MYSTERIOUS TROOP CONVOYS ON TRAINS ALL MOVING NORTHWARD

(Is Canada Being Invaded?)

The first one is from Ted Helinski. It concerns a rumormillnews.com link published this week concerning a convoy of US military armored personnel vehicles on train 5394 reported heading southbound towards Oregon; another report of a convoy spotted outside of Cincinnati, Ohio and yet another one passing through White Rock from Washington going north toward Vancouver, BC. Question: "Why this movement of vehicles during peacetime and why are these US armored vehicles moving north of the border into Canada? Are we being invaded?" Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would point out that such troop movement has been occurring over the many years since the mid-80s and this has all been part of the preparation for a time of great civil unrest. This time is moving closer. It is part of the grand plan of things by those Powers That Be. There is at this time a political atmosphere in the United States of America that is very divisional and that threatens the very democratic process of the United States itself. This is in reference to the law regarding the health legislation, and the act to create universal health care in America.

The Created Backlash Against the New Healthcare Law

There has been created a genuine backlash against this measure, primarily from those Republican conservative types who are opposed to paying more money out to ensure the health of others. They do not see it as right or fair. They are also being manipulated at the same time by the mass media that is largely controlled by those Powers That Be. The purpose of this is to create a frenzy and an appearance of deep conflict and strife, giving undue credit to those who are more radical than most, those who are more obscene and threatening in their opposition, creating the widely held impression that there is much opposition to this law, and that many are threatening violence towards those Democratic politicians who have supported this bill, and many are threatening violence towards the president of the United States of America.

All of this falls far short of the long-held values of the United States of America that have guaranteed political freedom and safety. Written into the Constitution are the very principles of democracy that allow for a free vote and the expression of one's beliefs and ideals, but not to the point where when a vote is taken and a choice is made, that the others would have the right to threaten armed violence and retaliation against those who hold to the law or the act that is being supported and passed. This is what marks this occasion as quite different to controversial laws that have passed in the past.

The Plan is to Create Dissent then Declare Marshall Law And Round Up Political Dissenters

It has come to a point where many are in violent opposition to this new law and actually may acquire the intent of doing violence against those who have supported those laws. As this Awareness has said, this is in direct contradiction to the safeties guaranteed in the Constitution. This is also seen and known by those who have powers, for they are the ones who are manipulating the situation and creating the situation. They are the ones who are ready to declare martial law, for they have come to a point in their plans where the next stage in their plan is to create martial law, and to do so because of armed conflict and opposition in the United States of America.

Also, at the same time this measure is being used to round up political dissenters, those who protest against the government of the day, for these political protesters are seen to be those who are a serious threat to the full enactment of the plans of those who have the power. Therefore, if martial law is declared, those who are dissenters can be rounded up, can be interned, or can be eliminated. These are plans that this Awareness has spoken of many, many, many times in the past, and what is being seen in the troop movement now is the most recent deployment of troops to support that very same plan.

Several times in the past, factors arose that exposed the Powers That Be and made their plans obvious and they retreated. Those periods of time when this Awareness spoke out exposing the plans of those in power are to be remembered by those long-term members -- the Gathering Storm was one such period, when there was active manipulation of the troops in the land and troop movement was seen at that time. The plan at this time is the same as always, but the most recent adaptation of a long-standing plan is to declare martial law because of the political upheaval in the lands.

The manipulations have been long-standing and have finally reached a point where it is seen that it has become an explosive situation. Troops are now being moved to key areas, especially areas of large populations, where it is seen that civil unrest may reach violent levels, and this may then be put down by those in power, taking the protesters away and creating the impression by the majority of scared Americans that they are safe, for those who are the worst have been rounded up and detained.

Powers-That-Be Know of Imminent Geological Events And are sending troops to Oregon and Other Areas

As it is known, this has been part of a long-standing plan and this is partially what is behind the troop movement. Another element that is behind the troop movement is the knowledge held by those in power of the imminent geological events that this Awareness has spoken of, as have many others. Those in power are also aware of events that are on the horizon that will cause much chaos, carnage and destruction. They even know the regions and areas where these events are most likely to take place, and again are moving their troops into those regions, so that there will be a force there that can contend with the upheaval and the damage done, and the anarchy that may well arise with the collapse of local government and police.

Why Canada is Being Involved

This too is part of the reason why there is troop movement and the amassing of forces in certain key areas. As to the question of why there seems to be troop movement into the sovereign nation of Canada, it must be remembered that even though Canada is a separate country, the powers that control this nation are still of the Elite and those who are in power, governed by the allowance of the Elite, who have the true power, the Powers That Be. It matters little what name you apply to them, it is that group of individuals who have true and ultimate power on this planet.

Troop's presence will be seen after the event occurs

It is known that the destruction that will hit the Pacific Coast of the United States will extend upwards into Canada as well and that part of the reason for the troop movement into this region is to create a presence that will be seen after the events occur. They will be used either to assist in those areas of great damage and upheaval or to maintain peace and order, even at the cost of civil liberty. These troops could not be allowed into the sovereign nation of Canada without the permission of the government itself, which has been given. Of course this is a secret action, for the people of the country of Canada would not allow a foreign nation, in this case their neighbor to the south, to simply walk into their country and house their troops on their land.

Concentration Camps in the Mountains of British Columbia Is Another reason American Troops are in Canada now

This is only available to them if it is done with the permission of the existing standing government, and this is the case. It is also seen that there are certain concentration camps that have been built in the mountain regions of British Columbia, Canada and this is another reason why American troops are being stationed in Canada. Many of the dissenters that will be rounded up, both in Canada and the United States, will be taken to these internment camps and there either held indefinitely or eliminated.

It is seen that the troops of the Canadian Armed Forces would not agree to such actions, which is why it is left to the Americans, who would have no problem rounding up Canadians, interning them, and even eliminating them. It is also seen that much of the troop movement noted is not simply American troops but foreign troops that have been brought into the country during the time of armed conflict in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Foreign Troops are Being Billeted in the United States (Mexico and Canada Sovereignty will Cease to Exist in the N.A.U.)

Many of the American troops, and especially reserve troops, have been moved to Iraq and Afghanistan so that they are not in the way and the foreign troops this Awareness has spoken of before in the past are being billeted in the United States and will be those used to round up the citizenry at this time of great upheaval and anarchy, at the time when martial law is declared. At that time there will also be a suspension of the sovereignty of the nation of Canada, and it will be incorporated into the North American Union, creating the North American bloc of countries, the countries of Canada, United States and Mexico constituting the North American bloc. It is also why it is seen at this time that there is no need for the permission of the people to move troops into Canada, when the plan has already been drawn up and long awaiting implementation at a time when the three countries will be unified under the one, and that the nations of Mexico and Canada will cease to exist as sovereign nations, and instead will be incorporated into the North American Union.

This is seen to be pivotal to that time of upheaval when the events force the declaration of martial law, where it will be easier to suspend the two sovereign nations, incorporating them into the one, without violent upheaval or the opposition that would normally occur if this was suggested during times of calm and peace. When things are exploding all around, most will simply agree to any measures that lend them safety, be these explosions of a physical nature or psychological, emotional and mental. The upheaval of one's world is often met with the desire to restore stability and order. Thus it is that when events start to occur that affect all three nations, there will be the suggestion that the solution lies in creating one union, where all can be united, where there is one currency, one government, one political force, one military force, and this will be seen by many as the only possible solution.

Those Who Will be Rounded Up are Already on Lists

Those who speak out against this solution will be those who will be rounded up. There are already lists prepared, and many are already on those lists, and any others who are seen to be in opposition at that time will also be rounded up. This is, of course, the plan of the New World Order. This Awareness does, as always, say that even though these are the plans, It does not recommend that all focus on those plans, that all pay attention and believe that they will be so, for much will change before such plans can be implemented. If an individual however, seeks to have this experience, seeks to be involved in such a reality, then simply keep holding this as the truth, simply hold that as one sees the pictures of troop movement that it will be so, then it is guaranteed that one will experience this event and these events.

Remember Not to Energize that which is Negative in Nature

This Awareness too often has spoken that it is the beliefs that one holds that will govern the experience one has. This is the case now, as it has always been and always will be. It is so crucial that even though this Awareness can speak to all of such events as an explanation to what is occurring, this Awareness would also then add: it is imperative more now than ever to remember not to energize that which is negative in nature, that which is presented either on the news programs or the Internet or wherever else such information comes from, or however else such information comes through. It is imperative to remember and know that in these changing, shifting, sliding times, the holding of the belief that one will be well, that their families will be well, and that the reality they experience will be a strong and stable and safe one -- is what must be held to more than ever. This Awareness is complete with this answer.

WOULD THE U.S. TROOPS BE AFFECTED BY THE EVENT?

(Thank you). Without holding the commentary as truth or energizing the possible scenarios -- just to have an idea of what the Powers That Be plans are, with regard to the collapsing of the government, where the US troops would be activated -- if they're in the area where something is going to collapse, would they not also be so affected?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The troop movement is in actuality removing troops from areas of high impact, and taking them to a safe distance where it is anticipated that they will not be affected by the events that are seen to be imminent. They will then be available to move into the devastated areas afterwards, or if in the extreme cases where there is total destruction, many would be removed from those areas and brought into the areas where the troops already are in deployment.

QUESTIONER:

I'm sorry to interrupt, but are you speaking here of the peoples or the government?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is speaking mostly of the people and the movement of people to areas that are already set up to contain such individuals.

QUESTIONER:

A safe place like...

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Sometimes it would be a safe place, and other times it would be the detainment as in the places of internment. Many who are homeless after the results of the upheaval will be taken to internment camps, allegedly for the purpose of keeping them safe, and providing shelter and food, but it is also for the sake of internment, for those same people left in their regions could, of course, become an anarchy and become dangerous in and of themselves. Therefore, the plans are such that many will be moved to these internment camps. There are other concentration type camps, which are being set up for the extermination of many who are opponents to the present government.

All of these plans are plans that have been in the works for many years. Again, it is not yet seen by this Awareness that it is guaranteed that this is the only plan that will come to pass. There are so many options, so many alternatives to those plans that even this Awareness sometimes feels It is doing a disservice by focusing on such plans. This Awareness does always seek to answer the questions presented to It, even those that do focus on such matters. It simply wishes always it to be understood that there are other options and alternatives besides those that are the planned alternatives of the New World Order.

QUESTIONER:

It just helps to have an idea of what is going on around a person so that they can be alert to it, not necessarily focus on it.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is indeed so. This is why this Awareness provides information, for example, the case recently of that which was H1N1 flu. Many were advised not only through this Awareness, but also by many other sources that this was not what it seemed to be. Those who gave this information out may be considered opponents to the state, whose intent and purpose it was to infect many with the H1N1 virus and/or to infect them by the vaccination that was distributed. Many individuals did not partake because they were aware of what the true plans were. It is for this reason that it is imperative to be aware of what is truly going down, because then one can make choices.

Hand-in-hand with this, if one is truly aware of how one's beliefs can also draw into their lives the realities, the experiences, then one can be aware and purposely choose to believe in another reality, which will become the focused reality, which will become the reality experienced. All of this combines to help the individual move forward safely into a reality that is not threatening, that is not catastrophic, and that is not one that would destroy the individual one way or another.

MORE ON MARTIAL LAW:

QUESTIONER:

Exactly. Just two other short questions if I may please? Martial law--- will that be in the near future, or around or before the time of difficulty?

Cosmic Awareness:

First, it must be declared that martial law already exists. The flags of course, being the indication; those national flags with gold trim declaring that martial law is already in existence, this under Admiralty law. What will occur is that situation that is not being enforced would simply start to be enforced. There is no need to go to Congress, and there is no need to go to parliament to pass the laws declaring martial law when those have already been passed, and when it is already the case. It is more that the Powers That Be would simply start to use their power in this manner and in this way.

WHO WILL HEAD THE NEW UNION?

(I see) And the last question on this commentary: When there is the union of Canada, U.S. and Mexico -- who in fact would be the head of that union? Would it be a democratically voted-in person or one of the existing leaders, or what would be the scenario around that please?

Cosmic Awareness:

It is seen that when this comes to be, the upheaval will be so great that democratic process may well be suspended and a leader appointed. It will be based on the American rule, the American way of government as opposed to how it is in Mexico or in Canada. This of course is somewhat arbitrary, for if a leader is appointed this is not democracy. This is not free election. This is a type of dictatorship.

QUESTIONER:

Indeed, thank you. That was very interesting and informative and the members will have a better understanding of what is going on, which could be very helpful for them without them energizing it.

Cosmic Awareness:

Indeed it is so. The original premise for the dissertation of this Awareness was due to troop movement that has been observed. This Awareness would suggest that even those who actually see the trains with the equipment on them and see the troop movement in progress-- simply see it, and understand what it could imply, but imagine, visualize, believe that while this is what is behind it, they themselves will never experience such an event, for their reality will shift into new directions, where those nefarious plans will not materialize.

A Way to View the Troops in a Positive Manner

It must also be understood that one can always view any matter in the light or in the dark. Therefore, one could view the troop movement in a negative manner, as described already, or one could view this as a way, if and when events occur, that those troops would be to the advantage of the citizenry which will need great help and assistance when much of their reality and their lives collapses around them. It could also be seen, for example, that a union of the three nations of Canada, the United States and Mexico could be a very favorable thing if done from the highest principles, if done through the Spirit of the Divine, guided by the highest spiritual principles in the light as opposed to the dark. At this time it is of course seen that those who hold the power come from that place of darkness, that place of corruption, that place of arrogance and control. But if there is that which this Awareness also sees as the possibility of intervention by those extraterrestrial forces that have long monitored the situation, then that very same scenario could indeed become one of a highly enlightened development. It is this that this Awareness would rather Its readers see and understand and support than the most negative scenario that is often presented and entertained.

QUESTIONER:

That was excellent. Very good advice. Thank you. It's all about choice, right?

Cosmic Awareness:

Indeed this is so. It is also about the final realization that as Creator Beings, how one chooses to present an aspect of reality to oneself will determine its actuality. In other words, if one wishes to present reality as negative and dark and oppositional to one's benefit, then that is the experience that would be called in. If one wishes to put the spin on it, to see it in the light, to understand that with the assistance and help of those agencies that are available, this same situation could be a highly favorable development, and could lead to a most enlightened government and citizenry -- then this could be much more favorable in the long run.

QUESTIONER:

Totally agreed. Thank you)

DR. JOSEF MENGELE—THE ANGEL OF DEATH: IS HE STILL ALIVE?

Ok, carrying on -- we have another one from Ted. He writes: "I have included a link to information about a man who is called the "Angel of Death" for the terrible crimes he committed during World War II. Of course I'm speaking of the infamous Doctor Josef Mengele. According to this website, the CIA is lying. Mengele did not drown in Brazil in 1979. The CIA faked his death as they do with all of their SS Nazi "spook employees"! It is then stated that Doctor Josef Mengele is the real Zodiac Killer, the real Boston Strangler and the real 2001 Anthrax Mailer. As of 2003, he was still alive. According to this website and many other sources, Mengele and many other Nazis were taken out of Germany at the end of the war and relocated to the US and South America by the US intelligence services under Project Paper Clip. They continued to work for the CIA until their deaths and some may still be alive. Does Awareness see any of this information about Doctor Josef Mengele as being true? Was he actually the one behind many of these serial killings?" Your comment please?

<http://thebushconnection.com/mengele.html>

Cosmic Awareness:

This is seen as both a combination of truth and untruth. The entity Joseph Mengele was indeed removed from Nazi Germany, and was taken to Brazil, where he carried on much of his horrendous experimentation under the safety net provided him by the intelligence services of the time and later on, the CIA. However, it is certainly not seen by this Awareness that this infamous character Josef Mengele was also the serial killers that are claimed in this report. This is simply erroneous in nature. It is as if this individual has been made into the super bogeyman responsible for all the evil in the world.

Mengele a Highly Placed Reptilian Given Much Power

This Awareness sees that this individual was a highly placed reptilian who was given much power, and conducted his infamous experiments in the concentration camps. He did much genetic work and made many discoveries of a biological nature through his inhumane experimentation. This does not justify what he did, but for those Powers That Be who endorsed this reptilian being in the first place, it was important that they hold him safe and protect him so that his work could continue, so that they would come up with new information and understanding of how to genetically manipulate the human strain.

His work in this area was often considered invaluable, which is why he was removed from Nazi Germany and protected. The fact that Josef Mengele was protected did indeed create other stories of this individual, but it must be remembered that if he was indeed any or all of the characters presented, that this individual would now be in his late 90s, even a centenarian by now, and it is simply not seen that this is accurate. Indeed, this Awareness will say that this individual did pass over some 20 years ago, and that he has returned in a much younger body, but is not the individual that is responsible for the serial killings. He is being raised in a compound where there is a knowledge that this was the former Josef Mengele and there is seen to be some truth in the notion that he is back, but not that he is the same individual who was around during the times of the Nazi supremacy.

Incidentally, it is seen the compound this Awareness referred to is located in the same region in South America where he was taken and protected during the latter stages of his life. There is seen to be some experiments that did take place there due to his knowledge of his reptilian background, when he gave up a physical body, he did step into another body. There is a science-fiction type view of this matter that this Awareness sees at this time. But again, it is not seen, strictly speaking, that he is responsible for the crimes that have been suggested he has done, but it is so that he is in full awareness of his previous life and is attempting to start up his work again in this compound in South America, in the interior of Brazil.

QUESTIONER:

So the statement: as of 2003 he was still alive, is totally also erroneous?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed. The individual who was Josef Mengele was dead at that time. The individual who is the new embodiment of the consciousness of that being is ready to start again the work that he once performed, but it is in a different body. It is as if this consciousness has come over and was reborn, and has grown,

QUESTIONER:

Will people recognize him?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

He will not be recognized, for his body is not the same as his previous body. It is not seen this is a clone body, but it is seen that there are elements of genetic manipulation that created a body that he could return to, and that was comparable to his previous body.

QUESTIONER:

I meant by his actions -- would he be recognized by his actions as being related to the original doctor?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is more than that. He knows who he once was and he will state it as such. But this must be kept secret still, for this is beyond the ken of the majority of the world's masses to appreciate. This is very much still that which would be considered science fiction, but it is to be pointed out and remembered that what is often the case in reality has already been so for many years in the secret covert operations and workings of the Powers That Be. The final statements this Awareness has on this matter is that this is not of importance or significance to a degree that it must be focused on. It is simply information that one may find of interest, but as this Awareness says, it is of no greater significance to the many other events that are now starting to unfold.

THE SMILEY FACED KILLERS

Thank you. There is one other last one and then I'd like to go to a different topic. "This question may or may not be either directly or indirectly related to the question I asked regarding Doctor Josef Mengele. I have enclosed a story concerning something that has come to be called "The Smiley Faced Killers." There is a nationwide gang of murderers operating in small cells targeting young males, predominantly white college students. The killers have covertly murdered dozens of young men in the last decade, perhaps as many as 40, disposing of their bodies in rivers and lakes where the deaths could be explained as accidents. At each scene they leave a spray-painted smiley face as mute witness to the unrelenting horror that they perpetrate on their fellow men for no other reason than the celebration of their own evil.

In every case, the victim has been a 19 to 23-year-old white male with high academic achievement and active in competitive sports. Smiley faces have been found at "drowning" scenes in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Wisconsin and Iowa. The crude drawings vary in size, shape and color and at least one had a chilling message written next to it: "The evil, happy, smiley man". Can Awareness give any information as to who is committing these crimes and why? Is this the work of some satanic cult or is this some type of initiation into a gang, or is it the work of some wing of the CIA? I guess the answer could be all of the above or at least involve more than one reason or group." Would Awareness please comment?

<http://www.red-alerts.com/homeland-security/the-smiley-face-killers-detectives-unveil-a-horrific-the> (balance not included)

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness would suggest that it is more than one group, and more than one reason. It is seen that there is both an element of a satanic involvement as well as a racial involvement. It is seen that the white men targeted are seen by certain members of a black organization as potentially threatening, for these will often be the leaders of the future, and there is seen to be a group of black individuals in a Satanic-type cult that has targeted these individuals. This Awareness is extremely aware that such comments could induce racial tensions and It does not wish to create such tensions, for It is simply presenting what It sees, not what It wishes to energize.

Pedophile Groups in Disneyland who Capture Children

There are many other organizations and groups that also target other groups, such as children. There are pedophile rings that capture children in such locations as Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm, other amusement parks, malls etc., who are also satanic groups, and who use the children in ritual ceremony. It is seen that the group that this Awareness has referred to is a group of individuals who are of the impression that serving their great master Satan is that which will gain them everlasting life and power. This of course, is misguided, but they, like so many other groups that prey upon individuals-- be they children, be they robust young men, be they women, be they the elderly -- have always existed and will continue to exist. This is but one type of such a group.

It is not seen that they are particularly powerful at this point nor is it seen that their power base will grow, but it is seen as part of the encouragement of a racial tension between the blacks, the whites, the Hispanics, and the Asians; all of different racial colors for the purpose of creating fear and panic in the society. It may well come to light that there is such a connection in the future, but if this does come to light it will be information deliberately released, for this group is a very secret and covert group. If this information is released, it will be for the purpose of creating the racial tensions that this Awareness spoke of. If one reads of such a racial group committing such atrocities, this Awareness asks that Its words be remembered, that this is a planned event for the purpose of creating racial tension and that one does not fall for this, but rather simply understands what the purpose of this is in the first place: to create fear, dissension and panic.

QUESTIONER:

Indeed. I'm not sure who said it, but to be forewarned is to be forearmed.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed this is so.

WHY ARE ENTITIES BEING BORN NOW AT THE END TIME ?

(Thank you). On a lighter matter now, there is something from Steve Costello. He writes, "Why do entities continue to be born onto the Earth at this time, considering they know about the upcoming changes by 2012? What could they contribute, being of such a young age? I understand some might have karma to work off, but I can't imagine the same total world birthrate continuing now, as in the past." Do you have comments on his observation please?

Cosmic Awareness:

The question has been posed: why is it that many are entering an earthly existence at a time when the predictions are for the end of the planet, as it is known? This is because the Spirit, the soul does not think as a human does, who is located in the temporal existence of physical reality. The soul is infinite. The soul is immortal. The soul is eternal. It knows itself, both in its incorporeal state as well as in its corporeal state. In other words, the soul knows that if it enters into a physical corporeal body, it will still exist after that corporeal body ceases to be. The corporeal body is but a container for the soul, and a soul understands the advantage to having the physical experience even if a limited one of short duration.

The Soul's Purpose is to Have an Experience

Therefore, the soul entering into physical incarnation at this time does so for the purpose of having the physical experiences that are now available to it, including the experience of the desolation of a reality. The ending of that which has been the way of things creates a very unique type of experience that the soul is anxious to participate in, be it as a young child, be it as a middle aged individual, be it as an elder who is coming to the completion of their life. The presumption of the entity asking the question is that a life only has merit if it is of a normal period of time considered by the majority as a long and fruitful life.

Unfortunately, this has never ever been the criteria that Spirit has used to choose a life, or the planning of a life. If it was so, then all would live long fruitful lives, but this simply is not how it is. Many will be born into life and only have a very brief experience of life; some so brief that they barely enter into physicality. Some do not even enter into physical life, being stillborn, for some seek only to experience that physical experience that exists in the womb. Others are born and die as infants, while others die as young children. Still others die as adolescents, or young adults. All are the parameters of life that exists, that the soul chooses to experience.

Therefore, when a young person dies it is because the soul wished to have that experience. The soul knew that in that particular life there would not be longevity, but rather it would be a short life. This is also the case, knowing that the world may well come to a conclusion, that there may well be intense upheaval, but still the soul wishes this experience. Thus it is that children are still being born. The soul chooses to enter into the physical reality for the purpose of having a physical experience, no matter if it be one of several minutes, several months, several years, or many decades. This Awareness is complete in Its answer.

CLAIMS OF CAROLYN EVERS

(And other psychic channels)

(That was very interesting. Thank you). The next one is from VK. It concerns Carolyn Evers. "Would Awareness please discuss the several claims offered by this lady: the E-book containing channeled information from Mary Magdalene, Christ (Jeshua), Mother Mary is already on Earth carrying Christ. Christ will be reborn on December 28, 2012 at which time his DNA will be released. Julius Caesar was her father. Archangel Michael revealed she and her husband Horace will ascend December 21, 2012 having completed her work at the Enzine... And also what would an explanation be of what "The Enzine" refers to?" Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

First, this Awareness would simply suggest that this is a woman who has certain spiritual understandings and beliefs, and who has sensitivity and psychic perceptions. She is connected largely to the Ascended Ones, and takes her information from those who are Ascended Beings, Ascended Masters, who live primarily in fifth dimensional reality, and some of the information that she channels is highly pertinent. However, it is not seen that all of the information she channels is highly accurate or pertinent. Some is, but most is not. As always, this Awareness would say that the best path in reviewing what she claims is to simply be open to what is said and to allow it to be proved through other sources, rather than simply becoming a devotee of this individual.

Cosmic Awareness and the Interpreter are also included

When one is always open to questioning the source, one will always be free of the control and manipulation that comes when one abdicates their free will to one who professes to be a channel or channeler. This includes of course this Awareness, the Interpreter and the process that is followed by this Awareness through the Interpreter. It is never expected by this Awareness that all simply believe what this Awareness says. It can only offer the information through the Interpreter. Those who read these words and hear these words are free to judge for themselves their merit, and are free to allow that information to be validated through other sources.

If this Awareness would expect this of Itself, It most definitely would recommend this same procedure for others, such as this individual. Some of her claims are indeed interesting. That is all this Awareness is prepared to say on this matter about this individual.

WHAT ABOUT THE ENZINE?

Thank you. What is she referring to when she is talked about the Enzine?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not see this information clearly. It sees that she is referring to an ancient group of enlightened beings, such as the Essenes. There is some vagueness to her understanding, and this is why this Awareness does not see clearly what she is referring to.

ON THE AWARENESS INFORMATION

( The Interpreter too Must Question all )

QUESTIONER:

Going back to something where you were talking of the Interpreter's channeling and Yourselves... any channeling that is received through the Interpreter is based on what is the circumstances at the time the information is channeled, is this correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is correct. This Awareness would add that It does not even expect the Interpreter himself to simply be a devotee of this Awareness simply because he channels the Awareness. The Interpreter too, must question all. This is also the reason for the proclamation of the organization Cosmic Awareness Communications, that the views expressed by this Awareness may not necessarily be supported by those involved in the organization itself. This is all to be understood as the way it needs be, for all are on spiritual journeys, and part of the spiritual journey is the freedom of self-discovery.

When one abdicates that freedom, when one chooses to chain oneself up to a guru, a source, or a leader, then one stops that self-discovery process dead in its tracks. This Awareness would not wish this. It does not recommend this. It does not support this. Therefore, It always does support the attitude that one is free to ask a question and to always come from a position of openness, but not simply blind dogmatic following. This is the best way to ensure that when the information that does come through is correct and substantiated, one is free to now take this on board, versus one being obligated to take the information on board simply because it is spoken by that guru, or that source that one holds as infallible.

Infallibility in this manner does not exist because there are so many variations on the theme, so many ways of interpreting information, insight, even channeled information. This Awareness is complete.

IS EARTH GROWING LARGER?

The next question concerns geology. It's from Matt and it has a YouTube site. He writes: "I got this in my e-mail and the video poses some very interesting ideas. If you've not seen this before I'd like to pose it as a question to Awareness." He says, "It's a very interesting video to view. In the video it is claimed that the Earth has been and still is growing larger, and its growth was what actually caused the continents to separate. It makes a lot of sense and if it's true then scientists need to create a new paradigm for our planetary history. Is our universe a hologram? Is it growing? I really don't think that during our current lifetime, humans will understand. It would be like trying to explain the workings of a computer to an ant colony (or me)." Your comments please?

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oJfBSc6e7QQ>

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not see that the Earth is growing in the sense of it growing bigger, but the earth is always changing. Areas of the Earth are in movement because of that which is known as tectonic plates. If this is what is meant by growing, then this Awareness would say that the Earth is growing, but It would prefer to describe this as a shifting process of the Earth's mass, and as it shifts around, it creates new regions and new landscapes. The most dramatic of course, are when two tectonic plates come together and over a course of many, many years push the land masses up to create new mountain ranges. One could consider this a growth process, but as this Awareness has already expressed, it is the shifting of the masses of the continents, of the tectonic plates, that is actually happening in this matter. This completes the answer from this Awareness.

WHY TECTONIC PLATES SHIFT

( Cities and Civilizations Exist at the Core of Planet earth )

QUESTIONER:

Question please. What causes the tectonic plates to move or shift?

Cosmic Awareness:

It must be understood that there are free moving plates that float upon a more liquid inner core. It is not liquid as pronounced by the scientists, but a solid liquid mass. At a depth of many miles beneath the surface there are liquid pockets upon which the tectonic plates rest. Under this is another inner shell, an inner core, a ball, which is hollow in nature, which contains an inner solar sun at the very core of the planet, and there exists many civilizations at the core of the planet. Many who are ancient in nature exist and have at the very core, cities and villages and indeed are alive and active at this time. They realize that they are at the core of this planet and that in the upper regions there is activity, as that which is the molten layer is always in motion, creating the melting of the lower portions of the tectonic plates; moving them, shifting them and creating upheaval, creating shifting and growth.

QUESTIONER:

Question please: Are they threatened by this?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

They are not threatened by this. It has been so for hundreds of thousands of years, millions of years. The inner core is relatively safe from the outer core.

QUESTIONER:

I see. Are the people similar to what we are in the sense of physical appearance or...?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Some are. There are also colonies that could be considered ancient extraterrestrial beings. As this Awareness said, there are different and diverse civilizations that inhabit the core region of this planet.

QUESTIONER:

Are their daily activities similar to what ours are?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

No Heavy Metal or TV but Reptilian Groups do Exist

This is not seen as so. Their daily activities are the activities that suit their civilizations and their cultures. For example, it is not seen that they have an entertainment situation as on the surface. It is not seen that they have television or that they read newspapers or that they dance to heavy metal or the polka. It is much different. It could be considered much more ethereal in nature, much more spiritually inclined, and yet there are other factions, other groups that are more violent in nature. The reptilian groups are very warlike still and there is even seen to be some conflict, but those civilizations of a higher spiritual nature are on a slightly different harmonic or vibration, and are not impacted by those more violent civilizations.

QUESTIONER:

Do they enjoy music or do they enjoy sports or what do they do for entertainment?

Cosmic Awareness:

It is seen that they have their version of music, but this type of music may be quite different in its nature than that which is heard on the surface. It is much more harmonic and mental, soothing to the soul and the spirit. But again, these are those who are of the higher spiritual quality. Those reptilian sources do not engage in music, as it is known, either by those who have the ethereal music or those who occupy the surface and listen to their radios, and their CDs. Their music is much more violent, reflecting their violent natures.

QUESTIONER:

Is there any additional information on these people?

Cosmic Awareness:

Books could indeed be written. This Awareness chooses not to indulge further, but as always, would entertain questions if those are forwarded to this Awareness. This Awareness feels complete at this time. There is not information available for that which would be a closing message.

Thank you) (The Law of Gratitude is given)

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

THE DENSITIES OF EXISTENCE

The first question is from Mikel concerning densities and dimensions. There are two topics from Mikel. The first regarding densities, of which he has nine questions and I'll take these one at a time. Would you please describe the densities of existence to include those below and above the third?

Cosmic Awareness:

The word itself, "densities" implies that a state exists where something is denser in vibration, and in frequency. The third dimensional reality, or the third density levels of third dimensional reality are such that anything below that which is human life and the living life force on this planet would be of a slower vibration, or density and the thicker, slower densities correspond to a slowing down of consciousness. There is a vibrational rate that marks human consciousness, one that marks the consciousness of animals, one that marks the consciousness of the plant world, and one that marks the consciousness of the mineral world.

The Conscious Level of the Mineral World can be Tapped into

The slowing down does not mean that there is not consciousness in the lower density levels, such as the mineral world; it is simply that it is a very long drawn out recessive consciousness. A stone for example, would be able to equate its situation in terms of millions of years of existence, versus the rather quick span of life experienced by human beings. It would almost appear to have no consciousness at all to humans, and yet this is not so. The conscious level of the mineral world is such that it can be tapped into; it can be communicated with, as can the conscious levels of the plants and the conscious levels of the animal world. The density of the mineral world is a unique experience in consciousness. It does not hold the same soul resonance as the higher levels of consciousness, but it is more of a basic elemental consciousness that experiences its reality in elemental terms.

The Higher Consciousness of Mother Earth

The consciousness of the planet itself, Mother Earth herself, is of a different nature. There is that which is her elemental body, which is the actual planet and the density of physical matter and material that compose the body, but there is also that consciousness of a higher level that exceeds the elemental proportion of her density. This level of consciousness cannot be equated with third dimensionality, for it exceeds third dimensional consciousness. It exceeds and moves beyond and seeks to expand itself into a whole new status, a whole new vibrational level.

Therefore, this Awareness is talking of the lower densities, and is not referring to the higher consciousness of the planet logos itself, but rather of the elemental parts that would constitute her body, such as the mineral world, the water world, the fire and the air, the traditional four levels of consciousness that consist of the physical makeup of the planet. In terms of density, what is most referred to however, is the mineral world, the denseness of the mineral world. It is safe to say that as one digresses down the ladder of density, the consciousness held by those levels slows down, and is of a long vibrational frequency. As consciousness expands into the higher realms, that is exactly what is the keynote of consciousness at the higher expanded level. There is an expansion of awareness and understanding and an acceleration of the frequencies beyond the slow level or rate that is at the lowest level of density. This Awareness is complete with Its answer, It moves to the second question.

QUESTIONER:

Just to clarify then -- would it be safe to say that that the Earth would be the second or first or that the basic one is referred to as the first?

Cosmic Awareness:

The Earth in its elemental aspects has that which are the five elements. The mineral world is the densest of all. This is marked by the slow frequency that this Awareness has spoken of. There is then an acceleration of the frequencies, so that water is of a faster frequency than earth, and is more fluid in nature. Then there is that which is air, which is again an expansion into that more gaseous state, and this is of course followed by fire, which approaches the illumination of High Spirit. All have a place to fit into the overall structure, and all fit into place in the overall structure of mother Earth. This is why her consciousness is more than the sum, rather more than the effect of the dense mineral nature of her body. It is also composed of the fluidic, emotional water state, the temperate gaseous state of air and the fiery state of fire itself-- all of these combine to create that which is the unique consciousness of the planet itself.

QUESTIONER:

Then the animal kingdom then would be the second density. Is that right?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is trying to speak simply of density itself, not of consciousness, but there is an equivalency that this Awareness will try to explain as the questions are presented.

WHOM OR WHAT INHABITS THESE DENSITIES?

His next one is: "Whom and/or what inhabits these densities?"

Cosmic Awareness:

Consciousness. Various forms or levels of consciousness. There is a consciousness in a stone, there is a consciousness in the molecule that composes the stone, there is a consciousness in the quark that composes the atoms, and the molecules of the stone. This is all to do with consciousness and the interpretation of conscious thinking, as experienced by the element or the object or the individual or the creature that is experiencing consciousness.

QUESTIONER:

I think this might answer his next question. What are the criteria for graduation from one to the other? That would be consciousness and the level of consciousness. Is that correct?

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness suggests there is no criteria. It is simply the choice to experience one level of consciousness or another. When one remembers that there is truly no time and that there is an eternity to experience and explore consciousness -- what would it matter if one entered the consciousness of a stone for 2 million years, or into the consciousness of the cliff face, of a mountain in the Andes or the Himalayas or the Rocky Mountains? What would it matter if one experienced consciousness in that sub-atomic form that is always in a state of flux?

Thus, one might be in consciousness in that which is the mineral world for 2 million years, and then the breaking down of the stone and the release of atoms would release that level of consciousness or an aspect or part of it into a new state of existence. This is that which is more the God consciousness. It is indeed erroneous to think that the lower density levels are somehow inferior, when it is always inhabited by the soul of God Almighty, Creator and Source of All. Would one call this a low-level of conscious awareness, when that consciousness that preoccupies the density of the mineral world is also the consciousness of God Almighty Itself?

There is always a shifting around between the various states of consciousness. Those levels of consciousness that identify themselves as individual consciousness, or individuated consciousness, may experience a conscious form of existence that they determine as being of the greatest importance. This is because they have confined their understanding to that level. As consciousness seeks to evolve and expand, it will always move to higher more expansive levels, where it is more embracing, and more understanding of the complexity of consciousness on all levels.

There is a Paradox Involved Here

There is a paradox involved here that is difficult to explain, for it involves both expansive and contractive energies. In the understanding of density, there is the presumption that this means a lower level of consciousness. It is not lower, it is different. As one expands it is all-inclusive, it includes the higher comprehension of consciousness as all-inclusive and in that there is that which is God sensing, the God knowing.

This is what all levels of consciousness move towards, but once they are there they all are already part of all consciousness that exists. This becomes very difficult to comprehend and understand, for the human mind, the human consciousness for example, loves its stratas, its levels, its layers, and to see the whole picture is still very difficult for limited consciousness. Have faith however, that all consciousness is always in the state of flux, and therefore will eventually know the greater picture, even as it reduces itself into a singular point of consciousness. It is both the single point of conscious knowing and the expansive, all-inclusive point of universal God-knowing or God-sensing.

QUESTIONER:

Would it be correct to assume that density does in fact indicate the various levels of consciousness as a way of getting a handle on this?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It could indeed be seen this way.

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OR GOAL OF EACH DENSITY?

His next question: "What is the purpose or is there a purpose or goal of each density?"

Cosmic Awareness:

There is no purpose; there is no goal of each density. One could see this as a matter of destiny to experience this or that experience, and one could call this a destiny or a goal or a purpose. But there is no more goal than simply understanding the entire spectrum of consciousness, from that which is a singular point in consciousness to that which is the all-inclusive Universal God Sense, God Knowing. One could look at it as a graduation process, but one could also look at it in reductionist terms, that it is a reducing down to the simplest form. It really does not matter how one chooses to understand the expansive process of consciousness. This Awareness is complete.

QUESTIONER:

Does the higher the density number indicate higher frequency yet less mass density and what are the characteristics of being in each...

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness must admit It is confused by this question. It would interpret the higher density number to indicate a more solid state, and this is not so, if what this entity is referring to here is valid. It is confusing to this Awareness exactly what is being referred to here by higher density numbers.

QUESTIONER:

I'm assuming he's equating a number to each area of the density.

Cosmic Awareness:

One could say that as one moves into the higher levels of consciousness, physical density would indeed disappear as the expansive nature of consciousness no longer grounds itself in a physical density. This Awareness would not call this a higher density number; It would call this rather a higher consciousness frequency or a term that would be equivalent to this. The density number would be in referral to how solid a form is held by a level of consciousness as it seeks to reduce itself to the lowest elementary form of consciousness, as exhibited by the consciousness of the mineral world, for example. Please continue your questions.

IS THERE A DIFFERENT FREQUENCY FOR MATTER, ENERGY, SPACE AND TIME OR JUST SOME OF THESE? AND WHY DO THEY EXIST?

Cosmic Awareness:

All is frequency. There is that which this entity would know and recognize as different frequencies. Therefore, in answer to his question this Awareness would say indeed there are different frequencies for all those states he has asked of.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. In the grand scheme of things why do the densities exist?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Why should they not exist? It is simply so. The attempt to understand why does not truly capture why it is so. It simply is so. It is perhaps best to understand this, as this is the means by which God Itself seeks to understand Itself in all of Its aspects, phases and forms, and in all of Its densities and vibrations and frequencies in all It is. This would be why there is a reason for experiencing all of the forms and densities that exist.

QUESTIONER:

He carries on, "Are the different densities considered part of this universe that we are all part of?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed they are.

QUESTIONER:

And his last question on density, "Do we as Awareness sources have existences in each density?"

Cosmic Awareness:

This is so. This is part of that which this Awareness refers to as the multidimensional character of consciousness, that one can be part of all. One can, for example, sit with a stone and commune with it. It could be said that this indicates one is part of the consciousness of that stone or that rock or that gem. One could equally sit with one's back to a tree and commune with the tree, to ask questions and receive answers, to be part of the consciousness of that which is the tree or the grass or the bushes or any of the plant world that surrounds that individual sitting with the back to the tree.

How to Experience One's Multidimensional Nature

One can equally commune with the animal kingdom, and there are those who find they have unique and distinct abilities as animal communicators. But all can commune with the consciousness of an animal or the animal world. One can even do this in the human world, although one often wonders if this is possible, for the lack of communication that seems to exist between human beings. Of course this is simply part of the life experience; that being divisional in nature, separate in form, creates problems of communication. In truth, the individual who sits in quiet contemplation often can commune with all levels of humanity, understanding the human existence and experience.

One can then expand from that point and start to have the experiences of one's multidimensional nature, all from the point of sitting in meditation. One does not need to leave, but if one departs, the physical consciousness continues to exist, the frequency and vibration of consciousness expands always outwards, always beyond, outwards until it is inward again, inward seeking and outward expanding. Multidimensionality is such an experience that one can have all experience and none if one chooses. One can be totally self-absorbed; one can be totally expansive in form. Paradox is the way of the universe. This is what is definitely part of multidimensionality. It is difficult to understand paradox; it is easier simply to experience it.

ABOUT DIMENSIONS

His next topic concerns dimensions, with about six questions. "What does dimension mean?"

Cosmic Awareness:

At this point this Awareness wishes to explain that dimensions and densities are simply a way of understanding that which was previously referred to as a gradient of consciousness. There are various levels of consciousness. This Awareness has spoken of this before and has described that there are 12 dimensions of consciousness; from the simplest rudimentary point of consciousness to that which is the all expansive universal God-knowing, God-sensing at the 12th level or dimension. Each dimension has various layers, and these layers are often understood as the densities of experience, or of consciousness within each dimension.

The Various Ways One Travels Through these Levels
(The Big Bang Theory Explained)

There are many variations of understanding as to how many density levels exist. This Awareness is not so much worried about how many densities levels exist in one dimension, for in some ways it is an infinite amount of density levels that exist. What is most important however, is that one travels up and down, sideways and diagonally, in and out of the different density levels--up-and-down, sideways, diagonally, up the different dimensional levels, moving always towards the fullest expansion of consciousness, while at the same time contracting into single-pointed consciousness.

It is this that lies behind what is commonly referred to as the Big Bang theory; the explosion and expansion of the universe with its eventual contraction back down into that single super point at the center of the universe of all. This is truly the explanation of the explosion of consciousness and its expansiveness outward to seek an understanding of all, but it is also a contractive experience seeking to know itself as a single point. Both exist simultaneously, hence again the paradox involved.

THE THIRD DIMENSION

His next question: "What does the third dimension mean, apart from being dualistic?"

Cosmic Awareness:

The dualistic nature of third dimensionality is simply the experimental form of consciousness that has been played with at this time in human history. It is a form of consciousness that has served well to expand understanding and awareness and consciousness. The third dimensional form has the various densities that have been referred to previously. Indeed, this perhaps should have been the starting point of the discussion, that third dimensionality has those levels of density that this Awareness has previously talked of as the mineral, the water, air and fire aspects. The ether or etheric level is spiritual in nature.

If One Should Reincarnate into the Body of a Mountain Goat

Densities in third dimension provide the opportunity for those souls seeking physical incarnation to have a variety of experiences. If they choose to have a human experience, they will partake in a dualistic order of belief. The paradigm of belief for humans is that which will place right and wrong, good and evil, night and day: dualistic concepts as the way of experiencing human life. If one were to incarnate into the body of a mountain goat, one would not be seeing the world in dualistic terms, but only in terms of where it can find grasses that it can eat on the side of the mountain. Likewise, an amoeba at the bottom of the ocean would not be experiencing a dualistic reality. It would simply be in a state of existence, as would a rock at the edge of a volcano. It would be experiencing its existence in that static system unless and until an eruption occurred, whereby its reality, its composition would be radically altered and it would become something else. These are all various ways of experiencing third dimensionality, which involves a separating from that which is the more expansive God-knowing, the expansive multidimensional character of the soul. It is a valid experience to have in the journey that is Eternity and that is why there are so many choices available. There is infinite choice available.

DIMENSIONS ABOVE THE THIRD

(Thank you) Would you please describe the dimensions above and below the third?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

That which lies below can be understood as first and second. The simplest explanation of first dimensional reality is a dot on a white piece of paper. The dot is first dimensional reality. Second dimension would be two dots on a piece of paper with a line drawn between the two; all is in relative flat dimensional aspects. Third dimensionality does add the third dot, now there is a solid form that is presented. This expands outward becoming that which is referred to as third dimensionality, which represents form.

Two Dimensional and Three Dimensional Movies

In recent times there have been movies that have been released in 3-D, and the impression through the glasses is that the objects are real and solid, leaping out at you. There is also a reference to 2-D movies, which have been the norm for so long and are seen on flat screens that have a suggestion of third dimensionality only versus the new sensation of third dimensionality because of the new technology that is involved. Yet there is still substance to the two dimensional experience, it is simply not as broad or expansive as the third.

The Fourth Dimension and why many can time travel

Once one leaves third dimensionality, one leaves a certain constriction of belief that defines third dimensionality, and limits the forms experienced in that separated consciousness. As the expansion goes onwards, fourth dimensionality no longer has the time variable that exists in third dimensional reality, for third dimensional reality, by adding that time dimension also creates a finite experience. The fourth dimension does not have this element, and it is infinite in the sensing of that which is timelessness. This is why many who exist in the fourth dimension have the ability to traverse what is known as time in third dimensionality. This expansion continues into fifth dimensional reality.

The Fifth Dimension

This Awareness would ask all to remember there are the different densities or levels in each of those experiences, so that the fourth dimension does have gradients or densities that go from that which is third dimension, crossing into fourth, then moving up the densities into that which is the final density before moving into the fifth. In the fifth dimension there is again a new gradient of levels and layers that move consciousness into higher expansive states. In the fifth dimension those levels would include the ability to manifest without restriction, and to move into an experiencing instantaneously as the thought strikes.

The 7th Dimension: Conscious Creation and The God Energy

The meanings of the densities, the experiences contained in those levels begins to be lost past that which is the fifth dimension, back into the universal laws and rules, the cosmic laws, into the seventh dimension, which is also a level of conscious creation. It is at this level that the God Energy has a very pronounced impact. From that point on the levels become more and more difficult to understand, and at this time this Awareness wishes it to simply be understood that the expansive process creates such an experience that all is understood and experienced at once, and all is limited and restricted at once also. One can be totally focused, one can be expansive in nature, both at the same time.

NEW COORDINATES OF MEASURE FOR EACH DIMENSION?

Amazing) His next question, "Are there, as in mathematics, new added coordinates of measure for each dimension?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to say: why not? Consciousness involves creating such new measures, and if it can be imagined, it can be so. This Awareness will not comment further, other than saying that it can be so, and it is so if it can be imagined, why not?

Who Inhabits These Dimensions?

Good point) His next question, "Who inhabits these dimensions?"

Cosmic Awareness:

It is not "who", it is "what" inhabits these dimensions. It is correct to say that God inhabits all dimensions, and it is correct to say that the individual consciousness, the individual point of consciousness, inhabits all of these dimensions, for that which is God is All That Is, the Creator and Source of All. God is within each and every human being. This is why all humans are creator gods; but it is also so that God is in each creature, in each plant, in each mineral, in each molecule, in each quark, in each vibration, in each wave of energy. God is all, God is all the dimensional aspects, It is all consciousness, It is all.

Therefore, what is, is total consciousness seeking to know Itself, seeking to have multiple experience, infinite experiences on all levels, in each and every aspect of consciousness there is. It is not "who" that occupies each space; it is "what", and the "what" is God, the "what" is All That Is.

DOES COSMIC AWARENESS EXIST IN EACH DIMENSION

Good, thank you) His last question, "Does Cosmic Awareness exist in each?"

Cosmic Awareness:

In a manner of speaking, because of the simultaneous existence in all levels at all times, this Awareness does exist on all levels. However, this Awareness is more from that which is the 12th dimensional plane of consciousness. It comes down through the layers to that which is the seventh dimension of consciousness. The Interpreter's consciousness expands upwards to the seventh plane where it connects with this Awareness and the dance of communication between this Awareness and the Interpreter commences. It is a beautiful dance that moves up and down, sometimes stronger, sometimes weaker, but in the dance of communication this Awareness conveys Itself through the expanded consciousness of the Interpreter. This can be so for any and all who acquire the skill and the ability to expand their consciousness to the seventh plane of consciousness, the seventh dimension, God consciousness. That is where this Awareness is to be found if there is to be a dance of communication and a dance of life.

HOW CONSCIOUSNESS EXPANDS

(Beautiful) Is there any overall observation you would like to make on his questions?

Cosmic Awareness:

These have been excellent questions and serve the purpose of expanding consciousness, of helping those who have heard these questions and the response of this Awareness to think on this matter more, to expand their own consciousness beyond their limited and restricted bodies and their limited and restricted boxes of experience that define their limited and restricted human lives. This is not this Awareness trying to be insulting, for it is simply how it is.

When a Million Year Old Stone Begins to Wonder

As one begins to realize there is something beyond the box, this begins the process of transmutation, the process of transition to higher states of consciousness. While the stone is static in its consciousness, in a manner of speaking, for millions of years, when that stone begins to wonder of its existence, even that stray thought, "Is there anything out there?" may create an experience for that stone, where it begins to break up and the molecules of consciousness are released into a wider field of consciousness, and they then become parts of another form of life.

Thus, the molecule trapped in a stone at the top of Mount Everest may eventually break free and become a molecule of air that becomes absorbed in the body of an eagle, flying high. It has now expanded its consciousness and sees the world from a completely different spectrum. After a prescribed period of time, the eagle might die. Its body will fall to the earth and decay, and it becomes part of the fabric of the soil, of Mother Earth. Eventually a seed begins to grow and the molecule becomes part of the tree. The tree expands and is there for many years. The molecule may move up to become a leaf. At one point the leaf dies and the molecule again becomes part of the Earth.

Perhaps in this case the molecule falls into the stream, becoming part of the waters rushing into the ocean, and in the ocean becomes the dolphin, becomes that sentient creature of the dolphin family that is leaping high in joy and in celebration of life. Already the molecule of consciousness has had many, many different experiences. It may become part of a consciousness that becomes human consciousness, in order to have a human experience. All of this is simply by way of pointing out that consciousness is all-expansive, all-embracing, but it can also be very singular in nature at the same time.

Understanding Through the Power of Imagination

One can understand the story of consciousness through the power of imagination, and it is such that one can be the single molecule of consciousness, having the experience of the mountain, the eagle, the Earth, the tree, the rushing river, the ocean or the dolphin. One can be human and one can also be all else. It is such with consciousness. It is such with the expansion of consciousness as It seeks to know Itself and to know all. Eventually It seeks most of all to know God Itself, because it is God and God is consciousness.

WILL OBAMA COMPLETE HIS TERM?

(That's beautiful) This one on Ascension matters comes from VK. It concerns Galactic Federation issues.

She writes, "Since the Galactic Federation must arrive before 2012 Ascension and they cannot arrive until it's safe, which means an absence of the Illuminati control, is it seen that President Obama will be free to lead without Illuminati influence, thus completing his four-year term in his own way, or is it that since he is part of the Illuminati and they will be gone, that he too will be gone with them, requiring a replacement president?" Your comment please?

Cosmic Awareness:

First, this Awareness asks why there is an assumption being made that the Galactic Federation is not already involved in the affairs of the planet and of humanity, and is already involved with the process of assisting humanity towards that which is the Ascension process? It is not seen by this Awareness that the Galactic Federation forces must wait until the Illuminati, the Powers That Be, the Elite are eliminated before they can intervene or be part of the process of Ascension and assist those who are seeking Ascension.

As to the secondary question of the president, it is seen that as a player in the political game, this individual has awareness of those Powers That Be, of those who control the planet, and who are the true powers of the planet. In order for him to have gained the presidency, by definition he had to be part of those powers, or at least be willing to ascribe to them, to work for them, in order to achieve what their goals are. This could mean if it was taken literally, that as a member of those controlling powers, those Powers That Be, he would have to also disappear from the scene, if the logic of VK is to be followed to its extreme.

However, this Awareness does not quite see it as extremely. It sees that this individual has always had the potential of rising above those who control him, those whom he has pledged his services to, but that he is in an extremely sensitive position in this matter, for he knows that to oppose those who hold power over him could be deadly, not only for himself but for others.

If, in the event that those who hold power are eliminated, are themselves removed, then it is possible that this individual could still move forward and achieve that which is his God purpose, his soul purpose. However, at this time it is seen that there are many oppositional forces that might prevent him from doing so, and unless he recants his allegiance to those who have power, it is seen that he too would be removed from the scene, thus creating the necessity of providing a replacement president.

THE GALACTIC CONFEDERATION WOULD APPEAR ON TV?

(Ok) Her next question: "We are told that when the Galactics arrive, they will be utilizing the TV networks to spread their messages. Is that true?"

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness would expand upon this. It is not only the TV networks, it would also be the internet, the radio, the newspapers, the appearance in the skies above major cities-- these would all be ways by which the Galactic Federation forces can appear. They also have that which is advanced technology, and they could use holographic projections to present themselves in form in front of individuals, as well as through the technological medium of communication that now exists on this planet.

HOLOGRAMS—GOOD AND BAD

Questioner:

One question comes to mind concerning this latter point. If the government also has access to holograms, how would a person be able to determine the difference between the two?

Cosmic Awareness:

This is indeed an interesting and pertinent question. For many there will not be a way to distinguish, and they will be conned by the false hologram projections. Such holographic representations and presentations have already occurred. This is seen as something that must be questioned, just as this Awareness has always asked the readers to question what this Awareness presents, allowing other sources to validate what this Awareness presents. This Awareness would suggest a similar approach, and that one does not simply believe that which is the holographic projection and what they might be saying, and one would stay open to what is being presented, but still question, still look for other information or validation of what has been expressed or presented by the holographic presenter.

This is a very important process, for to simply believe that the entity that is on the TV who claims to be the next messiah is really in fact the next messiah would be foolish. If such a claim is made, then that individual must prove him or herself. Proof is not simply in the miracles that they might provide, for these could very well be technological manipulations of advanced technology, but rather they must prove themselves in the reception of that which is the spirit form or essence or energy of their being. In other words, one must expand their spiritual sensitivity, their psychic sensitivity, their intuitive sensibilities, their empathic sensibilities, so that they begin to truly sense the honesty, the integrity of that which stands before them, be they female, male, extra-terrestrial or anything else that may make such a claim to be a power, a force, or a deity.

How the Galactic Federation will Present Itself

Do not simply believe that which presents itself, for it is highly likely that what presents itself will be misleading, or misrepresentative of what it claims to be. The Galactic Federation forces understand this, and they will come with that proposal that one does not simply believe what they are saying, but questions what they are perceiving, sensing and feeling. They will present themselves in a way that will not force humanity to make a compromise, or make a decision that says they must be followed. Humanity will be free to not follow. They will simply present themselves. Those who present themselves and who demand that they be followed, and that humanity choose them, are those who are the pretenders, those who will not be here to lead mankind forward in Ascension, but rather to fully enslave mankind.

QUESTIONER:

That's good to know and to have that guideline in order to decipher which is which.

Cosmic Awareness:

Another guideline would be in requesting that which is not of Spirit, not of God, or of the Light to leave. Those beings that wish to control and manipulate will demand to be followed. They will present themselves as almighty beings, as more sentient, more wise, and more powerful than those whom they present themselves to, in this case, mankind, humanity. Those who do not seek to control or enslave will not push themselves on the masses of humanity, and if a being appears to you and claims to be of this order, and you ask it to leave -- if it leaves it will more often than not be a being who is there in full integrity and honesty, who honors the request.

If that other being stays, a being who is not of the Light, of the highest nature -- stays and forces you and demands of you your compliance, your loyalty, your devotion -- that would not be a being of the Light, that would not be a being of the Galactic Federation, for they have always put as their highest goal the honoring of human choice and free will. Those who would take your free will, who would take your free choice away, are most definitely those who would enslave you.

QUESTIONER:

(That makes sense. Thank you). Is there additional on this please?

Cosmic Awareness:

The final thing that this Awareness would add is if you were to say, because you were perhaps frightened of this being standing in front of you, to leave; that it would leave, but it would say also that it will return only and if you ask for it to return. It would honor your request, it would not force itself on you, as this Awareness has said, but it would still avail itself to you if you chose to call it back. What must be remembered here is that you would always have the choice to ask it to depart again, and it would never completely entrap you or enforce you to follow it, forcing compliance. This is simply not the way of those higher beings that are here to help in the Ascension process.

QUESTIONER:

(Yes, we appreciate that and that's good to know, good to know). And the delicate question: Is this going to happen anytime soon?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness says it is already occurring. There are individuals who are starting to experience beings coming into their presence who are making demands of them. At this time those Powers That Be that are in existence on the planet to have the power, are those who are forcing the energies to create situations of compliance. There is a general energy of oppression on the planet, and many who are spiritually sensitive have been experiencing this over the last number of months, especially since the month of November of the last year. This is one way of understanding it. Another way is to understand that there is also a new sense of purpose that is unfolding, as if that time many have been waiting for is finally emerging. There is a new optimism, a new joyfulness that is emerging as many sense that which has so long been awaited is beginning to unfold. With this will come more and more experiences of interaction with beings of a higher consciousness, be they of extraterrestrial origin or spiritual origin. Those of the higher consciousness work together and this is that which is starting to appear at this time.

How YOU can Sense the New Optimism and Hopefulness

One need only see within themselves, what their own feelings of life are at this time, to sense this new optimism, this new hopefulness that is starting to come about. This Awareness has spoken that 2010 will indeed be an eventful year. This Awareness would say that this is indeed so and that this period of time has marked the coming around the corner to the new events that are ready to emerge, the new energies that are already starting.

THE OPPRESSIVE ENERGIES ARE STARTING TO DISSIPATE

QUESTIONER:

That's marvelous. There are so many that are waiting and waiting and waiting, the ultimate patience.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is so, but this Awareness would say there was little choice but to wait. The bigger challenge has not been in letting go, in abandoning the course, keeping the distance, staying the distance, but rather to always move forward. For the first time in a long time there is a new energy that is starting to emerge on the planet that is attuning itself to those of a spiritual nature, those who are the Light Workers, the Wanderers, those who have brought themselves onto this planet for this time. This is a time of awakening, a refreshing of the old energies held deeply within the spiritual core as they expand outwards, to be experienced in the physical reality of the lives so many of the spiritual Light Workers are living at this time. The oppressive energies that have been prevalent over the last number of years are indeed starting to dissipate for those who are here to serve the higher purpose.

The Significance of the Meltdown of High Mountain Snows

Others who are not here to serve those same higher purposes may find their own lives starting to become more restricted, more limited, whereas the expansion of spirit that is starting to descend on the planet at this time in preparation for that which is full Ascension, is expansive, and those who have been waiting for so long are starting to feel this expansive energy more and more. It is but a trickle at this time. It is the beginning of the meltdown of the high snows of the mountains that begin as a trickle, with the warmer rays of the sun of Spring. But as the sun and the warmth increase, the trickle becomes a torrent rushing down the mountain and the torrent becomes a stream, a river leading to the ocean. This is the dawning of that consciousness that has so long been awaited, that consciousness that is the consciousness of Ascension. The melting of the frozen hinterlands has begun and this Awareness is indeed joyful for what It sees as starting now to occur.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you) It was recognized that in the previous times it was not possible for any action on this matter, to be apparent. There were problems that might occur if they appeared too soon and that was recognized, and it's great to understand and know that things are coming around now, thankfully.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There will continue to be problems but what marks this period is a sense of hopefulness, optimism, and a deep knowing that at last that which has been so long awaited is now starting to occur. The path is still a winding one, but the path can be seen more clearly now and the destination is in view. This Awareness is complete.

THE MURDER OF NIKOLO TESLA

(More on J. Edgar Hoover)

(Thank you). We have a short one here from Ted Helinski concerning the Bush connection E-book on Tesla. He writes: "Included with this e-mail is a link to information that makes the following claim: J. Edgar Hoover conspired with Hitler and the Vatican to murder Doctor Nikola Tesla in January, 1943 and the U.S. government covered it up. This seems like rather strange bedfellows but I know often history is as Napoleon said: "nothing but lies agreed upon" so I don't discount this out of hand. Would Awareness please comment on the validity of the claims regarding Doctor Tesla and if true, how or why such seemingly disparate individuals and organizations would join together for this purpose?"

<http://thebushconnection.com/tesla.html>

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that there is a slight smokescreen as to the individuals and organizations that were involved. It is not seen that Hitler and Hoover, for example, were bedmates, but it is seen that both were part of the secret government. The secret power were the ones that brought Hitler to power, for him to do what he was here to do, and Hoover had his own niche, his own role to play. What this Awareness will say is that the entity Nikola Tesla was indeed murdered by that which is now known to be the Secret Service of the United States of America. At his time of death it was not the CIA as such, but an organization under the umbrella of the FBI, of which J. Edgar Hoover was the powerful leader:

Tesla an ET and Member of the Galactic Federation

One might even call him a despot, and it was his order that signed the death warrant for Tesla. This Awareness will also add that the entity Nikola Tesla was ready to go, as he had fulfilled his mission, his purpose. This Awareness will be bold at this point and state that Nikola Tesla was an extraterrestrial being, here to advance the level of technology on the planet. He came in the form of a human body or host, but had heightened awareness of his extraterrestrial intergalactic nature. He was part of the Galactic Federation and because he took human form he was free to create and invent the technologies that he introduced into planetary consciousness, and that he gave to humanity. His goal, his mission was complete.

He understood and knew that at some point the Powers That Be in their need and greed to steal his technology and his research, would murder him. In fact, it was not entirely the intent to murder Tesla. The intent was to capture him and to hold him prisoner, forcing him to divulge the inner workings of his work. He chose not to play the game, so when these members of this secret organization, the Secret Service came to capture him he fought them and as a result was killed. As this Awareness says, this was his intent, for he had no desire to be available to interpret the technologies of his advanced inventions for those of the secret government. They rounded up all of his research and then needed to spend many years in understanding it and how to take it and make it so.

QUESTIONER:

He was brilliant with so many, many inventions that he had.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This was indeed technology that he brought into human consciousness from the extraterrestrial Galactic Federation's banks of knowledge and technologies.

QUESTIONER:

He certainly helped humanity!

Cosmic Awareness:

This was his purpose and his goal. It is seen that he is still available and will reappear in the times ahead to reorient mankind into the peaceful use of his technology. Once he departed, the government seized his research and of course has turned it into weaponry. Tesla is once again with the mothership, and is ready to come back onto the planet, revealing himself fully as the being he was in that life, who he is now, and to help restore the proper balance of his technology to be of use to mankind; to bring mankind forward and not to be used as weapons on mankind.

QUESTIONER:

Fantastic! Will he appear in the human form or in his ET form?

Cosmic Awareness:

He will appear in an extraterrestrial body, but he will be able to validate his previous incarnation as Nikola Tesla. It is seen that he is Arcturian in nature.

Thank you. The Law of Gratitude is given)

Confession is good for the soul

Excerpt from Part 2 of CAC reading 1-15-09 (Questions from Leonard Donsbach)

Opening the Seven Halls of Records*QUESTION:

Leonard Donsbach's next question: "And what about the seven Halls of Records? It was my understanding that they would be opened up at critical times to bring in the New Age. Was I wrong or have they already been opened? Perhaps the plan has changed? Are the inhabitants of Planet B to have the opportunity of opening these up some time in their distant future? Or have they already been opened and we just weren't informed? I heard that the one in Egypt was opened in 1991 and kept secret. If true, that would account for one, but I think I know of one in South America, and I haven't heard of it being opened. Did I err in keeping its location a secret once I discovered it? Maybe by not disclosing what I came to know I have caused problems or disrupted the plan? Or maybe my perception was just a delusion or what I thought was a depository of records was just a collection of gold and artifacts." Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Nothing has happened with the plans to open the Halls of Records. Some have already been opened as the entity himself mentioned, and the contents are being held in secret. There are others that are not ready to be open. The timing is not yet correct. He did not do anything wrong by not reporting on the Hall of Records that he has become aware of in South America, for it was not his to publicize. It was not his to reveal, other than on a personal level to individuals he might talk to on a personal level. This is a Hall of Records that will still be opened up and revealed when the timing is right.

Much of the information that is contained in the Halls of Records is the historic information of the evolution of this planet, as it went forward from the very earliest times, not only that which is recorded historical times, but even the times of the Atlanteans and Lemurians, even the times when the Orion/Reptilian faction was in charge, when they created a world of slaves who did their mining for them, and then eventually began genetic engineering to create that which is modern mankind. All of this is contained in the various Halls of Records, as are higher spiritual truths and understandings of the multidimensional nature of the universe.

All of this is to be brought forth at the right time, and at this time, the information is starting to percolate into human consciousness. It is not seen that someone will just stand up and proclaim: "Here is a Hall of Records!" and others will go shooting into that Hall of Records and go through the various records that are available. It is seen more that much of the truth that has been contained in the Hall of Records will be dispersed into human consciousness as is now taking place. Thus it is the Law of Attraction was revealed through such things as the book and documentary known as "The Secret."

There are other revelations that are now taking place, that are being brought to the surface and being released through various agencies so that humans are aware that there are other paradigms of belief, that there are other levels of consciousness. This is one of the ways that the information from the Halls of Records is slowly being released. It is seen that at some point in the future when it is safe to do so, the actual halls themselves will be opened up and be made available to those who wish and desire to go to them, but it is not seen that it is safe at this time.

Oprah and Others are Releasing Some of the Information

Thus, the information that is being released is being done in the manner and form that is presently taking place. Such entities as Eckert Tolle, Oprah Winfrey, and others, are helping to disseminate this information in their programs. Other entities and authors are writing books, are channeling materials that are releasing much of the information from that which is the Hall of Records. Entities such as Abraham, Matthew, Benu (sp) and others are releasing much of the secret information that is contained in the Halls of Records. Thus it is that even though they have not been publicly discovered and opened, they are still there. They are still effective. Information is presently being released.

This is all part of the greater plan.

Halls of Records Are In Another Dimension?

QUESTIONER:

Is or are the Hall of Records in the physical third dimension, or are they in a different dimension?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Strictly speaking, they are of a different dimension. At this time it is this dimensional shift that is preventing their discovery and holding them safe. At the same time, there are guardians to these Halls of Records, guardians as well as obstacles in place, devices that would cause peril to human life if the individuals who were trying to break into the Halls of Records tried to do so in a physical manner. What will need to occur is that those who go into the Halls of Records, will have had to acquired the abilities to shift their consciousness so that they can enter into the Halls of Records, not necessarily in physical form, but in consciousness, and once inside they will be able to read the records and books and scrolls and information contained in the Halls of Records.

Guardians Even Prevent Remote Viewing of the Halls

It is akin to the process known as Remote Viewing. It is seen that the agents that control Remote Viewing have even directed those who do the Remote Viewing to find the Halls of Records. They have still been kept out because of those guardians of the gates to the Halls of Records who will not allow these beings to enter, those who would do Remote Viewing. It is seen that occasionally, those who have tried to break into the Hall of Records in the astral/physical form have actually been destroyed. Thus, the individuals themselves who are the Remote Viewers have actually died in their attempts to gain access in this non-corporeal way to those Halls of Records.

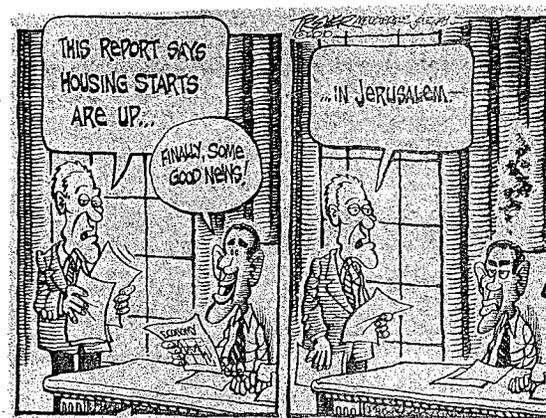

Those guardian forces have been set in place eons ago and will only allow those who are seen to be worthy or of the highest level of consciousness who are seen and perceived to be those who are to receive the knowledge, access to the Halls of Records. The second part of the question is about the physical nature of the Halls of Records. Once they have been opened, then they will be available on a physical level also, but only once the Ascension Process is complete will this occur.

QUESTIONER:

A huge library! Wow!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Huge libraries! There are several. This is also where the idea of the Akashic Records originate from, and there is in spirit form at the high dimensional levels, that which is the Hall of Akashic Records.
