The Cosmic Awareness Forecast For the Year 2010 With Updates

THE COSMIC AWARENESS FORECAST FOR 2010

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There is no opening message from this Awareness at this time. It would favor advancing straight to that which is the forecast of the year ahead, that being 2010.

THE ECONOMY IN 2010

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. My first category involves the economy. May we have comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness foresees that it will continue to be a roller-coaster year with stronger activity when desired by those who have greater control and who seek to create revenues for themselves. There is seen to be a great degree of manipulation in the stock markets, and they are not quite as free as presumed. There is indeed a great deal of manipulation of the markets and those who understand this, those who have control over the factors behind the markets are manipulating the markets to a degree greater than ever before, and this will continue on in the year ahead.

Investors Beware: Another Stock Market Crash is Very Likely

Equally, when it will suit them they will drive the markets down, creating loss once again and creating the instability that has been present over the last couple of years, in particular this last year. It is likely that there will again be a crash that creates tremendous difficulties and reinforces the plans of those in charge, those who are the Elite. It is seen that there may be further bank failures once again, for the plan is to move the world towards that which is a one-world economy, the New World Order. Those who choose to engage in the stock market be prepared for tumultuous times ahead economically.

Little Improvement in Job Market ("The Dirty Thirties" Return)

It is seen that in terms of financial situations whereby many have lost jobs over the last year and a half, this too will continue as the roller coaster that is the stock market and the US economy continues to rise and plummet, and many who are in depressed economic regions will continue to experience lower economic availability and resources. Those who have lost jobs in these regions may not find jobs appearing and may be forced to move to other regions where there seems to be more economic viability and stability.

This is not unlike the time known as the "dirty 30s", the time of the Great Depression, where many moved across the great nation to find work and a livelihood in other parts of the country. There will be certain areas where there is a relative degree of stability economically. It is seen that the American South West region will be financially/economically stable to a degree, greater than the Deep South, for example.

There is seen on the West Coast of the United States also a stability, especially in that region of Oregon and Washington. And yet the stability that this Awareness is speaking of is not anything close to what was the experience but a short while ago. It is even seen that there is a temporary respite in the Great Lakes region, especially around the auto-manufacturing regions of Detroit and Michigan. This is a dubious stability and a temporary one, and will of course depend on the social economic factors and whether or not the automotive industry is successful in their planned restructuring, some of which is questionable at this time.

The Total Collapse Is Not Seen in the Year 2010

Fractures are already seen in the tentative plans that have been suggested, but it is not seen that in 2010 that there will be a total collapse. It is seen that it will be artificially maintained, at least during the year of 2010, giving the false impression of an economic recovery. The buzzword will be "economic recovery" and the "end of the recession", but this is mainly the spin-doctors and those who have a vested interest in putting such a notion forth who will be saying these things.

'They' being those who wish it to be understood that the economic recovery is well underway. But the truth is, this is to lull those many back into a false sense of security, before the carpet is truly pulled out from beneath their feet. "They" being the people of the United States of America and investors in the United States of America.

It is still the plan for total economic collapse and upheaval. However, this Awareness does not see it in full effect in 2010, It sees pockets of economic failure occurring throughout the year, events that will continue to provide an unstable structure to the economics of the United States, but also as this Awareness has also said: areas where there is relative economic stability. It is seen also that the Texas region may have such stability, and the New Mexico region also may be fairly stable as well. This is what is seen as an economic prospect for the United States of America.

Other Nations in World Will Do Much Better Than the U.S.

(Canada And Third World Countries Will Do Well)

Expanding this to a more global vision, there are nations who are doing much better and will continue to do much better than the United States, for it is seen that the United States is actually in decline. It is seen that Canada, the country north of the United States will fare much better in the year ahead. There may still be some difficulties, but the level of collapse was not as bad, and the banking system in Canada withstood the economic storm to a much better degree than the United States did, and there will be some evidence of economic recovery.

And yet they too are under the world plan of that economic collapse, so it is seen that while on the whole there will be a degree of prosperity in Canada, it is not seen that they are yet out of the woods. Indeed, it is seen that the countries that will fare the best in the year ahead are Third World countries that are coming forward now. They cannot any longer be considered Third World countries by old definitions; the countries most notable are India and China.

China and India Are New Economic Forces to be Reckoned With

China is the new big player of the economic cabal and has a great potential in the year 2010 to go forward on its position that it has been working toward for the last 30 years. India too is emerging as a new economic force to be reckoned with. There is a curious dichotomy in India, in that there are those who are the nouveau rich, who are using the fields of technology to advance themselves, and there is that which is old India, that is still mired in centuries of traditional poverty and hardship.

This discrepancy will become even more apparent in the year ahead. Many who are the new rich in India will continue to find that they are indeed riding high, and those who have little will continue to have little. There is also a burgeoning middle class in India of those who are starting to find work in the new technological fields that are being grown in India, and that are opening up in India, and generally speaking, the prosperity of the country will indeed increase.

European Union Economies Will Still Have Problems

For that which is the European Union, it is seen that there will still continue to be economic difficulties, especially in the country of the United Kingdom, this being England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland. The country of Ireland will fare well in the year ahead, as it was not as heavily hit by the economic factors that have hit the rest of the European market, or that which is the European Union.

Countries such as Germany and France are also still being hit hard, and yet it is seen that they will be much better off in 2010 than they were in 2009, a degree of economic recovery occurring there as well as other countries in the European Union.

Secret Plans In Russia to Break Away From the Elite PTB (The Skoptsis Return And Are Gaining Control Again)

Finally, moving to that country which is Russia, it is not seen that Russia will make big, obvious public strides in 2010, but it is seen that there is work being undertaken at hidden levels to stabilize the country, and to break it away from the plans of the Elite. There is a faction in Russia, the Skoptsis* that this Awareness has once talked about, who are regaining a level of control and power that they once had, and they are not part of that which is the plan for the planet. It is seen that they may eventually oppose the Western world, as was indicated by the entity Edgar Cayce many years before, when he predicted that Mother Russia would rise up and be the salvation. It is seen that there is something to this, but it is not seen that this will emerge publicly in the year 2010, at least not in terms of the economic situation or the economic recovery of this country.

However, it would be necessary for those who are interested, to read between the lines of events that are transpiring even now, and that will go into 2010, to see that there is indeed something afoot in that country, and there is not seen at this time by this Awareness anything obvious. And yet do not disregard the importance of Russia. This completes the global review of this Awareness. It did not mention the subcontinent of Australia and New Zealand. It sees that these countries are tied into the Elite's plan, and will fare a similar fate to the country of Canada. They will show some sign of economic recovery, but it will still be tempered by the overall plans.

*Skoptsis. For more info please check out the CAC Index. Also under Dr. Beter. Ed.

JAPAN AND OTHER COUNTRIES

QUESTIONER:

Could you please discuss Japan and Norway, and Switzerland—those other countries as well, please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Norway and Switzerland are all part of the European picture, and even the countries not mentioned by this Awareness such as the Balkan states. Many countries in the world will have some degree of economic recovery, but it is seen that there is a planned event in the year 2010 that is meant to once again disrupt everything. It is simply not seen whether or not there is sufficient energy that this event will come off as planned.

Japan will continue along its present course, It is not seeing much difference for this country or the country of Korea, who are both economically positioned to take a greater share of the world's market, but it is not seen that they will do so. This is what this Awareness sees for these two countries, much the same as the year 2009.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. Is there additional information?

MORE ON THE "PLANNED EVENT"

(The Planned Crash of the Roller-Coaster Ride May Not Occur)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness simply wishes to elaborate a little more on that which It saw a moment before, of a planned event that is supposed to substantially collapse the markets again. It is not seen that this will be allowed to go through by certain factions who are hidden and behind the scenes that will move forward onto the world stage and begin to cancel some of the plans of the World Order. But they will stay hidden, and it is not appropriate for this Awareness at this time to elaborate on these forces. Simply that it be known that it will be a roller-coaster ride for the year 2010, and that it is planned for a crash of that roller coaster, and yet the planned crash may never come to be.

Do Not Despair, Simply Survive the Times Ahead

The most important thing to consider on a personal level is to simply survive the times ahead and not to go into deep despair of how economically depressed the times are. This is saying much for those who have lost their jobs and their incomes, but there will be a way forward for many, even if that way forward is a hard way, and a difficult path.

One must keep focused on trying to keep one's head above the water during these times, with the faith and understanding and belief that all will work out, and all will be well. It is seen that new ways are starting to emerge in economically strapped regions in the United States, where bartering is starting to appear once again, and assistance and help from one another is starting to happen in small ways.

Subsistence Survival Will Increase for the Unemployed

This is not yet seen as something that is prevalent and the majority of people may not experience this, but it is already seen that new ways are starting to come forward, ways that are not being publicized or announced in the press. These new ways are shifting away from the economic controls asserted by Wall Street and the large global economic institutes of the land. Third world countries, generally speaking, are not as affected by the economic conditions because they have been subsistent for so long that they will simply continue to be so. And yet, in the subsistence is a form of stability, for it is not based on economic prosperity but on ways of surviving.

It may be that such a subsistence form of survival is what starts to take hold more and more in the times ahead in the year 2010 and will become a new way of life for many who can no longer find the security of a job. There are many ways that individuals in the past have survived, and it is seen that this is what will become more prevalent for many in the more depressed economic regions of the United States of America.

Don't Feel Negative—The Times Could be Much Worse

This Awareness does conclude by saying that the times could be much worse, and yet there may be a degree of difficulty for many that still predisposes the situation to a negative outlook for those who are experiencing difficulties. Equally, those who start to look at things differently and project their energies in a more positive way may also find that there are new ways that are presented for them for their own economic survival. A willingness to move and shift to different areas of the country may facilitate for many this economic recovery on a personal level.

POLITICS AT HOME AND ABROAD (What's Ahead for President Obama?)

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you) Could we discuss please, politics at home and worldwide?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The interest of course is primarily towards the president, Barack Obama. There is much controversy around this individual that will increase over 2010. For many this man came to power with such hope and splendor that many believed and trusted that there would be a turnaround in the situation of the United States, and the election of this man would represent true hope and recovery.

He Can't Yet Break Free of His Political Masters

In this first full year of his presidency many of the promises that he made have already been disregarded and even broken. He will continue this trend in 2010 and more and more individuals will be disillusioned by this man. Some of that which is occurring has more to do not with the individual himself and his choices, but the necessity of choices he must make because his political masters have already drawn up his agenda and the agenda of the nation and of the world. It is not seen that in 2010 he will be able to break free of those political masters that pull the strings to his presidency.

Obama Is Still Under Incredible Personal Danger

It is not seen that he will break free and begin an independent presidency of those controllers. It is seen that he is still under incredible danger in his personal life as well as the life of his family, and that he does know of his extreme vulnerability in the matter. He had also chosen this, as this Awareness said previously, as a way that would be of the best advantage to him and his family that would put him in a public arena, drawing much attention to him.

It must be remembered that most who seek such high office have great personal needs for the attention, the glory and the power that such an office bestows upon the successful candidate. In this way he too was seeking the limelight, the power, and the grandeur of the position of the President of the United States. Already in the year that he has been in office, one can see great change in this individual. His hair is already starting to gray and there are lines around the face that were not there a year ago. Whether or not he ever understood the true cost he would pay to be the President of the United States is somewhat irrelevant to what has occurred since he has become the president.

He is not the man he once was. There have been very subtle changes in this individual and some very huge changes as well. He is beginning to recognize and realize the deal with the devil that he made was perhaps not such a wise idea in the first place, for it is still seen by this Awareness that at the heart of this man is a true compassion and idealism that sparked his thinking that he might be able to make a difference.

This Awareness still contends that if the factors change and if the political masters are overthrown, and the chains that hold this man Barack Obama are broken, that he might be a leader for the people and of the people. But it is not seen that this will occur in the year ahead. It is seen that he will continue to go forward with the agenda that has been placed in front of him, including an expansion of troops to Afghanistan and Iraq.

His Plan to Reduce Troops May Not Occur

Although it is the plan to reduce the troops in Iraq, it is seen that there may be complications to doing this, as well as reasons for expanding the troop involvement in Afghanistan, and these may still come up in the year ahead. Furthermore, it is seen that he will continue to manipulate the health industry in the United States, the measures that have already been introduced going forward in the year 2010.

A Hidden Agenda Behind the Universal Health System

There is much that is hidden in the measures that have been proposed, and it is not a simple case of creating a universal health system in the United States that is beneficial to all. There are hidden aspects in the plan that will make it more possible to control large masses of people, even to the point of extinguishing lives if it is deemed as necessary and proper to do so in harder times.

These too are part of the hidden agenda behind the health measures that are being introduced at this time. All in all, it is seen that the president himself will continue to disappoint many who had such great hopes in him, and a digression in his health and well-being and his physical appearance will continue to be seen. But on the whole, he will hold fast to the course he has set and that he is currently navigating.

This is not good news for the people of the United States who put such great faith and trust in him, and yet it is part of that process of awakening to the truth of the political reality that exists in the United States of America. This too is unfortunately part of the awakening and the growing up to establish a new level of priority that is necessary to ensure that the political leaders elected by the people truly are for the people and of the people.

The Backlash Movement Will Demand Accountability in 2010

It is seen that there is going to be more awakening to the discrepancies that exist presently between what political leaders offer the people and what they actually deliver. The year 2010 will actually produce a backlash movement that will start to demand a greater responsibility and accountability for the political leaders. Some scandals will come to light of previous governments, such as the Bush regime, and there will be a hue and cry for justice and accountability for those who perpetuated the lies, and the manipulations that were put out on the people.

It is almost as if the American people will actually start to wake up more to the truth of the matter, instead of simply being naïvely hopeful that the candidate they elect will do it for them. In this measure there will be more personal responsibility and personal accountability of those who are leading actions against political leaders. This is seen as a grassroots movement that will not be sensed until the latter part of the year as being a very strong movement towards public accountability and responsibility of political leaders to do that which they are elected to do versus the serving of hidden corporate leaders and a hidden government.

This completes the analysis of the United States. It is seen that generally speaking, there are several leaders worldwide that will be challenged to step up to the mark and to provide greater leadership and responsibility. The Prime Minister of Canada, Stephen Harper, may be challenged in the early parts of the year with an event that occurred in Afghanistan, where it appears that the government knew of the exchange of prisoners to Afghanistan, troops that tortured these individuals, this being prisoners turned over by the Canadian military to Afghani authorities.

Despite claiming that they had no knowledge of this, the truth appears that they did, and this will come out more and more and may well become a political hot potato for the conservative government of Stephen Harper. But that generally speaking, the country itself will continue to support the conservative government for the remainder of 2010, and it is not seen that there will be any political overthrow in terms of an election that brings the opposition party, the Liberal party, to power. It is seen that Stephen Harper and crew will continue on in power despite the bad publicity of the earlier part of the year.

The Muslim Situation in Europe a Political Tinderbox

In the European Union it is seen that there will be much challenge also, especially in the field of the freedom to express one's beliefs and religious beliefs. It is seen in Switzerland there will be a unique situation of a backlash movement by Muslims in that country who are being prohibited to build their mosques and their structures, and this will take on a much bigger significance amongst Muslim nations in the year ahead, who see this as an act of oppression toward Muslims.

The Muslim situation in Europe will become a political tinderbox, for more Muslims are moving into the European nations, such as Germany and France and the United Kingdom, and they are becoming more politically active, and the sparking of sentiments in Switzerland against the Muslims may erupt across Europe as other Muslims take a greater stand and become politically active in their opposition.

Iran and North Korea Will Continue Pushing the Boundaries

It is seen that 2010 will continue to bring some controversy with the nations of Iran and North Korea. The North Koreans will continue to probe the boundaries of acceptability, in that they will continue their work with the nuclear weapons and missiles, as will Iran; pushing the boundaries, probing to see how far they can go before there is a backlash, and this will continue to be a hotbed of discussion the world over.

Russia Will Challenge Israel and Present Ultimatums

It is also seen that Russia will present ultimatums of a nature to challenge Israel and the powers that hold that region, and this will also develop as the year progresses. There are some who are starting to move in the direction of Russia as a power that they will support. Other nations of the European Union will align themselves with Russia and a division is seen as a possible tinderbox for the state of the union and the world stage.

In other words, it is seen that there are factions that will start to build up in 2010. That which has been the primary world leader over the last 30 years, United States of America, will be challenged even more so in 2010, especially as the economic situation in America declines, and their power base declines. The European/Russian alignment may be one of those energies that rise up in 2010 to become more oppositional to the United States as an alternative political path to be followed.

China too will represent such a dilemma or problem as it continues to assert itself and to gain power on the world political stage. Other than this, other nations are seen to carry on more or less along the same lines that they already are traveling. Japan is seen to have some changes in government, but basically continues on in its role. It is seen more that there are societal challenges in Japan that may make some difference in 2010 to the political leadership of that nation.

Explosive Upheavals Held Back Until 2011

This completes the political analysis of this Awareness. It is seen finally though, that there is upheaval in the world in 2010, local as well as international, and there may be some hot beds that are fired up, which will cause some great concern. But it is not seen that these hotbeds will explode until 2011. It is as if there is a preparation in certain regions of the world for a problem that lies a year and a half ahead. This Awareness is complete.

BREAKTHROUGHS IN THE MEDICAL FIELD

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you.) Are there any breakthroughs in the medical field that would be beneficial for mankind?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There is seen a continuous level of breakthroughs. The problem is that in the medical industry, the Powers That Be are still very much in charge. Many of the breakthroughs that are coming will not occur in the industrialized nation of the United States of America or Canada. It is seen that their level of development will continue to favor technologies that are already available in the two countries.

It is seen that there may be some breakthroughs in other countries that are not as heavily supported by the medical industry. It is seen that there are favorable results being obtained by an Italian doctor in the treatment of MS. It is seen that China also will move more onto the world stage as providing medical cures not in alignment with the endorsed allopathic nature of treatment that is presently available in the United States of America, in Canada and other westernized nations.

This Awareness has already said that in the United States, the plan for universal health care will continue forward, but there will be much opposition to this by the health industry itself, especially the medical insurance industry. The greatest danger represented by President Obama's plans for universal healthcare is that the medical insurance industry may lose its very lucrative funds that have been achieved over the last several decades, the gross amounts of profit at the expense of individuals who cannot pay, or who do pay through the nose.

This is not seen as a favorable situation and much of the opposition is rooted in the health insurance groups that oppose the plans of the president. This will still move forward despite that opposition. It is not seen by this Awareness that there will be a radical invention or discovery in the year 2010. In other words, it is not seen by this Awareness that anyone will come up with a cure for cancer or other diseases in 2010, but it is seen that there are quiet breakthroughs that are coming even now in 2009 and will continue to be so in 2010.

It is more a matter of whether or not individuals want to stick to a technological allopathic medical approach, or are willing to move into alternative approaches, where they take a greater responsibility for their health and well-being. In the United States there has been a fostering of an attitude that the trust given to the doctors and the medical industry is supreme, and that very few would question this, although many have begun to do so.

In other nations there has been a natural tendency always toward holistic medicine. Third World countries rely heavily on holistic cures, for allopathic medicine has not been available to them, and this will continue to be so for such Third World countries. Generally speaking, the health of the planet will continue on similar to the state of health that has been so for the last decade or so.

Mass H1N1 Inoculation Program to Surface in 2010

It is seen there will be a continuance of the concerns over infectious diseases, especially the pandemic that was so prevalent in 2009, the H1N1. This is not dead in the water yet and in 2010 those powers that tried to manipulate the mass inoculation program worldwide will again bring it to the surface. It is even seen that there may be a mutation of the H1N1 that they will press on the public as yet another reason why they need to become vaccinated and take the vaccination shot.

This is not, as this Awareness said, a done deal, but what did occur is that many began to see through this, and only approximately 1/3 of the human population voluntarily received the vaccination when it was presented. It is not seen that this will change substantially in 2010, in that there is not seen even with new variations of this virus, an overwhelming response where people individually and on a voluntary level seek the vaccination.

A THANKS TO THE GALACTIC FEDERATION

QUESTIONER:

On that note, may I express sincere appreciation and gratitude on behalf of the membership for the Galactic Federation assistance in neutralizing some of the H1N1 vaccines.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Galactic Federation Will Continue to Neutralize Viruses

This brings this Awareness to a slight discussion of the Galactic forces that indeed did intervene in this matter, although it cannot be said that they were obvious about it. First and foremost, this Awareness wishes to indicate that this intervention will continue in 2010, and even if there are new forms and strains of the virus that are released in order to terrify the populace into receiving the vaccination, they too will be dealt with and neutralized. The result will not be as expected by those Powers That Be, for it is seen and understood by the Galactic Federation forces that there is a need to act on this matter and it will continue into 2010.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. That's most encouraging.

THAT SPIRAL VORTEX OVER NORWAY

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed, this brings this Awareness to a change of discussion. It wishes now to talk further of the extraterrestrial presence. It is seen by this Awareness that 2010 will continue to bring more and more evidence of the Galactic Federation forces, and other truths will be brought forward of the Orion/Reptilian factions. The year ends with a spectacular event which was the event of the spiral vortex seen in the skies over Norway, and although not published widely, also over the skies of China.

This was the doing of the Galactic Federation forces, a showing in the skies of the vortex, the spiral energy showing that there is something there. Many reported this event as UFO activity, and many UFOs were sighted in the region and at that particular location in Norway. The spiral vortex was shown publicly for the first time purposely by the Galactic Federation forces for the intent of showing humanity what is to come. Many who saw the spiral in the sky, the vortex in the sky, had a deep and unconscious knowing of this, and knew what it was even if it has not yet been brought to full consciousness.

These events will continue in 2010 and there will be more and more sightings, even if those sightings continue to be suppressed in the United States and not shown on the media. They will become so prevalent that there is no way that in 2010 the Powers That Be can completely block the populace from receiving this information. This is still moving toward the planned event of First Contact, and while this has always been on the agenda, and still is so for 2010, those who are the Galactic forces are content with showing themselves in bits and pieces.

(More Personal First Contact with ETS Will Increase in 2010) Threat of Mass Annihilation by Orion/Reptilians Must Be Overcome Before First Contact Can Occur

It is seen that what will start to occur more in 2010 is personal First Contact. More and more individuals will have a personal experience of meeting extraterrestrial beings of the Galactic Federation. These will start to connect together at a grassroots level until a point is reached when a mass First Contact will take place. It is not seen completely that this will occur in 2010, but it is planned before 2012, if humanity is ready for this meeting and there is a way of bypassing the threat that has been issued by the Orion/Reptilian faction to the Galactic Federation, the threat of mass annihilation if they did show themselves in First Contact.

If this can be overcome, then First Contact is indeed imminent. But it is not seen that those who are the Galactic forces have yet been able to completely neutralize this possibility, and as long as they feel that they cannot safely guarantee that the Orions will not carry out their plan of a mass annihilation of the planet's populace, they are holding back. They are pursuing a more subtle course of action, showing themselves in more small sightings and personal First Contact.

Many Light Workers Today are Galactic Federation Entities

This is what is seen for 2010 around this matter. Many of the members are extremely sensitive to the Galactic Federation, for many are indeed of the Galactic Federation's forces, and are indeed those who are extraterrestrial in nature, who have chosen to be born into a physical context, so that they may participate in the events of this planet as true inhabitants of the planet, versus those who would come in from outside. Many will experience a greater sensitivity, and some may experience First Contact on the individual level that this Awareness has spoken of in the year 2010. This is within the realm of possibility for many at this time. This Awareness is complete with this matter.

ARE OTHER SURPRISES IN STORE FOR 2010?

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you.) Are there any other surprises in store, favorable or unfavorable for humanity during 2010?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Much Extraterrestrial Evidence Will be Discovered

It is seen that hand-in-hand with the extraterrestrial matter is the rediscovery of certain monuments and edifices that are extraterrestrial in nature that are being investigated at this time. It is seen that there is a huge pyramid that is presently being investigated in one of the Balkan states; the state of Romania is that state that this Awareness is seeing at this time.

There are other discoveries that will be made in 2010 that will indicate extraterrestrial presence in the past, but will also be part of opening up the future and the future First Contact. These are seen as discoveries underwater in the Pacific region in South America and in Africa; discoveries of long hidden objects, including a saucer that has been buried in the northern region of South Africa and into the central and lower central region. The country Zimbabwe is also seen as somewhat involved in such discoveries.

Wormwood The 12th Planet Will Appear in 2010

It is also seen that that which is known as the 12th planet will be declared in 2010 as an object that is approaching Earth. It is now close enough that many are starting to be able to view this through home telescopes, and it will soon reach a stage that the Powers That Be who have tried to quash this information will no longer be able to do so, and information will be released about the object in the skies approaching Earth.

Why the Movie "2012" Was Released

In some ways they will try to put a negative spin on it, connecting this event with certain events that are being prophesied that indicate the approach of the end of the earth itself. This is part of the reason that the movie 2012 was released, to acclimatize the thinking of the populace of the world to an event that may be earth shattering.

2010 may see a final admittance of the planet that is known as the 12th planet, planet X, as indeed being a threat to humanity and to the planet. This Awareness does not see that planet X will destroy this planet, but it is seen that it will change much when it is finally acknowledged and known to be what it is, an approaching planet that has often visited this planet, and that has been the home of certain extraterrestrial beings who have had a huge impact on humanity and the development of humanity.

Some of the sites and objects that this Awareness spoke of a moment ago will link this into the approaching planet; the appearance finally of the extraterrestrials and certain discoveries that will indicate how involved these extraterrestrials have been throughout the course of the planet's history.

QUESTIONER:

Amazing. Is there a closing message on the forecast please?

MANY VERSIONS OF THE FUTURE AWAIT

(More on That Spiral Vortex Over Norway)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There is much more that is to occur in 2010 that this Awareness has not touched upon. The reason for this is that there are many, many versions of the future. This Awareness has often spoken of this, and has often stated that by the seeking of something, things may well change from what was predicted, for consciousness has accepted something that can then be changed or can lead to changes.

Even though this Awareness has made Its forecast, the times are such that this Awareness will continue to be available throughout the year to deal with current affairs as they open up. Even though the forecast has been made today, it is to be understood that these are possibilities, not 100% guaranteed facts. They are not ironclad, in that they will occur exactly as this Awareness has spoken. As possibilities, when they occur they are meant to show individuals that they too can make choices, can choose the possibilities they wish to experience.

The Possibilities in 2010 for Personal Changes

An area that this Awareness would also like to speak to of possibilities in 2010 is the nature of personal change in 2010 of individuals who are seeking to expand their consciousness and their awareness. Those possibilities that present themselves, both in their personal lives and as global and national events, will challenge many to go even deeper into their own awakening, to expand the horizons of their consciousness, and to challenge them to see things in a different light, and to recognize and understand how powerful they are as a creator being, and how responsibility truly lies within themselves to change their lives, and thus see a different playing out of the future than even that which this Awareness has forecast or others may have forecast.

If You Wish to Focus on Negative Events—Expect Bad News

Ultimately, that which is experienced by the individual will be of the individual's own making. If one wishes to focus on negative events; the overthrow of the world order and the upheaval of humanity through the negative events planned by the New World Order, by the Elite, by those who have power, then one indeed may well experience this. This Awareness has spoken of this many times. Understand that 2010 may well represent to many more people a new dawn and a new beginning of how to look at their lives and what they call into those lives.

As things change around them, there is great opportunity to move through the chaos to a new understanding of their own being, and of their own futures. The spiritual quality in the world, which is very suppressed, will start to burst through in 2010, in areas that this Awareness cannot say will be perceived by all as a very noteworthy event, but will be seen by those who have an understanding and awareness as truly revolutionary, outstanding events.

The Spiral Vortex—a Turning Point Event in Mankind's History

The spiral vortex created by the extraterrestrial beings is a case in point. Many will accept the more mundane explanation: that it was a Russian ballistic missile that created this effect. Yet those who have a sense of it, who have that internal awareness, will know that this is a truly significant event, a turning point event in mankind's history. Such events will continue in 2010, and this Awareness simply asks those who are predisposed and seeking expansion of awareness and consciousness, to be truly trusting.

Ascension Will Be COMPLETED by 2012

That which they are sensing as relevant and important, is indeed relevant and important. This will be a turning point here for many in their personal journeys, and they will step through much of the personal chaos and difficulties of their lives that they have been experiencing over the last few years. There will be many who even ascend in 2010, for as this Awareness has spoken in the past, Ascension will be completed by 2012, it will not simply begin at that point.

Personal Opportunity For Many to Step Through a Vortex in 2010

Many may have a personal opportunity to step through a vortex or to ascend to higher levels of consciousness and awareness in the year ahead. This too is an exciting possibility that will not gain much press, will not gain much attention of the media, but will prove to be a very important development of the year 2010. Equally, it is seen that many who have gained this higher awareness will share this awareness with others, accelerating the process of Ascension, accelerating the process of the masses starting to wake up.

An Unbridled Opening of Consciousness in 2010

It may well be that by the end of 2012 the majority still have not achieved this enlightenment. Many more will be enlightened by this time because of the unbridled opening of consciousness that this Awareness is seeing as possible in the year 2010. It is a true turning point, a true time of opening of the gates, and looking deeper into the substance and the manifestation of substance on the planet.

From a numerological point of view, 2010 is the number 3; the manifesting of the substance so that there may be an expansion in the planet and in the world. Events that formed the substance of the previous year will be taken in 2010 and manifested into opportunities and events that will mark this turning point that this Awareness is speaking of. This can occur on individual levels as well. Each and every individual can take the substance of their unique individual experiences and manifest them into the next stage, the next level of expanded consciousness and illumination.

Cosmic Awareness is Excited About 2010 Changes

From this point, this Awareness is excited about the year ahead, that year known as 2010, for It sees this as a true turning point in the journey towards Ascension and the expansion of human consciousness. This Awareness will continue to be available to expand on this theme throughout the year 2010. This Awareness is complete but open to any additional questions that the Energizer may have of It.

THE RA-TA MUMMY CONSCIOUSNESS (Final Wave to be Released in Spring of 2011)

QUESTIONER:

Yes, you talked about the consciousness of mankind. Is there any additional information on the Ra-Ta mummy consciousness? Has this all been completely returned to those so affected?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is not so. It is seen there is a final wave of consciousness scheduled to be released in 2011, not 2010. The last wave is that period of time from October 2009 into mid-December, the period that has just been gone through. This has been a very chaotic period of time, both in terms of world events as well as on a personal level. Many of the readers who are Seekers and who are the Wanderers have gone through personal events that are very trying and challenging and chaotic.

This has been partially due to the release of the second wave of the Ra-Ta consciousness that is further accelerating the expansion of consciousness and the opening of awareness. This period of time needs to be integrated over the next year and it is seen that the final wave of the Ra-Ta project, the final wave of consciousness to be released, will occur in the spring of 2011.

Does this answer your question?

QUESTIONER:

Yes it does, thank you very much. And it will help those who might be still waiting.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The trick is not to wait. The trick is to simply go forward with the awareness that the energies that have been released will have effect one way or another. Not all will personally experience the chaos and the dilemma that was created in the expansion of consciousness.

It's A Sort of Time-Release Capsule With Individual Equations

Some may have experienced it through the time and some may experience it in their own personal way in the year ahead. It is a time release capsule of sorts that has an individual equation, in that each individual will experience it in his or her own unique way at the time that is proper and right for them.

QUESTIONER:

Exactly, exactly. That question was just in case there were some of the membership wondering, well – where's mine?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is therefore necessary to put out that many will still experience in their own personal time and space their own expansion into a higher level of understanding and consciousness.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. Please carry on.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This brings to completion the forecast for 2010 and yet this is not a completed matter. If this Awareness feels or senses a need to bring more information forward, It will do so over the course of the year. That it must be understood by all, that these times are a continuous unfolding, that the old way of making one yearly prediction or forecast is no longer truly totally appropriate, for things are developing and unfolding so quickly that this Awareness senses that It must always be available to discuss the events as they unfold.

2010 Will Be a Turning Point In Many Ways

Generally speaking, 2010 will be a turning point in many ways, a turning point politically in that many more will start to ask the questions of their government and of their leaders; that will demand ultimately that the leadership truly is there for the people, and not for the hidden controllers and masters. Information may start to surface more and more that exposes the hidden ones, the Elite, the Illuminati, those who have had power for so long. But it will still be up to the individuals to do something about it, to change, if you will.

Personal Responsibility in Regard to Health Issues

In the matters of health and welfare, personal responsibility and acknowledgment of deeper issues behind illness it will be seen to be more and more crucial to the healing process, and simply running to a doctor demanding a pill to cure this or that will not be as relevant or acceptable in the years ahead. This too is a beginning in 2010, where individuals and mass consciousness start to understand that there is a deeper connection to health and well-being than the simple physical side of things. There is an emotional, mental and spiritual nature,

More Helping One Another in a Jobless Economy

On the economic matter, this Awareness has already spoken of how local regions may start to develop local answers to some of the depressed economic situations that are found in the nation. This too is taking the matter into one's own hands, and starting to accept the responsibilities of changing matters within their own individual life and then helping others close to them to also change the situations of their life.

The beginnings of this are seen in this year ahead, in 2010. Generally speaking, the movement now is to see and understand at a very deep individual level that one is responsible for one's own life and what one manifests and calls into that life. This does not mean that the answer is 100% available to all. This Awareness is saying that this is a catalyst moment, a point in time where one will look back from the future to understand and see that 2010 represented a turning point, a catalyst towards a new way of thinking and a new way of being.

For this, this Awareness is indeed excited and pleased. This Awareness wishes all a very interesting journey in 2010. This Awareness is complete.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. Our heartfelt appreciation on behalf of the membership is expressed. Thank you. (The Law of Gratitude is given)

2010 FORECAST CONTINUED

HOW WILL THE PUBLIC RECEIVE THE AMERO?

A continuation to the 2010 forecast. Would Awareness please discuss the Amero and how it will be received by the public? Thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is indeed planned by the Powers-That-Be to join the three currencies of the United States, Canada and Mexico and create the Amero. The Amero is already created; it is the introduction of the Amero in 2010 that is planned. This Awareness spoke of the roller-coaster nature of the economic markets and the economies of the three countries, particularly the United States of America. Not much was spoken of Mexico, which is experiencing its own roller coaster ride.

Overnight the American Dollar Will Lose Value

It is still seen that there is a plan to introduce the Amero currency, and to devalue the American dollar and the Canadian dollar and increase the value of the Mexican peso in this new currency, the Amero. Many who hold American dollars will find that their American dollar overnight will not have the same value it once was, even though the rhetoric will suggest that the new Amero will be of an equivalent value, and buy equivalent groceries or objects.

They want you to think that it is basically the same, and that it is the crashing markets that will trigger this plan being implemented, a plan that has been in the works for many years, just waiting for that moment, and 2010 is the moment that has most been planned for and is seen as the time for this to occur, this seen as the earlier part of 2010.

However, this Awareness in accordance to what was spoken the other day, suggests that there are oppositional forces. While there is a roller-coaster ride happening in terms of the economics of the countries, that staged event, the collapse of the markets which would elicit the response of crisis and the presentation for the masses of the effective action of three leaders coming together, the leaders of Canada, United States and Mexico, coming together to hammer out a solution to the latest crisis, and that solution of course being the introduction of the Amero, will not take place quite as planned.

Intervention by Galactic Federation is a Possibility

It is at this time seen as a possibility, but there are intervening forces, especially those of the Galactic Federation and those who are in conjunction with the Galactic Federation on the earth itself, who will intervene and delay this action. This Awareness would suggest that individuals become aware that the possibility of this action is planned for 2010, but to not focus on it. There are many rumors that go out, even announcements that have gone out that the event will occur, and yet it has not yet occurred, despite these announcements.

This again is an opportunity to refocus one's attentions and one's beliefs to where the picture that is projected for the individual does not include such a scenario. That is what this Awareness has to say about the alleged introduction of the Amero in 2010. It is a possibility, but not a strong possibility. It is most definitely in the plans but there is opposition to those plans.

THE CHINESE $47 TRILLION LIEN AGAINST THE U.S. TREASURY AND THE FEDERAL RESERVE

QUESTION:

Question please. There is something from www.worldreports.org that Ted Helinski had sent. It reads:

"Lien executed against treasury and Federal Reserve in the sum of $47 trillion. The commentary is: Following further intransigent obstruction, the Chinese parties who obtained the necessary World Court Writ of execution and lien on the U.S. Treasury and the Federal Reserve, duly exercised their powers and imposed the lien on or around December 6, 2009. The lien against the treasury is in the sum of $47 trillion, which is approximately the aggregate identified by this service in 2007."

How will this particular action affect the distribution of the Amero, if at all?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is seen to be one of the oppositional forces against the introduction of the Amero. The lien that has been put against the American reserve is such that it is a singular action against the United States of America, not against the three nations in combination under one common denomination or currency. Therefore, this will hold up the action of creating the tri-nation currency, the Amero, for the suit is specifically against the American Federal Reserve, against the American government to pay back outstanding loans made to the American government, not to the governments of Mexico, Canada and the United States.

China Can Claim US Property, Businesses Etc. if US Defaults

This is part of the actions that this Awareness just spoke of that may forestall the introduction of the Amero, and that the Chinese are indeed serious about receiving some payback now for their invested funds. If that payback is not in the form of currency then it would be in the form of acquisition of certain properties, businesses and objects owned by the United States government that will be put against the loan incurred towards China.

QUESTIONER:

That's a lot of money!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The sums involved are no longer comprehensible to ordinary citizens. $47 trillion would indeed enslave the United States for many generations to come. This sum is also the kind of sum that the American government is talking about in terms of the economic restoration package that it gave out to create stability in the years 2008-2009. The sums are already more or less in effect; they cannot be comprehended by the ordinary citizen, they are too vast, too great.

What can indeed be comprehended is that these amounts are unpayable by any one generation, and this is also part of the plan: an economic enslavement of future generations to those who hold power currently, so that those who are under their dominion will still be under their dominion in 1000 years from now. This is to some degree irrelevant however, for with the collapse of economic order and the collapse of the world as it is now known, much of this will be nullified and canceled.

This Awareness suggests that it is not worth one becoming stressed out over with this matter, because this is but a temporary situation which will soon disappear because of the unfolding events ahead. 2010 will see some more public acknowledgment of the lien against the United States reserve and the United States government. The Powers-That-Be are loath to put it into the print of the papers and the presses of the nation and they will try to keep this covered up, but it is seen that there are patriotic groups that will expose these matters, and this Awareness is not talking about the American patriots; the governments are trying to create those who would go and die for the country in a meaningless war, meaningless conflicts.

Civil Unrest: True Patriots Will Rise Up in 2010

It is talking about True Patriots who have seen the direction of the nation, and who are rising up to speak out and to defend the people of America, and to restore once again the government of America. It is seen indeed that 2010 will see a rise of these grass-root patriotic groups, not just militant groups or militia groups, but genuine citizens who have had enough, and who are standing up for their country as it once was, and what it once represented.

This Awareness spoke previously of civil unrest occurring more and more in 2010. This is partially due to this backlash against the governments, not only present but past that have lead the United States of America in such a disastrous direction, and many will stand up and demand an accounting of their elected officials, and a return to the Constitution and the constitutional rights of one and all. This will be suppressed by the Powers-That-Be but this will simply focus energy on the problem at hand, that which has been largely covered up over the years, and 2010 may well see eruptions of groups standing up against the government, and the Powers-That-Be. This is complete.

EVENTS THAT INDICATE THE POWERS-THAT-BE ARE LOSING CONTROL AND POWER

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you.) Henry Kissinger – there are four statements here concerning Henry Kissinger. The first one is:

- “Kissinger and Bush Associates Arrested
  - Nobody Wants to Discuss Kissinger
  - Kissinger is/was Controller of DVD Long-range Strategic Deception
  - Kissinger Associates Executed by MI-6”
- Is there any basis to any of these?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There is indeed basis to this. It is further evidence that there is conflict amongst those who have power. The Bush regime under daddy Bush, (Bush Senior) is in opposition to the rest of the Cabal under the authority of the Windsor-British connections, and there is much conflict occurring. Kissinger was part of the American-Bush actions and his operatives have been executed. This has been occurring on a regular basis over the last several years, with an escalation occurring as the rift between the factions grows stronger and stronger, and wider and wider.

This is seen not as a detrimental event, but rather a fortuitous event in that it is showing there is not complete unison amongst the Cabal of the Elite themselves. In this internal battle lies hope that the plans that have been long drawn up may not be carried out to the degree they were originally intended. 2010 may indeed see some more revelations of this nature, with some reports finally being given through the mass medias.

This would indicate the loss of control of those who own these media corporations, for at this time it is still seen that this is still a controlled facet of the Powers-That-Be against the dissemination and release of information that would be detrimental to the Powers-That-Be, and that would be detrimental to either side, for control is still best maintained through cover-up and keeping the masses in ignorance.

Yet 2010 may prove to be a year of revelation and exposure to those who hold power, and how they orchestrate their power and the carrying out of their plans. Evidence may well be leaked to the presses, who may print some of the stories behind the scenes. Those who view these matters can look forward to this, and if this does occur in 2010 it will be a positive indication that the Powers That Be are losing their powers, and that the struggle between them is causing great problems indeed.

This is cause for hope and celebration, for it would indicate that the social order is breaking down, and the paradigm of control is fracturing. This Awareness is complete with this question.

CLIMATE AND EARTH CHANGES

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you.) That is very, very encouraging! Change of topic. Is there additional information concerning weather and earth -disturbances that was not mentioned in the forecast?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to mention more about the weather situation, climatic disturbances, and Earth changes. 2010 will continue to be a troubled year with the climate and major weather events. This is still being perpetuated globally under that banner of global warming that is such a current topic of concern and discussion at this time.

A Weather War is Going On at This Time

This Awareness wishes it to be understood that there is a weather war going on at this time, and that there are opposing factions to each other. This is not simply the Illuminati/New World Order faction, it is seen that there are oppositional forces waging weather warfare against the United States in particular, but it is having global effects.

First, this Awareness would say that part of the problem is the con of that which is global warming. This is largely due to the fact that those who have power are deliberately manipulating and changing weather patterns. This is not necessarily all due to natural events, but rather through technology that is being applied to alter weather patterns, and there is a longer plan that has been drawn up to alter the planet considerably for purposes that have nothing to do with mankind/humankind.

Weather More Favorable to Reptilians is Being Created

It is wished by those alien masters to have a planet that is much warmer than is presently the case, and there is a secret plan that has much to do with this reason for creating the global warming, as it is seen that down the line this will create a planet much more suitable for reptilians and other extraterrestrial beings. This is still at the very edge but is a definite consideration to why global warming is occurring at this time and will occur continually in 2010.

There is another factor that is more prominent however, and more pertinent to escalating the weather patterns in 2010. Many governments are seeking a new way of controlling mass movement on the planet, and weather is one way of doing this. The alteration of the world's weather and climatic conditions is therefore being used as a way of introducing new taxes.

Carbon Taxes Will Add to Our Financial Burden

This Awareness has talked of the carbon tax previously. This tax would then be added to the financial hardships that people have to carry. It would be a way of further curtailing the movement of the people through mass movement and transport, but it would also be a way of creating new money/new revenues that are needed in the economic times, especially in the paying back of huge debts that are owed to China by the United States of America. Other nations wish to get into the act also and to earn additional revenues through these carbon taxes.

These carbon taxes can only be justified if there is proof of global warming and this proof is being created by those who have the authority to justify the actions being contemplated, those planned solutions to problems that are artificially being created. It is the formula that David Icke has promulgated in the past: create the problem, have the collective demand a solution, and then present the solution, which is a solution that has already been planned, and that has already been the whole purpose of the motion in the first place. Such it is with global warming.

The incidents of alleged global warming are only to propel the masses and the planet towards the solutions that have already been drawn up, and that are already on the books. This will be beneficial first and foremost to those who would gain from it most immediately through higher taxes, based on the carbon tax and other taxes that would follow, and the longer-term plan would also be served: that of creating a different environment on the planet itself, for the benefit not of mankind but for those extraterrestrials who see themselves more prevalent on the planet after certain changes occur.

HAARP Technology is Creating Earthquakes in China

This is also part of the plan that is held by those who have the power. Finally, this Awareness did speak of weather warfare. There is presently a situation in effect between China and United States of America. HAARP technology is being used by those in control to affect certain regions in China. Recent earthquakes where over 80,000 were killed were not natural but were sparked by HAARP technology.

China Responds by Making the U.S. Freeze

The Chinese have their own weather technology, that can affect weather patterns; and they have indeed launched much of this against the North American continent. The recent extreme cold, storms and winter events that have occurring in North America have been blamed on El Niño, but this is actually the response of the Chinese, to heat up the larger parts of the Pacific Ocean that would affect weather in North America.

While their main issue is against the United States of America, they are not averse to creating a continental crisis, and have indeed done so. This weather warfare will continue to go on in 2010, as will the use of HAARP technology, and through this technology, earth events such as additional earthquakes in and around the Pacific Rim, especially the eastern portions of the Pacific Rim and into China itself.

However, there will be a backlash and there may well be events that occur in North America. This Awareness has spoken before of possible events in the United States of America: geological events, such as the release of the rift along the western coast. This Awareness is still not seeing at this time a major event as it was seen previously, but It is seeing that there are energies that are starting to build up once again that could cause minor earthquakes, and that could still be in and of themselves damaging on an extreme level, but not as cataclysmic as would happen were the whole Cascadian fault line or San Andreas fault line to open up, shift and move.

Still, it must be seen that 2010 may well have extreme weather patterns and geological events, such as earthquakes and volcanoes in various parts of the world. This too is also part of the earth herself starting to move and shift her energies, all leading up to that which is the 2012 Ascension process, that planned departure of the masses, and the planned shift in consciousness of the planet herself.

This is all leading to the events that are designated as occurring in 2012, but that year will see further evidence of this process, further evidence of the extreme weather patterns and geological changes that have been noted over the last several years. This Awareness is complete with Its discussion of possible weather and earth changes in 2010.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you.) That was very interesting. I sort of chuckle at it in the sense that we are experiencing almost a minus 40 Celsius with the wind chill, and they're talking global warming. Interesting.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Nothing Natural About These "Natural Events"

This is indeed true evidence of the manipulation of the weather patterns in the Pacific that would lead to more extreme winter conditions in North America than would occur if the weather manipulations had not occurred in the first place. There is nothing 'natural' about these natural events, when one understands that they are technologically based and deliberately triggered.

ANY NEW TECHNOLOGY EVENTS?

QUESTIONER:

(Exactly.) Thank you. And speaking of technology – are there any additional technological advances that have and will be made?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that there will be announcements in 2010 of technology that is still moving civilization forward. It must be remembered that more people see the future of the planet in technological terms than they do in spiritual terms, or in terms of an increased consciousness, a rising of consciousness of humanity that could create new paths, and new directions for humanity. Many hold out that technology is the way forward, and as such there are many who are involved in technological research and development.

There will continue to be advancements in technology of a personal nature, and in the communications fields in particular. More advancements will be made with personal communication devices. It seems at this time hard to believe that they will become even more complicated and complex, and offering more services than already is the case, but there is such a market at this time, and such a need to always provide the next advancement in personal communication devices, personal entertainment devices, computers and the like, that this field is accelerated beyond measure.

It is also seen that there are certain technological advancements that are being made behind the scenes as well: covert achievements that will not be made public any time soon, but these will have an effect in the years ahead. This Awareness is not prepared to talk about these advancements, for it would be detrimental to release this information at this time. It is seen that there would be a danger involved in bringing forth such information, therefore this Awareness will simply leave it that there is also certain discoveries and developments that are occurring behind the scenes that will come out in the years ahead against humanity, but it is certainly not seen that this will happen exactly the way that the plans are drawn up for at this time.

Are Some Earthquakes Caused by Scalar Weapons?

(Thank you.) There was something from Vikki, going back to earthquakes again. Are any of these earthquakes being caused by scalar weapons?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed this is so. This is part of the advanced technology that this Awareness is talking about. The nature of the discoveries that are being made are of a covert nature, but that is as far as this Awareness is prepared to go at this time.

JOSEPH MOSHE PLEADS GUILTY AFTER TORTURE

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you.) We appreciate and respect that. Do you remember Joseph Moshe that we discussed previously?*

Ted writes: "I feel they are getting him ready for his court appearance in the same way they got one of the supposed masterminds of 911 ready for his court appearance. Freedom of information requests revealed, that among other things, he was water boarded a couple of hundred times! He was probably also subjected to drugs, electroshock, etc. Guess what? He finally pleaded guilty to all charges. What a surprise.

At his last court appearance he could do little more than stare off into space and drool on himself. Yet the federal courts upheld his conviction. You know I've thought a lot recently about people like Joseph Moshe, and the IRS protesters, etc. You find out later about the absolutely barbaric treatment that they receive in federal custody and everything else they've worked their whole lives for is taken from them.

I wonder if Cosmic Awareness has ever spoken of the incredible courage and sacrifice these people endure in an attempt to make things better for the rest of us while we sit on the sidelines, so to speak. I feel like a wimp compared to these people and there has to be a great reward for them after the Ascension." An aside remark to this: "I thought he was just arrested for a misdemeanor?"

Your comments please?

*Please refer to issue 2010-1 on page 12 for more info. Ed.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is a case that highlights how corrupt the Powers-That-Be are and how those who are the minions of the Powers-That-Be, the Elite, the Cabal, the Illuminati, the New World Order, indeed have become. They are reflective of their masters, their bosses, and they are given the free reign to treat humans in a way that is barbaric indeed, that is anything but civilized.

Torture: The U.S. Government Has Much to Answer For

The United States government has much to answer for in the allowance of torture for the prisoners in Guantánamo Bay, but less known is the use of torture and covert methods such as water boarding on legal prisoners inside of the United States of America, especially individuals such as Joseph Moshe and others of his ilk, those who are true patriots, those who have stood up and spoken out.

The point of the matter is that these individuals are considered extremely dangerous to those who have power, for they are the individuals who could incite the masses into protest, and incite the masses into standing up against the government and against elected officials, and demand that exposure be made, and that the truth be told. Such individuals are always considered dangerous and have always been treated in the manner that this individual is being subjected to.

Exposing the Nature of the Beast

This indicates a quality of mind that is held by the United States government. Even those who are not privy to the deeper knowing of the truth of the situation still condone such treatment, and justify such treatment and this is somewhat indicative of the nature of the Beast, the nature of a government that is not accountable for its actions to the very people that elected the officials in.

One day this will be understood and recognized. One day there will be the mass uprising against such demonic leadership. Times are already changing, and more are becoming aware, and it is unfortunately through the actions of such individuals as Joseph Moshe that the masses may finally be awoken to the truth.

Joseph Moshe Knew What He Was Doing

The entity Ted Helinski says that he feels himself a wimp because he is not one who is out there making a bigger splash. This Awareness would put out to him and others that it is not required of all to be out there making a bigger splash; that this is the destiny chosen by this individual. It is also based in a karmic payback for crimes done by the individual in other lifetimes, where he chose in this life to sweep the slate clean and offer himself up as a sacrifice in order to bring the truth out, even though he knew before he entered this life that it would be a harsh journey for him.

The Destiny of Ted Helinski is Revealed

Therefore, for an individual such as Ted Helinski to say he wishes he was more courageous, and could step up to the plate more – is not necessary, is not needed and is not his destiny. His destiny is to do what he is doing, and when and if the need does lead him to take a more public stance, then he will do so if that is what is required. In the meantime, this individual does much to bring awareness into consciousness. This Awareness must remind the readership that it is not so much how public one goes that is of true worth, but rather the bringing into consciousness and the holding in consciousness those ideas, thoughts, sentiments, ideals, and truths that once released into consciousness will grow as seeds, spreading further and further until a grassroots movement truly is established. At that grassroots level deep and profound change can happen.

What All Readers of the Cosmic Awareness Messages Are Doing

This Awareness has said many times that by introducing many of the concepts, thoughts, ideals and truths that this Awareness has introduced in the past, has put into human consciousness those selfsame truths, ideals and concepts then expand outwards and that they do have an effect, even though this was not done in the most public of ways. The actual membership of the organization Cosmic Awareness Communications is relatively small for a reason at this time.

It is seen that there may well be a change in this in the years ahead, but at this moment in time the membership is a very small one and yet a very dedicated membership. Each and every reader of the writings of Cosmic Awareness Communications newsletters has received concepts and thoughts, ideals and truths from this Awareness that are then disseminated outwards into consciousness.

Part of the Role of You Wanderers is to Share the Information

This Awareness has spoken of the readership as being the Wanderers and part of the role of the Wanderers is to take that information and to share it with others, either through conversation and discussion with others or directly into the consciousness of the planet; to put the energies out so that they may be picked up by others who then may even come forward in a more public way, drawing attention to themselves and sometimes even adverse reactions for their more public sharing of the very thoughts and information that this Awareness has shared on a much smaller and more subtle nature.

Be aware one and all that receiving this information already elicits a much deeper and more profound response in human consciousness than is even understood by the members themselves, even if those members are all Wanderers, as this Awareness maintains. It is not necessary to be envious of someone who is more public, when all are indeed doing their duty in a way that is most beneficial in the long run, and in a way that has been agreed to before one has even entered into this plane of existence.

Therefore, even though the entity Joseph Moshe is being treated barbarically by those who hold him, he is doing what he needed to do, wished to do, and chose to do. Those who are more silent, who are less obvious and less public, are nonetheless still very important in holding the space and perpetuating in human consciousness the truth that will eventually set one free. This Awareness is complete.

A DECLINING INTELLIGENCE?

(Rap Music, Tattoos, Body Piercing, Boring TV etc.)

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. That was very thought-provoking and appreciated.) Okay, we have something here from Larry Kell in Indiana. He writes: "Check what is in the mind control quotes in the list at www.whale.to/b/quotes\_m.html.

QUESTIONER:

He writes: "I was using the www.IXQuick.com browser, which doesn't record your computer address, and did a search for secret government mind control secrets. A depressing list of links about what the governments are doing in secret will come up. This may explain the declining intelligence and lack of logical thinking that is becoming more common. Also the popularity of rap music, body mutilations with tattoos and piercings, and the glut of boring network TV shows. It's easier to control people who have lost some of their powers of reasoning and logical thinking."

Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There is not much that this Awareness needs comment on. The assertions of this individual are indeed correct. This is all part of the planned process by the Powers-That-Be and has always been the charge to those who are their minions to enforce. The continuance of the ignorance and even the deepening of the sleep of the masses all serve the Masters, and serve to perpetuate the very circumstances that those who have power are wishing to create and indeed perpetuate. Those who have power do understand that the world is coming to a breakup/breakdown/breakout point quite naturally in its evolutionary track as mankind moves forward to that point where that which has been so finally collapses, for it cannot be sustained much longer.

At the same time, that revolutionary moment of Ascension is also approaching. Those who have the brains, the awareness, and the understanding -- those who have been seeking to comprehend and understand, those who have been working hard to increase their awareness and their consciousness-- will move forward, will advance into a new level of awareness, a new level of consciousness, that which this Awareness has long been talking of as the Ascension process, that time and moment of Ascension.

The Deepening Dust of Sleep on the Masses to Continue

Unfortunately, many who will stay asleep because of the deepening dust of sleep that is being sprinkled on the masses will continue along their own merry way, ignorant of anything major that is ahead of them, anything that will upset the apple cart to the degree that is foreseen not only by this Awareness, but also by many sources.

In some ways it must be so, for the individuals who are not ready to challenge themselves, to dig deeper, to move forward, and to expand their consciousness -- are those who will not ascend. This Awareness must be very clear: it is not their purpose or their reason at this time in this life to experience that which is a personal Ascension. It is their purpose to have experienced a physical reality that is falling further and further away from common decency and common sense. It is their purpose to move through this experience and prepare themselves for another Ascension moment at their own convenience sometime in the future; a time that is their time. This is not their time.

This has much to do with the evolutionary process of the soul, of those concepts of new soul and old soul. This is simply a way of understanding that there are many who wish to have this experience but do not yet have the background of experiences that would allow them to move forward in their spiritual journey and their expansion of consciousness and awareness.

These new souls are going through a much more physical journey, given to total physical involvement and physical experiences, for they are determined to have such a physical life. They have not chosen to expand themselves beyond the narrow parameters of their beliefs and of their cultures. This Awareness has spoken of this as being in the box, and not wishing to expand the box, to come out of the box. This is not seen by this Awareness as a bad thing, it is more indicative of that level of consciousness that is held by those who are the masses, those who are the collective.

Those who are not part of that energetic are finding these times difficult because they feel often isolated and abandoned, and often at odds with those who are normal. Indeed, one can also understand the struggle as the struggle of those who hold being normal as paramount to all else, versus those who do not feel normal in any way, shape or form, and who feel outside of the norm, who have always felt that they are different, as if they are beings who have been born into the wrong time, the wrong family, the wrong country, the wrong nation.

Many of the Old Souls Have Been Through Ascension Before

These often are those old souls, beings who have had many experiences in the past, and who may have even gone through the Ascension process previously, and who are now here to help others to move through the present opportunity for Ascension.

This Awareness maintains that many who are Wanderers have themselves been through the Ascension process in other times and other places, and have brought themselves onto this planet at this time to be part of the retinue of souls who are on the planet, to assist the many who are ready to move forward, who have advanced their soul consciousness into that status of older soul, or those souls that are ready to expand, to move forward, to go beyond the parameters of the boxes that so many hold as right and correct.

This is more what is implied by this Awareness when It talks about young souls or old souls. It is not so much the age of the soul but the amount of experience and knowledge held by the soul, the willingness to question, the willingness to work, the willingness to dig deep into self-examination, and the willingness to dig deep into self review. These all are criteria that mark those who are ready to move forward, those who are no longer satisfied or content to simply be normal, for they are not normal by any stretch of the imagination.

There is nothing wrong with being normal if this is part of the general experience of the soul that is required by the individual, but when one is ready to move beyond that restrictive category, then one is ready for Ascension. This is so at this time, and therefore there is nothing wrong with those who do not wish to ascend, and it must be understood that those who already are there because they have worked hard to achieve this status, to reach this point in their own individual development.

OUR BODIES ARE TRANSMUTING TO A CRYSTALLINE BASE?

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you.) There is one more question with regard to Ascension. It comes from Lloyd in Utah. He writes: "I have heard that our bodies are transmuting from carbon-based to crystalline-based in preparation for Ascension. Also, that the remaining strands of our DNA are being activated. Would Awareness please expand on this? Thank you."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would agree that the RNA/DNA structures are being altered. There is that which is dormant DNA/RNA that is being activated. It is not so much that there is an altering as opposed to an activation, which is expanding the human mind and the human body. This process is seen as one that is causing many who are shifting and changing, great distress at this time, for some of the changes are having physical consequences. Therefore, those who are experiencing physical symptoms must be aware that this may indeed be part of the transformational process.

This Awareness will restate this and say that this IS part of the transformational process. This does not mean if the physical symptoms are great enough that one should not go to their doctor to have this checked out, for this would be common sense. Many will find that there is nothing allegedly behind their stress, their discomfort, or their symptoms. If the result of physical examination is that there is nothing wrong that can be found, then one can understand that this is indicative of the deeper changes that are occurring that are forcing the body into a degree of distress at this time.

The best answer then is to breathe into this and to go along with this, keeping one as relaxed as one can keep oneself, and as focused on that which is evolving through the process itself as one can achieve. The transformational process is not always simple and easy and part of the acquisition of the deeper DNA/RNA complements, the alteration of the changes is that it will have a physical effect that many will find disturbing.

This is a way of explanation and a warning to those who are having such experiences at this time. But understand that this is but a temporary state. It is not a permanent situation. As the times change the physical experiences will also reflect the changes held at the deeper societal levels, and at the deeper levels of the collective consciousness.

Further to this is that event that many are experiencing in tandem to the physical changes, this being the changes on the mental and emotional levels. Many are starting to find that they are not any longer in emotional alignment with their cultures or with their nations for they have stepped beyond cultural parameters that are held by many who are normal, or who are still within the box, if you will.

'Patriotism' and the Real Meaning of Peace

Therefore, for many it is obvious that the actions being taken by the nation at this time are incongruous to an enlightened and civilized people. To claim to be patriotic by serving one's country by going to war is not held by many as valid, for it is seen to be incongruous to the deeper understanding and awareness that peace means nonaggression, and that peace means allowing others to be. Peace means to work towards harmony and cooperation, not death and destruction.

President Obama's Hypocrisy

This Awareness points out the incongruity of a president who is a war president receiving the Nobel Prize for peace, to stand in front of the world and proclaim that sometimes there is a need for force and aggression to squelch that which is oppositional to the perceived good of the world. This is indeed hypocritical to the honor being bestowed, and yet is perfectly reflective of the nature of consciousness that is held on the planet at this time.

In This Crazy World an Incongruous Action is Seen as Normal

This incongruous action and response is seen as normal and sensible, and yet, this Awareness says it is anything but this. This Awareness is aware that many are seeing this to be so, and are shaking their heads at such events and are puzzled and perplexed that others do not understand and that others do not see. But this Awareness says that this is simply indicative of the level of consciousness and awareness that the individual that holds this to be so has achieved, and that many are moving rapidly to this realization of the craziness that defines the planet at this time and that is held as the norm at this time.

Many Feel the Oppression of Being Different

This too is part of the transformational process that is underway, the mental and emotional transformation that is also occurring alongside the physical transformation.

Part of this will cause people to feel the oppression even more strongly at this time, the oppression of being different, the oppression of that which is the denser nature of mankind to those who are starting to lighten up, who are starting to move forward in that illumination of consciousness.

The Inmates Have Taken Over the Insane Asylum

It is becoming very difficult in these incongruous times to maintain stability: mental, emotional, and physical stability in a time of madness. It could be understood in one way that these times are equivalent to the insane asylum where the inmates have taken over and hold all to be normal to their understanding of normality, but that those who are insane may see things differently than those who are above this, and who do see matters as being that which they are: insane indeed.

Many who are finding these times to be difficult are those who have achieved a sanity that is beyond that level of insanity that is held to be the norm at this time. This too is all part of the transformational process of these times, and it is to be remembered that this is also a temporary state of affairs; temporary in that there is still change occurring, there is still the unfolding of the higher truths and the higher wisdom that is taking place and not all have tied into this or understood it, and not all will ever tie into it or understand it.

It is imperative that those who do understand it do not feel lost or abandoned or isolated in this, for they may be alone to the greater amount around them who do not accept or understand or see. But they are not alone to those greater forces that are starting to enter into the planet's consciousness, those forces that are beyond physical, and those who are spirit in nature, who are coming more and more into that realm of human consciousness to help the shift at this time.

This is a temporary situation and it is advisable that entities stay in focus to that which is ahead, that which is Ascension.

The Crystalline Consciousness That Many are Now Approaching
Finally, this Awareness wishes to address the statement that the crystalline structure is being approached by some. This is seen as somewhat erroneous, for this is not possible in this physical reality as such. What IS possible is the crystal-clear consciousness that is starting to become more and more available and accessible, or that which is the Christ consciousness that many are now approaching. It is not that the body itself will become crystalline in form, but that consciousness will be crystal clear or crystalline in nature, and that that clarity will allow all to see the truth that is represented at this time on the planet by those who hold such crystalline consciousness, and this will touch more and more, become more clear as more become Light Workers, Light Beings moving into illumination and crystal-clear Christ consciousness.

This is more correct to the assertion that humans are approaching crystal consciousness, than an actual physical situation, which would not work in this physical environment at this time.

ENJOY THE RIDE

QUESTIONER:

Thank you.) That was most interesting. There is quite a difference. In other words, just enjoy the ride. It's only temporary. Is that correct?

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness would indeed suggest that entities enjoy the ride, but It is also aware that the ride sometimes becomes very difficult and is not enjoyable. It is at this time that the individual must MOST hold to the fact that they are on a ride and the ride is taking them somewhere, taking them to that place of their own transition, their own transformation, their own Ascension and to hold strong to that, to trust it, to believe it at the core of their being and to be willing to deal with the discomfort and even dis-ease that the body may be feeling during this portion of the ride.

If one can indeed truly relax and remember this, it will make the ride much easier. But if one has difficulty achieving this, to truly trust and believe, to dig deep to the heart and to hold to the heart of the matter – this is part of the transformational journey also and it is the part that the individual has chosen to experience, to clear up their own shadow, to release their own darkness – not by denying it, but by finally facing it and dealing with it, thus being released of it. Does this help understand what this Awareness was referring to?

Questioner:

Most definitely and very much appreciated. Thank you. Would you have a closing message please?

THE JOURNEY OF TRANSFORMATION

(Light Workers Are Faced With Some Hard Decisions)

Indeed, this Awareness does have a closing message today. It has been speaking of the journey of transformation, the journey that many are on, and how many are starting to feel a true separation from those who have been close to them, those who have been part of their lives, and those who are part of their culture and their background.

The times ahead will see this to be more and more the case, for as one develops that true understanding and comprehension that there is indeed an alternate future ahead for those who can see through the illusion and delusion of the society of the planet of the time, they will be faced with some hard decisions. The gist of the matter is that the decision that will be most prevalent and most important is the decision to continue on one's journey even if those around that individual cannot make the journey themselves.

It is Your Right (and Duty) to Share the Truth

This would of course include family and friends, for what is one to do if those who they hold as most dear to them simply refuse to understand or acknowledge that the times, they are a-changing; who simply refuse to consider that maybe it is now time to look at different ways of understanding the situation of the planet itself, of all that is happening on the planet at this time. It is the right of each and every Light Worker, each and every Wanderer to speak their truth, to share with others that which is their perception and understanding of what is unfolding and what is happening.

"To Thyself Be True"

Unfortunately, it is not their right to force their understanding and perceptions on others, as most Light Workers will truly begin to understand and realize. This brings them to that point of personal decision. They must continue to follow their own sense, their own feelings, their own understanding of what is occurring. To follow the axiom: "To thyself be true" will be paramount in these times of unfolding, for it is only the individual who can make an individual choice for him or herself to follow such a path of destiny.

This may be that very thing that might help others to change themselves, for they will be those who choose to trust their own intuition and instinct as role models. Those who are beginning to awaken will have questions and will come to those who are being true to their nature and their calling, who are true to that which is the unfolding times and that which is the expansion of consciousness and awareness.

It is no good trying to force those who are not open to change. Being honest and true to one's own nature and one's own perceptions and understandings will be paramount, for this is the only way that those who are asking questions and seeking to change will see that there are those who perceive, those who understand, those who are being true to their inner calling and their inner nature, and this will have more effect, more influence than those who argue with those who will not change.

This is not seen as an effective use of one's energies. Therefore, in these coming times, part of the transformational process will be truly evolving to a place of awareness that will allow one and all, even those who are closest to one, to truly follow their own destiny, even if that destiny does not see them advancing at this time, of moving into that process of Ascension, and even if it shows that they are diametrically opposed to this action, even to the degree that they would force onto the individual who is moving in this direction their own beliefs and their own ideals.

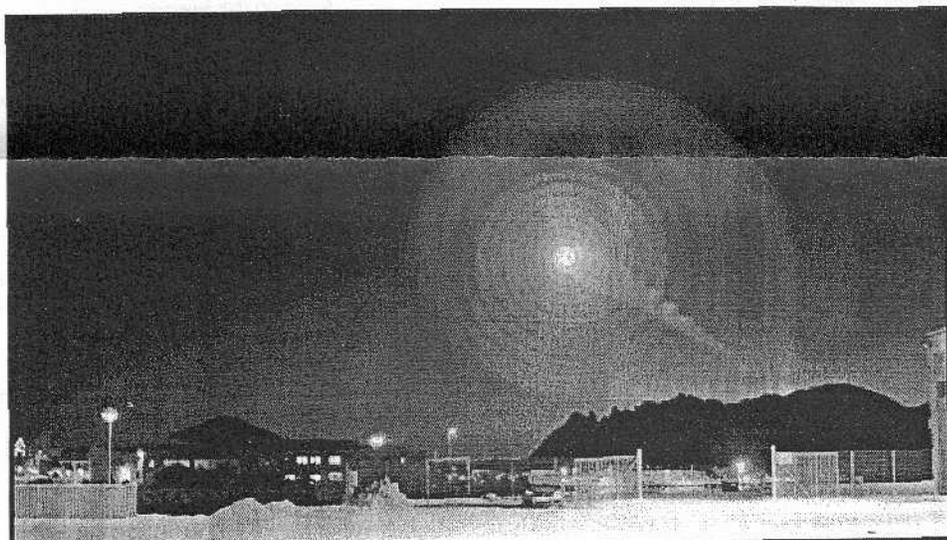

Part of that which will transpire ahead is that many who do not believe will try to force those who hold a contrary opinion, a contrary view of things, to endorse that which is the societal standard, the societal beliefs. It may be that some may have to become more silent in order not to draw upon themselves opposition, in order not to draw upon themselves protest, and in order not to draw upon themselves those actions that could be damaging and harmful to an individual.

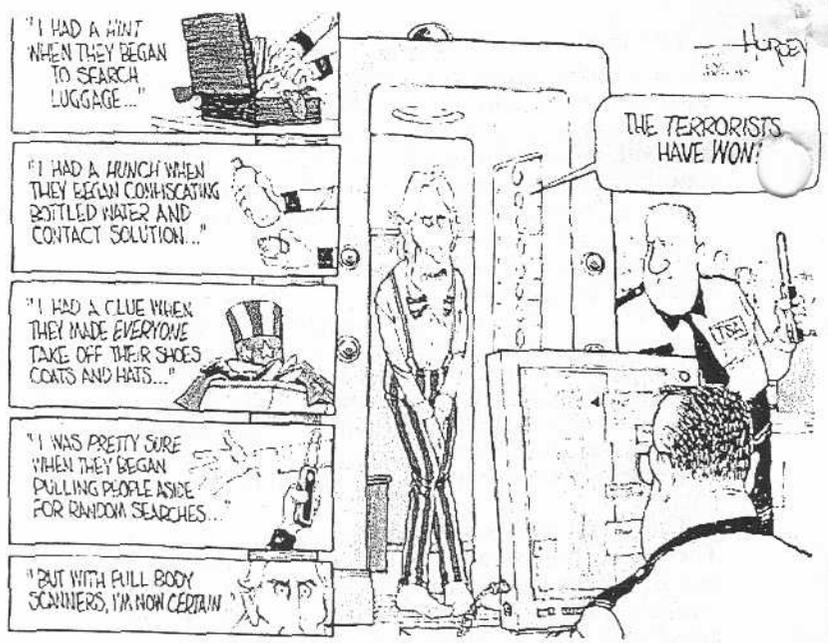

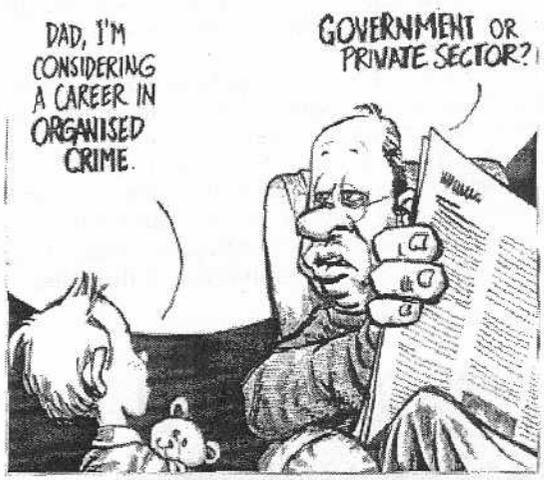

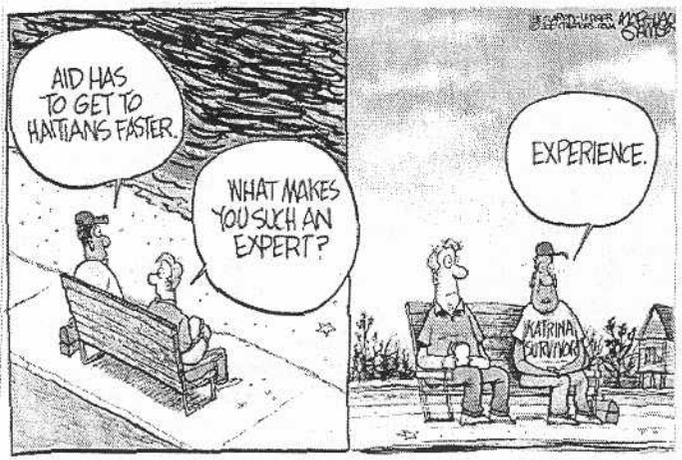

These will be times of discernment as well as awareness, and that discernment will always show the individual the way of least resistance, the way that is the safest for the individual in their journey towards their own personal ascension. What is important to realize however, is that there are more and more who are beginning to understand, and in discernment one will be able to find them and share with them and move forward together.

These times will be challenging perhaps, but they will be rewarding as well, and as long as the individual does not focus on a belief that they must be too challenging, and too hostile to them, then it should be possible for one and all to move forward to that point of Ascension in a relatively safe manner. This is important to remember for the times that are changing, the times that are ahead. This Awareness is complete at this time.
