Does Awareness have an opening message or any areas It would like to discuss at this time, please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not have an opening message at this time. It simply wishes to proceed into the questions that are available at this time.

MULTIDIMENSIONALITY: WHAT IS IT AND HOW DO WE DO IT?

Thank you. The first one is a follow-up question to MP in Tucson Arizona, related to Ascension, Dimensions and Multidimensionality for consideration please. If multidimensionality is simply moving from one life to another, time is simultaneous and all lifetimes happen simultaneously... and when an entity understands this and lives this, then it easily steps from one life to another, one lifetime to another. To be able to do this, one must be able to recall previous lives, as it is assumed the majority of humankind do not have this ability, thus, is there a procedure available that can be used to accomplish this? Or is this ability available only at the time of Ascension? Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Relating to the question itself as to whether or not this ability to jump from one dimension to another, from one life to another, is only available at that time of Ascension, this Awareness would suggest that this is not quite so. This ability is inherent in all human beings at all times. The fact that most are not aware of this is simply because they have not chosen to become aware of it. The choice of understanding one's past lives is one that comes as one develops their higher awareness and higher consciousness, and one could even say as one begins to tune into their multidimensionality.

For the majority of humans on the planet at this time, their involvement in their physical life experience is so focused that there is no room for them to expand to other lifetimes nor is there a wish to do so, for it was their original intent and agreement that they would come into this life to have a total life experience, a total focus of a third dimensional experience. As individuals expand their consciousness, they become familiar with other realms of consciousness. Whether they do this consciously or not, is the question here.

As they become more conscious that there is more out there, and that they themselves are more than the physical being having a singular experience, their capacity to draw in other lifetime experiences and other memories of other lifetimes also increases. A point is reached where through multiple lifetimes the knowledge of the multiplicity of their multidimensional nature is brought into a physical incarnation as part of the journey. It is no longer necessary to simply stay focused on the singular physical experience that may have been the case in the journey of the young soul.

In other words, as the soul itself matures in its journey of physicality and physical lifetimes, it acquires or perhaps regains a better way of describing this process, the ability to expand its awareness to knowing that there are many lifetimes available, many experiences available. It is at that time that an entity can choose to start investigating these lifetimes. The preliminary to investigation is simply an acceptance of a possibility of other lifetimes. Once this is accepted as so, the next step is an investigation of other lifetimes through different techniques and ways.

Regression Therapy is One Way. Past Life Reading Another

One way is that which is known as regression therapy, and the therapist would take the individual and regress the individual back to previous memories. This is an approach that allows the individual to participate in the experience. A more passive way of doing this would be through that which is known as a past life reading, where someone else provides the information of a past life to the individual. This is passive, for it does not require an experiencing of that past life, as is the case with regression therapy. However, there is still information that is available through past life readings that makes such an event as valid. It is more the choice of the individual as to how they wish to experience the past lives that they may have formerly lived.

A third way is where an individual may find a spontaneous regression occurring in which they see again another lifetime -- sense it, dream it. Occasionally they may go somewhere new to them and yet have the experience that they have been there before, and may even have flashbacks to another lifetime. This begins to occur as the individual advances their consciousness to reach out to their multidimensionality.

A Past Life Experience the Interpreter had as an Essenes

When he was at the site known as Qumran in the country of Israel, the Interpreter once had a past life experience where he was looking down into a room and suddenly saw himself and another individual in the room dressed in the garments of that time, a time approximately 2000 years ago, and he had the memory and the remembrance of his life there in the Qumran settlement, the settlement close to the Dead Sea where the Dead Sea scrolls were created. He was a member of the community known as the Essenes, and the Essenes were those who wrote the Dead Sea Scrolls, and who held a level of consciousness. They were the ones who brought forth the Messiah, that entity who became the Messiah now known as Jesus the Christ.

The interpreter saw himself in this room having a heated discussion with his friend. He saw a woman come into the room and admonish them both and told them it was time for their lunch. At this point the interpreter's attention was taken away from the room and that recollection ended at that time, but he did indeed have the experience of a spontaneous regression to a life once experienced in that place. This is what will now begin to occur more and more for those who have developed their consciousness to that level where their multidimensional personality will start to filter through more and more. They will always have control and choice over the matter, but even if a spontaneous occurrence happens it will be one that is in their control because they are ready for that experience.

Various Lifetime Barriers Will Fade Out at Ascension

As the point of Ascension occurs, those barriers that exist between the various lifetimes start to thin out. It is for this reason why more are having experiences of past lives, and are opening to the possibility of past lives. It very much still has to do with the Ascension process but it is also independent of that process. It is more that the Ascension process itself is an amplification of the awareness around other aspects of one's being that are multidimensional in nature. Hand in hand with this also goes the possibility of starting to visualize and see other lifetimes spent in other dimensions, even on other planets. These are all part and parcel of the multidimensionality of each and every human being.

Many are Starting to Experience Extraterrestrial Memories

It is for this reason that many are starting to experience extraterrestrial memories, and even calling in extraterrestrial contact with those who know the individual. All of this is still to be investigated even more thoroughly as the Ascension process and the completion of that which is the Ascension process draws near. This completes the answering of the question unless the Energizer has more questions for this Awareness.

WHY ALL LIFETIMES HAPPEN SIMULTANEOUSLY AND WHY TIME IS AN ILLUSION

QUESTION:

Yes, thank you. It has been suggested and it is recognized that the concept of time is/has been created for mankind's convenience, but by the simultaneous lifetimes mentioned, does this indicate that since the dawn of time, mankind experiences all of its lives at and in the same time span, and such occurs on or within different frequencies of the third dimension, thus this is where and how the concept "All is Illusion" refers to? In other words, humanity has been programmed into believing and accepting that the complete history of mankind was and is in fact an illusion. This all happened and is happening due to mankind's acceptance of this consciousness and reality held which originated with the Godhead's desire for the human experiment of duality for the third dimension, thereby offering mankind the availability of choice for spiritual growth or not, bringing to mind the words, "the whole world is a stage" for human experiences and for the drama of life. Is this a correct assumption?

Cosmic Awareness:

This is an extremely accurate rendition of how it is. In other words, this Awareness agrees to that statement of the Energizer. It is a highly accurate perception of how mankind has chosen to experience the illusion of reality, the third dimensional reality that houses its experience, and its existence. In many ways, there is not much that this Awareness can add to what has been presented by the Energizer in her statement. However, this Awareness always has more to add. This Awareness will start by drawing a parallel here to help understand that which is for many a difficult concept to understand: the simultaneous nature of reality, of all reality occurring at the same time.

A Parallel Example of Simultaneous Reality

Most have a sense of structure and a linear sense of advancement through an experience, a time-related linear advancement through the experience. For this reason there is a beginning, a middle and an end to all human experiences. Their lives are also the same: the beginning of life, the middle part, and the ending of a life; all in that context of movement from point A, through point B to point C. This is done so that there is a way by which the experience itself can be structured and understood. To say that it is man-made is accurate to a degree, but it is also the way it was decided so that there would be a framework by which those indulging in a physical experience could experience that which was the life or the experiences of one's life.

It makes it more sensible in a manner of speaking, to those having that experience, for there is a structure and a framework to the experience. It starts at point A, continues through point B and concludes with point C. As one begins to understand from that depth of their being that this framework is artificial, that it is an illusion -- one begins to be able to expand their conscious awareness beyond the framework, thus drawing in other lifetimes that they can also experience. But the primary focus still remains the physical experience, complete with the framework by which one entertains the experience or is entertained by the experience.

Another Example of Frequency Using Radio or TV

As another example, this Awareness would state that if an individual sits in a room and in that room there is a television that is turned off, or perhaps a radio that is turned off, one is not necessarily aware that in the same room at the same time are energies that are passing through, for one has not turned on the radio or the television. When one turns the radio on or the television, one suddenly is able to hear the music emanating from the radio or view the movie that is playing on the television. If one was not aware that there is built in both devices a tuning device that would allow one to change channels, to move the dial, to find a new radio station, one might assume that that which one is listening to on the radio or that which one is viewing on the television is all there is.

They would not necessarily be aware of anything beyond the one channel that is being heard or viewed. If one then is introduced to the tuning device, the dial, the remote, and one suddenly is shown how to change channels, to move the dial, then suddenly another radio program may come onto the radio different than the first, another program may be shown on the television, different again to the first. The explanation is now self-evident: that there are many frequencies that can be shown. Only when one has the proper device, however, can one change the channel. Otherwise one is stuck in an artificial construct of reality that suggests that the first channel viewed is the only channel.

Each of your Many Lives has its Own Frequency

This is how it is for many in their concept of life. They do not understand that there is a way of changing channels, of changing frequencies, for that is indeed what occurs here. It is about the frequency that is being tuned into. Each life has its own frequency, and when one is able to find the device or the mechanism or the way of changing channels and frequencies, one can bring into one's perceptions new lifetimes, new experiences that are not necessarily of the first order, the first channel, and when one understands this of the radio or the television, it is without question from that moment on, when they can change channels, that they will always understand that the medium is multidimensional in its nature to provide many different channels to view and to watch.

How to Make Your Lifetimes Available

Each and every human being is a multidimensional medium of that same principle. They each can change channels, when they understand that there are (A) other channels to view and (B) that they have the means by which to change channels and to retune themselves. When this occurs, there is a vast cornucopia of new experiences or perhaps old experiences, old lifetimes, past lifetimes that are now available. These experiences are all occurring simultaneously, but they are all occurring at the same moment. Just as in the room the individual is sitting in houses all the different vibrations or frequencies that will be shown on the television or played on the radio, they are all there at the same moment, at the same time.

Most People Don't Realize they can Change Channels

It is required, however, that a device be used first to tune into the frequency so that it can come across as a radio signal or a television signal, and then a device is needed to change the frequencies, to take one to a new channel. An individual living their life unaware that they have the capacity to change channels, to refocus, retune to other lifetimes, other experiences, will live an entire lifetime never knowing that they are a creature of multidimensionality and that they have the means by which to change channels, to refocus. They will live this life quite happily ignorant of this truth and this ability. But once this truth and ability are shown, once the means by which this can be accomplished are taught or shared with the individual -- then they start to change channels, they start to look at other lifetimes, they start to appreciate their multidimensionality.

One Must be Prepared for this Truth

This is why it is so that all lifetimes are happening simultaneously but entities are given the impression of a linear order to provide a framework for the individual. One must be prepared for this truth, for if one is not prepared then it can be too overwhelming, and it is part of the reason why this is not simply so from the very beginning but needs to be learned, needs to be introduced in a way that is natural to the individual. When they have reached that point of expansion of consciousness where they are ready to deal with their multidimensionality, where they are ready to experience it, where they are ready to change channels, that is the time that they will start to play with the concept of multidimensionality, and all time occurring simultaneously. Does this help explain the matter?

QUESTIONER:

An excellent example and I thank you for that. Very well explained, thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS

Many are now Experiencing "Other Life Experiences" (Calling these "Past Life Experiences" is not True)

Further to this, this Awareness would add that in the times that are now present, the process of the shift in consciousness that is occurring, that which is known as the shift toward Ascension, many are reaching that time and that place in their own being when the matter of past lives is very clear to them, very accepted by them and many more are starting to have experiences that are called past life experiences. Of course, this is an erroneous title, for if all experiences are happening simultaneously then they could not be truly called past lives, they should rather be called other life experiences. Equally, if all life experiences are occurring simultaneously, then it is possible to tune into those lifetimes that have allegedly not yet occurred, those that would be called future lifetimes.

Future Lives too can be Accessed

Therefore, future lifetimes should be able to be accessed by those who have developed the capacity to look beyond the boundaries and limitations of their present reality. This is indeed the case, and future lifetimes can also be tuned in, but the mind precept around this is one that because the framework of the experiences based on that linear concept of moving from A through B to C, that since C has not yet been experienced, the likelihood of seeing a future life is considered by many very difficult indeed. Yet this is simply not so, it is simply a way of thinking about this matter. When one can let go of this concept that the future has not yet been seen, therefore cannot yet be experienced, one would indeed be able to go to the simultaneous life that is being experienced some time in that alleged future.

To Experience a Future Life be Willing to Change Channels

It is simply on a different frequency and all that is needed is the willingness to change the channel to that frequency to have that experience of a future life. This is as valid as the experience of the past life or even experiencing parallel lives that are occurring simultaneous to the life of focus that each individual is experiencing. Again this completes the answer by this Awareness.

QUESTION:

THE OVERSOULS' NINE SELVES AND LONG SOUL: WILL THEY ASCEND WITH THE ENTITY?

Absolutely fascinating, thank you very much. That's something to think about.

Another question regarding MP's original question concerning the Oversoul's nine selves and the Long Soul. When a person ascends, does it take all of its nine selves or souls including the Long Soul with it? And what if two or three etc. of those nine selves are not ready or willing to ascend? Is there a fragmentation of souls similar to that of those who participated in the Ra-Ta experiment? Comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The Long Soul is Independent of Physical Reality

The best way for this Awareness to begin to answer this particular question is to remind all of that which this Awareness spoke of but a moment ago, that being that all lives are simultaneous, and that everything is occurring in the Eternal Now, the moment of focus. Thus while the nine lives may be experienced at different times within the context of all lives being experienced at that moment, it is incorrect to believe there will be a fragmentation. This is a difficult concept to truly conceptualize and yet it is a very important concept to understand, that the Long Soul is independent of physical reality. It is not in physicality, it sends out its various aspects of itself, the nine lifetimes that are all occurring within the framework of a similar set of life experiences, to have experiences for the Long Soul or the Divine that will be brought back to the Long Soul at the completion of that experience.

A Similarity of Vibration is what Connects the Souls

Thus it is that the nine individual aspects of the Long Soul can have nine different life experiences at the same time on that which is planet Earth. One may be a life in Peru, one may be life in Alaska, one may be a woman living in Chicago, and another may be a priest living in Rome. There will be nine expressions of the soul, all connected by a similarity of their vibrations, all more or less experiencing a life at the same time.

For example, all nine aspects may be in that time frame of the 20th century -- one may have started the journey in the late 1800s and died by the 1940s, another may have started in the 1930s and died in the 1990s, another may start in 1954 and continue into the future at a point beyond the completion of the 20th century. These are all overlaps, but they are still essentially the nine aspects of that group soul having the experiences from nine perspectives of the 20th century, and they will all return back to the Long Soul, bringing back their focused experiences with them.

They are all simultaneous and they all occur at the same moment, even though there is a difference. From that chronological understanding of time is that which this Awareness has spoken of as being the simultaneous nature of time, the moment of the Now, the focus of the Now. When all have returned back into the fabric of the Long Soul there is no further need for the simultaneous division of time that is occurring, because the reunification of the soul is such that it will move all back into a simultaneous experiencing of the now, the total focus of the now. This is a very testing concept indeed, and yet this is how it is. This Awareness asks if the explanation offered fully explains to the Energizer the point she has asked about?

QUESTIONER:

I believe it has. I've got to think about it some more and get it into perspective, if that's okay, and perhaps if I have difficulty or anyone else has difficulty, that this concept can be re-presented at a later date?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

All is Now. Now is All

This is absolutely okay with this Awareness. This Awareness has presented these concepts mostly for the purpose of introducing thought, so that one can start to understand the complexity of multidimensionality, and yet also understand its simplicity: All is Now, Now is All. Why there have been barriers set up in physical reality in the first place is because there was a need to have a singular focus on a single life or the series of experiences in that life. While the soul progresses to an understanding of its multidimensional nature, there is also an advantage that is incurred by the experiencing in totality of one life, in complete focus to that life, without any confusion to other life experiences, any bleeding through of other experiences. This then refines the singular experience of that soul fragment, that aspect of the soul that has entered into physical reality for the purpose of having a focused life and a focused set of experiences in that life.

As the soul gains the comprehension and awareness of the higher states, the evolution of the soul is then such that it brings the individual to a point where they can handle the multidimensional concepts that are being suggested at this time. It is as if they have progressed through school from kindergarten into university and graduate school and are now able to deal with the higher concepts, for their capacity to be aware and understand has also increased. Hand-in-hand with this is the shifting in consciousness that is occurring on the planetary plane at this time.

How the Ra-Ta Consciousness Being Released Will Help You

The Ra-Ta consciousness that is being reintroduced is to help those who are ready to expand their awareness to do so, so that they can step into their multidimensionality and not be so confined and constrained by the framework of concepts and beliefs that exist in the physical dimension, preventing the experiencing of their multidimensionality. This is now taking place and it is accelerating, so that many will start to experience their multidimensionality in stronger ways that will indeed be challenging, but will begin to return those who are ready to their greater nature, their multidimensional nature. This Awareness most certainly invites further future questions on this matter.

PLANETS "A" AND "B"

(Frequencies when they split)

QUESTIONER

Thank you. Definitely a new adventure as well.

A quick question on this one. When Cosmic Awareness refers to Planet A and Planet B division, is it by chance referring to the frequencies of consciousness? For example, Planet B in the third dimensional frequency of consciousness and Planet A in the fifth?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed this is so. Those who choose to continue a physical experience, even choose to experience an extreme physical reality, will be of a completely different frequency than those who have chosen to ascend to the degree that they will ascend. Those who ascend to the highest fifth dimensional plateau of consciousness will find that they are returning back more to their pure soul frequency, than a level of frequency that they might have in physical reality that focuses them into the physical experience.

Those who remain on that physical plane will further find that the veil of forgetfulness that constitutes the framework of beliefs around the physical experience will become denser, or more impenetrable. Thus, when the individual is having their physical experience along the line of Planet B, they will be less likely to be able to perceive themselves in their multidimensionality, and will not even entertain concepts of Spirit or the Divine or God.

It is as if their need for their ultimate physical experience will be such that they will choose to experience a reality where there is no Divine, there is no God, there is no multidimensionality, no spirit, and no soul. All that will be will be that experiencing of a physical reality where survival is the one issue, and it will be very animalistic indeed. This will only be for those who choose such an experience. It too will disappear for them when they themselves return back to their own soul and their own soul fabric. It will simply be their physical earthly experience on a planet of different frequency than those who choose to have an experience of a higher degree or higher frequency, such as those who would experience the ascension of the Earth to that which is Planet A.

QUESTIONER:

Good, good. That explains it, no doubt.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

No doubt there will still be many questions.

QUESTIONER:

Like this one coming up.

Would you please confirm or elaborate on "dimensional gateway, vortex, portal?" Are these three similar to a door, which is referred to as a noun, and frequency relates to an aspect of this, an adjective to describe what type door? Would you please confirm?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This awareness is not quite certain of what is being asked.

DOORWAYS AND GATEWAYS

QUESTIONER:

In the reading for MP there was something referred to as a dimensional gateway, a vortex or portal. My question: Are all three of these similar to a door, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

More on the Veil of Forgetfulness

Indeed this is so: doorways, gateways, a way through that which is the dimensional barrier or that which this Awareness has on occasion called the veil of forgetfulness. This veil of forgetfulness is actually a dimensional barrier set up to confine the experience that is gained on the physical plane. It is erected for the reason that if one enters into physicality with the express purpose of having a physical life, the veil of forgetfulness would keep the individual in a perceptual mode that allowed it to have a total physical experience without mistaking its experience due to its true understanding of its multidimensionality, of his or her multidimensionality.

Therefore, one comes through that which is called the veil of forgetfulness and does indeed forget their origin, so that they can have the total experience. Part of that which is the Ascension process is that the density of this barrier, this dimensional barrier, this veil of forgetfulness, is thinning out and there are patches and spots in the barrier where there will be rifts, where there will be openings, gateways, portals, and doorways, and it will be so much easier to pass back through the veil or to be perceptive of that which lies beyond the veil, and bring it into one's physical experience ultimately at that time of Ascension.

You Can Go Through the Door in Your Physical Body

Those who choose to go through the portals, the gateways, the doorways, the vortex, all which are one and the same, may be able to even do so in full body. In other words they may go through that rift, that opening in a physical form without having to die, losing the physical body and transmuted into spirit, so they can go through the veil of forgetfulness. The veil of forgetfulness, the dimensional barrier, mainly prevents the Ascension process where one ascends in full body, as will be the case for certain individuals who have acquired the consciousness to achieve this.

Many will not have reached that level of achievement, and they will not know how to align their frequencies to the actual frequency of the portal, and will not be able to bodily move through the gateway and they will ascend via the more time-honored means, that being the completion and conclusion of life through the death experience, and their Spirit/Soul will return back to the fabric of the Soul. That is how it will be for those who are ready for this experience. The actual gateways, portals, and vortexes will simply be openings and rifts through the dimensional barrier, the veil of forgetfulness, which they will then be able to step through.

MORE ON THE QUAKERS

(Back Together in the Cosmic Awareness Movement)

QUESTIONER:

Thank you, that explains well. I'd like to turn the tape now please. The next one is a question from Lloyd in Utah. He writes: "May I sneak in another question? Awareness has spoken of the past lives of Avaton and Vikki and Will. It seems that Avaton and Vikki were founders of the Quaker movement, and the father of William Penn, Admiral Penn, was Will Berlinghof in that lifetime, who donated the land which now comprises the state of Pennsylvania to the Quaker movement. Awareness has also stated that Jon Strongbow was involved in record keeping in monasteries. Would Awareness please tell us about the past lives of the Energizer Joan Mills and webmaster Lloyd Arrd that prepared them for the work they are doing for CAC today? Comments please?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It also must be spoken, at that time the past Interpreter for that which is this Awareness, the individual Paul Shockley, was the individual William Penn in that earlier time. The father of William Penn Junior, the Quaker William Penn senior, Admiral William Penn, who in this life is the Interpreter Will Berlinghof, was not the donator of the lands to the Quakers, but rather was already deceased at that time. It was a debt owed to the father, Admiral William Penn, by the monarch Charles I that was paid back through his son Charles II to the son of Admiral Penn, was paid back to William Penn Junior, William Penn the Quaker, that became the tract of land that is now known as Pennsylvania. It was not named after the Quaker William Penn, but in honor of the father, William Penn.

Unfortunately, this does not mean that the Interpreter can go to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and claim a tract of land. It would not be acknowledged or recognized at this time. As to the lifetimes of Joan Mills, the present energizer, and the webmaster, Lloyd Arrd, it is also seen that they too were present at that time. It is seen that there is a connection between the two and that the Energizer Joan Mills was the wife of the Webmaster Lloyd Arrd. They were two of the original Friends of the original Quaker movement, who went to the New World with William Penn Junior, the Quaker, and that they were very strong in their beliefs and in their determination to create a new level of consciousness, a new level of interaction with the Divine Spirit.

They were very advanced in their attitudes and beliefs, both of them. Names are not seen here at this time, but it is known that they were two of the original founding members of the colony in the New World. Their names can be found in the historical records and presented to this Awareness and It will confirm for them which couple they were. They did go on to have a full family and passed their faith on to their children, who then passed it on to their children's children and down the line of history. Does this answer the questions presented?

QUESTIONER:

Yes it does. Who'd a thought! Thank you for that.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It also explains why the Energizer now feels comfortable working with the Webmaster Lloyd Arrd in coming together to transfer the information from the channeled sessions so that it may be printed out for the membership. It is part of an energy that the two of them hold, where they work well together as a duo, in partnership. It is also because of their shared beliefs with the former members of the Quaker movement, the originators and others who believed as they did, that they are now again members of the same group of souls who have come together to once again shift consciousness, to help in the expansion of awareness.

There is an even deeper history for all who are together now as the core group of the Awareness organization. They all have come from the same planet of origin, this being the planet Arcturus, and have been together many lifetimes in other projects, but they have all agreed that the planet Earth and the project of bringing mankind/humankind to a point of Ascension, would be one that would occupy them for a number of lifetimes. This lifetime is not their last perhaps, together but it will be climaxed with that occurrence of the Ascension of mankind that they have so long all worked towards.

QUESTIONER:

That's very interesting. Thank you. We were also part of the same group that Vikki and Avaton then at that time, were. Is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed, this is so. There are many who are members of the organization Cosmic Awareness Communications who have been involved in the many lifetimes, including the Quaker lifetime.

QUESTIONER:

Fascinating. Thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is for this reason that this Awareness has always stated that those who are drawn to the organization Cosmic Awareness Communications are part and party of a group It has chosen to call the Wanderers. They have wandered many dimensions and many lifetimes together to achieve this goal of bringing mankind/womankind to the point of Ascension, the ascending beyond that which has been the limitation of consciousness to a higher evolved state of awareness and consciousness.

THE ANCIENT "EPIC OF MANAS" MANUSCRIPT TRANSCRIBED

Thank you. Carrying on -- there is something from Ted Helinski, he's referring to a report that... I'll read the whole thing so you can get the whole story. He writes: Important to also note in these reports that the US spray plane shot down in China was reported to be targeting a secret Israeli base located in the Central Asian nation of Kyrgyzstan, which many Ashkenazi Jews, and in brackets it says: (Ashkenazi Jews make up approximately 80% of Jews worldwide consider their "spiritual homeland" after their long exile under Soviet communist rule, and) where Russian intelligence analysts report the Israelis are nearing the end of their decades long deciphering of the ancient epic of Manas manuscript

(with close to half a million lines of the epic of Manas is 20 times longer than Homer's Odyssey and Iliad combined) that they believe contains our world's oldest warning to our present age and which coincidentally agrees with the ancient Mayan peoples that the year of 2012 will see the ending of our present age. Is this true or false, please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Basically this is true and accurate. There were those who had information that was written down in this manuscript and it is very much in alignment with the Mayan prophecies, for both had an awareness of certain stellar conjunctions and alignments that would occur at a certain time, that being 2012, where the energies that were up till then available would shift and change. This is that period of time that is called by this Awareness the Ascension process and that December 21, 2012 is that time or moment where this will come to completion.

The 7 Gateways will be Open December 21, 2012

The gateways that this Awareness has spoken of in the past; the seven gateways of alignment, will be opened. The energies will proliferate down the corridor from the central sun and great changes will be effected on the planet Earth, creating that final surge of energy that will be required to shift the frequency of the planet and create that multidimensional shift, where the planet will split into the two frequencies, the alternate frequencies, and this is something that has been known for millennia. It is even an event that with proper instruments can be seen and predicted, as has been so. Therefore, the document discussed, the document Manas, is indeed information that collaborates the Mayan predictions, and there are other predictions, other sources of information that hold the same information, the same predictions. These have not yet been found or are reflected in a less specific way through other documents or Testaments.

WHY DID U.S. TARGET AN ISRAELI BASE?

QUESTION:

Why would the US spray plane want to target the secret Israeli base?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This base is not in alignment with official Israeli powers. This is a breakaway group that has brought this information out. It is only loosely under the Israeli banners. It is a breakaway group. Plus, there is information contained in the manuscripts that these people wish to introduce that would have exposed the dictatorial powers that are at this time in charge. It would have exposed the Israeli government, the American government, the Elite of the world who have true power and this is not wished for.

It is therefore the case that they were targeted to be destroyed by the same planes that have been laying down the chemtrails that are so prevalent in the skies over so many American and Canadian cities as well as other locations throughout the world. It is seen that that spray mixture that was being used however was not the same as that which is used over targeted cities and locations the world over, but rather a highly toxic biochemical spray that was designed to kill those on the ground that it came in contact with. This plan however, failed.

WHAT TO DO WITH ELDERLY DRIVERS KILLING PEOPLE?

QUESTION:

(Wow! That's good to hear! Thank you. That explains it very much so.)

Okay, carrying on, this is from Maria St. M. Her topic is elderly drivers. She writes, "There have been many news stories about elderly driving into buildings and hurting and killing children and adults. There is an outcry from the news media to change laws again, and to test the elderly more often and take their driving licenses away. It has been in the past left to the family members to take care of them at that time, when their mom and dad should no longer hit the road. Now the Powers That Be want to control that and to do that. We have had elderly drivers since we had cars. Maybe Awareness could speak on this? Comments please?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

That this is basically a knee-jerk response when an incident occurs with an elderly driver that causes an accident that causes the death of bystanders. This knee-jerk response often occurs when such a tragedy occurs, for individuals wish to control such events from occurring. However, it is seen that there are many more elderly drivers who are driving who never have such an event or accident. Equally, it is seen that there are many younger drivers who are also killing innocent bystanders as they drive on the road, listening to their headset or their cellular device, or are doing things that are distracting them, such as their nails or make-up, or the many various things that drivers are seen to do. These are NOT elderly drivers; these are simply inattentive drivers, drivers who are not taking full responsibility for the fact that they are driving a vehicle that could potentially kill others.

Are these drivers also to be banned, for they are not paying attention? Are drivers who are between the ages of 21 to 55 to be banned because they use a cellular device? Where does one draw the line? This knee-jerk response is one that is caused because of the attention to this matter by the media. It is a sensational story. Not so sensational are those accidents that occur in the quiet byways and highways, where an innocent child is run over. But since there is only one victim, this is never quite given the press as a spectacular accident, where a befuddled senior may be inadvertently driving down a mall or passage full of pedestrians and shoppers. This simply makes better news and therefore is more sensational; causing a knee-jerk reaction, where individuals cry out that such elderly types should be tested more often.

Responsibility Can Not be Taught

In truth, all therefore should be tested more often, for all are guilty of inattentiveness, confusion, distraction, and inappropriate behavior, while driving a vehicular vehicle. Therefore this Awareness says: Where does one draw the line? What must be taught is responsibility. Unfortunately, this cannot be taught, it is something that individuals either have or they do not have. As one becomes more conscious, more aware, that sense of responsibility also increases. However, one cannot teach this, therefore there is no easy answer to why an elderly individual would be irresponsible and drive when they are confused, other than this is part of their human nature, part of them as individuals. It may also be part of their karma, as well as the karma of those who are accidentally killed in such an event. There is much more to this event than simply an aged driver who is confused and going the wrong way. This Awareness is complete with Its answer.

SHAPE-SHIFTERS SEEN IN OHIO

(More on the Murder of Princess Diana)

QUESTION:

Thank you. Very appropriate. We have one from Larry Kell in Indiana. It concerns shape shifters. He writes, "Last night a caller to Coast to Coast AM told of a friend taking him to a river in western Ohio and asking him to watch upstream 2 to 3 miles, where the river flows down from a higher elevation. They saw two objects gliding over the river that kept coming closer and landed about 80 feet away. They were large, pink bird-like animals without visible feathers that changed into what looked like a human man and woman, and then walked into the woods. They had pleasant looks on their faces and didn't seem to care that they were seen. Can Awareness tell us, please, about these people? Are they humans who can shape-shift into flying creatures, or is the human form the disguise? Are they an ancient race naturally on Earth or visitors from another planet or dimension? How did they learn shape-shifting? Thank you. Comments please?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

First this Awareness would confirm that this is a valid report, a valid observation of an event that did take place. These beings are extraterrestrial in nature. "Extraterrestrial" meaning that they are not from Terra, not of earthly nature. They are from another planet, but equally from another dimension, a dimension where the physical laws are quite different than the laws of this reality. In their physical realm they are able to shape-shift, to take on other forms, and they bring this with them. They have brought themselves to this planet as part of a process that is occurring at this time where extraterrestrial groups are involved in these historical times. They were not concerned about being seen, for they were aware that they were not being recorded and that they could indeed get to the individuals if need be because they were bringing too much attention onto them and onto this event.

They understood that attention would not be brought to them, and therefore they understood that being seen by a couple of observers would make no difference, for most people would not believe the story. It is for this reason that they were not concerned or showed any hostile actions towards the two. They are truly shape-shifters in the sense that they can change form. That which was seen originally, the pink bird-like forms, is their truer form and their human bodies that they shape-shifted into is a disguise, a camouflage, that will allow them to participate in events. Mostly these beings are not of the Orion/Reptilian faction, are not hostile to humanity, but are rather observers of the events that are transpiring at this time.

Part of the Elite are Orion Reptilian Shape-Shifters (One Reason the Queen had Princess Diana Murdered)

The journey that the planet and mankind/ humankind is going through at this time is one that is well known by the entire galaxy, and many have come to observe the unfolding of events. There are those who are more involved in the events that are unfolding. There are those for example, such as the Orion/Reptilian faction, who have an interest in how things turn out, for they are part of the Elite, indeed the Elite are part of them, and there are many well-known stories of certain members of the Elite who also are shape-shifters, stories such as the former president of the United States being reptilian in nature and being observed in his reptilian form, as is so with the Windsors. This Awareness is trying to present the concept to American readers that there is no King of England at this time, only the Queen and her Prince consort. Her husband Philip is not the king however. The Windsors themselves, Philip included, are also reptilian beings who often revert back to their reptilian forms and this also has been observed. Even the former Princess Diana observed this to occur and this is part of the reason why she was finally eliminated.

There is much more to that story, but this is a story for another occasion. The question of shape shifting extraterrestrials however, is such that this Awareness will end by saying there is indeed many extraterrestrial beings on the planet at this time, both those participating in the events and circumstances of the times, as well as those who are here simply to observe the times, and that this is something that will come to light more and more in the times ahead.

QUESTIONER:

Additional question please. Are these beings more prevalent in mountainous areas?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

How to Identify These Beings

This is not seen as being so. They are everywhere. Indeed, one will often get a sense of them. There is a way to identify these beings, and the way is to simply feel them energetically. Often beings of this nature will not have a familiar feeling to them, they will feel cold and even dead. One can look into their eyes and not see anyone at home. There are times when individuals have sensed this in a person walking by them and it has caused them to the quiver, to shake, for they have had an experience that they may not quite understand, with someone that has crossed their path. When one has such an experience the best thing to do is to simply keep walking, and do not try to make contact with this individual, for they may not be of the good variety. It is better to understand the experience as they have simply sensed and felt the energies of an extraterrestrial, and that they are better off not pursuing the matter further, not at this stage at least.

Many will never experience this. It is more those who have a high degree of sensitivity, those who often take on board when they go into a supermarket or grocery store, the energies of the peoples around them. It is for this reason that many sensitive types will often feel drained when they are in a store where many people are gathered and very fractured energies are rampant. It is more that they will almost not sense anything from such an extraterrestrial shape shifter. They will feel that hard cold even dead-like feeling and this will be their clue that they are experiencing a being that is not human in nature. Indeed, it is even seen that the United States government, as well as other governments, have highly trained agents who have exactly this kind of sensitivity to seek out intruders, extraterrestrial beings, who are trying to pass themselves off as human and that these agencies use such sensitives to find these shape shifters.

QUESTIONER:

Interesting. In this case, where do they were from? These particular ones were from another planet or dimension. Which planet would that be or dimension...?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The planetary system Allegro is indicated, a system not known by a majority of individuals on this planet. Then again, they are here to observe that which is occurring. It is not seen that theirs is an active role.

QUESTIONER:

I see. So the whole world, all of planet Earth, is indeed in a stage that is attracting many to see, watch what happens?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed. Many are being drawn to this stage, this planet at this time, for major events are unfolding even now. The ascension process that this Awareness has often talked about has implications and ramifications beyond just the shifting of human consciousness, and many are arriving to view what is going down, to see what will occur. It is for this reason there is such high interest towards planet Earth, towards Terra at this time.

QUESTIONER:

So what happens here would actually affect them in some way or other, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is correct.

MICHAEL JACKSON

(How Did He Really Feel?)

QUESTION:

Thank you. Okay, there's one more in this category. I think it is probably a short one. This comes from Cathy Walters in Canton, Ohio. It concerns Michael Jackson. She asks, "I wonder who Michael Jackson was before this lifetime and it is so wonderful that he came into our lifetime. The music is just so addictive. I wonder what he felt when he knew he was in spirit?" Any comments on this please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Despite Reports Michael Jackson was not a Pedophile

Great relief. Despite the wonderful music he brought into this life, he was a very troubled soul and the burden that he carried was a heavy one for him. His pure and innocent nature was often misconstrued and misunderstood, and even punished and persecuted by those who sought to bring him down. His actions with younger boys were not always appropriate actions. They lacked discernment and maturity and wisdom. But it was not because he was sexually involved with these children, it was more because his own child within had been so damaged and repressed that he was seeking to reestablish that joy and beauty of childhood that he had missed, that had been taken from him.

Of course this was part of his agreement, to be a high and potent entertainer, to bring beauty and joy through his music, but it was not through his life that he brought beauty and joy, for his life was a very troubled one indeed. He understood that the payoff for bringing such beauty and music to the planet would be a very personal one indeed, and yet he agreed to this before he entered into the plane of existence on this physical plane. He agreed to this, for he understood that he would also present to humanity a different role model, one that would savor the trust and innocence and childlike qualities of the individual, versus harsh, capricious, greedy presentations of entertainers who are there more for the money than for their art.

Michael and his Creations had Great Influence on Millions

In this way the entity known as Michael Jackson indeed did suffer for his art and for his life. He did create in the planet itself many new understandings and sensitivities of individuality, for he was above all a very unique individual. He could put a Band-Aid on his finger and create a new trend. He could wear a hat slouched sideways and see millions who would mimic him. This individual had a great effect on millions and millions of individuals and opened doors to them, so that they could begin to express their own uniqueness, their own individuality.

His Ironic Message: "Be Thyself. Be True to Thyself"

It is to some degree strange then, that many simply mimicked him, when his true purpose and message was: Be your own self, even when this flies in the face of authority, flies in the face of that which is accepted. Be thyself, be true to thyself. And yet he himself was lost in his life. Much was accomplished by the individual and it is seen that despite his tragic death at an early age, he did much, his life was complete, and it was his time to move out in the dramatic way that he did.

QUESTIONER:

A lot of people admired him. He was very special.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Everyone had an Opinion—Yet Michael Went out Laughing!

A lot of people detested him also, for they judged him. They judged him by the reports in the press that they read or saw on the television. Many were not fans of this amazing being, this Avatar who had come to the planet to help shift consciousness, and yet it can be said that he affected many one way or another. Very few did not have an opinion about Michael Jackson, and this too was part of his role and his purpose. It is seen that he did accomplish that which he set out to do and that his death, although in some ways tragic and seemingly premature, was not so. It was his sense of drama that brought him to such a departure and death. It is as if he went out laughing, for he knew that even in death he would still have much impact, and that many would still speak of that most amazing man known as Michael Jackson.

MICHAEL JACKSON WAS MURDERED BY THE POWERS THAT BE—NOT HIS DOCTOR

QUESTIONER:

Indeed. I noticed in the paper this morning that the attending doctor pleaded not guilty in his charges that he was responsible for Michael's death.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

In a manner of speaking, although he was the individual who administered certain drugs, he did not kill Michael Jackson. It is seen that there is something much darker involved; that Michael Jackson was murdered, but not by the doctor. There were certain individuals who wished Michael Jackson dead, certain members of a secret government group that used the drugs that the doctor was administering but when he was not there, administered more drugs killing Michael Jackson. However, the doctor was the one who was the personal physician, the one who was known to administer the drugs to him through intravenous application and it is seen that something was added to the intravenous bottle and it was the overdose of drugs that then killed Michael Jackson.

QUESTIONER:

Wow!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Many will not believe this story, of course, and will hold the doctor as responsible. This Awareness will simply say that the doctor was hired to support the wishes of Michael Jackson, and was ordered to give him the drugs that he was also taking. It must be understood that while Michael Jackson was an amazing being that achieved much, who shifted consciousness on the planet, he was still a man who was racked by his demons, who sought escape through drugs and fantasy and was more than ready to return back to his Soul, so that he could recover and heal.

It Was Time for him to Return Home—and of Course with Fanfare

He had been very deeply affected in his physical life and it was time for him to return home. His was such an attitude of showmanship however, that he could not simply die peacefully in the night, but rather needed to leave with fanfare. As this Awareness has said, there is a sense of humor and that there is seen as tremendous laughter on the other side by the entity Michael Jackson at what is occurring now that he has departed. Even the manner of his departure causes him great mirth and humor, for he knows it is all a charade, a sham, all sleight-of-hand, and he was a master at this.

QUESTIONER:

Yes. Does Awareness wish to answer any other questions or is there any additional information?

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness does feel complete at this time. The interpreter needs to be brought up from the deeper state he is presently in. This completes today's session.

(Thank you. The Law of Gratitude is given)

Ed's Note: The energies Awareness was picking up on in this reading did not result in the imminent quake long predicted for the West Coast of the US but an equally devastating event shortly thereafter in Chile. The Northwest fault behaves much like the one that broke offshore Chile that triggered a magnitude 8.8 quake. Shaking lasted 2-1/2 minutes and destroyed or badly damaged 500,000 homes.

CAC General Reading 2-13-10 (February 13, 2010) Will Berlinghof Interpreter, Joan Mills Questioner & Energizer

"DEVASTATING EARTHQUAKE IS IMMINENT IN THE USA"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness has an opening message. Due to certain accelerated events and the movement of energies that were shifted at a time prior to their being released normally, an event such as the earthquake in Haiti where much energy was released prematurely; other energies have now been accelerated to a point where it is seen that there is imminent a major event that will have far-reaching consequences. At this time it is seen that this event will be an earth event, an earthquake event that will have major impact on the people of the United States of America.

Awareness Speaks of the Energies Here and Now

When this Awareness says this event is imminent It can only speak to the energies that are visible in the Here and the Now of this moment, and it is seen by this Awareness and by others that the energy seems most focused on an earth event, an earthquake event that is indeed imminent. This Awareness is aware that It has in the past spoken of such matters and yet the event did not occur. As this Awareness explained at that time, after the event-not-occurring, that a shift in focus had occurred and the event was moved from the region of Northern California, Southern Oregon, to a region in the Pacific Ocean off the shore of the United States of America.

Energies Have Been Refocused on the Opposite Side of the Continent Where the Energies Became Unbalanced

There had been a major earthquake but it had little impact on the continental United States of America. With the premature release of the energies of the fault line in the Caribbean between the North American plate and the Caribbean plate, energies have been accelerated and refocused to the opposite side of the continent where that energy became unbalanced, and new pressures were put on the plate due to the release of energies with the event in Haiti that now need to be readjusted, rebalanced. This was not seen as imminent when this Awareness made Its forecast for 2010. This is not to say this Awareness was not aware of possibilities. It chose however, not to delve into that matter at that time, for nothing was guaranteed or written out in stone that it must be so.

When certain agencies acted to cover their tracks of deeds they had done, evidence that was hidden in the country of Haiti, and released the powers of Tesla harmonics to release the earthquake -- what was not understood by them was that they would then also be releasing a countermeasure at a time down the road, a measure that would seek to balance up the tensions once again of those huge tectonic plates. This Awareness feels the need to give this warning at this time, so that there is an awareness that if this event does occur, it is as it needs to be. It is seen by this Awareness that the forestalling of certain drastic events of this nature in the United States of America has long been delayed by many who do not wish to have this experience, and who have sent their energies to forestall this occurrence.

The Energies of the Haiti Earthquake Must Now Rebalance

This matter was somewhat taken out of their hands when those agencies initiated the Haiti earthquake, and what is seen now is that the energies must rebalance themselves, even at the cost of many human lives. This Awareness is not here simply to predict natural disasters, but to help in the understanding of why these disasters sometimes occur; the hidden reasons as well as the obvious reasons; the spiritual reasons as well as the mundane reasons.

The Energies of the People in the U.S. are out of Balance

In this case, it is seen that the energies of the peoples of the United States, especially in their political and socio-economic fields of experience, are out of kilter, out of balance. It has grown to such an extreme that nations the world over are now threatened by these out of balance energies of the Power Elite who have gone mad, and who are so far out of touch that they feel they are able to carry out any actions they wish in order to perpetuate their hold on power and the control of the United States and the world indeed. This is why there needs to be an adjustment of the social/political environment of the United States. It is not simply a malicious act that will be directed towards the people of the United States, but rather an act that is designed to commence a process of readjustment, where the people will once again, due to adversity and extreme challenge, begin to find themselves, both individually and collectively.

A Certain Degree of Insanity Rules the United States

This event and others similar to it will begin to shift the attitudes of many Americans. They will begin to see that those whom they have placed in power are NOT men of high integrity and design. They will understand the men and women that they have placed in power need to be accountable for their actions, and that there are just too many events that occur where there is no protest against that which is evil and corrupt. A certain degree of insanity rules the United States, an insanity that is termed normal and proper, and that is disguised by words such as patriotism and progress. The dictates of the United States of America were once grand and aloof and ideal in nature, for they came from a grand ideal level of consciousness. The Constitution of the United States is one of the finest documents for the rights of human beings that has ever been written, and yet many of those dictates and principles are being abandoned and trod upon.

The Enemy is Within the Gates Yet Undetected

It is time to readjust, to re-create, to reconnect to the essence of the true American spirit; and this will be initiated through events of cataclysm and destruction, not to simply swipe down the American people, to knock them down; but rather to help them find themselves again. The enemy is within the gates and the enemy has been undetected for so long that many no longer understand what has been lost, and where they are being directed. The events that this Awareness has seen and that others are seeing, and that many of the Light workers are starting to feel and pick up energetically on -- is an event where those who decide to pass over will do so to help liberate their own nation once again, will help free their own people once again, will show the way, the way that once was so clear to so many, once again.

Those Who Pass Over Have Agreed to do so for a Higher Purpose

As in many such events, those who will choose to cross over will do so because they have agreed to do so, they have given themselves to a higher purpose. If this means that they will exit from the physical to integrate themselves back into the fabric of the Divine Soul, then they will do so willingly and voluntarily. This is what is hardest for so many to understand when there is great loss, death and destruction. Those who give themselves do so voluntarily and willingly. This will mark the beginning of the transition period, the final transition towards that which this Awareness calls the Ascension and which is also known as the Ascension process.

Prepare Yourself for a Major Event for it is on its Way

It is an event that can still again be forestalled and deviated, but as this Awareness has spoken in the past, it is time to redefine the energies of the United States of America and of the world. It is time to release the stranglehold that the corrupt ones, the dark ones, have held for so long. It is time for Spirit to move actively into the plane of consciousness and to help create the shifting of energies that will lead to the final Ascension. Be not afraid of those events that are to come. Be not afraid, for God Almighty, that which is the Creator and Divine Source of All will move through this experience with you, with one and all, and all will be well in the end. The event this Awareness is speaking of is expected within the next month to two months. Prepare yourselves for a major event, for it is on its way. It may even come quicker than the 1 to 2-month period if the energies continue to accelerate beyond control. This Awareness is giving this message to help those who need to prepare for that which is coming.

IN WHAT AREA OF U.S.?

QUESTIONER:

Could you give a clue as to which part of the United States or would there be several parts? And also, if this extends into Canada?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Tremendous Storms in the East are Related

It is primarily seen as the region this Awareness has focused on previously, that being Southern Oregon, Northern California. It is seen that there may be other related events as the shifting of the plates occurs in other areas within the United States, causing other events to come forward. Already it is seen that the tremendous storms in the Eastern United States are somewhat related to the surging misaligned energies that are seeking to correct themselves.

Another Sign of Imbalance: Endless Snow in the East and No Snow at the Olympic Games in Vancouver

At this time tremendous snowfall is occurring in the Eastern parts of the United States, and yet on the Western Coast, extending up to Canada on the Western Coast of British Columbia, there is no snowfall at this time, a time in the season of things that there would normally be much snow, especially where it is needed in the Vancouver region, where there is the Olympic Games going on. Yet the snow is happening in a region where normally there would not be this type of weather.

The Quake May Radiate Southward and to Central U.S.

It shows an imbalance in the energy of things, the climatic balance in this case. This is also happening at the sub-levels, the levels below the surface of the planet, where there is much activity and much tension that is building up that will need to be released. When there is the initial event, it is seen that it will radiate outwards and other trigger points will also be released, other parts of the fault line further in Southern California may well also be released. It is as if the kingpin has been removed and all the coils of the chain are coming detached and coming apart. This may also extend inwards into the central parts of the United States, where other events may occur, such as flooding and tremors and weather conditions that are quite abnormal.

Mexico and Canada Will Not be Extremely Affected

It is seen that there will be an extension North and South of these events, but that the nations of Mexico and Canada, although they will be affected, will not be as extremely affected as those regions where there is active occurrences taking place, active events occurring.

WHAT CAUSED THE EVENT?

(HAARP & Tesla Technologies Were Used?)

Question:

Is this the result of HAARP energies or is this peculiar to Mother Earth herself?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The Earth is Being Tampered With

There is seen first a triggering of the initial event in the country of Haiti through such Tesla technologies/HAARP technologies. It is to be reminded that weather patterns are being manipulated and played with on a regular basis. The technology and science now exists through HAARP, through ELF, and other unnamed technologies that can affect weather, and can affect the Earth's seismic activities, and can be triggered. All of this does exist and has been used. The Earth is being tampered with, but that this lacks vision and understanding. As is so often the case when mankind tampers with nature, he/she/it creates events down the line that are unexpected and unplanned for.

Why Mother Earth is Shaking, Rattling and Rolling (Rhododendrons in England Become Weed Threats)

There are many examples of this, how certain animals are brought into a region to control one problem, only to become another problem themselves, or how plants are often brought into a region, destroying the natural fauna in that region, taking over and becoming a pest themselves. Even something of beauty, such as the Rhododendron in the country of England, when brought over from India was viewed as a beautiful plant, but this beautiful plant escaped the English gardens they were planted in and now threatens many stretches of the English countryside. Rabbits were brought into Australia and there is now a tremendous problem with the wild rabbits in Australia. There are countless examples of how mankind in ignorance has tampered with the natural order of things to cause upheaval and imbalance.

This occurs also at the psychological level, the emotional level, and the political socio-economic level. It is seen because of the power structure, where those who are in power have started to use their technologies and science against others to gain their own wishes, to make so what they wish to be so -- that they have created conditions that Mother Earth can no longer tolerate. Thus, even though an event may originally be triggered through HAARP, or ELF or Tesla technology, this event this Awareness is seeing is more of a backlash by Mother Nature against such intrusions and invasions of her body. It is her way of readjusting herself, rebalancing herself as she herself, Mother Earth, Gaea prepares herself for her own Ascension process. It is as if she is shaking, rattling and rolling to wake herself up, to get herself ready, and in the shaking, rattling and rolling, those who are on the surface where the shaking, rattling and rolling occurs will suffer devastating effects because Mother Earth is starting to throw off those poisoning energies, those toxic enemies that have invaded her for so long, those technological scientific weapons that are callously used on others that have affected her deeply, and are no longer tolerable to her. And it is largely for this reason that she is starting to react in a manner that will be devastating on those who will experience the shaking, the rattling, and the rolling. Does this answer your question?

HAWAII AND VANCOUVER ISLAND NOT AFFECTED

( No Tsunami is Seen Coming )

QUESTIONER:

Yes it does. Another one comes to mind: What about Hawaii and Vancouver Island, those areas offshore the US and Canada, would they also be so affected?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that the islands of Hawaii will be adversely affected at this time. It is seen that there will be swelling tidal waters along the Western Coast of the United States, Canada and Mexico. Vancouver Island is seen to have huge surges in tidal waves, but it is not seen that a tsunami will occur that could threaten major ports and cities in Canada or Mexico. There may be some tidal waters on the Western Coast of America but it is not seen that they will be tsunamis that will be as devastating as those that occurred on Boxing Day 2006. (Dec 26th).

COSMIC AWARENESS HAS GONE OUT ON A LIMB

QUESTIONER:

I see. Thank you. Is there additional?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness will leave it at that. It chose to put Itself out on the branch, so to speak, so that even though these events may not occur, those who read the words of this Awareness or hear other warnings coming through from other sources, will become more and more aware that big changes are online and imminent. The changes are necessary because of the polluting of the energies of the body of Mother Earth. Actions taken against innocent humans on all continents, all lands, and all countries are no longer appropriate and will no longer be fully, completely tolerated. The changes that are coming are meant to expose those who have held hidden power for so long, and have operated from their dark echelons of power and this is to change now.

As the country experiences these dramatic events, it will begin to question its own soul, its own status as a once great nation. It is seen that the United States will collapse as a world power. While this is intolerable to many Americans, for they are so used to considering themselves the major power of the planet, it will help many redefine themselves, rediscover themselves and find the true path towards their own salvation. America can become once again a great spiritual leader, as it has been in the past and as it is meant to be once again in the future, but it will not any longer be the most dangerous nation on the planet because in its arrogance it believes it is the only player, the only nation that counts.

Because of its Leaders America Has Lost Its Way

There are many on the planet who would disagree with that which is held by the majority of Americans as to the status of the United States of America. This is not to say that the country itself and the people itself are not great. It is to say that there has been a losing of the way, that many know this to be so and are trapped by the actions of their leaders, those who hold power, those who would take the once great nation down a very dark and forlorn path. This too is part of the reason why the changes are coming.

It is time to rediscover the truth of the soul of the United States of America, the greatness that lies within but that has been forgotten because of the misalignment of energies over the last several decades. This Awareness is aware that what It speaks of is very hard for many to read and hear, and that the United States is but a mirror of events that will occur globally, for changes will occur around the world, and major upheaval will occur in many nations as the fabric of the old ways comes undone and that which others have also held as the way of things disappears, but this Awareness reminds one and all that It has long talked about the ending of things, as Ascension is a point of departure to a new reality, a new consciousness, a new way of things.

Hold Tight, Have Faith and You Will be Well

Some may experience a continuance, for it will be their choice to create such a reality. But nonetheless, major changes are now underway. Hold tight, have faith, believe that all will be well for you and your loved ones and it will be so. Even if you are in those areas this Awareness has talked of, even if you experience events that are cataclysmic in nature, holding to the trust and faith and belief that you are going through this and you will be well and your loved ones will be well, will do much to help you through these times. For those who choose to leave at this time, remember always that they are being re-integrated and returned to the fabric of the Soul Itself. There is no loss ever, simply a changing of status, a change of direction. Hold strong, trust and believe and this will help you through those difficult times.

QUESTIONER:

It was bound to happen, it just seems that it is sooner rather than later and the heads-up is appreciated.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed it is slightly sooner but this is due to the manipulation of forces that should never have been tampered with. This is due to the arrogance of those who hold power. It is yet another indication of how lost they are, how out of touch they have become, and those who have power think that they can even tamper with the very fabric of the body of Mother Earth with impunity and without recoil to their actions. It is this arrogance that this Awareness finds most abhorrent. It is this arrogance that is being addressed now and will be brought down. Those who are what this Awareness would call ordinary peoples, although they may find themselves in the middle of such huge events, must always remember their true purpose and essence and that this purpose and essence is to be all that they can be to the highest level possible. By aligning to this, many will find a way through the times coming. By abandoning this and simply falling into the chaotic energies may find many losing their way.

All Wanderers Have a Role to Play in this Event

For those who have an awareness of these times, this Awareness would ask one and all to help guide the many through these times, to hold a beacon high, to be strong, to be clean and clear in their energies, for this will help many who are adrift in the chaos that this Awareness is seeing and that others are also now seeing strongly and clearly. There is a role to be played by those who have a higher level of awareness and consciousness. It is not a time to stand back and say: "I told you so!" for this achieves nothing. It is a time for those who have understanding and awareness to do as much as they can to share with others this understanding and awareness, to provide comfort and support however and wherever they can.

So Catastrophic FEMA Will Not be Able to Help

It is seen that the events will be so catastrophic that even those organizations that allegedly were set up to help in times of disaster, organizations like the Federal Emergency Management Agency will be ineffective to assist the majority of people. It will come to be that one will have to help one's neighbor, put the hand out to help the stranger up and to make sure that as much comfort and support as possible can be provided and that all people come together in the time of adversity. The one thing about adversity and challenging times is that it brings people together, and in the bringing of all together, something that once was so important and essential to the American spirit will be rediscovered once again: that being the sense of helpfulness, the sense of hospitality, the sense of coming together in common purpose one and all, all peoples coming together to help one another in very troubled times.

Look to the Light and Help Others Seek the Light

There is a way through. This Awareness sees the light at the end of the tunnel, at the end of these events. It asks all to remember that these events will pass. It asks all to look for the Light, to help others seek the Light also and know that while these events may be catastrophic in nature, extremely challenging personally and collectively, still they will bring forth a much better situation down the road. Keep an eye open to the goal, look for the Light at the end of the tunnel and you will make your way through, you will help one another make their way through and all will be well.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. That is encouraging. Thank you again for your opening message.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is now prepared to move on to other topics.

SEIU AND ACORN

(Are They Part of the Illuminati Agenda?)

Question:

Thank you. Our topic today is politics. A letter from Ethel Burkett, New Egypt, New Jersey concerning SEIU and ACORN. SEIU is the Service Employees International Union and ACORN is the Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now. She asks: Would you please tell us about SEIU and ACORN? Are they part of the Illuminati agenda? Thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The first thing this Awareness would say is that all major organizations have at the very least, infiltrators who are not there to serve the grander purposes of such organizations. It is seen that both have in this case, infiltrators, people who would report to their political masters the status of these groups, how active they are, how much of a threat they may pose to the Power Elite. However, it is not seen that either group is completely controlled or dictated to by these individuals. Those organizations that are considered too dangerous are often taken over by those whose loyalties are to the Power Elite and in the end those organizations are misdirected away from achieving their higher purpose or their professed goal.

In this case it is not seen that either organization is in danger of this happening at this time. However, as this Awareness has said, there are infiltrators at high enough levels in both organizations that if they did become a threat to the existing powers, that these organizations could be misdirected and disrupted effectively if need be. This Awareness has completed the answer.

WHY IS THERE ETERNAL WAR AMONG PLANETS?

((Dualistic Thinking and Dualism))

QUESTION:

Thank you. Our next one is from Tim Gray, no location. He writes concerning Resolution of Slavery and War on Planet Earth. He asks: How can communication be established between the slaves and their captors? How does the attitude "every being is lovable" apply to beings who enslave and strip entities of their free will? I am very sad that a galactic war between so-called "higher civilizations" has been raging over half a billion years. It seems that communication and the Law of Love have not been used to resolve this dispute for a period of time greater than the equivalent of thousands of human lifetimes. I am very optimistic in day-to-day terms and meditate daily and affirm positive energy permeate the Earth and all that stuff, but I am wondering how can this slavery and war be resolved? Why is it now that on this one planet of the apparently trillions in this single universe that support life, this focus of darkness has occurred? Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

First, this Awareness would say that this planet is not the only one where such a focus has occurred. Because it has occurred time and time again in the 12 planets that hold human life, the lesson therefore must be learnt over and over again. What must really be understood here is that this is all very much the outcome of what is called dualistic thinking or dualism. Dualism is what controls the 12 planets and this, the 12th planet, the Earth itself. The other planets have been in a fight with their enemy, the Orion-Reptilian faction, because on some levels there are still lessons to be learnt.

What Unity Consciousness Means

Ascension is a process that takes one through dualism back into Unity Consciousness. In Unity Consciousness the whole picture would be seen, not just the black-and-white side of things. Choices would not come from one side against the other or in opposition to the other, but rather from that larger perspective of unity and wholeness that both sides are seeing. Both are understood and a solution that is right for both is achieved. In a manner of speaking, in Unity Consciousness the need for opposition will simply disappear. The need to support one or the other side would disappear.

If one is having a dualistic experience one can be born into a side of darkness and if one is of that persuasion, then everything of that side would be correct and right and the enslavement and torturing of others opposite to you would be considered right and appropriate, for this is the energy that is most powerful and most favored. Those who would be born on the "good" side would equally hold that they are in the right, and that they are the morally superior ones, or as victims have the right to fight against the enslavers. There are many variations on the theme in a dualistic reality, but that basically the question this entity Tim Gray is asking is: "Why must it be so?" Why would those who are the enslavers perpetrate their will on others, and deal with those who are not of their ilk in such brutal and nefarious ways?

As this Awareness has spoken, it is because they have a belief in their righteousness, in their right to enforce their will upon others. To do so means that they must adopt certain attitudes and principles that dehumanize a human being, and that make it all right to inflict upon humans torture, rape, violence, destruction, and enslavement. Those who hold such attitudes are truly convinced of their moral right to be the Elite, to be in power, to inflict misery, pain and despair on the human race, and even dominate Mother Earth, to put their stamp of power even on her body, trying to control nature itself, for they believe that such is their power and their privilege that they are the ones who have complete and total power and command.

Ascension is Simply a Return Back to Unity Consciousness

One can only understand the dark by having been part of the dark, having understood that when they were in the dark they lived a life of darkness and disconnection. In the Ascension process, one of the things that occurs is those who are ascending will look into their own darkness, and will understand that they too, in individual lifetimes, in past lifetimes, perhaps future lifetimes, were those who were in darkness. Ascension is simply a return back to Unity Consciousness. When one begins the journey back towards Unity, one begins the soul search, one goes into the Dark Night of the Soul, and one experiences the profound regret and even soul pain for having been part of that which was the darkness.

One must go even beyond this to total acceptance and forgiveness of having themselves been an enslaver, a rapist, a torturer and a being of the dark. When this occurs, the division between light and the dark, between right and wrong, us and them, will finally disappear for one will embrace the totality of the whole experience. God in It's Unity Consciousness does not differentiate between the soul who has been only of the light versus a soul who has been in the dark, for It would recognize it is but a fleeting experience, a momentary involvement in a certain way of being, an experience that does not totally, completely define the whole soul, the Long Soul.

Thus, if an aspect of the soul chooses in one life to be a saint and in another to be the sinner, would God reject the sinner and only accept the saint? It would not. The soul would reincorporate both parts, it would return both to Unity, and God would see both in Unity, understand both as being specific roles experienced during a physical experience, roles that brought valuable experience and lessons back into the fabric of the soul, back into the Divine, back to God Itself.

Therefore, in the questions of the entity Tim Gray, there needs to be seen that his attitude is coming from dualistic thinking, as is the case for so many. It is important for him and others to ask such questions for they are the preliminary questions that will begin a return back to the Unity of Consciousness. By posing such questions he begins to search for the deeper answers and in finding the deeper answers he will return himself, his soul, back to Unity and Unity Consciousness. The questions he has posed, the comments he has made are very relevant in these times, for in this dualistic universe, this dualistic world, much will fall apart as it is being re-assembled into that higher level of awareness and consciousness, that which is Unity Consciousness.

This is one of the most important reasons for asking such deep questions and following them up by looking deeply into one's soul, and instead of shutting the door to what one sees, walking boldly into the energies, embracing them and forgiving them and allowing them. When one finds the unity of one's own self, when one becomes one in one's self, then one will find Unity, and one will ascend. This Awareness is complete but is open for any questions the energizer might have.

QUESTIONER:

That was quite clear. That was quite understandable. A very good question. Thank you.

WHAT'S GOING ON WITH PRESIDENT OBAMA?

(Hidden Reasons for Being in Afghanistan)

QUESTION:

We have two questions from ZoeyZen in California related to President Obama. The first one concerns Obama and 30,000 more US troops to Afghanistan. She writes: I just watched Obama on television announcing plans to send 30,000 more troops to Afghanistan. This decision seems so wrong to me. To try to bring democracy to a people that I believe do not want it. The terrain – the foothills of the Himalayas – is so formidable. This does not seem like a decision Obama would have made freely. What's going on with him? How controlled is he right now and by whom? The more appropriate response would seem to have said: we have massive problems at home and must deal with these at this time. Comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The first thing this Awareness would say is the assumption that the American troops are being sent in to ensure democracy in the country of Afghanistan is erroneous in nature. There are other reasons why the Americans, the Canadians and other Allied troops are in the country of Afghanistan, and it is NOT for the purpose of bringing democracy back to the country or ensuring democracy can survive here. There are hidden agendas in this matter, hidden reasons for being in Afghanistan, one of which is the building of the pipeline that will make oil available to the United States of America.

Even Before 9/11 Congress was Told the Pipeline was Needed

The oil from the Northern regions were being blocked because they could not pass through the country of Afghanistan and reach the ports of the waters where American tankers could pick up their loads of oil and bring them to the United States. This was the real reason why a war was initiated against this country. One year before the event now known as 9/11 a presentation was made in Congress stating by certain interests of the oil industry that unless a pipeline was constructed across the country of Afghanistan, there was no way that the oil that would be needed from the northern regions of Kurdistan and places north of Afghanistan could find their way to the United States of America.

As an oil hungry nation with an inordinate amount of neediness for oil, at that time a crisis was seen and it was determined that it needed to be dealt with. It was also seen that the political atmosphere of Afghanistan would not support a voluntary cooperative effort with the United States of America, which they defined as the enemy. Therefore, the Taliban needed to be removed and an enemy produced that would be a big enough bogeyman that would cause American people great fear and misapprehension. That bogeyman was created in the person of Osama Bin Laden, and he of course became the target for the actions against the country and against the government that supported this terrorist. However, this is all simply a manufactured story, an excuse to bomb the country.

Bin Laden a CIA Agent and Now Living in the U.S.

Bin Laden himself was and is a CIA agent, and was removed from the country by CIA forces. He was simply given an American passport, shaved his beard, took his turban off, put a suit on, and flew out of the country as an American citizen. This is the way that the invasion of Afghanistan commenced; the Taliban government was overthrown, and dislocated from power. Bombing missions engaged that were not so much about bombing the enemy hiding in their caves in the Afghan mountains as much as breaking up earth and destroying the land so that it could be then removed for the pipeline that was to come. Strategic bombing runs were done for this purpose, for helping to clear the land of physical obstacles that would impede the progress of the building of the pipeline.

The pipeline has continued since that time to be built and secondary facilities and roadways and bridges have also been constructed so that transport could get to the regions where the pipeline was being built. At the same time, a mock government, a puppet regime was put into power. What was not expected was that there would be a genuine upsurge of resistance against the Americans and the Allied troops, and the resistance of the Taliban has been such that there is a threat now to the completion of the pipeline and the maintenance and protection of the pipeline.

"Freedom Fighters" Try to Destroy the Pipeline

It is for this reason that Barack Obama was ordered to put another 30,000 troops into Afghanistan. It is not for the reason of ensuring democracy in this country but rather ensuring that the pipeline is completed and kept safe. The terrorists, who have been attacking it, these being known in the land as Freedom Fighters by those people who would support freedom of their own country, have targeted the pipeline, often attacking it. Reports on this of course are kept hidden and kept secret. Instead, the story goes out continuously that the reason for the troop buildup is to ensure democracy in a land where democracy had been forgotten.

The truth of the matter is that those Powers That Be who wished and desired a new supply of oil and access to oil reserves and the transport of the oil from those hard to reach areas to port cities, where the transport of the oil could be completed by putting oil in the tankers that sailed to America -- was the real reason for the invasion of Afghanistan. Barack Obama has been simply a puppet in this process; when his political masters ordered him to increase troop involvement he had little choice but to do so.

The actions, of course, show clearly that this is a man who even if on a personal level would rather not do such an action, knowing that it is contrary to his own vows and pledges and promises that he made to the American people, will still do the bidding of his political handlers, for to not do so would actually be very dangerous to he himself as well as his family. It is for this reason that Barack Obama indeed did increase troop involvement in Afghanistan.

Won't 2012 Make the Pipeline Redundant?

QUESTIONER:

With what's coming down the tube is it quite possible the pipeline will be redundant?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed it will be redundant, as will much else suddenly be redundant. Not only the pipeline, but many other projects will also fall by the wayside.

IS MASSIVE UNREST COMING?

QUESTIONER:

I see. Thank you. Her other question concerns the US Civil War. She asks: what are the chances for massive social unrest, dislocation, perhaps even Civil War in the United States in the next few years before the ascension process completes in December 2012. Comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is seen as part and parcel of the unfolding of events. This Awareness has already spoken of this as something that needs to be avoided by the individual. In other words, each and every individual will have a choice of whether or not to experience such civil unrest, to take part in it, to be one who takes up arms to attack government troops. This would not be recommended by this Awareness. It is also seen that with certain catastrophic events that could unfold, as this Awareness has already spoken, that there are regions that will fall into civil unrest when emergency powers, emergency organizations such as the Federal Emergency Management Agency fail to provide adequate housing, shelter, food or clothing.

There is seen as a fragmentation of the social order in the United States as it goes through this period of upheaval. Again, this Awareness would say this is part of the process of the shifting energies of change. In the end it is up to each and every individual to focus their thoughts and their beliefs in a direction that is of a higher standard and order. The problem here, of course, is that many would say, "How can I do this? Would this not be unrealistic? Would it not be a lie? For all around me there is civil unrest that could hurt me and my family. I must protect myself, I must go out and take part in this so that I can feed my family." This of course is one way one could see the upcoming social unrest, that they must be part of it or at least protect themselves from it.

Again, this is a way of believing, a way of focusing one's energies so that what is manifested around them is a direct experiencing of the social unrest and upheaval. The energies that are shifting are also creating situations that are stronger than they have ever been of the manifestation of one's reality. Mankind has always manifested their individual realities; they simply have never understood the principles of how it worked. They could not even see that they themselves would manifest their own realities. Thus, it has always been easy to blame others for one's problems.

It has always been easy to seek condolence in a higher authority; in a Christian God, a Judaic God, Allah or whomever one chooses as one's Supreme Deity. The simplest truth here is that all human beings are creator beings. ALL create their own reality. This truth will become more and more apparent as one begins to move more towards multidimensional thinking and as one begins to understand that which this Awareness has described as Unity Consciousness. It is therefore, most critically important in these times of social unrest and upheaval to hold to this, and to continue to energize this understanding, for it will become more and more apparent that as one does so they will avoid this state of social upheaval, at least on a personal level.

Thus it is that there may be social upheaval occurring all around one, but the individual may find him/herself in the eye of the hurricane where all is peaceful, all is calm. One can easily step back into the chaotic forces of the social unrest that swirls all around them or one can focus on their own balance, their own unity, their own Oneness of Being and believe that they will be well, and their loved ones will be well and all will work out. This is not simply a statement of naïveté by this Awareness, it is the truth of how it can be, and how it indeed is. It is up to each and every individual now to discover this truth, to enact it, and to live it and be it.

QUESTIONER:

Indeed. Thank you. Do you have a closing message please?

Change is Starting to Occur:
(When One Resists Change Chaos Always Occurs)

This Awareness is aware that It has spoken of many troubling things today. It has spoken of a catastrophic event that is imminent, and is in the process of unfolding, and yet this is a time of great anticipation also. Not the anticipation of the negative event, but the anticipation that change is starting to occur and that often for change to come through and to manifest itself completely and totally, things need to change. Change does not always come easily, and there is often resistance to change.

Ultimately Chaos and Change ALWAYS Occur

Most individuals would rather have continuity, and security and predictability in their lives, and would seek a situation of comfort and support to the ways things are. That which is known and comfortable to one is that which one often seeks to maintain in one's life. The thought of change is repugnant to many. They would rather have that which is known and which is the comfort zone as their normal and constant state of affairs. However, this is simply not the way of things. Ultimately chaos and change ALWAYS occur.

Nothing stays stagnant or the same forever. Eventually there will be upheaval. Eventually things that have been static for a long time will collapse. Eventually change comes to all, change on a personal level, change on a societal level, and change on a global level. Instead of trying to fight change off, to hold it back, and to refrain from changing one's self, one needs to embrace this concept of change. When one is in alignment with one's spiritual awareness and understanding, when one is in that flow of unity consciousness and is able to see the whole picture, one will embrace change much more easily than when one is caught up in dualistic thinking, where change is somehow seen as the enemy to be avoided, to be resisted, and to be fought against on all levels at all times.

Resist Not. Don't Allow the Tsunami of Change to Overwhelm You

This attitude will not prevent change from happening. It may delay change but in the end change will come roaring in at any cost, for change is what is the most constant of all. When one resists change, chaos and upheaval occurs and that which one is most afraid of occurs. When one understands the greater picture and goes with the flow, one surfs the tide of change, and one is not overwhelmed by the tsunami of change. It can be, in a manner of speaking, an adventure, a ride of a lifetime or it can be the most wicked, evil, negative event one has ever experienced. It can be a tsunami that will crash down on one and bring total, complete, instant change. It is for this reason this Awareness says to one and all: In the times of change that are unfolding even now, resist not. Go rather with that which is the flow, the flow of change, and you will find that it does indeed become a grand adventure.

One's beliefs will be such that it will moderate the effect of the chaotic changes and even though they may still have chaos, it will not be negative, it will not be damaging to the degree it would be if one resisted change and fought against it. Therefore, in these most interesting of times, these times of sweeping changes that will descend upon one in the blink of an eye -- Resist Not. Go with that which is the flow, the flow that is found within one's self. Moderate the effects of these changes by accepting them, knowing that they will lead to something much greater and much better. Know that this flow of change will take you to your own point of understanding and your own launching point to Ascension. It can be of a great merit to one and all if one can see that what is unfolding may at first appear disastrous and devastating but it may be the greatest thing that could ever have happened to shift a stagnant consciousness that resisted change so thoroughly.

The Light is Ahead. Follow the Light

One way or another change is coming. One can be part of the change or one can be undone by it. The choice is up to each and every individual. Such is the love of that which is God Almighty, the Divine Source of All, that It allows one and all the freedom of choice; the freedom to choose which way one will react to the changes that are coming. Be of faith, be of heart, be of courage, and know that God stands with one and all. The Divine is ever present and will always hold one's hand and guide one forward. The Light is ahead, follow the Light. This Awareness is complete at this time.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. That was very inspiring, very, very helpful. On behalf of the membership we thank you.

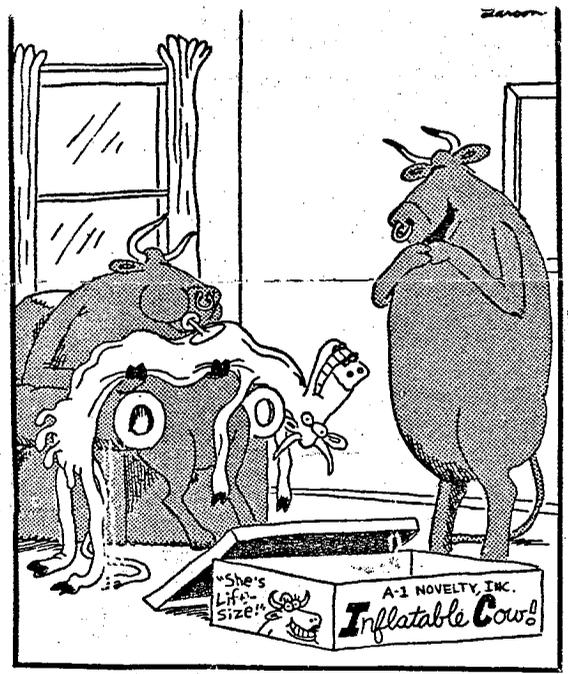

The Law of Gratitude is given)
