The Haiti Earthquake: Things you Need to Know

CAC Reading 1-28-10 (January 28, 2010). Will Berlinghof,
Interpreter, Joan Mills Questioner & Energizer
The Law of Love and countdown have been given.

Question: Does Awareness wish to discuss any pertinent issues active at the present time?

THE EARTHQUAKE IN HAITI

COSMIC AWARENESS:

That this Awareness does indeed wish to discuss pertinent issues and matters of the present timeframe on the planet. In particular this Awareness wishes to make comment on that disastrous earthquake in Haiti. This is a profound event that has seriously traumatized many individuals, especially those who have been most directly involved in the earthquake itself. It has also had an effect on the psyche of humankind, for such a huge event does impact severely on the psyche of the collective consciousness and this has occurred now, and it is an event that is both bringing mankind to the highest levels of compassion and cooperation as well as to the lowest levels of degradation and injury.

How and Why the Earthquake Occurred

This Awareness wishes now to go into the nature of why this event occurred. This was an event that was not entirely natural in the way it came about. It is seen by this Awareness that this earthquake was triggered, perhaps not intentionally but through the use of certain weaponry that is in the possession of the United States Navy and other agencies. They were doing certain testing on this new weaponry based on Tesla technology that is designed to trigger magnitude events that could be used by the armed forces of the United States of America, but more particularly by those who control the armed forces of the United States.

This Tesla technology is designed to create the tectonic vibrations that would release earthquakes and this is what did occur. Certain testing was taking place that triggered this earthquake. The earthquake in and of itself is a natural event that once triggered, had its own life force, its own expression. It was in the triggering of the tectonic plates to release for that fraction of a second that then created the carry-on effect of a major earthquake occurring. In a manner of speaking it is hard to prove such a claim, for there is little evidence of how this occurred. There are no individuals coming forward who are confessing to their participation in this event. This is a top-secret cosmic-level weapon and one of the things that are hidden from those who are not meant to know.

Some Who Knew the Truth Were Exterminated

Just because it is hidden does not mean that such a weapon does not exist, and such a testing did not occur. It simply means that those who would know more, who could truly shed light onto this matter of how the earthquake was triggered, are being prevented from coming forward. It is even seen that there have been deaths involved of personnel who knew the truth, and who were so affected by what had occurred through their actions that they wished to come forward. It is seen that certain individuals have been exterminated, removed from any position they were in where they could create problems for those in authority, for this is not a weapon that they wish to reveal at this time, "they" being those who have control over these matters.

Israel Has Also Stolen the Technology

It is also seen that there is some connection to the state of Israel as being aware of this weaponry and having some similar technology based on tests done by the U.S. Navy that they also have in their possession now. This has to do with high-level espionage and the stealing of secrets of this nature. This is all cloak and dagger material, which is how it is often beyond the scope of comprehension and awareness of the masses. The masses can be highly entertained by a movie that would speak of these matters, and present such a plot, and they could be entirely convinced of the plot and the possibility in a movie, but to take this matter one step further, and presenting it as that which has indeed occurred, is for many ludicrous and ridiculous. They simply cannot make that next step.

Yet this Awareness does say that the energies behind the event and the reasons behind the event were not truly natural, and that they were a part of the testing of this Tesla weaponry earthquake technology that the United States government is experimenting with and has even used on occasion as in the case of the Chinese earthquakes a few years ago.

Spirit Itself Supported This Action in Haiti

This Awareness wishes it to be known however, that the event in Haiti is not simply an accident. What this Awareness is trying to say here is that while the triggering of the event may have been accidental in nature, and not truly the plan for things, there was an energy around this event that was known by Spirit Itself and Spirit supported this action.

It is hard for many to accept that Spirit supported this action. But by way of support, what this Awareness is saying is that there was the possibility of this major catastrophic event coming to that area. This was the plan of things. It's simply that it happened sooner than when it was planned for. In other words, it is seen by this Awareness that a catastrophic earthquake event between the North American plate and the Caribbean plate was on the books, so to speak. It was seen that there was a need to shift energies in that region. It was simply not foreseen that this would be through a planned and triggered event that was out of control.

This may seem hard for some to understand that it was already preordained that there would be such an event in the country of Haiti, for many would question why such events are allowed, why God allowed such a thing to happen. Indeed, many are questioning exactly this at this time. But it must always be understood that human life is limited in that the end will always be the transposition of the soul back into the fabric of the soul. As this Awareness has spoken of before, the promise is that all souls will be returned back into the essence of the soul, back into the fabric of the soul, and that death itself is but a great pretender.

Massive Deaths Not Viewed by Spirit as a Sad Event

Death comes to all one way or another, and while this has been a very dramatic event, and one that has killed hundreds of thousands of men, women and children, all at the same time; it is not seen by those who are on that side of the veil that is Spirit as a sad event, but rather an event of great significance and merit. There were certain energies in that country of Haiti, dark energies, oppressive energies, corrupted energies that were influencing the country in a major way.

The release of so many souls at the same time often has a purging effect on a region and in the human psyche. This purging event was meant to sweep away certain of the darker energies of that region. This is a time of endings and sadness, but it is also the beginning of a new state of affairs for the country of Haiti. This is not yet a guarantee, for many of the criminals who had caused such darkness and oppression survived the earthquake because they just happened to be in one of the soundest buildings in Port-au-Prince. Such is the irony of the situation. But at the same time, it does not guarantee that they will take complete control as it once was before.

Many nations are now involved in Haiti and agencies have moved into the country that have an intent to clean up this place and rebuild it from the ground up, quite literally. Therefore, Haiti can also be the promise of a bright new future for Haitians. It can be the promise of a compassionate, cooperative effort of humanity to help these people as they endeavor to pick up their lives and rebuild, and to start again. There are many opportunities here to rebuild into the Light, but there are opportunities also to reestablish the dark chains of oppression that have held this country in such abject poverty; not only financial poverty, but poverty of spirit.

The irony of this situation is that there are many Haitians who have a very spiritual nature, and who are very attuned to the Christian concept of God, yet there are those who have the other side, the dark side, who have worked with satanic energies for many years. The whole people are not to be condemned because there are those who worship the darkness, who worship Satan. But at the same time, the situation had reached such a proportion that in many ways there needed to be a mass event that could reboot the country and give it new possibility, new potential. This is seen as one of the reasons why this event occurred, even if it was accidentally triggered. It was still on the books as an event that was foreseen to occur in the year 2011, but it simply occurred one year earlier.

Haiti Only the Beginning of a Series of Natural Disasters

This new opportunity is one not only for the country of Haiti, but also for the world itself. It will be used as a measure to see how prepared individuals are, and how prepared countries are, to come to the aid of those who have need, not only just to restore what once was, but to help build something better. This is important at this time, for this is simply the beginning of events of this nature. This is not an isolated event that will only lead to rescue efforts in one country. It is seen to be the beginning of a series of natural disasters. This Awareness did speak in Its forecast that there would be certain events during the year 2010. But, as this Awareness said, it was not foreseen that such a massive event would occur, for it was not in the order of things for it to happen exactly when it did.

Now that this event has occurred, look for other events to also occur, other earthquakes in other regions. It must be remembered that the mantle of the earth is like a jigsaw puzzle with interlocking pieces. These are the tectonic plates. When one plate shifts or moves, it creates a massive release of energy in the form known as an earthquake. Volcanic eruptions also are connected to tectonic plate movement and activity. When there is an event in a region such as the Haiti region in the Caribbean region, there must be a readjustment of the plates. They have released a tremendous amount of energy in that one central location. But this often moves along and through the tectonic plate to the opposite end. The opposite end of the North American plate is that plate that is located on the West Coast and also the Mississippi fault line, that rift that is in the central corridor of the United States of America.

There could indeed be activities in this region, including some seismic activity, even flooding of this region. This can also move across to the West Coast, where further activities can occur. This Awareness has spoken in the past of that region of Northern California and Southern Oregon, where the caldera exists, where massive earthquake and volcanic activities could occur if there was ever a release in these regions. The activities along the edge of the North American/Caribbean tectonic plates can move across the nation, affecting these two regions through that which is the New Madrid fault line, as well as the Cascadian and other fault lines along the West Coast, the San Andreas for example.

Therefore, there is now a heightened possibility that did not exist several months ago, of other events now occurring in the United States as well as other parts of the world beyond that which was originally foreseen. Again, this Awareness is not predicting this as 100% to be the case, It is simply saying that because this event was released before the moment it was seen originally by this Awareness and others, that there is now an accelerated timetable that might well see other world-wide catastrophic events occurring.

Awareness Sees the United States Is Out Of Control

If such an event occurs in the United States of America in 2010 it will do much to reduce the nation's status from a primary power to a reduced status. This may be part of an overall plan, for it is seen that the United States of America is out of control and that many of the activities that are being put out there by those who have true power and control are becoming more and more radical in nature and less attuned to common sense and decency. It is as if those who have charge and dominion are so out of touch that they themselves cannot even see how extreme they are becoming and they seem to care even less.

Therefore, in terms of a rebalancing of power in the world itself, leading up to the time of Ascension, there is to be an adjusting of the power Elite and those who hold power. This is seen as very much connected in the physical events of the planet itself, and thus if there are any major events that occur in 2010 in the United States, look for a collapse of the economic system and the political system of governance. These are all possibilities that this Awareness is seeing now because of the events that have recently occurred in Haiti.

If You Feel You Want To Help the Haiti Survivors

This Awareness wishes to go back to the matter of Haiti itself and the level of response that individuals need give to the survivors of this event. This is truly a matter of the heart, and each and every reader, each and every member of that which is Cosmic Awareness Communications, is encouraged to visit their heart and to respond to a degree that they feel compelled to, if they do indeed feel compelled to. While it is seen as a measure of human generosity and compassion to respond to such events by the giving of money, this is not necessarily required, for often the money that is given is misused by the very organizations that are given the money. This is not always the case however, and this Awareness would say that if any cash contributions are given that certain research be done in order to know that the monies given will be primarily sent to Haiti, if this is where the focus and the intent is: to send money to the earthquake victims.

Instead of Money Send Love and Light to the Haitians

Another way that this Awareness would say is important as a way of responding to this event is sending Light and Love to the region. It must be remembered how powerful consciousness is, and the directing of intent and focus has profound effects. For those who do not have the financial means to contribute money, even if they wish to do so: do not feel ashamed or guilty over this, but rather, understand that much can be done by sending unconditional Love and Light to the region.

For others who do not feel compelled to send money, understand that this too is all right if one still sends the energy of compassion, Love and Light. This is really truly an individual matter for every human being to answer for himself or herself. This Awareness does not hold energy one way or another on this matter. It simply says that all must follow their heart in this matter and understand that much can be accomplished not only by sending money, which is the modern way of lending assistance, but also through the sending of Light and Love to those in need. This Awareness would recommend that this be considered as daily meditations by those who have wondered what to do in this situation, for this disaster has affected humanity deeply, and it does indeed provide the opportunity now for humanity to step to the plate and to help in ways that will be of the best and most effect for those in Haiti, be it the sending of money, the sending of Light and Love, or even the going to the country or involving oneself in a voluntary capacity to render aid to countries by being involved in agencies in their own countries that do provide aid.

Anything that one feels is appropriate is appropriate, even not taking action, if that is what is felt is most needed by the individual. This is a delicate subject in many ways, for such is the power of the media to create a sense of obligation and guilt, a sense that one must do something. Often one feels compelled and even guilty if one does not do something to help those poor victims. Ultimately, you have to seek in your heart your own answer to this question, and know that there are many ways to give of oneself: sometimes through donations, sometimes through physical activity, sometimes through the meditation and sending of Light and Love.

Be aware that the answer truly lies within your own heart, of how to respond to this disaster and any and other disasters that may also come in the times ahead. Finally, this Awareness would end by saying that this is the tip of the iceberg, as It has already stated, but not to dwell on what the next event may be. This Awareness has spoken of possibilities, but that is indeed all they are. This Awareness will always say: Believe in a positive future. Energize the positive opportunities and move in that direction always with the focus and intent of experiencing that which is the highest and the best.

Understand that Spirit is still involved in this event, and even though there may be questions as to how such an event could occur, what benevolent God would allow such an event—always understand that all who passed over chose to pass over, none had their lives snuffed or taken from them. This was part of a mass agreement of those who crossed over, and the purging this Awareness has spoken of has done much to clean that area of the world. This also allows the possibility of new investment of energies, of thought, of compassion and of heart, so that events that are also seen as possibilities in the future may themselves be negated or changed.

These are all part of the complex nature of future events, and one can realize that there are many possibilities. It is for this reason that this Awareness has always said: Focus on your own life, what it is that you are seeking to experience, always checking in with the beliefs that are held to see how they may affect the direction of one's life. This Awareness also wishes it to be understood that this Awareness has sent much energy to the region of Haiti, as have all levels of the Divine. Those who have crossed at this time have all been welcomed home. All are blessed and are free of the suffering that they had in the lives that they were living, especially at that time of the ending of that disastrous, catastrophic event that is the Haiti earthquake. This Awareness is complete at this time.

THE WORK OF THE U.S. BLACK OPS?

(Huge Thefts in Haiti Related to Bush and Clinton)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) There was something sent from Ted Helinski concerning a report by the Global Analysis International Intelligence speculation that the earthquake may have been the work of US Black Ops which flattened the French Embassy and many of its officials, imploded the United Nations' own establishments in the Haitian capital and, no doubt, obliterated evidence of US government and rogue official drug-running complicity channeled through the Haitian capital for many years. Intelligence reports are also circulating about the possible disruption of liens and seizures of trillions of dollars by the international community, relative to past crimes committed by former presidents George Bush I & II and Bill Clinton which were being channeled through Haiti's central bank. It carried on to something about certain members of the Bush and Clinton families having been involved in international smuggling of illicit drugs for decades. And it carries on and on... is there any truth to this report?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed there is truth to this report. As this Awareness has said, Haiti was a place of corrupted energies, of much darkness, including that which has been reported in the article just read. Much was about to surface that would have caused too much attention to be placed on certain individuals, such as George W. Bush, and such as the Clintons. It is not only for this reason that the area was flattened however. It was a plan to deal with certain parts of the city that accelerated beyond belief even to those who were initiating this plan. While this Black Ops covert operation was intentional, the destruction of the city and the surrounding region was not part of the plan. It was collateral damage.

Certain Energies Intoxicate Reptilian Beings on 4th Dimension

Saying this, those who are in the energies of the darkest forces thrive on such events. It must be remembered through various channelings of this Awareness in past years, how certain energies are intoxicating to those on the fourth dimension, those reptilian beings, those extraterrestrials who feed off of this energy, the energies of torture, of disaster, of war, of accidents. All of this is intoxicating to the energy vampires, to the Elite who thrive on such death and destruction, such chaos, and such calamity. Even though the overall event was not exactly as planned, there are no regrets by those who are having a feast on such energies at this time. For them, the death of 100,000, 200,000, 400,000 or 500,000 is simply a feast on the grandest of scale.

That is part of why there has been a perpetuation always of war, of death and destruction, of violence, of even cars that are not safe, and practices that are still producing much pain and chaos. This could be investi- gated entirely in a separate issue. But at this time this Awareness is simply pointing out that while this event may have been accidental in nature, it still stems from a designed and purposeful Black Ops operation. It escalated beyond control, but this still pleased those who are in charge, those who feed off of such events and occurrences. Does this answer the question posed by the Energizer?

QUESTIONER:

Yes it does. This just indicates how far they will go, unfortunately.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The Powers That Be Are Getting Careless: More and More People are Starting to Question and Connect the Dots

It is indeed unfortunate but it must be understood that as the efforts of those who have power become more disassociated from those who they have dominion and control over, the results will become more obvious as these individuals and organizations become more emboldened to act at more extreme levels, and to take such actions that make it seem obvious that the insane asylum has been taken over by the insane.

They have covered themselves so well for so long that they simply do not worry about others seeing them for who they are, of others starting to protest and stand up against them. And yet such actions are starting to occur. It is as if those who have had power for so long have become so devoid of human experience and understanding, and human compassion; have become so enraptured with their own authority, their own power, and their own capacity to pull the wool over the eyes of the masses, that they are becoming too emboldened, too removed. It is as if they feel they can do ANYTHING they wish. And thus, there are more and more actions that are starting to become more and more apparent to even those who have never questioned, those who have never thought of these matters.

In some ways, this is a positive event, for as the Powers That Be become more excessive; more people will start to see them for who and what they are. This is also part of the unfolding of the times.

Extensive Gold Deposits Have Been Found on Haiti

Certain information is even now coming out about the involvement of certain organizations in the Haitian earthquake, and there are other bits of information that will also come through, such as they have found on the island of Haiti extensive mineral deposits, especially gold, that could quite likely turn around the fortunes of this small poverty-stricken island.

Part of the plan is to take over the mineral resources for the benefit of those who have the power. But if they are exposed, if it is shown that these deposits are there, then these same resources may well yet be used to build up a new country, where the people who were of the lowest of the low suddenly find that their lives are radically altered and that they have a much better quality of life than any they once knew. This is if those who have power are prevented from doing the acts that they had planned to do, and if they are exposed for who they are, this is seen as highly likely in the months ahead.

WHY WAS THE U.S. NAVY CLOSE BY?

QUESTION:

That would be wonderful if they were able to access their own wealth. Which brings to mind, is that why the U.S. Navy was close by, to enable troops to have access to the island and take control of everything on there right now?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is not seen to be so. The reason the U.S. Navy was close by is that the Black Ops were done through the U.S. Navy ships in that region. The Tesla weaponry that this Awareness spoke of was located in those ships.

QUESTIONER:

(I see.) That was very interesting and I'm sure there will be more and more exposure through the Internet or YouTube and all of the other sources now available on the Internet.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Even TV News is Showing U.S. Troop Buildup

Aside from the exposure on the Internet of truths that are suppressed, this Awareness would ask all to also watch the television news. Look deeper at the reports, look deeper behind the scenes, and read between the lines. See that the military movement in the country is a military movement while under the guise of helping the victims of the earthquake. Much can already be seen of how they are building up their troops in the island of Haiti, perhaps for other reasons than just simply assisting.

Ask Questions as You Watch the News

One can watch the news if one is able to detach oneself from the news and always ask: "Whom is this event really serving?" "What will be the truth of this event if I do not blindly accept what I am being told?" When the news is viewed in this way, much can be determined and ascertained that lies behind the actual film footage of a news report. Therefore, simply watch the news while asking such deep questions and one will see that even the nine o'clock news can provide much information if one is open to receiving this information.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you) I'd like to turn the tape please. Is there additional information, please?

HAITI JUST ONE OF THE MAIN EVENTS: MORE ON THE WAY

"The Death Throes of Civilization as it Prepares for a Most Amazing Event"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness has spoken much of the event in Haiti, the energies surrounding this event and the loss of much life and that this life is cherished and blessed by Spirit Itself. But one must also understand that this is one of the main events of an accelerated series of events that are ready to start coming down. As long as one understands that these are indicative of the massive changes coming, and one does not energize them with fear and anxiety, one can still very much allow these events to move one forward.

This is what matters the most at this time of Ascension; that one does not fall into the traps that are being set at this time, the traps of bringing about situations on the planet that will create absolute terror and fear and hopelessness. When one goes into such energies, that is when one is most vulnerable to being taken and used in a manner that is in accordance with those who have understanding of these things, who by design are planning a future where many lose their rights, and many lose their way. While events may start unfolding that challenge one deeply, one must always remember they are also the events of the changing of the times, the death throes of civilization as it prepares for a most amazing event.

The Event Will Accelerate Human Spiritual Evolution

One can become too involved in the actuality of the events, allowing only those events to speak to them and never understanding that the deeper significance is that there is change coming, a mass event that has never been quite experienced on this planet before, and that will accelerate human spiritual evolution. This does not come lightly or easily, and part of the journey will involve mass events of the nature of the Haitian earthquake. It would be too easy to get totally wrapped up in it and not achieve a certain distance from the event. It is important, in fact this Awareness would say imperative, to have a degree of distance between oneself and the events that one sees on the television.

Don't Become Trapped By the Images You See On Television

There is danger if one becomes trapped by the images one sees on television of the death and mayhem and despair such events occasion. One needs to have a sense of distance, while still having compassion and sympathy for those who need to experience these events, those who chose to participate in these events. One day, the individuals themselves may find themselves in similar events, and if this is so one must always remember that there is much more occurring than what one sees immediately around themselves. This is on another level of understanding that this Awareness will leave for now. It simply wishes to state that the times are a-changing, as It has always said, and that there is now an acceleration in the energies of this planet as it moves towards that event that is known as Ascension.

HOT LINE UPDATE:

Ed's Note: This reading on Haiti was given January 28, 2010. Two weeks later on February 13, 2010 the opening message of a new reading was sent to me which will later become Issue 2-13-10 was "A devastating earthquake is imminent in the USA". Awareness explained that when the Powers That Be used Tesla technology that created the Haiti earthquake the energies must rebalance themselves, even at the cost of many human lives. "The event this Awareness is speaking of is expected within the next month to two months. "Prepare yourselves for a major event, for it is on its way. It may even come quicker than the 1 to 2 month period if the energies continue to accelerate beyond control. This Awareness is giving this message to help those prepare for that which is coming." Northern California and Southern Oregon is pinpointed "but other events will be caused by the shifting plates and can radiate Southward and may extend inward into central parts of the US."

Awareness explained the heavy snows in the East and the lack of snow in Vancouver for the Olympics is another sign Mother Earth is imbalanced and must correct itself at any moment. This is the first time as editor I have ever heard Awareness go out on a limb and emphatically declare an event of this kind and actually stating the time it will occur. There is no time to prepare this reading and include it in your March mailing but you will find the Audio Version on our website which is:

www.CosmicAwareness.org

Have no fear. You will be protected. You all know what needs to be done and what each of you can do when this event occurs. Avaton

WILL A PERSON WHO ASCENDS STILL BE LIVING IN THE SAME HOUSE WITH THE SAME SURROUNDINGS?

QUESTION:

(Thank you) There are two more questions on Ascension. These are from Lloyd in Utah. He asks: "Will a person who ascends still be living in the same house with the same surroundings, or will everything be different?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This depends on whether the individual chooses to see him or herself still living in the same house. There is no requirement for this. However, if the individual either through ignorance does not understand the occurrence of the events around them or because they choose to actually experience it, and they choose to stay in the house and the surroundings, then that will be so. They will see themselves staying in that house or they will believe themselves still in that house because they are ignorant of the fact that there was a mass change.

By ignorance, this Awareness is not trying to be insulting; it is simply that state of affairs that often occurs when one is unaware of certain pieces of information or events that are occurring. In the Ascension, not all will even experience a radical departure from the norm. While this Awareness has always spoken that the Ascension is a shift in consciousness, the degree of shift will really depend on the individual who is experiencing that shift. Many are now aware of the changing times, and are shifting their consciousness, and awakening to the truths of a higher reality, a higher dimensional state of consciousness. But many are not awakening to this.

Many are still prepared to see their lives continuing much as they have been over the last several years or the last decades of their lives.

Therefore, many may be unaware, even ignorant, of the possibility of a mass jump forward in consciousness. They may simply shift a small degree to what once was because events are certainly coming that will shift one's life. But this does not mean that they will shift to such a degree if an individual is not prepared or interested in having the Ascension experience, to the degree another might be. There are even those who will choose to go deeper into the material experience, where they have experiences that take them away from their spiritual nature. These are those who would move towards that which Awareness has called planet B and the experience of those who choose this type of material existence.

In other words, the variety of themes that this Awareness has spoken of may even allow for a certain ignorance of Ascension, where certain individuals may barely perceive any shift in their lives. Life quickly is changing around them: new technology is coming forward, and higher constraints of military government forces may occur. But their own personal lives may seem to be the same as always, even to the degree that they may still experience living in the same house with their families and friends and loved ones around them.

Even Those Who Understand Will Still Image Their House

Then there are those who even though they understand the nature of the shift, they choose to focus their energies and their beliefs on a continuance in that house or environment they have known for so long. Even if they understand Ascension, their creation of their reality may still bring that image of that house and that family that they are used to, and this may be their experience. This Awareness is complete.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. WHAT IF YOU ASCEND BEFORE DECEMBER 21, 2012?

QUESTION:

(Thank you) On the same line of that latter commentary, he asks: "If someone steps through their own portal, for example, and ascends now, would they still be able to live among their friends and relatives, etc.?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

By this comment, this Awareness is assuming that the individual is asking if those who ascend before that which is 2012, December 21st, as is commonly held, will they still be able to experience their loved ones, their former lifetime - is this so?

QUESTIONER:

I would take it to mean that as well, yes.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

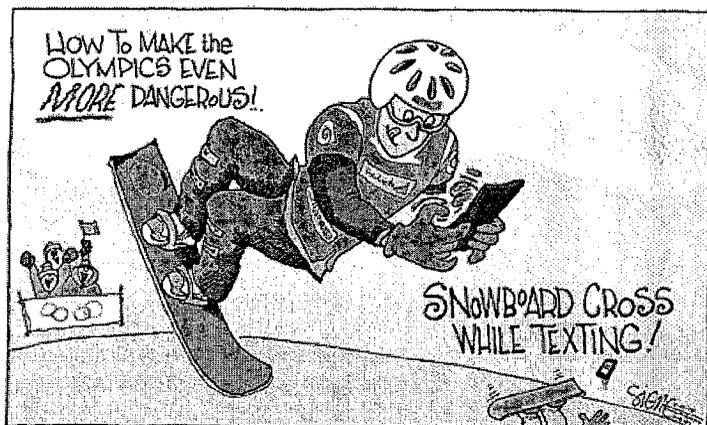

This Awareness wishes to remind one and all that the dateline given, the date of December 21, 2012, is seen as the completion of the Ascension process for the majority of individuals. This Awareness has spoken before of how there will be a continuation for some of the Ascension experience, just as there has been an experience by some before this deadline, at this time for example. So the possibility does exist that certain individuals will ascend before the deadline, will experience a shifting in consciousness and will suddenly be much more aware of their multidimensional nature, and will suddenly become aware of how they are starting to experience the reality of their lives so entirely differently.

They may still have their family and friends around them, they still may live in the same house, and they may still live in a country that they see as besotted by corrupt officials and degenerate individuals. But they will understand the higher truth, the higher level of consciousness that truly rules, that truly is behind all. Thus it is that many individuals now who are still living this life at this time in the present situation are very hard-pressed because they understand at the depth of their being that the world does not have to be so. Many of those who have begun the Ascension process already see the scam behind such things as the H1N1 vaccination program, and will ask automatically, "What exactly did happen in Haiti? Who exactly pushed the button that caused that event?"

Many will see that the way life is now lived is not correct to the planet itself, does not support Mother Earth, and they will understand that even though mass pollution is still occurring and there are those who would still destroy the planet, that they can not be part of that destruction. This too is all part of the Ascension process as many start to evolve to higher levels of consciousness and begin to see matters in completely different terms, through completely fresh eyes.

Why Some Who Have Ascended Will Still Remain on Earth

Thus in a manner of speaking, even if one has stepped through a portal so to speak, and has ascended, one may still find themselves on the planet because they have made a commitment to help the Ascension process. There are many who, in a manner of speaking, have in a sense already experienced their Ascension, and yet are still on the planet, ready to assist and guide those who are still moving toward Ascension. For many, the purpose and point of life has always been not what they have experienced before Ascension but what they will accomplish after Ascension, be it at that deadline moment of December 21, 2012 or even now, when many are starting to awaken, many are starting to ascend.

Seeing Clearly is Part of the Ascension of the Human Mind

While it is true that there will be portals to actually pass through, many are already passing through portals of the mind, of understanding and comprehension. They are seeing the world so clearly now in terms of the deception and the control and manipulation that is occurring, and this is also part of the ascension of the human mind and human spirit. It will translate finally into a full body experience, a shifting of consciousness of that at that physical level. But many are already ascended in mind, in emotion and in spirit. Thus, the final answer is yes, it is indeed possible to still experience one's surroundings as one once knew them, even though one has to a degree already ascended.

QUESTIONER:

And that would include their friends and relatives as well, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed, this is so. This Awareness has not truly spoken of this, but the Ascension process is an ongoing one, and does not simply involve jumping through the portal and being in another place. For many it is as if one is awakening daily to new Truths, new levels of comprehension and awareness. One can truly see what is occurring around one with such clarity that they are shocked that others do not see the truth of what is occurring. Thus it is that many are now aware of the manipulations that are occurring on the planet by those who have power, and it is becoming very grossly obvious to many that there are secret agendas that are served out by those who have power and the capacity to hold the masses in blindness and ignorance. This too is part of the unfolding Ascension that is occurring at this time. This may create new questions, and of course this Awareness welcomes any new questions on this matter.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. This is most appreciated. Is there any additional information?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness will move on.

A SYNTHETIC ARMY IS COMING THROUGH A STARGATE IN YEMEN?

(What The Full-Body Scans At Airports Really Mean)

QUESTION:

(Thank you.) There is a question from JL in Tennessee. This was forwarded by Avaton. JL writes: "In an Internet radio interview on January 12, 2010, Kerry Cassidy of Project Camelot said the reason ships from all nations are amassing in the Gulf of Aden near Yemen is because a synthetic army is trying to come in through a Stargate there. She heard this from a government whistleblower. She said these are super soldiers, hybrids taken from Atlantis and allowed to evolve on another planet which they can do with artificial intelligence. She said the real reason for the full body scans at airports is to detect these ET's and synthetic life forms. Is there any truth to this?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This article is seen largely as misinformation. There is some truth that the Stargate that is in Yemen is to be used to bring extraterrestrial beings through, but these are not the synthetic beings, the super soldiers the article is warning of. They are, rather, members of the Galactic Federation. They come from the 12 planets that host life, particularly the 11 planets other than Earth itself, and many of them have a different physiology. Not all have the exact carbon copy body of humans.

In other words, some have the heart placed in slightly different areas. The stomach may also be in a different position, and there are other matters that can be scoped out if such a being were to step in front of the full body monitors that are now being used. They would also have access to certain implants that would help them in the negotiation of their tasks, to be able to walk through certain devices, so that traditional security devices could not pick up any weapons or tools that these beings were carrying, for what is carried by these beings are not necessarily weapons.

Part of the Reason the Powers That Be Install Body Scanners

This is in truth part of the reason why these full body scanners are being used, to be able to ferret out such beings that are here to help in the process of overthrowing old regimes, old power structures, and those who hold power. There is seen to be a use for the gate in Yemen to bring many of these Galactic Federation beings and troops in, but not for the purpose that is stated. The conjecture that these are super soldiers from Atlantis who were grown on other planets and then brought here to wage war is seen as completely erroneous.

It must be remembered that those of the Galactic Federation pose a true threat to the Powers That Be. They would not want such individuals free amongst them who could disrupt their plans, and therefore, they are giving out a half-truth and making it seem to be a threat to all humanity, when in truth the beings that knew of this Stargate and were ready to use it because it was a relatively obscure portal of entrance, are the ones that are challenged and in danger.

In other words, the Powers That Be would see these troops as super troops against them and their efforts, and they take this and elaborate on this and state that these are synthetic soldiers, super soldiers come to destroy the world. This is simply not seen by this Awareness as the full truth.

QUESTIONER:

Sort of "fear tactics" again, is that right?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The manipulation of the truth to create fear.

QUESTIONER:

How did they come across this information? How was this possible?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

They are also beings that exist on the fourth dimension. The normal rules of time and space do not conform there. They were able through their own agents to find truths, to find strands of the time /space continuum; possible strands, possible futures, and they are simply aware of these and are guarding against them.

QUESTIONER:

I see. Will the Galactic Federation be able to combat that in any way, or overcome it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that they will deal with this matter and are already dealing with it. Furthermore, this is not seen as the only way that they are preparing to bring assistance to this planet. It has long been spoken, that their desire for that which is First Contact, is still high on the agenda. It was seen that the bringing through of certain agents through the hidden Stargate in Yemen would be a way of bringing forth onto the planet certain individuals who would then place themselves in strategic positions to be of maximum assistance.

Other Things the Galactic Federation is Doing Today

Many of the tools and apparatus that are being brought in are actually apparatus to nullify the effects of certain weapons that are now starting to be used, such as the Tesla earthquake weapon this Awareness spoke of earlier. The Galactic Federation agents know that these weapons are being used and they are seen as a true threat. They are here to negotiate the cancellation of these effects, and to create an interference. This Awareness has spoken before of how they have interfered with other projects, such as the vaccination program, where they destroyed and contaminated large amounts of vaccinations that made this unusable. They are here to assist humanity until it finally reaches that point where humanity itself can see the truth and understand who has been misleading them for so long and take measures against such individuals and such Elites.

UFOS SEEN IN NEWFOUNDLAND

(Canada's Royal Canadian Mounted Police Have Sold Out)

QUESTIONER:

There was something on the net the other night that UFOs were seen in Newfoundland, which is the East Coast of Canada and a picture was taken, and I think there were more than one, and when this was reported, the RCMP said that it was missiles and that they couldn't talk about it. Is this going to be more of the norm now?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed. This is the norm and has been the norm for quite some time. But more and more people will begin to understand how ludicrous these denials are. It is similar to the report over Norway of the spiral vortex that was seen and also claimed to be the result of a ballistic missile that had blown up. The majority of people do not believe this story, nor will they believe the stories of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police as they themselves say that this was not a missile and the stories the Mounties put out are cover-ups.

QUESTIONER:

Yes, I guess their hands are tied too.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

They are to a degree, plus they are told what to say also.

WHAT'S THAT CIRCLING THE SUN?

(Is It Nibiru? And Why Doesn't It Burn Up?)

QUESTION:

(Okay, thank you). There is one other question that I had. There was something else on the Internet. It showed a picture of the sun, and within the sun's corona or orb, there were at least two or three of what looked like planets. These were not solar flares. Is this Nibiru, and if it was Nibiru, does Nibiru have more than one planet accompanying it on its journey, or planet X, whichever?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that this, strictly speaking, was Nibiru. It is seen that it is an artificial vessel that is in orbit in that position. It is not seen to be Nibiru.

QUESTIONER:

I see. Thank you. With being so close to the sun, how come it's not burnt up?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not burned up because it has what loosely could be called technology that will prevent it from being destroyed by the heat and the energy of the sun. It is technology that uses the very energy of the sun, the solar energy, to create a powerful force field around the vessel itself.

QUESTIONER:

Like a reflector?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

In some ways this is a reflector. It reflects back the energy. It does not absorb the energy. It can stay in orbit in this position without any great damage. This vessel is seen to be part of the Galactic Federation forces.

QUESTIONER:

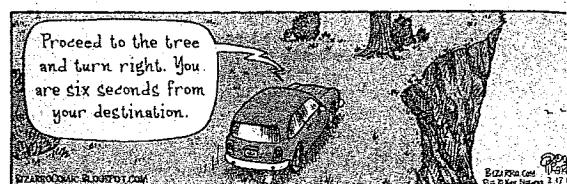

Thank you. That was going to be my next question. Thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There are other such planetoid-type vessels that are also located in this area.

QUESTIONER:

I see. Is there a closing message, please?

MANY MORE EVENTS ARE COMING

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There has indeed been much discussion today about the events over the last several weeks, in particular the catastrophic earthquake in Haiti. The events that are occurring presage that which is about to unfold. In other words, there are many events now that can be seen as presenting the type of events and the unfolding of events that are directly ahead in time. There are many events now, be they of a world nature such as the catastrophe in Haiti, or of a personal nature, personal upheavals that are affecting many at this time.

What Wanderers Are Experiencing Today on a Personal Level

This Awareness has started today's session by discussing major world events. It wishes to conclude by discussing personal events. As It has just said, there are many events now that are occurring that presage those events that are about to transpire. On a personal level, many individuals are experiencing at this time levels of anxiety unknown to them previously; are experiencing health issues and health challenges. Many of the members of Cosmic Awareness Communications who are Wanderers are feeling the energies of these times most definitely. So too are other spiritually aware beings, who are moving into greater sentience and awareness. The sensitivity that they are starting to experience opens them up to the energies of the planet at this time. These energies are then translated in the most personal of ways, and it is often forgotten that what is unfolding for an individual in his or her personal life may not just be their own personal issues or challenges. They may be reflective of their sensitivity to world events and world energies.

The Powers That Be, the dark agents, are most definitely a very active group at this time, are very active in their program to create the energies of ignorance, hopelessness, despair and destitution. They are doing this on many levels: on the levels of Earth events, such as earthquakes and weather warfare. They are doing it at financial levels. They are doing it at local levels, and they are doing it on personal levels. This must be always thought of as one goes through the challenging times that one may be experiencing at this time.

Again, this Awareness wishes to be clear, that many sensitive individuals, those who have a sensitivity to the energies around them, may be experiencing in a personal way these worldwide events and energies. Remember also to pray at this time for protection and guidance. Believe you are protected, and see the challenges and events of your lives as opportunities to clear out residual energies within yourself that have been held not only perhaps in this one lifetime but also perhaps through many lifetimes.

You Have Made Agreements to Be The Shock Troops

You have made agreements to be the shock troops of this time, carrying loads upon your shoulders that most individuals would never understand or acknowledge. By carrying these loads, there are often personal ramifications to the individual and their lives and in their lives. It must be remembered that not everything that is occurring in one's life is simply because of an individual's own beliefs but may be part of a deeper, more Divine Purpose that each individual has chosen, and that each individual is participating in, especially those who have this awareness and spiritual understanding this Awareness has spoken of.

Therefore, those who are finding these times to be very stressful, very difficult, and very challenging—please remember that they are also indicative of the changes that are happening. Many of the shock troops who have chosen to carry these loads will also be the first through and will relieve themselves of their burdens, and then come back to help others who are inflicted by the times coming. It is almost as if many have chosen to take up the loads at this time so that they will be done and be able to be of assistance in the times that are coming.

If this is so for those who read these words, then remember: you are one of the shock troopers, you are one of the Light Warriors, you are one of those who has already experienced Ascension in other lifetimes, you are one who has felt you can assist in the Ascension process that is unfolding in these times. You are to be congratulated and reminded that you are not alone, and that Spirit is always with you. God is always with you. This is so and will remain so in the times ahead. No matter how dark, the Light will always shine and will always be the beacon to guide one home. This Awareness is complete at this time.

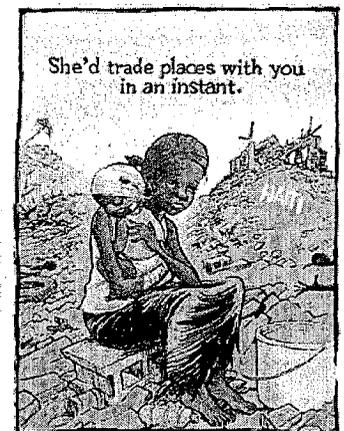

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. That was beautiful and very reassuring. Thank you.

THE WINTER SOLSTICE:

When Father Sun Comes Up and Impregnates Mother Earth Once Again with the Seed of Light and Life

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to lead in with the message that has to do with that which is today's auspicious date, the solstice, December 21, the winter solstice. First of all, this Awareness notes that there are now three years until that most auspicious of all dates; the Winter Solstice of 2012 is scheduled to occur. There is much attention to that date, for it is the date that many have chosen. The Mayan calendar has been focused on as being the end date, the last day of the world.

It is not the intention of this Awareness at this time to focus on this matter in terms of the prophecies and predictions for the Winter Solstice 2012. It is rather opening with the message that today is the solstice, and the solstice energies are significant in and of themselves. It is the most auspicious of occasions in that the ancients understood the truer significance of the solar energy and the solar exchange that occurs on the solstice day each and every year, in this case the Winter Solstice.

It was the occasion where the darkness reached its most extreme point that the night was the longest of all for the Northern Hemisphere, and that the cycle reversed itself from this day onward, and the days will now begin to grow longer until the Summer Solstice is reached, where there is another reversal, when the days begin to grow shorter once again. The nights will grow longer, the days shorter and with the Winter Solstice the energies are beginning to reverse from this day forward, and the nights will grow shorter, the days longer. That is the way of it.

But the ancients also understood at a different level, at a symbolic level. They understood that the Winter Solstice was the moment when Mother Earth received the seed of light from that which is Father Sun. Although they understood this in terms of a persona, or personalities and not in a dry scientific manner, as is now the case, theirs was a world that was alive on all levels and dimensions, a world of harmony and interchange with Mother Earth herself. Those who lived on the surface of Mother Earth were part of her cycles and understood the cycles of life, and that the Winter Solstice marked that moment when the sun came up and impregnated Mother Earth once again with the seed of light and life.

That seed would grow within the womb of mother Earth deep within her belly until the energies reached a point where new life would cascade outwards. This would eventually become the abundance of summer and the final stage, the birth being that of the Fall when the harvest occurs, and the fruits are once again collected, the cycle to begin again where Mother Earth goes deep into her hibernation to find the seed again being planted within her the following Winter Solstice. There was great celebration over this wondrous mystery in times gone past. Such connection to the life cycles of the planet and of individuals and societies and organizations and nature and the light is no longer understood nor celebrated by modern mankind.

Many Celebrations of the Light Returning Back to Darkness

There are still many celebrations that hearken to this original understanding of the light returning back into the darkness. The Jewish festival of Hanukkah is a celebration of the light being brought into the darkness. The Hindu celebration of Diwali is the same, of the celebration of the light being brought into the darkness of the planet. Even the modern tradition of the Christmas tree and Christmas tree lights and the lights that are put up for one and all to see during this Christmas period of time is a hearkening back to that most ancient and original of celebrations, the dawning of light into the darkness of the night and into that which is the mother Earth energy, the impregnation of Mother Earth with the light and with life.

While these were ancient celebrations indeed, the remnants do still find expression in these times of modern civilization, although lost is that deeper appreciation and celebration of this original mystery. Today's session marks an important moment, for it falls on that most special of days, the Winter Solstice. It too will reflect the light of this Awareness being brought into the darkness of consciousness that is the norm, the template of consciousness on the planet at this time, and that this represents a turning point, a changing, an extra understanding to the fact that today is a time for such understandings, and even though this message may not be printed for several weeks and that which is the Winter solstice will be long gone -- still, in this moment as this Awareness speaks a new level of energy, a new level of light is being brought into human consciousness, just as the light of the sun has been brought deep into the belly of Mother Earth and a new cycle of life is begun once again.

The Countdown to the Winter Solstice of 2012 Begins

This has nothing to do with what this Awareness will say today, what questions It will answer, what information or insights It will share. It is more in the nature that this Winter Solstice is significant in that it marks the last trimester of solstices, if you will, before that final auspicious occasion, that which is the Winter Solstice December 21, 2012. There will be three more solstices yet to be, and thus the countdown towards that event will enter that which is the last trimester, if you will, before the birth of that which is new, that which is the mystery of life itself; the continuance of life.

This is also part of the mystery that was understood by the ancients; that this, the darkest day of all, the shortest day, the darkest and longest night of all, represented the death of the death of the planet. In that very moment was the spark of life that engendered new life, the new light that was given to bring new light onto the planet. These next three years will be crucial years for all to work with and grow with. Each and every solstice that is to be celebrated, including the Summer Solstice, is to be remembered as a notice of the fact that the ending of a cycle is drawing near and that new life, a new start, a new beginning will be the consequence of the old ending.

This day today is thus auspicious in and of itself, but it presents the opportunity to share with the readers this insight, this understanding, this awareness so that they may themselves celebrate the solstices that are yet to come, winter and summer, and also to remember the equinoxes also. These are all auspicious occasions that allow mankind to reconnect with Mother Earth and to reestablish that natural flow and rhythm, that harmony that the ancients once understood and lived intimately, but has long since been lost.

In some ways, this is to be understood: the ending of the grand cycle is so that mankind can find equilibrium again, can find harmony again, can reconnect again to mother Earth, to nature, to the cosmos and the cosmic. All of this has largely been lost for humanity, and many will rediscover the path to that deeper and greater connection. This Awareness is now complete with Its opening message, a reminder of the significance of that which is the Winter Solstice and the universal flow that is life, that is light, and that is the dark. This Awareness is prepared now to go on to any questions the Energizer has of It.

"SPIRITUAL ORGANIZATIONS WHO OFFER A "FREE LUNCH"

QUESTION:

We have a question from Lloyd in Utah. He writes: "I have an important question for Awareness. There is a website called freedomclubUSA.com that is putting out basically the same information as CosmicAwareness.org. They also claim to be able to pay out many millions of dollars very soon to their members who submit a "process". Does Awareness see this as actually occurring in the near future?"

Your comments please? Thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not see this occurring in the immediate future. It is not accurate that those amounts of money that are claimed will be paid back. It is not seen by this Awareness that that is what will occur. Even though these monies have been stolen from the citizens of the United States, and from citizens of all countries the world over; funds and revenues that are taken and given to those in power, those who have more than enough, it is still such that even if there is a legitimate claim to regain these monies, to bring it back and put it back into the pockets of those from whom it was stolen, it is not seen by this Awareness that this will occur.

It is like so many claims in the past that have promised much and yet have failed to deliver. A number of years ago the organization NESARA claimed that mortgages would be canceled and paid off by those who were to abolish the banks and the banking system, and many became excited about this prospect. Many even felt that all of their problems were about to be resolved and they would not have to worry any longer about paying the large debt that is often incurred when one buys a home and takes on a mortgage. Unfortunately, this did not occur. Indeed, an event known as 911 occurred and the claim afterwards was that the very organization that spearheaded this movement had been in one of the twin towers and had been destroyed with all records.

NESARA: another Scam to Ensnare the Gullible

Thus, the intended project of relieving all mortgage payments was brought to a crushing halt. There are other occasions when organizations such as NESARA predicted the impeachment of the president, or this or that event which would make a radical difference and these events did not occur, even though great claims and great promises were made. Unfortunately, this Awareness sees that this too is yet another promise to ensnare those who are gullible, who would wish to believe that their financial sorrows and worries will be lifted so easily.

Even if it is correct that their monies have illegitimately been stolen from them, this is not how they will recover. This is not seen as the way forward or a way back. It is simply a claim that is being made by those who are manipulators and misdirectors, for it is known that many energies can be tied up when such a claim is made, and many will be followers of such claims, hoping that they will manifest, and in that, they do not then take responsibility for themselves, and yet this is exactly what is needed.

To Just Believe Such an Event Will Occur Blocks Energy

To simply believe that such an event will occur blocks up the energies, misdirects it and nullifies it. This is why such claims are often made. Eventually many reach a point of saturation where too many claims have been heard, too often Wolf has been cried, and then they stop believing in such claims, such promises. Wolf has been cried just once too often and then many will fall away, will no longer believe. Herein also lies a danger, for many big changes are waiting the time when it is correct and right. If those who have heard such claims too often have dropped away they will not be present and available for such matters, and when this occurs those forces that would have gained from individuals who were present to attend these matters, will not have them there from which to draw.

Such Claims are Deliberately Made to Disenchant Believers

This is also a very complex matter, perhaps not easily understood. This Awareness is saying that whether it is understood or not, these proclamations and claims are made to disenchant the very people who would believe such things and who would believe other spiritual claims, who would then move forward in their own advancement toward expanding their consciousness, preparing themselves for Ascension, arriving finally at a place where they could then move forward. If they are so disappointed that they turn away from their spiritual pursuits or spiritual trust, then those who are the manipulators, those who are the controllers, will have won another victory. It is for this reason that this Awareness always warns against such proclamations that there is a process available which will pay many back large sums of money. It is not seen as accurate, it is not seen as the truth. This completes Awareness' comments on this matter.

JOANNE SAYS THE C.A.C. WEBSITE IS NOT BASED ON THE TRUTH

(And Only 20% Accurate)

QUESTION:

The following is a message from one of their main people, Joanne, regarding the CAC website: "This website is NOT based on truth. It is at best only 20% accurate. May I suggest www.galacticroundtable.com and www.welcomethelight.com to name a few that are of high integrity and are at least 90% accurate." Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is simply one statement that is being advanced. It is not seen that she is correct, it is not seen that her opinion is valid. Those who have been followers of the organization Cosmic Awareness Communications know of the great dedication that has been given over the many years of this publication, of the great integrity held by Vikki and Avaton, and of their undying devotion to bringing the truth of Awareness into consciousness, into the collective consciousness.

Therefore, this Awareness does not have the time to make further comments about this individual's opinion.

It is simply seen as inaccurate. She has, of course, the right to her opinion. But this Awareness has often pointed out in the past that there is a 20% margin of error in the information channeled through the Interpreters for this Awareness. It has never claimed to be 100% or even 90%. It has never even claimed that It must be believed. Indeed, the opposite has always been forwarded by this Awareness, that one must ALWAYS question that which is read, that which even this Awareness presents. This also extends to this individual and her organization, as well as the other sources she has presented as highly accurate, even 90% accurate; which is more than this Awareness would claim for Itself.

The same would apply for those organizations and for this individual herself: that whoever would read any of her material or materials of the cited organizations and websites must question them, must ask themselves if these sites hold validity and meaning to them. Then they must also research them, comparing them to other sites, other opinions that they have received from other sources. It is when there is confirmation through agreement, when what is claimed by one is also substantiated by another who is independent of the first, that one begins to understand when something has validity or when it does not.

Further to this, it is imperative that in the questioning process that one must learn to develop their own filters, to understand what is to them the truth and what does not ring as the truth. One must always first of all evaluate any information that is presented through these filters that one has developed by turning within, by seeing from within the truth of that which is outside. This will give one the first inkling of whether or not that which is being presented is truthful and valid and corresponds with the individual's own belief system.

Fundamentalist Christians Would Agree with Joanne

It must be remembered also, that what is the truth for one is not necessarily the truth for another. For those who are Fundamentalist Christians, the truth of this Awareness does not make sense to them, and threatens them and their belief systems. There are many Fundamentalist Christians who have often criticized and destroyed the works of this Awareness as being the works of the devil. This does not make it so. It is simply that they hold such different truths, such different opinions, and such different beliefs that they are incapable of being open to truth other than their own perception of that which is true.

This Awareness holds nothing against them for holding their own opinions. This Awareness holds nothing against this individual who claims that the organization Cosmic Awareness Communications, is only 10 to 20% accurate. Therefore, in light of the question of whether or not this individual is correct or not, this Awareness simply says: it is her opinion. Each and every member of the organization CAC must answer for themselves whether or not that which they read in the pages of these newsletters are for them accurate and help them move towards expanding their consciousness and their own sense of awareness. This Awareness is complete with this matter.

A BIT OF HISTORY ABOUT THE C.A.C. STAFF AND ITS PAST EFFORTS

(A Pat on the Back From the Boss)

QUESTION:

On a similar note, there is something from Tom Krueger in San Diego California. He writes: "For well over 30 years now, we have been privileged to be reading the words of Awareness through the efforts of Avaton and Vikki, as Cosmic Awareness Communications has been dependably available to us. That's kind of a record, I think, as is the continuity of Interpreters, from Ralph Duby in the beginning, and through especially Paul Shockley, to Will Berlinghof today. I would appreciate it if Awareness would speak of Avaton and Vikki, acknowledging their contribution of dedication to the Truth which is so often obscured, and their courage in presenting it in an often hostile world.

May we know something of their backgrounds, both here and in the distant past, what brought them to their dedication to the Truth today?

I think we all want to say: Thank You so very much!"

Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would agree, that acknowledgment of these individuals and their supreme devotion to bringing the truth into the world, bringing the light of consciousness into the darkness that exists, is both outstanding as well as very deeply appreciated by those who have been touched by the devotion and dedication of these two, Vikki and Avaton.

Those who have also been involved with the organization in other ways, the current Interpreter is mentioned as well as the Interpreter Grace; as well as others who have been behind the scenes more. Individuals such as Jon Strongbow, Lloyd Ard, and the present energizer, Joan Mills – are also very much appreciated for their works, their sacrifice and their dedication to being of service in the manner of bringing consciousness to a higher state, of bringing forward the teachings and the information of this Awareness.

These are a group of individuals who have pledged themselves to be of service at this time. There are others who also have been connected to the organization over the many long years since its inception in the early 70s. The point of this matter is that these are all individuals who have been involved, not only in this lifetime but many other lifetimes. The individuals Avaton and Vikki in the 1700s were the entities George and Margaret Fox, the founders and originators of the original Quaker movement.

Paul Shockley has been one of the early Quakers who came to North America, bringing the flock to the New World, bringing the flock to the parcel of land that was given to him by Charles II to honor his own father, Sir Admiral William Penn Senior. The present Interpreter was this individual, Admiral Penn. He too was involved in this group at that early stage of the Quaker movement, and there are others who were involved at that time, Quakers and Puritans, who were defying the old state religion, and who were standing up to bring new truths to bear, new light to be seen.

These individuals were often turned against and often even put in prison and executed. Still, their devotion was such, their purpose such that they gave of themselves unquestioningly. It was simply part of their calling. Just as in this lifetime it has been calling for Vikki and Avaton to head this group of individuals in order to share the truth of this Awareness.

It must be also remembered that the membership itself is also involved in this matter. This Awareness has often said that those who are the members of this wondrous organization CAC, are those that this Awareness has called Wanderers, spiritual seekers who have in other times and places been involved in the same way, in that they have brought to the planet levels of awareness and consciousness and held the space for this, just as the members have done again in this time.

It is one thing to have a crew of devoted individuals who are deeply appreciated. It is another, whether there is an audience to hold the message that is being presented. It is the readers, the membership that hold the space and that anchor. The members have held the space. Part of this Awareness's function is not simply in reaching the masses in having a huge audience, but is also involved in the matter of introducing into consciousness those concepts, those ideas, the information that is needed that can shift consciousness, can open doors into collective consciousness and introduce to humanity new paths, new directions, new thoughts, and new truths.

The membership has always held this space and therefore, all of those who are participants in the Cosmic Awareness Communications organization are to be congratulated and thanked by this Awareness and by those higher levels of consciousness that acknowledge and understand the importance of the roles played by the many who have been part of this movement, this organization. All the way up to the top with Avaton and Vikki, down through the ranks of the Interpreters and the transcribers, the energizers, and the many who have helped to put the magazine-newsletter together to get it out, right down to the grassroots of the organization, the membership itself and the role that they too have played over many years.

Many of those who are involved in that which is the organization of Cosmic Awareness, the organization CAC, are themselves not even of this planet but are indeed from those planets of the Galactic Federation who have seen this as a particular cause to be involved in, not only just the running of the newsletter but bringing consciousness to a new and heightened state. These individuals as Star Beings have always been dedicated to doing so in times gone by as well as this present situation. That is why so many who are Wanderers are also those who have wandered from distant planets to be here on this planet at this time. Those who are most involved are Arcturian in nature. However, there is the participation of the Pleiadian element, the Sirian forces, the Venusians, the Andromedans and others of what is now known as the Galactic Federation.

It is also a primary reason why so many who are of the CAC organization are drawn very much to the extraterrestrial question. They have that sense and feeling that they are involved with extraterrestrial beings also, and that this itself will open up more in the next few years, and that many will have personal First Contacts with many of their own space brothers and sisters, for they are of that ilk. They are of the nature of the Space Brotherhood and have made a big sacrifice to be born into physical reality on the third dimension.

This Awareness calls it a sacrifice, for many come into the much denser energies of this third dimensional planet at great personal cost to themselves. And yet they have chosen to do so. They have been here before. It is their purpose, it is the point of their involvement, and being part of CAC is also part of that involvement, part of their destiny and their calling.

This Awareness will finally conclude by thanking one and all for holding the space, for being involved in the dissemination of the insights, the understandings, the awareness, and the truth of this Awareness and of that which is the Divine, that which is God Almighty. It has been understood, seen, recognized and is indeed appreciated from on High. This Awareness is complete with Its answer to this question.

THE EARLY HISTORY OF THE EARTH

(Who is Really God Almighty?)

Our next question is from Larry Kell. There are several questions from Larry Kell in Indiana regarding the early history of the earth and the universe. As there are several, I'll take one at a time and just read his opening.

"I have some interesting questions for the Awareness about the early history of the earth and the universe. What was God's original plan for our planet? It would be quite different here if fallen angels had not decided to vacation here to chase our early women and breed with them, and if aliens had not invaded to genetically alter our ancestors and turn them into slaves to mine precious metals for them."

Your comment on this part please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There is a confusion in the questions of this individual. He starts by asking what was the original plan of God for the planet, for mankind, and then follows it up with statements of extraterrestrials' participation. It is seen and understood that the extraterrestrial beings that presented themselves in those early times were not God Almighty, but they did present themselves as gods, and this Awareness wishes to differentiate this from that which is God Almighty, Creator and Source of All.

God's Purpose for This Planet

This Awareness would start by saying first to that which is God Almighty, Creator as Source's purpose for this planet, for mankind: that It had NO plan in mind. It simply wished to know Itself more through the actions and lifetimes and developments of a planet that was given free choice, a planet that was given the right to follow various pathways of behavior and to choose the light or to choose the dark.

The Concept of the Fallen Angels

The concept of the fallen angels is that a group of angels rebelled against God, and that there was a great battle, and those who opposed God and the archangels and the many who were the warriors of God were thrown down, cast down from the celestial realms. This was a later fabrication of the original purpose of that division in consciousness. It was God Almighty Supreme Deity's desire to know Itself more through various alternate means other than that which was already so well known to that which is God, the Supreme God Almighty.

It wished to know Itself through the actions and the lives of individuals who had choice, who could really choose to worship God and understand the bliss of the Godhead, versus those who chose not to worship God, not to experience the bliss of the God Force, the Godhead. For this aspect of that which is God Almighty there was that intrigue of what this would be like, and as It was seeking to have many, many experiences on many levels It supported that choice of those who wished to experience a separation from the Godhead.

Fallen Angels: The Grand Experiment in the Separation From God

In some manner of speaking, it was the intent and the desire of God Itself that this would occur, and thus there were those who understood the intent and desire of God and chose to participate in this grand experiment, in the separation from God. They chose to become those who are now known as the fallen angels, although it was not understood or seen by them that they were fallen angels at all. It was simply the intent of those that are now known as the fallen angels to experience a different way, a way where they themselves could be put into positions where they would make choices for themselves.

How the Veils of Forgetfulness Were Established

Through this the dualistic universe was formed. The concepts of light and dark, good and evil, positive and negative were formed, and those who chose to go into the wilds of consciousness were performing an act of great service for God Almighty Itself, although what was needed for this to be a total success is that those who chose this would also forget their divine origin and their divine connection. Thus it is that the veils of forgetfulness were established so those who separated from the Godhead that came into physical reality to experience dualistic existence also forgot their own origins, their own connections.

Those Who Led those Forces into this Dualistic Universe Became the New Gods who Experienced their Godlike Powers

It was understood that if they came remembering their source and that if things became difficult they would simply check out, for it was not needed for them to stay and they understood this. Instead a new reality must be formed, that of one where there was no understanding of that connection. Those who led those forces, those agents, those angels, into this dualistic universe were ones who became the new gods, who established themselves as the new gods, experienced for themselves the godlike powers that were theirs.

The Pits of Hell in the Demonic Universe

This did not always go down well, and many of those who agreed to this experiment had forgotten their true reason for doing this in the first place, and in this became lost and separated to that which is the Godhead, the Divine God Almighty. Many became corrupted, and many took the path of darkness and have traveled down deep into the very pits of that which is the true and total and complete separation from Spirit, from God. One could call this the pits of hell itself, and many who were amongst the brightest sparks of the angelic forces became the deepest proponents of that which was that demonic universe.

Lucifer, the Darkest Prince of all, Rediscovered his Divine Connection and has now Returned to the Godhead

The great bearer of light himself, Lucifer, became associated with the darkest prince of all, Satan or Ahriman. In the end, even he who was known as Lucifer rediscovered his divine connection and Lucifer himself has now returned back into the Godhead, the God force, and is now a bright and shining path of hope for the many who may have wandered long and lonely existences in the darkness of separation.

The Prodigal Sons Are All Returning Today

There is that which is the ultimate hope, there is that which is the story of the prodigal son returning back to the Father, back to God, and many who were the fallen angels are now finding their own ways back. This is also part of the conclusion of the experiment in this dualistic separation from the God Force, and is why so many are turning and finding the path home. This has much to do with that ending of the experiment to reach the place of Ascension, where many who have wandered far are now returning back into expanded consciousness, returning back to their higher sources, back to their multidimensional natures.

This is all part of a journey into consciousness that was designed to be so eons and eons ago. This is quite different than the second part of the question that suggested extraterrestrials came to this planet, established themselves as the gods of that time, and performed genetic engineering on those creatures that predated Homo sapiens. This is another matter altogether. Yet even though this is another matter it has also been part of the universal theme of dualism, of the Fall of Grace, the separation from the Godhead.

It has all been part of the human experiment with the purpose of finally reaching that point of reintegration back into the higher levels of consciousness, and many will now return back to that higher level. But for many, they have not finished this experiment, and it is ready to mutate into a different form and to go off in a different direction. There are still many who would follow this new direction, but who are not complete, have not achieved understanding or awareness and are not yet ready to move back towards the Godhead, back to God Almighty.

This is as it needs be. This is part of the continuing and unfolding experiment into physical reality, into separation from the Godhead, a separation from Spirit. All of this continues on, but it has come to a point of choice where many who have followed an old experiment have finished that experiment and are ready to return home. This completes the answer to this individual question.

“WHY DID GOD ALLOW ALIEN LIFE FORMS TO INVADE EARTH ?”

(Why We Don't Refer to God as "He")

QUESTIONER:

His next question concerns: “Why did God allow more advanced life forms to invade earth, enslave and genetically alter the most advanced races here, and then steal whatever they wanted?”

Comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The main comment this Awareness would make is that the individual is assuming that God had any moral problem with these extraterrestrials coming here to this physical planet, stealing power away from those who had power and turning it against others. As this Awareness said earlier in the first part of the question, God had no plan for this planet, He simply started something in motion... this Awareness stands corrected. The use of He is inaccurate. God Almighty is not he or she, It is the combination of the male and female, It is supreme, It is almighty, It is universal, It is complete and total.

God Has No Problem with “Good” or “Evil”

The concept of He, of course, is that which comes from those who suppressed the truth, those who made themselves into the false gods and goddesses of the times. God Almighty Itself has no need to make decisions, to choose sides, or to be moral on this matter. It simply allowed an unfolding. It allowed it to go in any and all directions. It does not have a problem with good or evil. It is all part of the same continuum for that which is God Almighty. Therefore, this question is a moralistic question based on the individual's own morals, and it has nothing to do with a Universal God's appreciation of the situation.

God's appreciation would simply allow all to be so, even if what was manifesting seems to most to be dark and evil.

There is no distinction to that which is Almighty God. It is All That Is. It is all that is good. It is all that is evil. It is all that is everything in between. Therefore, the question is one that makes no sense truly to that which is the Universal Godhead, the Supreme Deity that is Almighty God. In this, God knows that all will return back into that which is the higher consciousness, that which is spirit. All will return home one day. The illusion of death and the separation from that which is the Source, will be addressed, and those who are separated now will be reborn into the truth of their being, and will be returned back into the fabric of their own Source, their own soul.

Thus, the God Almighty, which understands and knows this to be true, has no problem when individuals play certain roles and games. It sees these as simply games and illusions that will change when the individuals are released from those roles that they have chosen to play. This Awareness is complete.

WHAT IF EARTH HAD NOT RECEIVED OUTSIDE INTERFERENCE?

(Aliens Have More Respect for our Planet?)

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you) He's wondering too: Characters in science fiction TV series display greater compassion and respect for planets and the inhabitants they encounter. If our planet had not received all of the outside interference, what would be happening here now?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Another experiment, another play, another version. This Awareness would add: Why is it assumed that this did not happen on some parallel stream of consciousness? There may be perhaps another earth somewhere where those forces that this individual seems so opposed to did not arrive, and did not gain power and that the planet developed in a completely different manner altogether.

There are Many Parallel Earth in Existence

There are also those planet earths that developed at even deeper levels of chaos and darkness, where there was even more suppression of human spirit, and consciousness was not even allowed half as much space to develop as is the case on this present focus planet. There are many variations, many parallel earths that are in existence. This individual forgets this and is only focused on the one that he himself has been experiencing. This is perfectly okay as long as he might remember sometime, that this reality is but an illusion and that all will fade from view when that which is the life is complete and one returns back into their true social spiritual fabric. Social, not in the sense as it is known on earth but in the sense that it would be understood when one has escaped that which is the third dimensional material world and when one has returned back into the social spiritual fabric of their own extended being.

10,000 DIFFERENT RELIGIONS

(Each One Claiming to be the Only True Belief)

QUESTIONER:

I believe he's trying to understand, as indicated by his next question: Why has it been acceptable to God, and any other high-level beings with the power to do something about it, that 10,000 religions get installed here with each one claiming to be the only true belief? I am trying to imagine how I would view thousands of religions handicapping my creations with various proclamations that we are all born flawed sinners needing to repent and swear allegiance to thousands of completely or partially false belief systems in order to get into heaven after death, and often killing thousands of nonbelievers in religion-based wars over beliefs and land."

Comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Basically this is the fullest expression of the intent and desire of God, and not the other way around. This individual has gotten the wrong end of the stick on this matter, for he is moralistically implying that God is allowing something that is perverse and wrong and cannot understand why God has ever allowed such an atrocity to occur: so many religions, so many views, so many beliefs, so many ways.

It was and is the purpose of God to experience the fullest range of reality that is the third dimensional reality, to fully experience the billions and trillions and infinitesimal variations on the theme. It is the fullest expression of the God Force Itself to allow such diversity, to allow such freedom of choice. There are no mistakes. Each and every life is held sacred to God Almighty, whether that life is in honor of God in the correct way or not at all in honor of God in the correct way, whether that life is one of purest evil or purest life. It must be remembered the two words are exactly the same in reverse to each other.

Small Thinking: Somehow God Must Have Gotten it Wrong

God is expansive beyond imagination to contain all that is so, and is not petty to the degree of insisting all must honor and worship It in a specific way; Him in a specific way, as many of these religions are gender specific, and particularly see God as a male authority figure. The mistake is the smallness of the thinking that would suggest there is something wrong here, and that God has somehow gotten it wrong, or is asleep at the wheel, and has made a huge mistake in allowing this all to occur. God has made no such mistakes. That which is the variety of human life, past, present and future, is but a pale shadow of what is possible in many dimensions and states of being and states of consciousness.

Why Limit the Truly Expansive Nature of the Godhead?

To hold that it must all look like one plan alone has all of the power and the glory, all which is right and correct, would indeed limit to such a great degree the truly expansive nature of the Godhead, of God Almighty. Indeed, it is why this Awareness says that the many thousands of religions, the billions and trillions and infinitesimal expressions of God are all cherished by God, all loved by God and all indicative of the tremendous success of this experiment of God to know Itself. This completes this answer.

Must We Begin Life with Handicaps?

QUESTIONER:

He carries on: "Allowing the majority of humans to begin their lives being taught they are inherently bad and need to repent for anything to obtain a future reward after death is undoubtedly boosting business for psychiatrists, antidepressant drug manufacturers, and the self-improvement industry, but is it fair that we all begin our lives with a mental handicap with so many lifelong negative consequences?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness finds it curious that this individual cannot even see beyond the boundaries of his own civilization, his own nation and country. He is presuming that it is so amongst all humans all the world over. And yet, what he is expressing is simply his own experiences in the parameters of the nation he has grown up in. It is not necessarily so in Africa. It is not necessarily so for the Aborigine who still walks in the outback of Australia. It is not necessarily so for the Inuit in northern climates, northern reaches. It is not necessarily so for an Asian who has grown up in the very midst of the populace of China.

There are so many variations on the theme of this one world amongst the different nations of the world that his question again, is irrelevant to the greater picture. It is simply so as he has understood it and seen it to be so, and many do share his opinion. This Awareness is not trying to invalidate this individual, It is trying simply to expand on the theme so he might recognize that this is so only in light of how he understands it and sees it. Furthermore, if it is part of the Grand Scheme for God to know Itself in many, many, versions, then that which this individual has described is simply one version, one play within a play within a play within a play, and is one way that it could be experienced.

There are individuals who have started out exactly as he described and yet still found deeper more profound answers and insights. There are those who have become lost along the ways, becoming addicts and refugees to the current situation that is modern civilization in North America, for example. ~~The true joy and true wonder is~~ that there is such blessed diversity, such possibility. It is so that many may join one expression of a possibility, and may join one group of souls incarnating into a nation at a specific time to have a similar experience with the other inhabitants of that nation. But even within the nations of the great state of the United States of America, there are infinite variations on the theme.

Thus it is that each and every time this individual asks the questions and presents the views he has been presenting, he is showing a limitation of thought. This Awareness would ask that he and all others expand their thoughts to be more universal, to see that success is measured by the amount of variation that has been allowed in this most unique experiment. Success is not that all worship in one way towards one God, the right God, the true God, the only God, but rather are open to experiencing anything and everything that might come within the realms of possibility, everything from that which is pure evil and darkness, to that which is pure light and saintliness.

There are so many variations on the theme that it goes beyond a capacity to truly understand it. What is imperative, what is important is the understanding that the purpose for this whole experiment was multiplicity of experiences in any and all areas and regions that Light could present itself, where choices could be made to experience this, to experience that, to experience everything and anything. The experiment has been a tremendous success for this reason, but it is time now to change the experiment. It has played itself out largely, as it has been.

Many Will Finish Their Involvement and Go Home

There are new variations to be tried out, to be experienced. There is reason for many to return back into the fabric of being, back into the fabric of God Almighty, as there is much that still is to be done, but many are also ready to finish their involvement and to return home. This is a choice that each and every soul can make, each and every focus or aspect of the soul can make in their desire and their intention to ascend and return back, or to end the play through death and returning back into the soul fabric or to continue a new variation of the physical journey, the physical theme and to see where that would lead.

Awareness Thanks Larry for These Questions

The experiment is done, and the experiment is just beginning. Both are true statements, and both are subject to an individual's desire and need to explore further, one or the other. This Awareness thanks this individual for his questions. They have presented challenges that this Awareness has been willing to face in order to help understand the complexity of that which has been the experiment of human life, that which is the experiment of the physical manifestation of life separating itself from Spirit.

Are there any nice Planets?

QUESTION:

He carries on, there are about three questions here:

"Are there planets where people can live without being handicapped and misled by self-proclaimed authorities who insert themselves as paid gatekeepers to save our souls if we blindly adopt whatever they say we need to believe?"

Comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

~~Yes there are.~~

QUESTIONER:

That's it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is complete. This Awareness has spent much time explaining. It will stay to relatively short answers from this moment on.

Rewriting History Etc.

(Why is this Acceptable?)

Questioner:

Thank you. He carries on:

"Governments throughout history are condemned for restricting freedom, rewriting history in their favor and controlling access to information critical of what they are doing. Why is it acceptable that thousands of religions do this without any documentation of the veracity of their beliefs?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Because it is simply part of the expressions of God, of God Almighty. It is one of the many variations on the theme.

QUESTIONER:

Very good. Did you have a closing on his topic?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

His understanding of matters needs expansion, as this Awareness has already expressed, for he is presenting a much more limited understanding of reality than this Awareness holds, or that God Almighty would hold. It is perhaps due to his own search for meaning and understanding that he has come to see matters in the way he has made comment or made question of. This Awareness does appreciate these viewpoints, these challenges; for if It has been able to help the readers see that the whole experiment itself, of that which is God Almighty, has been to have multiplicity of experience to the point of infinite possibilities, with variations of themes and variations of themes and variations of themes; then It has succeeded in Its purpose today.

Mankind often is guilty of the sin of the arrogance of one's beliefs or causes to be the universal supreme causes and purpose of things. This is not an expansive way of seeing or understanding that which is without boundary, without limit, and yet, it is a comfortable state for humans to reside in, and one that is continually forced on others. This is simply part of the overall experiment that has been the human experiment in a dualistic universe, where there is ultimate, total and complete freedom of choice to experience anything and everything.

This does not make it a mistake on God's part. Indeed, it was the intention and desire of God Almighty Itself to have EXACTLY this experience so that It could have for Itself the experience through the lives of the many, of the experiences of the many that would define God Itself. This is a concept that is complex, but it is ultimately a concept that is so simplistic that it almost cannot be understood, for it is simply too simple. This Awareness will engage again in other questions related to this matter, but It is complete at this time and is ready to move on.

A CHRISTMAS MESSAGE FROM COSMIC AWARENESS

QUESTIONER:

May we have a closing message please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness started with the message of that which related to the Winter Solstice, and It spoke of this being the time of light returning back onto the planet. This is also the universal message of that which is the Christmas message. The light is returning back into the dark. The Messiah was that spark of light being born into the darkness of that country now often referred as the Holy Land. The message however, is that the Messiah, he who is now known as Jesus the Christ, was born to bring hope and light into the darkness of that time.

He did so, experiencing in his life many challenges, and had to himself grow into conscious awareness of who he truly was and what he truly represented. Mankind has now come to a point that is also similar. The light returns back at this time of the season, offering us once again hope and purpose. Each and every individual can become that hope and that purpose and despite the individual challenges, become truly enlightened and illuminated.

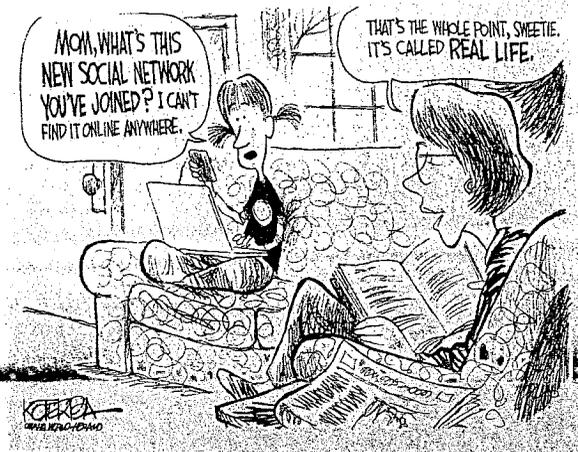

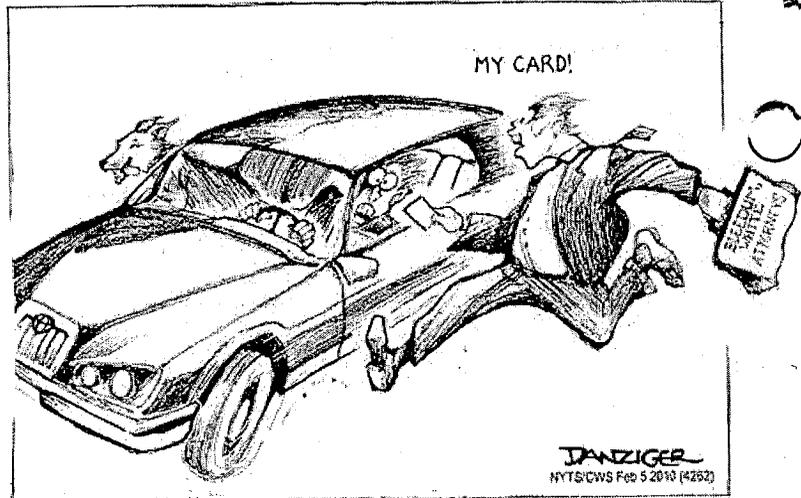

It is the wish of his Awareness at this time of the season that is known as Christmas to wish light and love to one and all, not only at this time of Christmas, but for the whole of the year and the years to come. This Awareness is complete.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. That was beautiful. On behalf of the membership we thank you.
