulation of the masses, much violence and misbehavior.

The word misbehavior is minor to that which this Awareness is actually trying to express, for it was misbehavior by those in charge, those who had power and dominion over the lives of many. They did not extend that charitable hand, they did not help those who had the greatest need, and therefore many were left to suffer greatly, for the loss of financial means represented the loss of the ability to provide shelter or to provide nourishment, or even to provide an opportunity for growth and development in a normal manner of speaking.

Greed Was The Controlling Factor

That those times were orchestrated, the events that occurred were planned, all for the purpose of driving the world into a degree of poverty and deprivation that had not been known for many years. At that time greed was the controlling factor that drove the stock market. Many became very, very rich while those who began to play the stock market also experienced great abundance and well-being.

This is very similar to the situation that occurred at this present time in mankind's history. Many began to play the market in the 1920's and ordinary people--teachers, plumbers, even preachers began to invest in the stock market to the point that it was very common by Americans at that time to have portfolios, to have investments. Many made much money, they were easy times, but there was at that time an element of great greed that also caused that which this Awareness calls the misbehavior of those in authority, those in power, to the needs of those who did not have sufficient resources.

Today a Similar Great Collapse is Imminent

This did not matter, for those who were in power; those who were indeed achieving great status and wealth were caught up in their own journeys and did not truly or fully appreciate the needs of those who did not have. This has also occurred in more recent times, and it is now building to a crescendo where those who have achieved their profits through their greed will now have those profits removed. Those situations that were duplicated in more recent times from the times of the 1920s are also leading to a financial situation where a great collapse is imminent.

The Powers That Be worked on such things and used the energies of past events and numerological alignment. Therefore, from that which is the numerological alignment, this energy that is present at this time duplicates the energies of the 1920s, and it is for this reason that this particular date today is auspicious and ominous at the same time. There are those who will make great abundance, who will see their own personal fortunes increase even more so, for they are aware of that which is coming and will take measures to ensure that they achieve even greater prosperity and abundance, even greater power, while those who have been marginal to the game will lose much.

Many will be destroyed in the collapse of the markets, which is coming in the next few weeks and months. This is a prolonged event, just as the great Depression was not simply about one day in the collapse of the stock market, but the social events that occurred thereafter. Thus it is that this is seen by many, not only just for numerological reasons, but for many other reasons, that the events that are ready to happen will have a long reaching effect, and this will be spread over the months and years ahead.

The date today, October 29th, 2009 is a mirror day for the energies that occurred once upon a time 80 years ago. But they are also different than the energies at that time, for the intent and purpose is different. The planet has moved forward in the time scale, and that which awaits humanity in the not so distant future is different than that which awaited humanity in the years after the stock market crash. At that time the planet itself did not stand at the verge of Ascension, but rather had ahead many more years of a journey that would cumulate eventually in the future at a time where the planet itself would ascend. This point is directly in front of the planet of Mother Earth, of Gaea, which is also directly in front of humanity itself.

A Shaking Apart of the Fabric of Society is Beginning

Mankind/womankind stands at the very precipice of change, and there are many who are starting to go through the chaotic energies, who are breaking through the shells of their own resistance to what has been, who they have been, and are starting to break forth into that which is the greater truth, the greater reality, into that which is Ascension. This too is a product or byproduct of the upheaval of the times, of the shaking apart of the times, and even though events may occur that will cause the collapse of the financial markets, and also cause great upheaval in other areas, these collapses, these destructions that will occur are also part of the shaking apart of the fabric of society that has defined mankind for millennia, and it is part of the breaking apart of the old regime, so that which is the new regime, that which is the New Order, the New Way, can also be born.

Nothing can emerge as long as the old stands, as long as the old ways are observed. It is only upon the destruction and the dissolution of that which has been, that that which will be, that which will come, can occur. Even though this Awareness has spoken of the chaos of the times ahead, especially in the next few weeks, It still holds that this is part of an overall plan that has been underway for millennia. The endings that stand directly in front of humanity now must of course be experienced, so that which is the new reality, the New Way, the New Order, can also be experienced in the future.

There are, as this Awareness has spoken many times, many variations on the theme, but the central theme, beyond all else, is that there are great changes coming, and these changes are imminent, even to the point that on the anniversary of the collapse of the stock market 80 years ago to this day, there is the energy in motion that is being released as this Awareness speaks. This is the opening message of this Awareness at this time. It is prepared to move forward with other questions or any questions that the energizer may have of this Awareness.

QUESTIONER:

(That was very interesting, thank you.) Were there any other issues, time related, that you would like to discuss, or should I carry on with the political questions, which are very general?

THE RA-TA EXPERIENCE NOW UNFOLDING AT THIS TIME

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would speak of the Ra-Ta experience that is unfolding at this time. That this too is part of the taking apart of the old regime, the breaking up of the paradigm of belief and the consciousness that has been held for many millennia. Those who precipitated this event, who partook in that which is the Ra-Ta project of several thousand years ago, had this as their intent and focus. Many will feel the vibrations in their own bodies; will experience events in their own lives that are shaking them apart. They may feel a distress and discomfort at this time, an uncertainty of what is going on, for it is an unusual experience that they may be having, one that is not always easy to understand or appreciate, but they are indeed experiencing the shaking up of the vibrations of their lives, their own personal vibration as well as the vibrations around them.

Many will experience it on a very personal level. It is to be seen and understood by those who are having such an experience that while the experience is uncomfortable and there is a state of dis-ease around the experience, it is a necessary experience to go through at this time. As the events of the world itself start to shake apart and the social mechanisms and fabric and framework of the planet itself, the structures of society start to shake apart. While this brings with it chaos, discomfort, and dis-ease, it is still that which is necessary at this time to create a new opening, a new way forward.

Pray To Your Guides and Guardians For Assistance (Awareness Sends You Healing Energies Right Now)

This Awareness asks those who are personally involved in the shaking up of their own worlds, who are feeling this discomfort, this dis-ease to pray to those who are their own guides and guardians, those which are the higher powers, the higher levels of their own being for assistance and guidance. This Awareness Itself can even be addressed during these troubled times and assistance from this Awareness be requested. At this time this Awareness chooses to send forth Its own energies to the membership to assist those going through these troubling times, and to put at ease those who have been suffering, those who have been stressed, those who are troubled with the changes in their personal lives as well as in the world itself.

This Awareness sends Its healing energies to the membership and to all who are open to the energies of this Awareness. It does so now.

The energies have been sent. This Awareness is ready to proceed with further questioning.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. On behalf of the membership and those who read the message or hear it, we thank you, and are most appreciative, thank you.

ANCIENT ROME AND MUSSOLINI

(Who Really Was That Crazy Dictator?)

QUESTION:

Our first question is from Lloyd Ard in Utah. It concerns Mussolini and ancient Roman archaeology. He writes: "The dictator Mussolini was obsessed with ancient Roman archaeology. He wanted to integrate the Roman splendor with his own fascist regime. For example, he actually drained Lake Nemi using the mile-long aqueduct through the mountain constructed by the Romans, to salvage the two magnificent floating pleasure palaces constructed by Caligula, the third Caesar of ancient Rome. Caligula was assassinated in the fourth year of his reign by members of his own bodyguard and the Senate because they were disgusted by his cruel, perverse and sadistic ways. They also scuttled and sank the two pleasure barges." My question is this: "Was Mussolini a ruler or prominent member of ancient Rome?" Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Mussolini Was Caligula in that Lifetime

It is seen that the entity Mussolini was indeed connected to the Rome of the ancient times, especially the entity Caligula. It is seen that Mussolini was Caligula at that time and returned back to carry on the Roman Empire but had misplaced the original intent behind the empire. Caligula was the third Caesar and he acquired power through inheritance and he was indeed corrupt, corrupted by power, and corrupted by privilege. The energies of the Caesars after Julius Caesar became the energies of a very corrupted elite, not unlike the Elite who hold power at this time.

They know great pleasures and indulgences, indulgences beyond those known by most individuals. Caligula was one who was an Elite of the time, the same Power Elite who have power at this time. As the reincarnation of Caligula, Mussolini attempted to gain back some of the opulence of the Roman times that he remembered, including the pleasure barges that had been sunk. Even though the draining of the lake was not necessarily a wise move or one that was sound, he chose to do so anyway, for as a dictator Mussolini could do this and as a reincarnation of Caligula he chose to do this to establish himself, but also to touch his own history, his own path.

As the former Caesar, Mussolini was not destined for a long reign and even though he was in power for several years it was not a successful voyage of statesmanship. He was a fascist, he backed a side that ultimately was overthrown and he himself was disposed. However while he was in power his identification with the Roman empire was both personal as well as a reflection of the State itself, for many remembered the former glories of the Roman empire and wished to retouch those glories and re-achieve some of that which had once been, the taste for the Roman empire, for the Italian nation. It was however, not to be and his bid for eternal power and recognition failed and he himself, as this Awareness said, finally was disposed, deposed.

QUESTIONER:

Was Mussolini aware of his connection with ancient Rome when he was in power?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would not say he was aware of it; he simply had a fascination for the old Roman Empire, a fascination that bordered on obsession. This is a clear indication to those who are aware of it, of a connection to a former life, a former time, but to Mussolini who was not aware of reincarnation, he certainly did not understand that this was what was underlying it. However, if someone had explained it to him, he would have understood 100% and accepted that as the reason for his fascination.

However he did understand certain arcane knowledge, for the leadership of the fascists at the time, both the German Fascist regime of the Nazis as well as Mussolini and his Brownshirts and his followers was such that there was a fascination with things occult and arcane. Indeed Hitler himself had astrologers who did readings for him on a constant basis; he was very familiar with arcane knowledge and past events.

THE PROBLEMS THE GALACTIC FEDERATION HAVE HAD WITH THE U.S. GOVERNMENT

(And How Does the Jehovah Fit In?)

QUESTION:

(Interesting. Thank you). Our next question comes from Antonio Alvarez from Brooklyn, New York. He has two questions. He writes "In a recent newsletter, Awareness stated that the Galactic Federation [the good guys] have never been able to initiate official contact with the government of the United States and Russia because of agreements they have made with the Greys. But if I remember correctly, Awareness once stated that Russia was aided by the entities once known as the Jehovah. Can Awareness clarify this? Of course I realize that it is possible, since there may be more than one faction in Russia.

Another reason I ask is because I would hate to know that Vladimir Putin is part of the New World Order. I admit to having much admiration for the man. Your comments on this first question please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would state that those who were Jehovah followers were those who were oriented towards the Orions and not to the Galactic Federation. Also, it is correct that the Galactic Federation did approach the governments of both the United States as well as Russia in those times directly following the war. They offered themselves and their services but did not agree to transfer technology to the governments of the United States or Russia.

They hoped for a spiritual understanding of what the teachings of those who were the Galactic Federation were about. In other words, they did offer to assist in the evolution and development of mankind, but simply did not agree with the request to hand over technology which would ensure that the governments of the day would continue in power. The results were that the official ambassadors of the Galactic Federation were turned down, especially since at that same time ambassadors of the Orion Reptilian faction, the Reticulans and the Greys, also approached the governments of the day and did agree to exchange power and technology with the governments for their benefit, with the request at the time that they be allowed to abduct individuals for observation.

Why the Galactic Federation Was Shut Out

This was what was presented to the United States government. The government of the day under Truman and then Eisenhower did go forward with the agreements, signing treaties with the Greys of the time, the Orion Empire. The result, the Galactic Federation was shut out of any role in the development of humanity in terms of a role with the official sanction of the governments of the day. It had to instead be secretive in its dealings with humanity as a result, for it did not receive an official welcome from the Powers of the day, and that the Powers of the day instead chose to go with the Orion Empire, the Orion Reptilian faction, and had much dealings with the Greys who became well known to humanity and are the face of aliens to this day.

VLADIMIR PUTIN

(Is He One of the Good Guys?)

Question:

(I see, thank you) His second question: "Any information on Vladimir Putin would be much appreciated. Is he really one of the good guys?" Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would find it difficult to call him one of the good guys. However It would indeed say that his awareness and understanding of the truth is greater than many who went before him, and he is not in total agreement with the actions of the Orion Reptilian factions, nor is he their agent. It is seen that he does have his own agenda, and that he would use those who he feels are beneficial to his agenda even if they were Orions themselves, at the same time thinking that he might outsmart them.

He has been seen talking and having negotiations with the Galactic Federation people. He is more inclined towards being open to their assistance and using their assistance, but still has as part of his agenda the acquiring of power, both personal power as well as power for the State. The Orions themselves are wary of this individual, as are those who are the Galactic Federation, for all see him as a wild card. However it is seen by this Awareness that his understanding and appreciation of the situation is much more enlightened than that of the former president of the United States of America, George W. Bush, and it is seen that his understanding is better than that of the current president, Barack Obama.

Still, it is as a wildcard that this individual must be seen, and it is not yet clear exactly which way he will go. If he does favor the Galactic Federation and their assistance, it will be more for his own personal aggrandizement and power than for the planet and the welfare of the planet. Saying this, this Awareness does see that he and his regime can still be of great benefit to the planet at this time, by opposing the current power regime under the manipulation of the Orions and choosing the opponent, the Galactic Federation, the leader Putin may still come to be of great service to humanity as long as it still satisfies his desire for personal power, and for his country of Russia.

QUESTIONER:

He actually has the potential to do much good then, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

He is willing to work with the Galactic Federation to achieve certain goals that he desires and that the Galactic Federation desires, to help humanity move forward at this time, to achieve enlightenment, to achieve Ascension. It may be that he becomes a willing compatriot of those greater powers not because he is a good man, but because it would serve his purpose. Ultimately, even though it would serve his purposes, the true achievement would be of a high order indeed.

This is seen to be the reverse of the situation that exists in the United States of America, where through deception those who are in power seek to use the people, work against the people in order to serve their masters, their masters being those who are the Orions and Reptilians. They seek to serve them at the cost of the people, whereas it is seen that Putin would work with the Galactic Federation to assist his people and put them in a greater power, and put himself in greater power. While he is self-serving, it would be a self-serving that would be beneficial to the world, where those who are self-serving in the United States of America, those political leaders who have been in cahoots with the Orion/Reptilian factions have often done so to serve themselves, serve the Elite.

That Awareness says at this time, and suggests at this time that Putin is not truly one of the Elite, but he is certainly aware of them and hobnobs with them, but always for his own benefit. It is as if he deals with them because it is necessary for him to do so but he has his own agenda.

QUESTIONER:

That's what I was wondering. That was going to be my next question, thank you. That was very interesting.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It must be remembered that this Awareness in the past has said that the President of the United States, be it the current President, Barack Obama, or the past President, George W. Bush or any other past Presidents, often have their own agenda but are still serving a greater purpose, a greater cause than even their own personal agenda. Often the Divine uses even those who are in the dark or are serving a Dark Lord or a Dark Master for higher good.

In this case, Putin is serving himself and wishes to assist his own nation in advancing and serve himself too at the same time by putting himself in even a higher absolute power than he has at this time. But again, the forces of the Divine would still use the players who are on stage to serve the higher cause, the higher good, Putin and Obama included.

THE HOT SPOTS OF THE WORLD*QUESTIONER:

Our next question comes from Zoeyzen in California. She has two questions actually. The first one: "Are there any remarks on the hotspots: North Korea, Iran, Iraq, Afghanistan? Any comments please?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:*North Korea Rattles Sabers But is Not a Threat

One comment that this Awareness has is that some of the hotspots are not hot at all, but are being manipulated to appear so. The nation North Korea, although it does indeed rattle the saber, and often is an annoyance does not truly have the capacity or capability of creating mass destruction in the United States. Although it is seeking to develop nuclear weaponry, it is not perceived by this Awareness as a true threat to the United States. There is much blustering, there is much saber rattling. It is as if it is an adolescent child making much noise to gain attention, even to the point of rebellion but it is not seen by this Awareness that anything will come of it, it simply wants to be noticed.

Iran Has a Different Agenda and is Not a Threat

Iran is another country of such an ilk, although it is being brought to the attention of the people as a great threat. It too wishes to be noticed. The danger and the difference in Iran to that which is North Korea is that it has a political agenda that is based on its religious leadership and Muslim desires and intent, especially from the mental desire and intent, which is different than that which is a more personal intent of the leadership of North Korea. The present leader of North Korea wishes much opulence and personal power and prestige, whereas the leadership of Iran has a different agenda, a religious agenda based on Muslim philosophy and thought. Still, it is not seen that Iran has the capability or capacity to be a major threat against the United States or the world. It is seen that these nations are being used as a bogeyman, so to speak, so that they can frighten the world, so those who have power can point to these nations and claim that they must be dealt with, that they are a threat to the peace and security of the planet.

The Real Reason the U.S. is in Afghanistan

Iraq has long been understood to be a blind alley, a decoy to take attention away while certain projects were completed; the stealing of the wealth and the claiming of a Stargate in Iraq was one of the reasons for the invasion. The nation of Afghanistan has its own reason: the building of an oil pipeline from the northern part of the country down to the sea where the oil can be loaded on ships has always been part of the reason for the invasion of this country. The Powers That Be, the Allied forces, were never sent there to free the people of Afghanistan or to bring women up to a higher equal status, but rather the purpose has always been to create a conflict there that would allow the secret building of a pipeline that would benefit the powers of the West, the Western powers.

A Bogeyman Called Bin Laden was Created as a Reason to Attack

Thus it was that they had to create a bogeyman in the shape of Bin Laden, who they then used as the reason to attack the nation of Afghanistan to deal with the Taliban who were blamed for the bombings of the World Trade buildings as well as the Pentagon. All of these were red herrings that were used to justify the attack on this nation. The war in Afghanistan is simply causing the loss of many lives. It is not the monster that it is claimed to be, nor the reason for going to war sufficient enough to justify staying in Afghanistan or the neighboring country of Iraq.

AL QAEDA WAS FORMED BY THE CIA

(A Front, a Blind Used to Create an Enemy)

QUESTIONER:

Really! Is the Al Qaeda justified in their attempts at whatever it is they are trying to do?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It must be understood that the Al Qaeda was formed by the CIA. It is simply a front, a blind that it has used to create an enemy. This manufactured enemy is then presented to the world as the reason why America and the Allies needed to invade two sovereign nations. The truth of the invasion is not that Al Qaeda was at fault or responsible, but rather that as the bogeyman they became an enemy against which a justified attack was sanctioned. In other words, Al Qaeda sanctified the invasion of two sovereign nations, but that the enemy is an illusion created by the CIA and other agencies.

QUESTIONER:

That CIA is certainly into a lot of stuff, aren't they?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is that which occurs when an agency is created that is not elected to power that has free reign. The CIA is but part of the problem. There are other agencies and factions behind the CIA, beyond the CIA that are even more dangerous than the CIA itself. The CIA is the more public face of the secret government that holds true power.

WHAT DOES SARAH PALIN PLAN?

QUESTION:

The last part of the question is that from Zoey Zen and concerns Sarah Palin. She writes: "What in the world is Sarah Palin planning? What are the chances of her remaining in national politics? I think in Nostradamus there is a line about the Ice Queen returning from the north to join with the aged feeble one. This might indicate a McCain-Palin GOP, which stands for Grand Old Party, Republican Party ticket in 2012." Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness first and foremost does say that there will NOT be a McCain-Palin ticket in 2012. It is seen that the entity John McCain will either fall from power entirely or simply not be considered a viable choice at that time. The entity Palin, however, is a different matter. It is seen that she has been approached by certain facets of the Republican Party who would like to run her as a national leader in the 2012 election. It is not seen, however, by this Awareness that despite her own personal desire for such power and fame and prestige that the entity Sarah Palin will ever achieve the presidency.

It is simply seen that it is her own personal desire for such power and position that drives her. This is an ego driven, egocentric individual who has a great desire for personal power and prestige. But she will not achieve such in the 2012 election. She may indeed be presented but it is not seen that she will be elected. It is not even seen clearly at this time that she will even be the official candidate for the Republican Party. But it is to be remembered that those Powers That Be are always seeking the individual that they feel will capture the attention of the people and hold that attention.

Hillary Clinton Still Plans to be the Next President

Before or during the actual democratic rise to elect a leader, the leader at the beginning was Hillary Clinton and she had the vote of the party and the nod of those who hold the power behind the power. Indeed, she was offered the presidency and even was told that she would be the first woman President, and that she would represent the Democratic Party. As the Democratic primary went on, another leader who was scheduled to become the Vice President was seen by some to be a more lucrative candidate than Hillary Clinton, and a schism occurred in the Democratic Party. Some chose to support Barack Obama, for they saw him as a rising flame. There was a schism where both parties went to war with each other: those who were the proponents and supporters of Barack Obama versus those who were the proponents and supporters of Hillary Clinton.

It was seen to be a very desperate battle with both parties holding to their candidates to the degree that Hillary Clinton could not, and would not accept defeat, which is why she continued her personal battle against the then incumbent candidate Barack Obama. Even though he had the major support of his party she did indeed hold on until the bitter end. This was because she had been promised the presidency by certain Powers who had formerly held the majority of power in the Democratic Party. However, they betrayed her and abandoned her and this she found very difficult to accept, in fact she did not accept it until the very end of the campaign.

It was at that point that she finally abdicated for she was disinclined to let go of power. But the offering of Secretary of State did little to appease her afterwards. She still seeks power, and still wishes to become the first female President of the United States of America. It is for this reason that this Awareness says that this individual will be present in the 2012 campaign once again. It is not seen that she is ready to fade away anytime soon. It may be for this reason that for the first time ever there may be a campaign of two potential women as candidates for the highest office of the land. This is not yet seen by this Awareness as written in stone.

It is not prophesying or predicting or forecasting this to be so. It is simply saying that there is indeed a potential possibility that two women: Sarah Palin and Hillary Clinton, may face off against each other for the office of the President of the United States of America. However much can occur between now and then, especially a small matter known as Ascension.

QUESTIONER:

Surely you jest!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed, this Awareness does jest. It is simply stating that there are major changes that are directly ahead for humanity. This matter of two women running for the presidential position is a minor matter compared to that which is coming forward.

Ed's Note: Sarah Palen just had her autobiography published, the book is called "ROGUE" and is being hailed by the Republicans as the book that will send her to the White House. Apparently none of them has bothered to see how Webster defines that word. I looked it up: Rogue (origin unknown) 1. Vagrant, tramp 2. A dishonest or worthless person; scoundrel 3. A mischievous person, scamp 4. A horse inclined to shirk or misbehave. 5. An individual exhibiting a chance and inferior biological variation

A CHUPACABRA KILLS TWO PEOPLE

(Did an Act of "Stupidity" Bring This About?)

QUESTION:

Indeed, thank you. Our next question is from Paul Paschat. It concerns Chupacabra. That's a type of animal in Mexico. It's described as a reptile type being appearing to have a leathery or scaly greenish gray skin and sharp spines or quills running down its back. It is about 3 to 4 feet or 1 - 1.5 meters high and stands or hops in a fashion similar to that of a kangaroo. Do you have a visual?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed, this Awareness knows exactly the creature that is being spoken of.

QUESTIONER:

He writes: "The other day a TV show gave a story about two dead Mexican foreign nationals violating American borders. Those patrolling the border found them dead. The female had three puncture wounds on her neck, but there was no sign of blood. The husband was also dead. Sensing something in the bush, they investigated and found there the couple's 10 to 12-year-old daughter holding a teddy bear, very much terrified. The child was returned to her grandmother in Mexico. Later the child was reported as still having nightmares.

I felt sorry for the child. Stupid parents probably didn't have much food, water or protection. I wondered why they would expose their daughter to such risks involved in their misadventure to violate the border of a sovereign country. This has to be a violation of the Golden Rule. Would they have wanted their parents to expose them to such risks? There are many predators that hunt at night, including rattlesnakes. If bitten by a rattlesnake at night while wandering around in a strange country, I doubt one would live very long. If confronted by a Chupacabra, one probably wouldn't live 10 minutes. I wouldn't go anywhere without my .38 and extra ammunition. If I were wandering around in a wilderness at night, I'd have more than that. The question: What actually happened to this unfortunate and desperate family?" Your comments please.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The first area that this Awareness would comment on, it's not the Chupacabra. It is not simply about this creature, the Chupacabra, that this Awareness is prepared to speak on, but also the issue of the "stupid" Mexican family that would expose their daughter to such a danger. This Awareness does wish the word "stupid" to have quotation marks around it, for this Awareness does not hold that they were stupid at all, but rather truly desperate, as the creator of the question mentions, desperate for a better way of life; so desperate that they would expose their child and themselves to danger.

They did not think of the Chupacabra as a danger they would have to face, for they did not necessarily believe that such a creature exists or such a creature would attack those who would face the dangers of the open desert. Instead they saw only the merit of trying to cross into the sovereign nation of the United States of America, and that they would have a better life for themselves, but most especially for their young daughter if they were successful in their pursuit of crossing the border in this very inhospitable desert region.

It is for this reason that the family were driven to cross to the United States. Many Mexicans who have done so write back to their own families and their own friends and people, saying that they do have a better quality of life in that country of the United States of America. This then of course brings forth many who wish to escape the abject poverty and the lack of opportunity that they are experiencing for themselves in the nation of Mexico. Thus they move toward the border to cross illegally.

At the same time they are sold the goods that suggest that they have the right to go into America, for that which was the Free Trade Agreement suggests that there are no borders. Therefore they do not feel that they are invading another country or crossing illegally. They are simply crossing into another country that is part of an agreement that they have been told exists between the United States and Mexico. The same agreement exists between the United States and Canada, although one does not see large amounts of Canadians crossing illegitimately at night over the US Canada border. But this is because those who live in Canada are not as desperate as those who live in their ill-disposed southern neighbor south of the United States of America.

They are not desperate to provide their children adequate healthcare, adequate education, or an adequate opportunity for a better life. Thus, they do not see the Free Trade Agreement that was agreed upon many years ago as something that would warrant their trying to cross illegitimately over the border. The Mexicans do not have the same perspective. To their understanding, the border is a free and open border and they therefore have a different approach. They would cross despite personal danger into a nation that would give them a better quality of life.

This is what drove this desperate family to cross the desert at the extreme risk to their own lives and welfare. However, they did not expect to die from the journey itself or the crossing. They did not expect to meet such a creature as the Chupacabra and they did not expect such a violent end to their lives or their journey.

Orion Reptilians Often Have Chupacabra as Personal Pets

As for the Chupacabra, this Awareness does have additional comments on this creature that are not political in nature. It is seen that this is a reptilian creature, but not a reptilian as in the higher sentient beings. It is of the fourth dimension, and is a creature that the Reptilians themselves often have as a personal pet. This creature can also jump through the dimensional barriers from fourth into third dimension and it is a dangerous creature that does indeed stalk many human victims.

In fact humans are seen as the favorite prey of these creatures that are personal pets of the Reptilians who exist in the fourth dimension and beyond. It is seen that these creatures were brought from the home planets of the Reptilians originally and were taken into the fourth dimension where the Reptilians often reside. These creatures have discovered a way of breaching the dimensional barrier themselves, but it is not seen that they do so in large numbers. It is seen only occasionally does this occur and there are the stories of these creatures, not only in Mexico but in other areas of the planet also. There are more reports of these creatures in Mexico because there is a propensity of events that are seen as allowing these creatures to break through their barriers. By events, this Awareness is not talking of events on a physical level, but events on the other side of that barrier that would allow these creatures to become free and to jump through the barrier. It is not unlike a dog in a backyard who discovers that the gate to the backyard is unlocked and open to it. And thus the dog escapes the backyard to forage in the garbage cans of the neighborhood, to seek out and consume the garbage of the garbage bins.

When Chupacabra Jump the Dimensional Fence

In this case, these creatures escape their pens and are free to jump the dimensional fence into the areas of the southern Central Americas, Mexico included. It is as if the fences are the weakest in this region and it is easier for these creatures to break out in this area than anywhere else in the world, although it is seen that there are several other areas that are weak in nature. They are not as publicized as the sightings of this creature in Mexico. It is seen that this family was attacked by such a creature, that the mother and father were killed by the Chupacabra and that the child was spared because it was hidden, and that the creature was satiated in its killing of the mother and father.

The deaths of the parents were not because the creature is a vampire and sucked the blood from them, but it is an energy-feeding creature. It sucked the life force from the mother and father and was satiated when it had done so and returned back into the fourth dimension, back to its pen. This is why the child was spared.

QUESTIONER:

I think I'd rather have a dog! Thank you for that. By the way, the first reported incidents of this particular creature are Puerto Rico, and other areas where this occurred are the Dominican Republic, Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Honduras, El Salvador, Nigeria, Panama, Peru, Brazil, United States and Mexico. So it really travels, right?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed, it is seen that the Central Americas are more predisposed to the rupturing of the dimensional fence between fourth and third dimensions, but that this extends both east, southward and north of the border, into the United States and south into South America.

QUESTIONER:

Is it possible because of these places being close to the equator and it's warmer there?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed this has much to do with the reason why these creatures are able to cross in this area. There are no reported sightings in northern climates or in those southern climates that are also temperate in nature. It is very much linked to tropical regions or desert-like areas, such as Arizona and New Mexico, as well as some areas in Central America, such as Puerto Rico. It is very much connected to the energies around the equator.

QUESTIONER:

What would attract them? Is it the heat that would attract them?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed, it is the heat, for as reptilian in nature, they are cold-blooded creatures. They need the heat to stay warm, to be able to function adequately. In the cold they would become very drowsy and sleepy and inactive.

QUESTIONER:

I see. Thank you for that information.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to amend something that It said a moment ago. In the colder Northern climates, while the creature may not be prevalent in the heat of summer, there could be occasional sightings, but generally speaking because of the colder climate, even during the summer the creature does not feel comfortable in this kind of climate and therefore would rather stay in the hot desert areas or hot tropical areas, as opposed to those regions where there is a much colder climate.

ASKING JAPAN FOR FORGIVENESS FOR ATOM-BOMBING HIROSHIMA AND NAGASAKI

QUESTION:

We have one last question. This one is from Avaton. It's quite lengthy and he asks that all of it be read. It concerns: A journey of repentance will apologize to Japan concerning nuclear weapons. A group seeks forgiveness for US bombings in 1945. The question is: "What sort of impact does this action really accomplish?" It's the bottom line question. Shall I read the whole thing, as he has asked?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Proceed.

QUESTIONER:

"They call their trip "Journey of Repentance." 16 people, most from the Tacoma area, will travel to Japan later this month to acknowledge and ask forgiveness for the destruction caused by the twin US atomic bombings 64 years ago. The Rev. Bill Bichsel, a Tacoma peace activist and Jesuit priest, said the group wants to meet and connect with those who have suffered from the bombings of World War II. "We come with deep sorrow for what has happened with the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki," Bichsel said Monday. "We pledge ourselves not to let this happen again and work toward the elimination of all nuclear weapons."

Bichsel, 81, and two other Tacoma area peace activists are leading the ad hoc interfaith group, which departs July 30 and returns August 11. The group, which includes an American Indian and a Buddhist as well as Christians, will be in Hiroshima on August 6 and Nagasaki on August 9 to attend anniversary ceremonies remembering the attacks. They plan to present signature petitions to city leaders which in part read, "I apologize to the people of Japan for my country's atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki 64 years ago, and ask forgiveness for these atrocities and the ongoing suffering of those affected by radiation."

They will also bring about 3000 origami peace cranes. Students from the holy Rosary Catholic, Sheraton elementary and Bryant Montessori schools in Tacoma made most of the paper cranes. The bombs killed an estimated 220,000 people instantly or within a few months. Japan surrendered to the United States on August 15, 1945, ending the war. Local veterans of World War II, such as retired Army Lieut. Col. Joseph Zelazny, believe Pres. Harry Truman did the right thing by dropping the bombs. Zelazny, 88, remembers Pearl Harbor and disagrees with the journey of repentance. "Why should I feel sorry and apologize to the Japanese for something their own government started?" the Tacoma man said Monday when a reporter told him about the peace mission. "You hate to see a civilian get hit, but what are you going to do? Wait for more of our people to get hit?"

Tom Carlin views things differently. He was a Navy petty officer stationed in Japan in 1957 when he visited a museum in Nagasaki with photos of people fleeing the city's bombing with looks of terror on their faces. Carlin, 73, who lives in Lakewood, said he's making the trip to listen to those who have suffered from that city's bombings, ask forgiveness from them, and promised to work with them to abolish weapons of warfare.

For Bichsel, acknowledging and repenting what was done to Japan is a crucial step for the US to "turn from the path of violence. Deterrence does not work," he said. "Iran and North Korea are examples of that. Our weapons encourage other nations to have weapons."

Your comments please? I'm sorry we don't have the big light on.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would agree that the actions of these few are an important step to bring an acknowledgment of the responsibility of the United States of America for bringing to termination the lives of so many. These few have indeed epitomized that sense of not only regret but recognition that war is not the way, that such violent actions will never achieve peace, no matter who is the first offender, who threw the first stone, or who shot the first bullet or bombed the first plane, or boat or house.

Their actions are the actions of enlightened beings, and while not at this point yet representing the sentiments of a whole nation or a government who is ready to seek peace as the way forward, represents still the first steps towards the awakening of consciousness in the United States of America, the people of America, to take responsibility and apologize for the actions of their forefathers, in this case those who were involved in the war. There are many sentiments still, for this is an event of modern times, and there are those who are still alive at this time who experienced the war itself, who experienced atrocities leveled upon them by the Japanese.

There are those who still walk the Bataan Death March, who remember the brutality of the Japanese. There are those who experienced the atrocities of the Japanese in Shanghai and China. For them, the end justifies the means. For them the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki indeed did end the war early. This is of course debatable. This Awareness is not seeking to debate this issue. It is simply saying that there are others who hold a contrary view, and who feel that the actions of those who went to Japan to apologize are inappropriate. This is based on their own personal understanding of the situation, their own personal memories of those times and their own experiences and the experiences of others at the hands of the Japanese.

There is no right; there is no wrong here. It is simply seen that until those who understand that violence is not the way; that war, death, and destruction is not the way, are the majority, then those who oppose such actions, who hold the majority will be seen to be right, and those who take such actions, such as this small band of enlightened beings, will be seen to be wrong by many. This Awareness supports this action of this small group as an enlightened action, and an action that will lead to a greater awareness by the many.

When a nation stands up and apologizes, then and only then can peace be truly realized and a true and deep healing achieved for the atrocity of the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. This is but one of many atrocities that occur in war. War itself is an atrocity and the times ahead will see a revision of the attitude, the reptilian attitude that war will solve a problem. When this occurs then many will come to realize peace as the way forward. When this occurs, the planet will know peace. This is the answer this Awareness has for this matter.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. That was very much appreciated.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This brings this session to completion at this time. There is much that is transpiring on the planet that will bring a new series of events forward in the not-too-distant future, indeed in the weeks ahead, that will change the minds of many as to the direction that is appropriate for the government of the United States of America, as well as other governments the world over. These events are those events that are transpiring even as this Awareness speaks, and It will have further comment to make upon these events as they unfold in the times ahead. But at this time this Awareness is complete.

Thank you. The Law of Gratitude is that sense of satisfaction where energy which have been given receives a certain reward. Energy that is given moves out on that curved and unequal line and when extended far enough can only return to its source bearing gifts.

WHERE DID THE VACCINES GO?

(Six Million Missing in One Canadian Province)

QUESTION:

There was a recent headline written by an Ottawa reporter concerning the 6 million vaccines that went missing. Does Awareness have a comment on what happened to these, what the circumstances were? Your comments, please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is an example that is not uncommon, that many agencies who are preparing the vaccination have discovered large doses, large quantities of the vaccinations going missing. It is not so much that they are going missing but they are neutralized, and thus ineffective as a vaccination for the alleged Swine flu. It is important to realize that the reports indicate that large doses have gone missing, when in truth the pharmaceutical companies producing the vaccinations do not want it to be known that large amounts of vaccinations that they have prepared already have been neutralized, thus they are ineffective. This would create a marketing nightmare and force the companies to explain why this occurred. There would be a public outcry over this matter and thus rather than report that there were any problems with the processing of the vaccinations, it is simple enough that what was put out is that there are missing doses of vaccinations. This unofficially, for the drug companies did not put any statements out to the press that 6 million doses were missing. This was rather the result of the efforts of the reporter who discovered that 6 million doses of vaccinations were missing, and he ran with that headline. The agencies themselves were hoping that it would just be overlooked in the general chaos of the situation of the vaccination program that was underway in the country of Canada. Unfortunately for those agencies this did not occur and a report went out. This report was very quickly squashed. There has not been a huge outcry other than the outcry that is occurring due to the shortages, which are being explained off as the result of having to switch to the special vaccination that was being produced for pregnant mothers. This is not truly an explanation, but a red herring to take attention off of the fact that millions of doses of vaccinations were destroyed, neutralized.

Another Way the Galactic Federation is Fighting the Elite Not Only in Canada But the USA and Other Countries

This Awareness can say at this time this was a deliberate action on the part of those known as the Galactic Federation, those extraterrestrial beings who are here at this time to oppose those power groupings, those Elite and the plans of the Elite to introduce nanotechnology into the bodies of millions and billions of human beings. Thus it is that the Galactic Federation agents neutralized the vaccinations, destroying its effectiveness, which has caused such shortages in the country of Canada. But that as this Awareness has said, similar problems have occurred in the United States, in Australia, in Europe, in all of the countries where vaccination is occurring. That this is being underplayed, indeed the spin doctors are using it to their advantage in that they are showing long lineups of people wishing to be vaccinated. They understand that by showing such long lineups this is a provocative cue to those watching the news reports, that this is a serious matter; that they must consider getting the vaccination themselves as quickly as possible, and thus causing a run on the agencies where the vaccination was being delivered, was being administered. This too is part of the propaganda to shape the mindsets of the common man, the common woman to feel that they are in danger, to feel the fear around not getting inoculated, around not receiving the vaccination. That hand-in-hand in this have been the reports of deaths of children and young women and mothers, all attributed to the H1N1, but it was not always so that it was the H1N1 that killed the individual. However, in simply claiming that it is so and having the news run the story, most individuals would not stop to think of whether this is a true story or not. They simply become even more frightened to hear of yet another death due to the dreaded H1N1, yet another reason for them to run to the clinics and distribution centers where the drug is being administered, and the vaccination is being handed out.

The Powers That Be Did Not Expect the Intervention of the Galactic Federation

Those who are in power did not expect the intervention of the Galactic Federation. It is for this reason that they originally made claims in all nations involved of massive surplus of the doses of vaccination, that in the smaller country of Canada, its citizens were told that there were 55 million shots of vaccination available to a country of 33 million, and yet within the first several days there were shortages and clinics were being shut down. In the home city of the Interpreter, the local NHL professional hockey team was involved in a scandal, when they received preferential treatment, the team and the family members of the team players being allowed to receive vaccinations on a day when there were extreme shortages of the vaccination. There was an outcry against this preferential treatment of a professional hockey team and their family members, when the public themselves were being turned away at the doors of the public clinics that they had been told they must go to, while the private clinic administered the vaccinations for the hockey players and their families. This is an example of the reporting that is going on, and the treatment of those who allegedly are receiving preferential treatment, that in effect, it was a small amount of vaccinations that were actually administered and was not at all related to the shortage of vaccinations and the shutdown of the public clinics in that city, the city of Calgary. And yet this became a political hot potato and as a result a high official in the health authority responsible for administering the health plan and the delivery of the vaccinations was dismissed. He was the scapegoat, and there will be many scapegoats as the grinding down of the process of vaccination occurs all over the world, for the level of fear has been escalated to such a point that if such events occurred more and more often, there will be a response against those who receive preferential treatment. In this case, it was one hockey team who were not themselves doing anything wrong, nor was it even understood that there would be a shortage at that time, nor that the management of the team would be involved in such an extensive marketing disaster, that they then had to address, that it has always been the case that there is preferential treatment given to those who are considered more worthy of such treatment. The actual treatment that a sports team may have received is not even the true vaccination against the flu-like disease that is being released at this time, and that those who truly are the important ones in the eyes of society's Elite have already received the vaccination or have it handy for them, that in effect the vaccination that is being handed out allegedly to prevent the H1N1 flu is not even the true vaccination against this flu. It has an ulterior purpose as this Awareness has already spoken of in the past, and that there is available to those who are the Elite, those who are part of the upper echelon, a different vaccination that was prepared in advance of the release of the viral agent that has come to be known as the H1N1. Yet, there still will be controversies against such teams as the professional hockey team that received preferential treatment. There will be a hue and cry against others who also are seen to be receiving preferential treatment, especially as there will be continued shortages of the vaccination.

The Galactic Federation is Also Serving the Powers-That-Be

The Galactic Federation is indeed involved in this, but it is also serving those who would create panic, who would create upheaval and chaos. Therefore it is seen that those agents of the Galactic Federation may switch their tactics somewhat. While it is possible for them to destroy huge amounts of vaccinations at a time, it is to some degree serving to elicit more chaos and fear, as those who have now been brainwashed, who believe that their lives depend on them receiving the vaccination, go to the mentality of the mob. It is even seen by this Awareness a possibility of riots occurring if the shortage of vaccinations becomes too much and those who are in the extreme fear decide to take matters into their own hands, but this is not seen as an immediate situation, that this would again serve the Powers-That-Be, for they do always look for those opportunities to control the people. But this is not something that needs to be focused on, this is more a result of an extreme reaction of the masses in fear that they may not receive the vaccination that they have been brainwashed to believe is their salvation. Much may occur before this type of activity occurs, that the Galactic Federation has other ways of neutralizing the nanotechnology contained in the vaccination, and that they are not giving up or withdrawing from this battle. It is simply seen that they will continue to come up with ways to neutralize the potency of the vaccinations and drugs being issued, and even neutralizing them once they have been delivered, once a person has received the vaccination itself.

Injecting Nanotechnology Has Replaced the 'Mark of the Beast'

This is all seen by this Awareness as part of the overall plan of the Galactic Federation forces to counteract the actions of the Orion-Reptilian faction, the New World Order, the Elites to dominate the planet by injecting mankind with the nanotechnology which will give them complete and total control over humanity; that this is seen as the chip technology this Awareness spoke of many years ago, that which has been referred to as the 'Mark of the Beast'. Original plans were for the chip to be injected under the skin of the hand. However with technological advancements this plan was dropped a number of years ago and the new plan became one of mass inoculation of the nano probes through mass vaccination. This is indeed what is occurring at this time, and it is indeed the plan that has been long held by the Powers-That-Be and is now finally being delivered as promised. This Awareness is complete in Its reflection of the current state of affairs.

"Kiss My Hiney"—How the Powers-That-Be Taunt Humanity

There is, however one last point, a minor point that this Awareness wishes to point out to those who may have not seen the bizarre taunting of the Powers-That-Be in this matter. By this, this Awareness is specifically referring to the designation of what previously was known as the Swine flu epidemic to the H1N1 virus. At first, this would seem a neutral designation for this virus. And yet when one looks at the lettering and reads instead of a 1, an I, then one would see the word hiney, HINI, that this of course is a word that is designated to represent one's posterior appendage, that the Powers-That-Be love to hold something like this up to the noses of the public, rubbing their noses in it. It is as if they are indeed saying: "Kiss my hiney". They think this is a matter of great humor, and yet this could not be further from the case. This Awareness points this out simply as a way of enlightening those to the brand of humor that is held by those who have power at such high levels, who have separated themselves from the masses, and see the masses as nothing more than those who take their resources away from them, those who need to be controlled and used for the benefit of the Elite. This Awareness does not think this is a good joke. This Awareness is now complete in Its observations.

QUESTIONER

Thank you, it isn't funny. It just struck me funny.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness appreciates why the energizer chuckled, and when put out this way, there is an element of humor to the matter, and in a manner of speaking, this Awareness has presented this to add humor to the situation for the Powers-That-Be know that this is a joke, and perhaps it would be good for those who are aware of what is occurring to always think of it as a joke, one not to be taken seriously.

VACCINES NOT NEUTRALIZED

(Did They Actually Cause Deaths?)

QUESTION:

Indeed, thank you. I must ask, has any of the vaccination released so far, that was not neutralized, and if so, did this vaccine actually cause the reported deaths that are now being indicated?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that there are indeed cases of the vaccination that was not neutralized, the earlier vaccination that was released several weeks ago as being responsible for not only deaths but illness as well. They will not try to report the negative outcomes of injected individuals who have had an adverse reaction to the Swine flu, H1N1 vaccination, but it is seen that the extraterrestrial beings known as the Galactic Federation force did not manage to neutralize the first doses of vaccination that went out hence some of the negative results that have been heard of.

Pregnant Women & Young Children: Should they worry?

QUESTIONER:

I see, thank you. There is concern about the women, the pregnant women, and the young children that are receiving this vaccination. Would it be fair to say that its now been neutralized and they need not worry?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness asks if the Energizer is referring to the vaccination that has been neutralized or the H1N1 virus that has been neutralized.

QUESTIONER:

The vaccinations that are presently being clamored for.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

In a manner of speaking, the health authorities administering the vaccinations did not know that some of the vaccinations were being neutralized, and they went through the procedure of administering the vaccination as if it was the vaccination they had been told it was. This creates that which is known as a placebo effect, that many who receive the neutralized vaccination still believe that it is the real thing, and as a result, they will have a protection from the virus because of their innate ability to create a strong immunization system against attack by the virus itself. Therefore, in a manner of speaking, this is a positive action, and that the women and children will feel relieved, because they received this vaccination. Does this answer your question?

QUESTIONER:

Yes, partially. Were the deaths actually reported? Were these indeed caused by the H1N1?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This in the affirmative.

QUESTIONER:

So it was not just a weak immune system then, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

A weak immune system is part and parcel of this, that the individuals who died indeed died of a viral attack. But that for most individuals, most children who have been receiving this flu, this virus, it is like most viruses, in that it will take approximately one week to 10 days to go through. Unfortunately there are those who will submit to the viral agent itself, who will submit to the physical onslaught and who will unfortunately die as a result. Recently there was the death of a young boy in the city of Toronto, Ontario, Canada that's astounded the authorities, that he picked up a viral agent and was dead within 24 hours. It was alleged that it was the H1N1 virus that had killed him. This Awareness does not see that it was, and yet such is the panic and fear, such is the manipulation and control of the media, that it was presented as a death by the H1N1 virus. A doctor at that time, came forth and said on the television news that this was an extremely rare event, that this child who was healthy in all other ways should not have succumbed to the H1N1 virus, and that such events were extremely rare, one in 250,000. It is not seen by this Awareness that this doctor understood exactly what he was saying for had he understood he would never have said what he said, he would never have gone in front of the cameras. For what he indeed was saying is that very few will actually die of the H1N1 if their immune systems are healthy and strong, and that occasionally when someone has a strong and healthy immune system, and still succumbs, that this in and of itself would be an extremely rare event. And yet no one seems to have picked up on what he said, no one seems to have linked it with the truth, and thus it is that many still succumb to the lies and propaganda and brainwashing that has been put out about the virus itself, are believing every report that comes forward that the H1N1 is indeed a killer of the masses, when professional doctors themselves come forward and state how few would die if their immune systems are strong and healthy.

SPECIFIC STEPS TO STRENGTHEN THE IMMUNE SYSTEM

QUESTIONER:

Another question please. To strengthen the immune system then, is there specific steps that should always be taken?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There are indeed steps that could be taken. Fresh fruit, vegetables, of course would be highly recommended by this Awareness. Taking the vitamins C and D, as well as the B vitamin complex. There are also many other immune boosting natural products that can be taken that will also be beneficial to increasing the immune system, and that of course this Awareness would highly recommend Silver colloidal water to be taken on a daily basis, to ensure the high potency of one's immune system. There are many ways of ensuring a healthy and strong immune system, but this Awareness does not need to go specifically into a step-by-step program. It simply recommends that one go to the health food stores or to a naturopath or alternative doctors and find the solutions and the answers. For those who are inclined to go onto the Internet, to find the different authorities and read what is being said of how to increase one's immune system naturally so that the virus is less likely to have an effect. There are many avenues to be pursued here. This Awareness does not feel the need to give specific instructions on what exactly to do, when there are many ways in which to strengthen the immune system and prevent infections by this particular virus.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. Plus there have been readings on this before and the information is available through the Master Index. Would you say that would be correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is indeed so, and that it is recommended that those who are interested in what has been spoken of previously go to the Master Index of the files of Cosmic Awareness Communications newsletter and seek further information.

THE RETURN OF THE TV SERIES "V" (New Anti-Alien Series May Backfire On The-Powers-That-Be)

QUESTION:

I have a question, which is mine. It concerns the TV series from the 80s: the "V" revival. There is a lot of publicity about the revival of this series. I wondered why now it's being brought back. Just to confirm, is this series attempts by the Powers-That-Be to create massive worldwide fear concerning a possible Galactic Federation contact? Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

First, this Awareness would ask the Energizer to be more specific.

Is the series from the 1980s being released once again?

QUESTIONER:

Yes, I believe it was on the night before last, or last night, I don't recall.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

That this is the original series that is being shown again, is this so?

QUESTIONER:

I didn't see the first one, I would assume that it is probably along the same storyline, but whether it is in fact the same, I don't know.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that this is the same series that was originally produced in the 1980s, but a newer version based on the technologies and the times of this time, 2009.

QUESTIONER:

That would make sense, yes. Do you have a comment on it, please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is available to make comment on this series. The planned First Contact that this Awareness has spoken of in the past, and that has been prophesied by such individuals as Blossom Goodchild, is an event that is still online, that is still being planned to occur; that with the First Contact with the arrival of the mother ships in the air, mankind will be launched into a whole new era of reality and life. Life as it was once known will change dramatically overnight with the arrival of the extraterrestrial crafts, the Galactic Federation crafts. At the same time, those who are here already, those who are part of that which is the Orion-Reptilian faction, including those known as the Greys, are realizing that more and more opinion is shifting towards a readiness for First Contact.

More Than 70% of Americans Believe in ETs

More than 70% of the American populace believe that there are extraterrestrials out there, believe that it is only a matter of time before contact is made, and evidence provided of extraterrestrial life, and not just life as a molecular form under the dry sand beds of Mars, but actual sentient beings, capable of interstellar travel, capable of arriving on this planet and communicating with humanity. This is known to be so by those Powers-That-Be, and that they are engaging in a form of damage control. While their intent for reintroducing the series "V" is to put a bad light on extraterrestrial beings arriving onto the planet, saying that they are here to benefit mankind, to help humanity, they do not understand that this is an action that may well backfire on them. Because the Reptilians are being portrayed in the series as the bad guys, and while it may be their hope to short-circuit the intent of the Galactic Federation as it finally shows up and presents itself, it is not seen by this Awareness that this will succeed ultimately, that indeed, the presentation of those who are Galactic Federation members will proceed as planned, and that the series itself will backfire against the Orion-Reptilian faction, and those who are shown to be Reptilian will not be accepted or trusted. There is much subterfuge still in this matter, that the reason for introducing the series is to create a disbelief of those who present themselves, those extraterrestrial beings who present themselves as good folk arrive, that they will not be believed or trusted, but that this will not prove to be the case. Does this answer the question of the Energizer?

QUESTIONER:

Yes it does, and it's much appreciated. I'm sure that particular question was on the minds of many.

THE RELEASE OF THE MOVIE "2012"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would further add that there is also a movie soon to be released, indeed that within a week's time the movie 2012 will be released. That while this is an attempt to frighten humanity with the understanding that that event known as 2012 will be a catastrophe, a calamity beyond belief, what this movie will also do is introduce the concept of the world's ending at that time, 2012, and that as a result, it will be brought much more into consciousness than it has been up until now. While this Awareness has spoken for many years of 2012, while there are many many around who have been speaking of this event and of Ascension, there are indeed very few in the public who are aware of the significance of 2012. That for most, simply knowing that their sports team might win the World Series, or that they have enough money to pay the bills and the mortgage, or that they are getting their simple pleasures met is enough for them, there are not many in mass consciousness who worry about such heavy events as the Ascension of humanity into a higher state of consciousness and being. The introduction of the film will bring into mass consciousness the knowledge of this upcoming event, for the Powers-That-Be do realize and know that there will be chaotic events occurring between now and the date given as December 21, 2012. They understand that there will be many catastrophes, and people are starting to hear more and more of that event that is being called the "End of the World" and that presenting this movie is to confirm that it will be a chaotic event of such magnitude that it will destroy the planet. One of the reasons for this film by those who have the power to allow it to be produced and delivered is to create a level of fear and panic at the concept and thought of 2012, that this fear, this angst, this panic will be used against those very people who have such high fear and panic, as the social order begins to fragment and disintegrate.

Nanotechnology Will Then be Used to Create Zombies

It is at that time that those Powers-That-Be will begin to use the technology that is currently being distributed among the masses, that which is the nanotechnology meant to control the masses, meant to dummy-down consciousness, meant to create living breathing zombies. They are using this technology at this time in preparation for events at a later time, and are at the same time creating mass fear, mass hysteria so that the use of martial arms, martial law can be provoked at a time of the Powers-That-Be's designation of such.

There is here a matter to be understood that involves the Powers-That-Be's taking away an individual's capacity to look beyond such a catastrophe. By introducing the concept that this will be a worldwide cataclysm that may well destroy and end the planet as it is now known, will deliver the individuals who are fearful of this into the hands of those who have power. That by controlling through fear, and hysteria and technology, it is felt by those who have power that they will ultimately be in charge and in control when these events happen. It is further hoped that by introducing the concepts of mass destruction, worldwide cataclysms that many, when they start to experience the examples of disintegration of their planet, of their social structure, of their norms will go into the intense fear that is being laid down at these times, and as a result, may well commit suicide, taking themselves out of the equation before they ever become a problem to the Powers-That-Be. There are many reasons why those who have ultimate power would wish to have a society that is living in fear and hysteria. It is easier to control such crowds, both through the technologies that they now have, as well as through the use of military force and might. This is all part of that which is the changing of the order of things, and will continue to escalate in the next three years.

It is also seen here that there are opposing factors that are also coming into play more and more. At this very time, the second wave of that which is the Ra-Ta project is indeed being released. Thus it is that many more are starting to question the authorities, starting to question the plan of things, and are starting to wake up and smell the coffee, that this has been done at a time of extreme chaos and vibrational disparity.

Vibrational Disparity and Upheaval:

Lightworkers Are Now Experiencing Chaotic Energies

By this, this Awareness means that there has been a chaotic energy or vibration in the last several weeks on the planet itself. Many of the lightworkers have indeed experienced this, the Interpreter included, that this feeling of anxiety, and even physical problems, such as a shortage of breath or a strange vibration of the body has been reported by many of the lightworkers. It is to be understood that this is simply an indication that there are changes going on, and those that are sensitive to such changes will experience them as vibrational disparity and upheaval, will feel anxious and stressed. That as this Awareness has mentioned, many of the lightworkers have been negatively affected of late, even feeling sometimes that they are under psychic attack, because they have drawn to them certain energies that have attached themselves to them. This is all part and parcel of the events that are occurring on other dimensional planes of consciousness, just beyond that which is third dimensional, and that it is indicative of the changing times and changing energies, it is indicative of the expansion of consciousness that is occurring.

Do Not Submit to the Anxiety or Stress Happening Now ("Whatever Gets You Through the Night is All Right")

The most important fact in this matter is that one does not submit to the anxiety or the stress, that one does whatever one needs to do at this time to help one get through these difficult times. The entity John Lennon did indeed have a song that said "Whatever gets you through the night is all right". This Awareness is not, and It must be clear here, It is not advocating the use of alcohol or illegal drugs to get one through the night. This cannot be condoned by this Awareness, but It is saying, that if one needs to stand up when one is feeling anxious or tense, or has to get up when one would normally be sleeping, that one do this for a period of time. If one needs to take a natural ingredient, such as Valerian to calm oneself, then this would be alright. If one needs to phone a friend, if they have a friend that they can phone at such times, that this would be alright. There are many ways to get through the scattered energies of the last several weeks and that things are already starting to stabilize once again. Indeed, by the time most read this message, things will be much more stable than they have been over the last two weeks, and one will look back on those events almost as if they are long forgotten and are hardly able to retrieve the memory of those experiences. However, this Awareness is saying that they are examples of how consciousness is shifting, how events are starting to open up, how the envelope is being pushed back more and more, day by day. This Awareness is complete.

2012 INFORMATION: HE CAN'T SEEM TO ABSORB THE ENORMITY OF THE CHANGES HAPPENING

QUESTION:

Thank you. That was very helpful, and very appreciated. There is another question concerning 2012, actually two. The first one is from Robert Burns, in Landsdale, Pennsylvania. He writes: "I read very carefully each issue of the Revelations of Awareness, especially the articles pertaining to the year 2012 change. I have read these particular articles several times, but try as I might I do not understand what is said, it just seems like words. The most recent information was entitled "What to Expect on December 21, 2012 - The Moment of Ascension". The statements indicate that we can choose at that time what to do. How do we know how to make these decisions? This whole issue is more than I can comprehend. Many of your readers seem to grasp an understanding, based on the questions asked. However, to me it is impossible to absorb the enormity of the change that is to take place." Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would then suggest that the individual does not try to absorb the enormity of the changes that will take place. That instead, the individual simply be aware that times are changing, that there is an expansion of consciousness that is occurring, that there are forces that are trying to oppress those changes, that are trying to shut them down, control and manipulate. This Awareness just finished speaking of physical events and experiences that many of the lightworkers were having in the last several weeks. These were very real to those having such experiences, and very frightening. For many, it was the first time perhaps, that they have had a physical experiencing of the words that this Awareness has been speaking: that there are changes coming, that they are already occurring. But the important thing is not to become fixated over the changes that are coming or overwhelmed by them. The important thing is to stay focused in one's life, to continue living it in whole measure, being aware that there are changes occurring, that the individual may or may not begin to have such experiences themselves, or see it in others or hear others speak of strange events and occurrences. At every opportunity that is presented, to grow and to expand, that one simply step forward without judgment or expectation, open to the opportunity whatever it might be, always moving forward in that understanding that indeed profound changes are taking place and that one aligns himself to the changes and to the expansion in their own lives, toward their own higher consciousness, however that may represent itself to them. To become overwhelmed by the descriptions of this Awareness, by the words of this Awareness as to the events that are coming would not fully serve an individual, if they are too stressful for them. Again, the best would be to simply live day-by-day, living in the moment, knowing that things are changing, knowing that the world as it is now will soon radically alter. And that one asks and seeks and focuses their intent on that which is the change, that which is the accessing of their higher levels of consciousness, their higher knowing of self. Does this perhaps help the individual understand how to deal with the attention without becoming overwhelmed. This Awareness asks this of the Energizer.

QUESTIONER:

Yes, it does make sense. If Robert has additional questions, it is asked that he present those, please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed, this is so. This Awareness welcomes further questions from this entity.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO C.A.C? (When 2012 Arrives?)

QUESTION:

Thank you, or any others who may be having difficulty understanding. Next question is from Amelita Concepcion of Reno Nevada. She writes concerning 2012 as well. Her question: "Once the year 2012 arrives and the world separates into Planet A and Planet B, what will happen to the Cosmic Awareness organization? Will you disappear from Planet B into Planet A, or will you decide to stay behind on Planet B because that is where people will need to still be helped?" Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The first comment that this Awareness wishes to make, and it is a comment It wanted to make in the first question presented a moment ago, is that that date that is December 21, 2012 or a time close to this, as this Awareness has spoken before, this is not written in stone, it is simply indicative of the ending of a period, a time, an Age; that be it as it may be, December 21, 2012 represents the completion of the ascension process, not the beginning. It is not as if all will simply happen on this one day, but rather events are already underway, many many upheavals on all levels-- mental, emotional, physical as well as spiritual, and that many will start to experience the upheaval in their own personal lives in different ways. Many in the United States of America are experiencing difficult times due to the financial upheaval of the last several months. This is not ended, there will be more financial upheaval, as well as physical cataclysms and events.

What 2012 Truly Represents

What 2012 truly represents is the termination and cessation of the chaotic events, the catastrophes and the upheavals. But by then those who will have chosen into that expanded awareness of consciousness will have done so, either through a conscious participation, a conscious ascension into higher consciousness, or due to physical death, at which point they would leave the physical life and return back into their soul, back to their essence. Those who would wish to continue on in the material physical reality may do so in various ways. The most extreme expression of this would be the destruction of planet Earth's surface to a degree that the majority of individuals would be destroyed at that time, and those who survived would have to survive in primitive arrangements underground. It is not seen that there would be much need for the organization Cosmic Awareness Communications at that time, for the distribution of the newsletter, even such things as the mailing of the newsletter to the membership would simply not exist any longer. There would not be any way to get the information out there, and thus it is seen that the extreme expression of that which is the planet B scenario would not see a continuance of that organization now known as Cosmic Awareness Communications. Similarly, it is seen that there would not be much need for the organization to exist on a highly evolved planet, where all who inhabit it have the ability to move in and out of physical consciousness. They would also have the ability to become familiar with those higher levels of consciousness, and many would be able to communicate directly with this Awareness Itself. There would not be a need for a middleman, there would not be a need for an organization to put out the word of this Awareness, It would be a more direct experiencing of this, as the reality of that which is planet A. That the in-between area is the area where there might be a parallel universe, or a parallel line of consciousness the possibility of that organization which is known as Cosmic Awareness Communications still continuing in some shape or form. This will be decided by those individuals who are involved in the organization at that time. As this Awareness has said, there will be multibillion, multi-.....rather, an infinite amount of possible scenarios available to those individual consciousnesses that are available at that time. In other words, there will be as many realities as there are individuals who can conceptualize the reality of their experience. For some, there may indeed still be that organization known as Cosmic Awareness Communications. For others, there will not, for their concerns and needs are directed in another direction entirely, and there is no need for the organization Cosmic Awareness Communications. This Awareness hopes that this has not confused the matter too much at this time, but It does hope that It has explained the possible choices that might be available.

WHERE WILL THE INTERNET GO?

QUESTION:

Yes, it does indeed. A related question from Milton C. Hill. He asks: "Do you think the Internet will go to Planet A, or will it cease to be?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

What need would there be for an Internet service based on physical technology? This works well on a third dimensional planet, but it must be understood that when those who have achieved the higher levels of consciousness appear on those planets, on planet A and the various themes, various models of planet A, there will not be seen to be a need to have such technology. However, those realities that have not jumped as much and as far as that which is the possibility of full ascension, may still be in a situation where technology has a role to play, has a purpose. It is in those strata of consciousness, those realities that that which is the Internet may still serve a purpose. For that which is the planet B scenario in its worst extreme, there would simply not be any technology available, other than that which is held by the Elite, those who have power, if they themselves survive such a violent transition.

QUESTIONER:

Question please. Is there a possibility they may not?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed there is a possibility they may not. If the extreme catastrophic events occur that this Awareness has spoke of before do indeed occur, then it is unlikely that even the Elite will be able to survive as they expect to at this time. Again, what qualifies this is the reality that an individual might choose for himself as the experience of their life.

THE PHOTON BELT—AN UPDATE

QUESTION:

I understand, thank you. That was very informative from that little simple question! There is another question from Mary Joyce Skinner of Gulfport, Mississippi. It concerns the photon belt. Would you please offer an update on the photon belt? How long will we be in it, have we been through it, and what was the effect it had on our planet? Thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

To some degree, the whole of the solar system that is so has already advanced into the photon belt, at least it is seen as the outer perimeter of that which is the photon belt. It will enter the most extreme portion of the photon belt around the date December 21, 2012. It is at this time the other events that this Awareness has spoken of will also occur and that there will be a combination of events, including the darkening and that transition phase, including the high vibrations of light passing through. It must be understood here that when this Awareness speaks of light, it is not necessarily the case that individuals will experience light as that brilliant flashing of light as it is now known. It is a high energetic energy that will pass through at the time of the photon belt's most extreme effect, and that many may see this as a flashing of light in the extreme darkness, but at that point the final completion of the Ascension will be indeed complete, and that many will either come through on the other side and continue with their lives, or they will not. Therefore, in another way of answering, this Awareness says that the final and total experiencing of the photon belt will occur on December 21, 2012.

AN UPDATE ON NIBIRU

(The 12th Planet)

QUESTION:

Thank you. A little while back there was information on Nibiru, is it still on its way or has it just passed by the planet?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness asks if the Energizer is asking of the planet Nibiru.

QUESTIONER:

The planet with the Annunaki inside?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is that which is known as the 12th planet.

QUESTIONER:

Yes, thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that the planet Nibiru is still approaching Earth, and is still a distance away.

QUESTIONER:

No need to worry about it right now?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Not at this point. It is capable of launching long-distance craft that can reach the earth at this time, but the planet itself is still seen as a distance away.

QUESTION:

Thank you. Is it possible the Galactic Federation will appear prior to this happening, or would this be after this happens?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The Galactic Federation will appear prior to this, it is already appearing in many locations, many are starting to see more and more UFOs, and there are actual contacts that are being made, although they are not reaching the press.

QUESTION:

What a shame! That's too bad. Would these appear on the Internet by chance?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

They are already appearing on the Internet. One simply needs to know where to look.

QUESTIONER:

Would you like to share?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not surf the Internet, that It can only say to the members who do so, to search for such stories, they are available on the Internet.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. This is much appreciated. Okay, we have about 200 left, it's basically all on this topic, shall I go to another topic, or would you prefer to do a closing message?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness asks how much time is left, approximately.

QUESTIONER:

I would say about 20 minutes.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Then please proceed with another question.

CAN ORION LEADERS EVER RETURN TO THE GOD FORCE?

QUESTION:

This question comes from Kathy Kevany. I don't have a location for her. She writes: "I have read often that all will eventually return to the God force. Years ago I read, I think in the Ra material, that the highest that can be attained following service to self is the 7th density. If so, what would be a possible scenario where, say, a high-ranking leader of the Orion Empire would return to the God force? And would 'he' have to start at the bottom and work 'his' way up? Comments please?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The scenario for a high-ranking Orion arriving at a high level of conscious understanding and awareness is relatively low, this for the sake of that being the situation involved in being Orion, that their purpose is domination, control, manipulation, the usury of planets and their inhabitants, the Earth of course included. As long as one holds such as their goals and their purpose, arrival at the seventh density, or the seventh plane or the seventh dimension is not seen as a likelihood. It would involve too much of a contrast for that individual, between what they believe in and what they experience. They could not reach that level of consciousness. They would have to before, overthrow their ways and their commitment to their philosophy and their masters, those who would control the societies itself, that this can only be done through a process of spiritual devotion and commitment. If a high-level Orion were to first evolve, start to question the validity of the practices of his own race, who he may even be a leader of, then perhaps he would start on a path of development that would eventually lead him or her, to that which is the seventh plane. But they must first go through many lifetimes, and many many experiences of why the way that they have been for so long does not fit to that which is the highest standard and the highest purpose. Yet they would also experience along the way an understanding of why they chose to play the roles they played, and to be part of that mass unfolding of consciousness that is the case. At some point, they would even need to forgive themselves for their actions, and move forward along that long curving line that would eventually take them to Ascension, and it is at Ascension that one finally can achieve the seventh plane of existence. Unless and until any individual, human, Orion, Reptilian, Arcturian, reaches that level of understanding and awareness, there is not a hope for the individual to touch the seventh plane. But this Awareness would also add that there have been Orions who have made exactly such a journey, who have been touched by the expansion of consciousness that is the God force in the seventh plane, and who are trying to affect their own citizens and people to start looking within themselves. There are Reptilians who have also made such a journey, who are trying also to bring forth the higher understanding of consciousness, and there are indeed ascended Masters from the human race who have indeed been touched by God, and have presented themselves on the seventh plane, and have been affected by it. It is a long, drawn-out purpose, it is the spiritual purpose of each and every sentient being to expand their consciousness, to strive for the higher understanding and awareness that is God itself, and to become part of that, to return back to the Godhead, the God force.

This Awareness is complete.

DIRECT PRAYERS TO GOD

(Why Aren't They Mentioned as the Source of ALL Healing?)

QUESTION:

Thank you. Another question concerning God. This is from Michelle Behleem in Hawaii. She asks: "Why are direct prayers to God not mentioned as being the source for all of our healing, support of life as humans rather than depending on our higher selves as if we are God and in control? Or depending on other dimensional beings who themselves come from God as well. If it were not for God being the Creator of all that is, no one and nothing would exist. I am confused at this time about this. I myself always pray to God directly. When I was growing up Catholic, I could never accept the teaching that Jesus was the son of God. It did not click right with me. Then during one of these Tuesday night sessions years ago, it was mentioned that Jesus was a great teacher, a prophet just like Abraham, Moses, Mohammed, etc. Then it clicked. So I want to be able to click again with all these confusing informations about our abilities versus our reliability on God to lead us down the path of humanness. I do understand that guides, whether they be angels or ascended Masters, or other are always there to help us and have countless times helped me. But are they sent directly by God to render their assistance in answer to my prayers?" Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

That this opens a huge vast arena, much greater than this Awareness has at this time the energy or time to answer. It wishes however to make several statements. The individual herself separates herself from that which is God, and still sees it as outside of herself, rather than understand that that which is God, the essence of All That Is, is within her and that she herself is God, as is every other expression of the life force energy of the universe, and beyond. All is that which is of the God essence, and thus it is that she seeks to know herself, as all humans and all beings seek to know themselves, who are capable of asking the questions at such a level. That her prayers to God are in one way prayers to herself, although she must separate herself from that deity she expresses as God, or that which could be called the God Almighty, the Creator of all, the source of one and all and All That Is.

Some Ways to Reach the Higher Levels of Consciousness

There are several ways to reach the higher levels, that that which is the God essence is expressed at the level of the seventh density, the seventh dimension and beyond. That below the seventh are the various layers of consciousness that descend down to that which is the first level of consciousness, that mankind resides in the third dimension. It is possible to reach to the seventh through that which is the higher aspect of consciousness that designates the human individual, that which is the high self. That in unity with the low self and the middle self, that which is the trinity of one's being, the oneness, the wholeness of one's being, can move directly to that which is the seventh plane and experience that which is the God essence, the energy of God Almighty. The more traditional way that has been pursued over the millennia is to proceed toward the seventh through the various levels and layers of consciousness, that immediately beyond the third dimension is that which is the fourth dimension, that which intercedes third and fifth, that is distinct and unique in and of itself; that many will go into this level of consciousness when they leave their physical body, experiencing that which is the bardos levels, experiencing that which is often referred to even as purgatory. There are stages within stages, layers upon layers, levels upon levels, and that ultimately one comes through that which is fourth dimension, entering that which is fifth dimension. It is at the fifth dimension that most experience that concept of heaven, where most will return upon death and their passage through fourth dimension, arriving at that place of freedom and magic, if you will, where they are able to form their reality through their conscious thought, through their connection with those higher beings. Again, there are many layers and levels to this, that the angelic level or realm exists in that which is the fifth dimension. The ascended Masters level is also a higher level of the fifth, as are the levels of ancestors and guides, that beyond this is that which is the sixth level, or dimension: This is where those layers of consciousness that define Cosmic Laws and Truths lie. That beyond this lies the seventh, that which is the dominion of God Almighty, at the lower level of the God force, Godhead, an intersecting point, that it is this layer or level that is ultimately known as Celestria, that which is the divine realm. That for many, to reach this level seems to be the highest level of all, but there are those dimensions that lie beyond. That one can talk to God Almighty as It exists in the seventh layer or plane of existence, and have a direct experience, a direct knowing of God, and be in contact with that force, that universal energy that is the Divine, that is God Almighty. That the practice known as Theta therapy works with the concept that the God force can be reached, that one can access the seventh plane and request assistance from the seventh plane, and that this is a valid concept. A limitation to this concept is their understanding that there is nothing beyond the seventh plane. This Awareness is not in agreement, It does state that there are several additional planes of consciousness moving to that which is the 13th plane, which is total Godhead, God force, All That Is. That there are many ways of communicating, either through the layers to the ascended Masters, or to bypass, to go directly to the seventh plane and work downwards from that level to work with fifth dimensional reality and the denizens of those levels of consciousness. This is a pursuit that is infinite in its possibilities, and the journey itself is the ultimate spiritual journey, to know one's true self, to understand the higher levels of consciousness and the degrees of consciousness in between. This Awareness is complete. It is, however open to more questions on this subject at later times.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. I'll make a note of that, to go into it later. Thank you for that comment. We have about five minutes or so. Did you wish to do a closing message now?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Stressful Experiences Will Soon Pass

The closing message that this Awareness has at this time is that the changes are truly beginning to accelerate at this time, that many of the lightworkers, wanderers, spiritual seekers are beginning to feel this swift change. It is not always favorable, it is not always comfortable, but to hold on to the thought, and to the pledge that there is that which lies beyond, that each and every individual who is seeking that which is the Greater Truth of God, of consciousness, of the expansion of one's conscious self will go through the uncomfortable times, will go through the stressful experiences, will pass through those events and circumstances of one's life that challenge one. It is part of the journey. One does not take a shortcut in this matter, but must proceed through the different challenges that present themselves along the way. These are indeed challenging times, but they are not without promise or without hope. To bear this in mind as one goes through challenging experiences, uncomfortable events, that there is always the promise that God, or Spirit, or the Divine walks with you, that the Divine walks before you, behind you, above you, below you and on all sides, that you are always surrounded by the love of that which is the Divine, that which is God Almighty, that which is All That Is. And to touch this would be to know the bliss of that which is sacred, that which is hallowed, that which is holy.

This Awareness is complete at this time.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

THE REAL MEANING OF "BEING COMPLETE"

(Cosmic Awareness Introduces a New Concept)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to introduce a new concept for the readership to consider, including in their daily affirmations, their daily projection of thought. This Awareness has already spoken of the power of simply asking in the morning: What miracle awaits me today? There is a new line of thinking this Awareness would also introduce to the readership for their own growth and development. This Awareness often ends Its commentary by saying "This Awareness is complete." The most obvious reference is that the Awareness is complete in the answer of the questions, but a secondary level to this meaning also exists.

A Statement Entities Should Now Add in Their Affirmations

This Awareness is complete and whole. It is One in All of Its own understanding and Its being. It is complete. This suggests that individuals in their own way, in their own timing, add this as a statement of affirmation into their own lives. The statement of affirmation being: "I am complete!" The reason this Awareness is suggesting this is because there is often an assumption that an individual is not complete, is not whole, is not finished with the many complex areas of their own being. This implies that individuals often feel that they are less than complete. They are not whole. Something is missing.

This often drives individuals to search over and over again those painful areas of their lives, those areas of discrepancy, those places of their own misunderstanding of self that in many cases prevents the individual from moving forward. There is even a reluctance to end a certain passage of understanding to one's life, the passage of a lifetime, so that it might move forward. Thus it is that some will go over and over their own limitations, their own failings, their own misunderstanding of what went wrong, or perhaps their understanding of what went wrong, seeking to come to an answer, and in the repetition of events, over and over again, they keep themselves in the pain cycles of their lives, for it is the practice on the planet at this time to work under the premise: "No pain, no gain."

"I Am Complete" Will Start You Understanding

Many of the spiritual seekers operate with this perception also, that they must understand themselves to an ultimate degree before they can move on. This Awareness is suggesting now that by using the affirmation: "I am complete!" will complete the process and move the individual forward. They will start to change that repetitive behavior where they seek to understand all that went wrong in previous times of their lives, at the present time, or even their past lives. This statement:

"I am complete!" will allow a new resonance to occur in the energetic field of their own individual consciousness and this will bring the individual forward, to a point of wholeness, oneness and completion.

"I am complete!" will help the individual find that wholeness that they truly are seeking, that many of the Light Workers are seeking, without continually going back over and over to those most painful periods and experiences of one's life. It will allow healing to occur in a new way, for there may not even be the need to heal if one is truly complete, one is truly whole, one is One with oneself. Thus it is that this Awareness offers this as something to be added to the retinue, to the thoughts that one can introduce in their morning meditation, or at any point of the day. It does not have to simply be a thought or an affirmation that is given out in the morning.

This is again, a concept that this Awareness wishes to introduce to help change the way that individuals think, to move individuals away from a review of negative experiences, thoughts and patterns, into one of positive understanding of oneself and one's wholeness.

This Awareness again invites the membership to experiment with this and to try this out and to see if it makes a difference to one's concept and conceptualization of themselves as whole and complete beings.

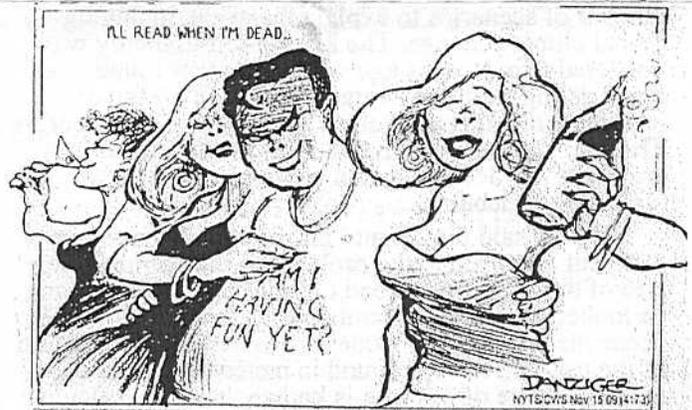

This Awareness is complete.

QUESTIONER:

( Thank you) That was beautiful, and really really unique. Thank you.

DID ASTEROID REALLY KILL ALL DINOSAURS?

QUESTION:

The next question is from Avaton. The headline is "Dinosaur-Killing Asteroid's Size Knocked Down by Scientists." The article is by John Johnson Jr. of the Los Angeles Times. He writes, "The asteroid that wiped out the dinosaurs might not have been the whopper the scientists thought. An analysis of the chemical remains of the asteroid, which can still be found in sediments under the sea today, shows the rock was about 2.5 miles wide, according to Francois Paquay, a geology professor at the University of Hawaii. That's less than half the six-mile wide space boulder that past researchers have suggested was the dinosaur-killer, according to the research published Friday in the journal Science."

The dinosaurs, which ruled earth for 160 million years went extinct at the end of the Cretaceous period about 65 millions years ago. Scientists have studied a number of scenarios to explain the event, including global climate change. The killer asteroid theory was bolstered two decades ago when scientists found in the rocks dating from the Cretaceous period a band of iridium, a metal rare on earth but common in meteorites. The later discovery of the 110-mile-wide Chicxulub crater off Mexico's Yucatan peninsula seemingly clinched the debate.

Paquay said that he and his research team took a different approach to the problem of determining the size of the asteroid. Instead of focusing on the iridium, he looked at sediments containing a form of the super-dense metal osmium. Paquay measured the distribution of the osmium isotope found in meteorites. Because of the percentage of osmium is known, he could calculate the overall size of the object. Paquay said researchers used the same technique to estimate the size of the asteroid that created the 63 mile-wide Popigai crater in Siberia at about 1.7 miles across. It was previously believed to be about 2.5 miles across." Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The meteor/asteroid that struck the planet in and of itself did not destroy the dinosaurs, therefore it is irrelevant to a degree of how big the asteroid was. What the asteroid did do was set off a series of events that led to the rapid cooling of the atmosphere, the shifting of the ocean currents, and then the introduction of that which was an Ice Age. These events did not occur overnight. They took months, even years before they had their full and total effect. The smaller size of the asteroid that was originally thought to be six miles across still achieved this result. Had it been an even larger asteroid, the consequence would have been more immediate, perhaps quicker in nature, but would have still been the same result, even if it had been sped up.

The major difference is that the smaller asteroid, while it did create tsunami's and earthquakes which did kill off many dinosaurs and creatures that were closest in proximity to the event, did not kill off as many as perhaps as had been originally speculated on, and that a larger asteroid may have killed off more creatures at that moment of impact than the smaller one did, but the point of the matter is that the smaller asteroid was still huge in size, big enough to cause the events that occurred directly and indirectly upon its impact.

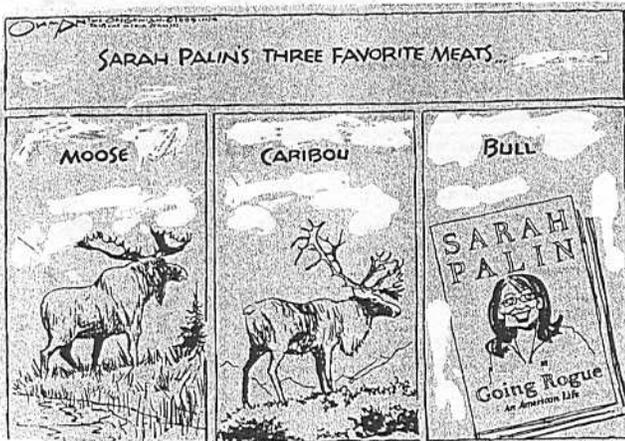

It is not seen by this Awareness that there is much point in this report other than scientific curiosity. The fact is that both asteroids would have led to a world-altering situation and crisis, be it a larger asteroid with more quick events as a result, or the smaller asteroid with the drawn-out sequence of events that followed its impact. They both ended the world as it was at that time, be it immediately, or over the next several years.

QUESTIONER:

Is the measurement of the osmium isotope distribution in meteorites a valid reference point to calculate the average size of a meteorite, or should other factors also be considered.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Both. It is valid, and yet this Awareness would suggest that other methods be considered.
