MORE ON THE POLISH PLANE CRASH

The first one comes through e-mail from Vikki: There has been considerable controversy regarding the Polish air crash on the Internet. For example: a note forwarded to Vikki reads: "You've probably heard about the crash of the airplane that had the entire hierarchy of the Polish government on board plus the country's top military command. It's very strange for so many important people to be on one plane. There is a video from the crash site. It has the sounds of shots being fired and three unknown people seen in the video. She writes: "The story just gets stranger and stranger and to make it even stranger, reports are that the guy who shot this video is now dead." Do you have any comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen, as this Awareness has previously stated, that this accident was indeed more than a simple accident. This Awareness on previous occasions stated that there was a manipulation of the pilot, and there was also the intervention of certain agents who wished to make sure that the plan of crashing the airplane came through. There were those agents on the ground (as is correctly reported) as an insurance to a previous plan, where the pilot who needed to take full responsibility of his plane had been tampered with, in a form of mind control, where his willpower was made subservient to the wishes of the president.

It is known that the president often insisted when he went on official visits using the government plane that the pilot land the plane when he wished it to be so. There are cases of the pilot acquiescing to the wishes of the president in other situations and on other occasions, but never was there such a degree of bad weather and bad conditions to land the plane in. It was the pilot's responsibility under normal circumstances as a pilot in charge of his aircraft to have complete and total control no matter what the president may have wished, or how inconvenienced he might have been if the situation was a dangerous one in which to land the aircraft. It is always the pilot's responsibility as he is the captain of the ship, so to speak, the one who would be in charge no matter if he was carrying the President of Poland, the Queen of England or the President of the United States.

In this situation, as this Awareness has previously indicated, the pilot was under a form of mild mind control that made his wishes more subservient to the president. He did not act as a responsible pilot should have acted in determining whether or not to land the plane. Even though the weather conditions were bad, there was still the automatic landing system, the assistance from the V. cons and other technological devices that are used at most modern airports now to assist in the landing of aircraft in bad weather. It was for this reason that those on the ground decided that despite the bad weather, despite the pilot being subservient to the commands of the president, that despite all this that in the event it looked like the plane might land successfully they were to shoot at it with missiles to create a situation where the plane would still crash.

Poland's President has Resisted The New World Order

This has much more to do with the fact that the President of Poland has for a long time resisted those certain power regimes, those New World Order types who have been trying to create a control situation in Poland beyond what already exists. He and his advisers being killed all at the same time effectively removes from the Polish government those who were strong in opposition to letting the New World Order types find more and more power and control over the government. With his removal, as well as his chief advisers and certain heads of the military, the political atmosphere in Poland literally changed in a few short moments. With the new election coming up there is a greater chance that those who have wished to gain even more power can now do so.

It is seen that a popular vote will be given to the president's twin brother because of the fact that A) he was the brother, and B) he is the twin. The assumption is that they will gain another man of high principles as his brother the president was. However, this individual is not of the same order as his brother, and he has already made certain deals with certain powers. He may well be elected due to popular vote but this does not ensure that he will be of the same order as his brother or those who knew the deeper situation and were opposed to those who were trying to intervene, trying to take power and to create that level of backroom power that exists in many of the major countries of the world.

Much More to the Story than has been told

It is seen therefore those on the ground were of those agencies that would be interested in taking out the president and those others who were also of importance by ensuring that the plane crashed. It is seen that there is indeed much more to the story than was originally thought. However, many would write this off as the rantings of conspiracy theorists, and many will simply say it was the error of the pilot that caused the aircraft. It is seen that this will eventually be given as the official excuse to the crashing of the Polish aircraft that carried the president, his wife and many of his advisers and military leaders.

Questioner: (I see. Thank you) Were there any survivors of the crash where these had to be shot?

Cosmic Awareness: This is not seen to be so.

Questioner: So the shots heard were the missiles being fired at the plane?

Cosmic Awareness: This is seen to be so. This Awareness feels complete. The matter of the shots being fired is one that can also be understood to involve the mopping up process. This Awareness sees that there was the likelihood that there were a few survivors. It goes back on Its original statement only because that energy was not strong enough a moment ago that helped this Awareness to make this connection. It does see that there is something to the fact that there were also shots fired, not only the missile that was launched at the plane but that there was certain survivors, and it is seen these survivors would most likely have died anyway from the crash, but this was again insurance.

Questioner: So nobody really got away at all?

Cosmic Awareness: This was the plan, that none would survive. This is seen to have been a very well-planned out operation with various levels of insurance involved, everything from the manipulation of the pilot through mind control techniques, the shooting of a small rocket launched missile, a handheld rocket launcher and even the insurance of those who seemed to still be alive being quieted, permanently being killed off. This was all part of the cover-up.

TRANSYLVANIAN SUNRISE:

PETER MOON'S TRANSLATION OF RADU CINAMAR'S STORY OF FINDING THE HALL OF RECORDS

Questioner:

We have a couple of questions concerning a book called Transylvanian Sunrise by Peter Moon. One comes from Ken Rebane and the other from Betty Lambert and their question is basically the same. How valid is Peter Moon's translation of Radu Cinamar's story of the Hall of Records found by satellite technology in the Bucegi mountains of Romania? Do you have any comments on this particular book as to its validity?

Cosmic Awareness: This Awareness does see this as valid, as this was one of several halls of records where ancient texts were kept. The Library of Alexandria was one such hall that was allegedly destroyed many centuries ago but many of the scrolls from the Alexandria library were saved, removed and put elsewhere. This Hall of Records in that region known as Transylvania, Romania is one of the halls to which many of the documents from the famous Library of Alexandria were transferred. There were other locations in South America, even North America, which also had such records. Many of course would not hold this as possible, for allegedly there was no way that these records from such ancient times could have been removed to South America, North America or parts of Asia, for at that time it was felt there was no connection, no contact to South and North America. But this was not so.

There were active trading routes, and there was indeed transport to that which was later called the New World. Previously Atlantis lay between South America and Africa, Egypt, Greece and the Mediterranean region. When that continent known as Atlantis was still strong it sent out colonies to those very Mediterranean regions, as well as to England and Ireland, Scotland and of course to South America, and even North America. There is evidence of these earlier visitors, and they indeed continued to visit these regions even after the sinking of Atlantis. They did know in the colonies of Egypt, for example, that there were halls in South America in which to send some of those historical documents. There are even documents in these halls that come from the sunken continent of Atlantis that are contained in the vaults in the Halls of Records in these various locations.

These are yet to be discovered, and the hall that has been discovered in Transylvania also holds many secrets, including some of the records from the Library of Alexandria. It holds other ancient documents and texts, not only from the ancient world, but also from Atlantis. It is seen that there will be an attempt to cover up this discovery, and to not allow most of the information to be released, for it would be too challenging to modern history, that disallows for the existence of Atlantis. There are many who would rather this information never saw the light of day, which is why this book will not be publicly supported. It will be put out more as a work of fiction, not that it is a work of fiction but there will be very little support for it, and there will be much denial of this book that professes to have found this special hall in this man-made mountain.

There are Guardians that Protect these Chambers

The hall itself has not fully been opened, and only some of the outer chambers have been reached, for there are guardians that protect some of those chambers that are slightly askew in vibration and frequency to the vibration and frequency of the third dimension and these guardians will prevent those entering certain areas at this time. This is so also of the library of records and information that lies under the Sphinx in modern-day Egypt, in Gaza, which is Egypt at this time. There is a similar Hall of Records under the Sphinx that is not yet totally available but some of the outer chambers have also been breached. In this case the Egyptian government and certain agencies behind the Egyptian government would rather this information not be divulged or released, as will be the case in Transylvania. Therefore, this Awareness does confirm that most of that which is reported in the book is accurate, and is the truth.

Questioner: (Thank you). One part of his letter also reads, "With some exploration Cezar needs to get the story out and even secretly shows some of the Hall of Records to Radu Cinamar, who gets the story out in 2003 under the title "The Enemy Within". Peter Moon is trying to get publishing rights to four new books regarding the ongoing exploration." Just to carry on with that part, these untranslated books must read like science fiction, since the tunnels connect with Egypt, Tibet, Baghdad and the center of earth and go back 50,000 years, with Cezar even becoming an ambassador of Shamballa. Do you have any comment on that part please?

Cosmic Awareness: This is part of that which is the unrecognized history of the planet, that which is not acknowledged or supported by those in charge and in control, for there is a very structured reporting of history as it now is understood to be. Again, this has much to do with preventing mankind from understanding the truth of its own history, and of understanding that there is much more available than most people think. It is all to do with the confining of mass consciousness to a level where deeper questions are not asked, so deeper answers cannot be found. Again, although this may sound like science fiction, many would be skeptical of the works, when and if they are released, and these are being heard to be voices that describe these works as acts or works of fantasy of an ancient type of science fiction, and not to be taken for real, but as the ramblings of a demented mind, or an unhinged personality. It would be easy to believe this is so, if there is no evidence showing the truth of the matter. There is evidence of the validity of the claims but this evidence, as this Awareness has said, is that which is being contained, hidden and prevented from being released. This is what this Awareness indicates to be so on this matter.

THE STARGATE NEAR BAGHDAD USES ANCIENT TECHNOLOGY

Questioner: (Thank you). He carries on: "I am infatuated and truly intrigued by this saga of exploration as it touches on many facets, as I think you will agree. CAC not long ago mentioned the taking control, and maybe one of the reasons for the invasion of Iraq was for the Stargate near Baghdad. In the story when they penetrated one of the chambers an American General on the exploration team got a message from Baghdad that its site went into a higher frequency, which simply means they are interrelated. Is this so please?

Cosmic Awareness: This is indeed so. This is what this Awareness was speaking of a moment ago when It mentioned that these sites, because of the history, because of the technologies used previously that were not simply mechanically-based technologies but also employed spirit forms and vibrational energies -- these sites were often guarded in a way that would cause these frequencies to shift, and thus individuals could not simply walk into a chamber, as they would need to go through what could be called a force field, a vortex that would have to be keyed to open to their vibrations. The individuals entering this space would have to be keyed to those vortices that would allow them to pass through the force field around such chambers. They are inter-linked, as there is technology here that is ancient and most advanced, and the discovery of one area has affected other sites and the barriers have been stepped up and erected and that is why it is not simply a matter of breaking down the wall and entering through the side.

Guardians on these Locations Will Fight those who Enter

The force field is all around the chamber, and it is not just a matter of passing through the vortex at the door, for the frequencies of those who would pass through must be in alignment. Furthermore, there are seen to be guardians to these locations, guardians that will fight those who would come through. There are even stories of the labyrinths under the Sphinx where people have died who have tried to go into the inner chambers; this was even before they reached the vortex passageways that would allow them into the inner sanctum. These ancient sites are connected by a series of tunnels that go throughout the planet's crust. Some go through to that which is the Hollow Earth, and are connected to the inhabitants of the Hollow Earth. But these inhabitants are not necessarily the guardians or the creators of the sites up in the upper regions of the Earth's crust.

Many Atlantis Survivors Went into the Hollow Earth

They were known in the time of Atlantis. It is seen that there were contacts with the inhabitants of the Hollow Earth, and some did indeed go into the Hollow Earth. Those who survived Atlantis did go to the Hollow Earth peoples and joined their communities and have continued some of that which was the culture known as Atlantis deep within the Hollow Earth, at the center of the planet. These were few in number, for there were other forces and beings that they needed to get past to do so. The majority of those who inhabited the continent of Atlantis on the planet simply went to these colonies that had already been established in the Mediterranean region, the South American and North American regions as well as the English Isles, the United Kingdoms of today, and they finally became integrated in the populace of those peoples who came to those regions.

Atlantean Bloodlines Include the The Bluebloods of England

They went to their centers where their stores were contained, their Halls of Records and their libraries, and became part of those people and were for the longest time the leaders of those peoples. They were the priests, the priestesses, the Pharaohs, the Kings and Queens of those people. There is a lineage that has come down from those times which is the bluebloods of England and that which is the secret lineage of the presidents of the United States, and it can be seen their heritage and origins can be traced back to Atlantean bloodlines. Of course, most of this would be ridiculed and dismissed but such evidence is available in these halls, as well as even greater revelations that are available, but this would in fact topple many of the governments of this time.

"Holy Blood, Holy Grail" is Indeed Authentic

There is even evidence that the bloodline of Jesus, that which has been speculated on many times in the past through such books as Holy Blood, Holy Grail is indeed authentic and does still exist to this day. These tantalizing bits of information from the ancient world and from those ancient times are available in the Halls of Records spread throughout the world that are still active to this day, are still guarded to this day.

Questioner: (That's really interesting). The four new books that he referred to, would these be published... will he receive the rights to have these published?

Cosmic Awareness:

It is seen that there are attempts to block these books, for they contain too much material that is too revealing to those who wish to keep it hidden under lock and key. However, it is seen that this information will be released either through the Internet or that there will be a brave publisher who will come forward to publish these books. It is seen that they will be published within the next two years.

Questioner: Well, that's good. That certainly will make interesting reading. Is there additional please?

Cosmic Awareness: This Awareness feels complete. It is seen that this is indeed an immense area of information. This Awareness welcomes other questions in the future about these matters. The last thing this Awareness wishes to say at this time is that this is part of the hidden information that is ready to be revealed and released at this most important of times. It is to help shake up the world's consciousness, and to create that energy that will allow old information and truth to be re-integrated into the consciousness of mankind. Look to see more evidence of such matters being revealed in the not-too-distant future, in other words, in the months and years ahead.

This Awareness would finally add that this is part of the increasing knowledge available at this time of Ascension, of the shifting of consciousness to allow information and knowledge once held commonly to be reintroduced, and to be brought back into mankind's conscious perceptions.

DOCTOR MARY'S MONKEY

Questioner: (Thank you). There is something sent: Another book called Doctor Mary's Monkey, which is written by Edward T. Haslam. It concerns how the unsolved murder of a doctor, a secret laboratory in New Orleans and cancer-causing monkey viruses are linked to Lee Harvey Oswald, the JFK assassination and emerging global epidemics. Is there any comment on this particular book please?

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness will only say of this book that it is worth reading, for much that is spoken of within the book itself is accurate. This Awareness has no further personal comments of a nature to add to what has already been given.

More on the plane crash

Questioner: Thank you). The next two questions concern politics and come from ZoeyZen in California. Again, it concerns the plane crash (I should have read it with the other). Freud supposedly said, "Sometimes a cigar is just a cigar." Is there anything hidden about the recent plane crash that killed so many of Poland's leaders or was it just an accident? And I think you've covered this one sufficiently. Is this correct?

Cosmic Awareness:

This is correct, and there is nothing further this Awareness wishes to add. It is not seen that the evidence will be revealed anytime soon. Thus, most of most of that which has been presented, not only by this Awareness but by those who have put out information on the Internet will be seen as conspiracy information put out by those interested in conspiracies and the like. This Awareness has already spoken sufficiently on this matter.

IS PRES. OBAMA STILL ON TRACK?

Questioner: Her other question concerns President Obama. She asks, "Is Obama still on track doing as much good as he can, much of it behind the scenes or has he been corrupted? Is there any particular group that likes to think they own Obama?" Your comments please?

Cosmic Awareness: There are indeed those who like to think they own the president, and these groups in fact have owned the presidents of the last several decades. It is seen that President Obama is working to the agenda of his own masters at this time, but this has been so right from the beginning of his regime and much of what he promised in his run-up to being elected president has not been delivered. In the end this Awareness does not need to always speak on this subject, It asks only that the individual judge the matter by this man's actions and not just by his words. If one judges this man's authenticity or his integrity to what he promised in the first place, it will be seen that he has not yet fully delivered on those promises made during his campaign to be president.

It can be seen through his actions that much that he has delivered is indeed contrary to his political promises made during his campaign. This Awareness suggests that one and all become judges to that which are the actions of the president, and to judge for themselves what this might imply. This Awareness has spoken on this matter often to the degree that It has suggested that this president, as many before him, have handlers. There are those political masters above him and he is not entirely free to do as he wishes, even though this Awareness has spoken that he is of good heart should he be freed of his political masters, those who would control him and dictate to him that which he needs to do, and that which he is ordered to do. His actions now prove whether or not he is acting on his own or at the bequest of his handlers and masters.

THAT NEW HEALTH CARE PROGRAM

(IS THE ILLUMINATI BEHIND IT?)

Thank you). Our next one concerns politics again and comes from VK regarding healthcare. She writes, "What does Awareness see concerning reconstruction of the present health insurance plan? Is this being driven by the Illuminati and if so, will whatever is decided upon have a serious negative effect on some people, especially the elderly, or will it be an improvement over the present arrangement? The Illuminati certainly do not wish to assist humanity, thus if they are in charge of this project from behind the scenes it would not be an improvement. Access and payment to holistic doctors and therapies would be wonderful if included. In any event, will the new plan be beneficial to everyone in one way or another?" Your comments please?

Cosmic Awareness: First, this Awareness would comment that this new health plan, although it is being presented as a solution to the health crisis in the United States, will not deliver as promised. There is much to it that is contrary to the true benefit of the very individuals that it is being touted to be of most service to. There are many things hidden in the document itself in the pages of the health insurance legislation, that are contrary to the health and well-being of those very same individuals that this document and this law is allegedly there to help. It is seen that this also is a red herring at this time to mislead away from other relevant issues that are in need of being addressed. It was always known that there would be much opposition to this act, for not everyone wished this act to be brought into legislation, and to be passed into law, because there was a promotion of that point-of-view that it would cost many people much of their hard-earned money to provide this level of universal healthcare to all in the United States of America.

As most people are more affected by the bottom line of their own personal finances, many in America did not feel and do not feel that it is their obligation to be responsible for those who are not with proper healthcare. This is indeed one of the divisional matters involved in the legislation itself, that being that not all are on board, and not all feel that this will be good for them personally or for their families. The other point involved here is that this document has also been designed to eliminate certain individuals in society. The elderly for example, are not being given the unlimited healthcare, as well as the poor and the dispossessed that cannot come up with payment for their monthly contribution. There is much controversy still within the pages of this document, and of this law.

This Awareness does not wish to go into the details, It simply is suggesting that this law is not all that it appears to be, and there is much hidden within the pages that will be beneficial to those in charge and control. The Illuminati control of this matter as correctly observed by the presenter of the question is that the Illuminati would not sponsor anything, would not bring forth anything that was not ultimately to their advantage at such a scale, and at such a level. This Awareness supports that this is so, and there is much more to this act, to this law, to this legislation than meets the eye. This will become more and more apparent over the next several months.

NEW HEALTH TECHNOLOGIES SOON?

Questioner: (Thank you). She carries on: "If new health technologies said to be forthcoming will create better health and healing for entities, will this not assist the new health insurance plan to function better financially than presently anticipated if less medical assistance will be required due to improved healing methods for people? Will the Galactic Federation bring healing modalities not presently known for the benefit of the masses?" Your comments please?

Cosmic Awareness: First of all, this Awareness would state that it must be remembered that it is the medical industry, the medical business who make money from the ill, and from those who are in need of healing. Healing comes at a high price indeed and is a very lucrative business. There are already many levels of cure available for many types of illness and disease, and there is certain technology that has even been available for years that has never been allowed to see the light of day, for it is not the plan or design of those in charge of the health industry to create healthy people, to create a population of wellness, a population of individuals who are healthy and well mentally, emotionally and physically.

Those in Charge Keep Individuals and Society Ill and in Ill Health

It is the design of those in charge to keep individuals, and to keep the society ill and in ill health. This simply creates more money for those who are behind the insurance companies, behind the medical industry. Therefore, in the matter of the technologies that will be available, these technologies again will often be delayed at the least, or completely denied. It is not for those in charge that they see better days for the masses, but rather that things continue much as is now the case, so that more money can be made from illness than would be made from keeping the population healthy and strong. Therefore, even though such technology is available, even though there are health alternatives that are available and medicines that are far more effective and less deadly, it is not seen by this Awareness that at any time soon, as long as those who are in charge are still in charge, that these technologies will be given to the people for their health and well-being.

Galactic Federation not coming anytime soon

As to the matter of the Galactic Federation coming forth like the knight in silver shining armor, it is not seen by this Awareness that this will occur anytime soon and cannot occur until and unless those forces of the Galactic Federation finally present themselves to the world and to the people of the world. This is indeed part of the plan, but it is not seen that at this moment those technical innovations, the technology employed by those of the Galactic Federation will be made readily available to the world. Some of their technology is being introduced sideways but that which could make a big difference is not seen to be presently available or to be present in the next year or so. This will change, as this Awareness has said, when those forces that are the Galactic Federation make themselves known, present themselves to the world, as is still the plan

You Must Pursue the New Technologies on your Own

This Awareness would like to add that individuals should not stop from investigating for themselves the new technologies that are available, the new medicines, and the alternative medicines. Even though those in power and those in charge may not support this, it does not mean that there is no new technology that can be pursued. There is, for example, that which is known as scalar wave technology and there are various instruments and tools that are now being brought forward for people to use on themselves. There are indeed homeopathic medicines, naturopathic remedies and there are various healing techniques, even healing techniques such as Reiki and other healing technologies.

There are ancient technologies such as acupuncture, and color therapy. There are many alternatives already available but as long as the majority of individuals believe that there is only that which is presented through orthodox medical channels that use allopathic medicines to heal as being that which is valid, and only that which is valid, then many will be prevented from seeking out the alternatives. This Awareness commends those who are interested in alternative health and well-being to pursue their interests, and to look beyond the boundaries and borders of that which is officially supported by those in power, those in charge. It is seen that the pharmaceutical companies are trying their very best to deny the healthy products and alternative products on the markets and who are trying to control through the Codex, through other means the accessibility to those alternative products. But they are still at this time available and individuals who are interested in alternative health products, alternative health remedies and medicines, can pursue this matter on their own. There are many who are available to advise in these matters.

AFTER THE GLOBAL COLLAPSE

The 12 Economic Regions for North America

Questioner: (Thank you) There was a question that Avaton had asked a little while back concerning total global collapse and the US division into separate parts. The first part of the question was answered, however the second part was not. Would there be a US division into separate parts if such came about?

Cosmic Awareness: This Awareness sees this as a long-standing plan that is many, many years already in design, and in intent. It is seen that there are 12 economic regions for the North American continent and these will come under one super government of the North American continent. Therefore, there would be for example, that corridor which is the Pacific Northwest region, the Pacific South, the Rocky Mountain region, and the Central Plains region. The alignments will no longer run east-west, as is now the case, for example, in the United States and in Canada where the powers of the land are held in eastern capitals. Instead the regions will be North-South in makeup, thus the Pacific Northwest corridor will include that province known as British Columbia with the states of Washington and Oregon; also Idaho would be perhaps included in this region, as would be the upper part of Northern California.

The mountain regions would include the province of Alberta and Montana and southwards. The Central Plains of course, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Northern Southern Dakota, and Minnesota -- this is the angle that would be pursued, the economic geophysical regions. There would also be those regions that extend into Mexico, but all would come under that one government regime that would include Canada, the United States and Mexico in the big 12 regions already described. It is also seen that there would be a new centralized capital to that which is the North American Union. It is seen that it would be located possibly in Denver, Colorado.

Questioner: Why Denver?

Cosmic Awareness: Denver is already being designed to be a major player in the new ordering of the different regions of the planet. It is seen, for example, that the North American Union would be the second such union, the European Union the first. There are seen also plans to create an African Union, an Asian Union, a subcontinent union including Australia and the Philippines and such areas. There are plans already afoot to create in Denver a new airport that will allow shuttle-like aircraft to land. There is much planned ahead for intercontinental travel and Denver is already an international place of importance. It is also seen that many of those agencies of the hidden government: the Illuminati and the Elite, the Powers That Be- already are based in Colorado ready for the shift in power, or ready to relocate there. It is also seen that Washington DC may yet be hit with natural disasters but that Denver, Colorado is in one of the safest geological regions in the continent of North America, and it would be a safe place to house the centralized government of the North American Union.

Questioner: I see. I wondered what Washington would have to say about that.

Cosmic Awareness: It may be that Washington stays on somewhat as the old capital, a regional capital for that sub section of the North American alliance, that being the former United States, but it would be a regional power, no longer a central power. Ottawa in Canada, and Mexico City may still have regional capital status but that the new capital of the North American Union is seen to be favored to be housed in Denver, Colorado.

Questioner: I see. Would the now existing capital of each state still be somewhat active?

Cosmic Awareness: Somewhat, but on a regional basis. When the 12 economic geological regions are established there will be a new capital for each region. It may be in an existing capital city that takes over for the region. Thus, the Pacific Northwest corridor may yet have a capital in Victoria for that whole region: Victoria, British Columbia; but equally it may have its capital in Seattle, Washington, or Portland, Oregon; it has not yet been quite decided. Olympia, Washington, the present location of the organization Cosmic Awareness Communications may still remain that regional center for the whole state of Washington, but it is not seen that it would necessarily be the regional capital.

Questioner: Is there a timeframe for these changes possibly?

Cosmic Awareness: These changes were to have been introduced earlier but there has been information that has been released about the agenda of the North American Union that has forced the hand of those Powers That Be to delay their actions. It is seen that this is something that they wish to introduce within the next 2 to 5 years; this of course extending past that period that this Awareness has called the Ascension process. This is a plan that the Powers That Be see as extending in their belief system to what may be the case after Ascension, where they will still try to seek to be in control.

Questioner: So that would be for planet B then?

Cosmic Awareness: This would be for that which is known as the planet B scenario.

Questioner: Is there additional that you would like to discuss?

Cosmic Awareness:

Even though these plans are already laid out, and already being worked towards does not guarantee that each individual who has heard of them needs to participate in such a world or such a union of states and provinces. As always, this Awareness simply presents this information, for it is one of many possibilities, one that can be focused on and experienced if one truly desires to have this as their experience. At this point this Awareness presents this information more in response to the questions asked and because it is a matter of interest and conjecture that is for many very intriguing.

IS PRESIDENT OBAMA A WALK-IN?

(More on Ruth Montgomery's Predictions)

Questioner: (Yes indeed, the membership will be grateful for the information)

We have a question sent to Vikki from Judy Vander-Bloomen from Lena, Wisconsin. She writes: "Years ago I asked about Ruth Montgomery's predictions about a walk-in president. I remember Awareness being quite vague about it. I think Ruth was describing Obama when she said he would be elected by a landslide. But of course back then I couldn't figure it out. She described the axis shift and that the walk-in president would warn people about what was coming and prepare safe areas for those living along the coastlines. She talked about the jobs that would be created by doing this. She mentioned that other countries would follow the walk-in president and his leadership. Question for Awareness: Was she correct about the coming axis shift and was she describing Obama? And if so will he be courageous enough to warn the world or will the continuing cover-up about global warming be all that we can expect to hear?" Your comments please?

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness would start by asking those who are readers of this material to ask themselves whether or not the actions of the present president show that he is an individual who is setting up a safe place to live or is acting in the manner described in this presentation of the question. This Awareness suggests that the actions of the president do not show that he is a walk-in, and in fact they show anything but that. There is a continuation of the actions of the preceding president, and of the preceding regime. There is nothing yet that is totally original to this president, aside from that document of the health insurance legislation that has been presented and passed; and even this has much in it that does not truly represent new action or thought on the part of this president.

At this time this Awareness does not see this individual as a walk-in, but rather sees this individual as a continuance of the existing types of power that have been used in the country of the United States, a power that is under the control of hidden powers behind the scenes. This does not mean that the president who is now in power may not yet be a walk-in but it is not so at this time. He is simply a puppet who is on the strings of those who control the marionette and is doing that which he is being ordered to do, nothing less, and nothing more.

The Axis Shift as a Possible Scenario

As to the question of the axis shift, this is seen as part and parcel of those future scenario possibilities that this Awareness has talked of that includes, of course, a polar shift as well as the shifting of the tectonic plates, as well as the increased solar activity and that tsunami wave of celestial energies that this Awareness has spoken of as that which will occur on December 21st, 2012.

RUTH MONTGOMERY'S PREDICTIONS

Questioner: Thank you. Is there additional?

Cosmic Awareness:

When the entity Ruth Montgomery wrote these predictions, and brought forth this information, the world was much different than it is now. What she saw at that time had a degree of validity, and indeed still has validity to it, but it now must be seen as having been somewhat altered due to certain events and circumstances that have come to pass since that time she made her predictions. This Awareness asks those who have read her predictions, as well as the predictions of many for these times, to simply be open to what was read and to see if it is proven in other ways or through other sources or if those predictions that were made do indeed come to pass. The individual who has asked the question of this Awareness is using her discernment and is open to seeing whether or not such is the case, as was predicted by Ruth Montgomery, but she must be careful not to become fixated on the predictions of Ruth Montgomery, for these may indeed prove to be detrimental to her own advancement and her own journey of Ascension. This is so not only for this individual but for all who are fixated on the way things should look because of certain predictions that have been made by individuals, organizations or Powers That Be.

HONEY, FUNGUS & CANDIDA

Questioner: Thank you.

We have a question from Jerry Doffing in Frederick, Wisconsin. He writes, "I would like to ask Awareness if It sees soda mixed with honey or maple syrup as effective in destroying any types of fungus or Candida? If so, what ratio would be most beneficial? And is baking soda mixed with maple syrup made more effective than miracle mineral solution or colloidal silver water?" Your comment please?

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness is assuming that the baking soda is mixed first in water and not simply baking soda and honey or baking soda and maple syrup. If it is a mix with water, that one level tablespoon to 8 fluid ounces would be the ratio this Awareness would suggest. The maple syrup or honey could be added for flavoring but this Awareness does not see that this would be essential to the mix. It is the scouring action of the baking soda agent that this Awareness sees as the most effective part of this solution.

The silver colloidal water, the MMS taken diligently and carefully, could also scour the system of the viral agencies within the system. The MMS (Miracle Mineral Supplement) is a very ... this Awareness does not wish to call it dangerous, but It must caution against the use of MMS without due diligence, and must NOT be taken too quickly. This Awareness would advocate that if MMS were to be used that it must be on the side of caution that it is used, versus that of willingness to proceed too quickly. If this MMS formulation is used too quickly the results on the human body can be quite distressing, and can drain the body of electrolytes and minerals. Therefore again, this must be used sparingly and with great caution indeed. If such caution is applied, then MMS is one of those agents that can be used to cleanse the body, but that there are others, such as baking soda, water and honey or maple syrup, and such as silver colloidal water. This Awareness is complete with this answer.

FREE ENERGY FROM AWARENESS

Questioner: Is there a closing message please?

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness does not have a closing message at this time, but this Awareness does wish at this time to take this opportunity to send Its energies to the membership, to help them each and every one to activate within themselves a new strength of determination and a new resolve in working their lives towards their proposed plans and ideals. This Awareness feels a need at this time to help the many who are struggling in these most difficult times by sending Its energies, both in this moment as well as upon the reading of this information. Therefore, this Awareness will send energies to one and all of the membership and does so now...

The energies have been sent. When this Awareness, whether in a personal session or in a group session sends Its energies, the energies are always sent to assist the individual at the highest level. This Awareness does not heal the individual when It sends Its energies to an individual, It supplies Its energies to assist the individual himself or herself to use the energies for their best and greatest good. Those who are open to receive may use this energy to initiate their own healing or their own manifestation of those events and circumstances, and those individuals that they might need in their lives, to assist them in moving forward or to assist them in creating new life circumstances for themselves. This Awareness will always be available in this capacity to send Its energies to those who are in need and It chooses to do so at this time and It chooses to do so when It is requested to do so by those making a request of this nature. This Awareness does send Its light, Its love, and Its blessings to one and to all.

Questioner: On behalf of the membership we do thank you and we do appreciate this. Thank you.

Cosmic Awareness:

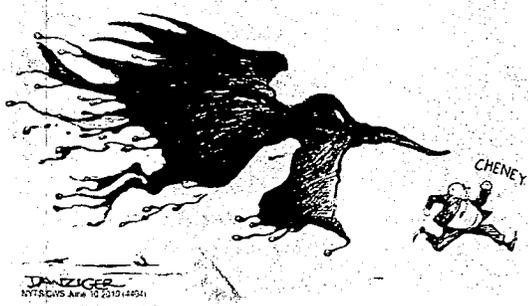

This Awareness is complete at this time.

SIGHTINGS OF WEREWOLVES IN WISCONSIN

Question: The first question on phenomena comes from Larry Kell in Indiana. His topic is sightings of werewolves. He writes: "On the Coast-to-Coast program the other night they were talking about the Wisconsin sightings of werewolves or something that looks like a big dog that can get up and run away on its back legs or on all four and has been seen using its front legs like arms to do un-dog-like things. Are there any comments on this creature please?"

Send Questions for Awareness and comments to the editor

To: avatont@comcast.net

Cosmic Awareness:

The comment that this Awareness has at this time is that there are indeed such beings, and such creatures. Once again, this has always been part of the folklore of many cultures. It stems back to the ancient times when those creatures were the product of the genetic engineering programs of the Anunnaki that were still in progress. One of the hybrid creatures created at that time was a fusion of humanoid genes and the wolves' genes and genetic patterns. Thus was created that which is known as the original werewolf. Through the ages many myths developed of this creature, such as it transiting from human form to the form of the Wolf-man creature with the full moon. Silver bullets were believed to be the way by which these creatures were destroyed, and it was thought that garlic would repulse them.

Shadow Creatures Again Being Created by Genetic Engineering (The 'Powers That Be' to Use them to Terrorize the People)

This a crossover belief to vampires, where garlic was also seen to be effective against them. These creatures have recently been re-created. There was a genetic mutation in the human genotypes, creating beings that were very hairy hirsute beings, and this was a minor aspect of that which was the genetic engineering. It is seen that there have been recent genetic tests that have once again created the hybrid creature that once roamed the planet. Such a creature is that which is the Wisconsin werewolf and it is a being that was released by those agents who created this for the purpose of creating fear and panic on a level that was considered desirable by those who have power. They wish to create a great fear of the creatures of the shadows, the shadow beings, the shadow creatures.

There is seen but one of these creatures at this time. The stories of it are somewhat exaggerated, but it is seen that there is a danger around this creature as it does not have the human restraints or even the restraints of the true wolf creature/beings and was also bred to be highly aggressive and very sly, keeping to dense woods and forests for safety, protection and camouflage. It is seen that the likelihood of most people in Wisconsin coming into contact with this being is very slight indeed, but it should be understood that this creature does exist in the deeper woodlands, foraying outwards sometimes even into community regions, towns and villages. The majority of those living in Wisconsin though are relatively safe from this creature.

Questioner: Two questions please. Is the sensitivity to garlic valid?

Cosmic Awareness:

What is valid is that there are certain chemical qualities in the garlic onion family that are repugnant to this creature. It cannot be slain by garlic. In other words, simply having garlic would not slay it, and would not necessarily protect the individual who has garlic around them, but a concentrated formulation of the juice of the garlic could be very painful to this creature, causing it great discomfort. It also does not like the smell, which is the main reason why the legends of garlic being the protector of those who wore garlic first came to be. The smell is what drives this creature away or causes it to be selective in the victims it might take and those who have a heavy scent of garlic are simply avoided. This is again where the myth of the protective aspect of garlic originated.

Questioner: I see, thank you. The other question was, "Is there any relationship of this being to the Bigfoot of the western Canada areas?"

Cosmic Awareness: This is not seen to be related. The creature known as the Bigfoot, as this Awareness has spoken before, comes through a dimensional rift from another parallel dimension, but the werewolf creature is a genetically altered being that once roamed in great numbers on this planet and is once again being introduced for certain reasons that align with the purpose of those who have power, those who have once again been genetically engineering creatures to find those hybrids which would be most effective and most useful to their masters, those who hold power.

Questioner: I see. Thank you. Is there additional on that part of his question?

~~A NEW PROGRAM IS GOING TO~~ ~~REINTRODUCE HORRORFYING~~ ~~CREATURES TO KILL HUMANS~~

Cosmic Awareness:

There is no additional information. This Awareness however would say that there is a program once again in effect to create such shadow beings once again, to reintroduce them, to have these beings available to kill many individuals. Mass destruction and death is part of the overall plan of those Powers That Be, but so is the introduction of high levels of fear. At this time this does not exist for the creatures that have been able to survive are few in numbers and those who are able to be autonomous in the hinterlands in the wilds, in the outdoors, also are low in number at this time. They are seeking however to re-create what once was so that these beings will be considered highly dangerous, forcing people into communities at night forcing them to shut the doors and board the windows.

The Powers Have Found a New Way to Create Fear and Terror

Again, this is but part of the overall program of creating nervousness, tension, and stress amongst the human populace, but the most common way of doing so is the new techniques that are now underway and in place, techniques where those shadow beings such as the werewolves, vampires, etc. are no longer the main way, where the new way of creating such a level of high fear and attention is through acts of terrorism, and the possibility of being bombed or attacked at any time by these faceless terrorists. They have become the new shadow beings, the new creatures of the dark.

A COW WITH A HUMAN HEAD

(Nightmare Hall is now on the Surface)

Questioner: (Thank you) Would this also be likened unto his next question? He writes: "A caller from the area of Brae or Bray Road area said she or a friend saw a bunch of black helicopters over a field and a cow with a humanlike head ran out of the corn field in front of their car. What can Awareness tell us please about the origin of such an animal? Thank you."

Cosmic Awareness:

Again, it is seen that this is a product of the genetic engineering program that is once again underway in the underground laboratories of the extraterrestrial Orion/Reptilian Greys, and certain of these creatures have escaped. The cow-human creature is a bovine with human intelligence, and it was the human aspects of this creature that designed its escape. It did manage to escape to the surface but was hunted down by the black helicopters, and retaken back into captivity. There are other similar creatures, byproducts of the genetic engineering program seeking to create these nightmare creatures. The Hall of the Nightmares that was once described by this Awareness in the 90s is indeed still fully underway. * The experiments have continued since that time and are still running strong. It is seen that there is such an underground base laboratory in that area of Wisconsin, which is why there have been seen those creatures that have either escaped or have been released in this area.

*Ed's Note: Please refer to Revelations of Awareness special issue Number 90-10 (Nightmare Hall). $5.00 from CAC

Questioner: Do they have control over the creatures that are in this area or if they escape?

Cosmic Awareness:

They have control over the ones they have released. Each being is released with a monitoring device that can also render them unconscious, and can create great pain in them, and thus they can recapture them at any time or can render them ineffective, and even kill them if they wish. It is those creature-beings that escape that may not have had a monitoring device. The creature reported to be that of a fusion of the cow and the human is not a creature who is fully human in the sense that it is not as if they took the head and the mind of a human and transplanted it onto a cow. It is the result of a genetic birth process, and it was born in the laboratories and never fully given human capacity to speak or to communicate, but it does have the capacity to think in a more evolved manner than the cow from which it stems. It is seen that this was an attempt to create more intelligent cows that could then be instructed to perform in ways that are more suitable to their masters. This is not seen as a tremendously successful experiment, but it does not stop those who are playing with such creatures, and creating such creatures. It is as if they are playing God in this manner and as it was once so, it is again so.

Questioner: (Thank you). One question: again, what happens to the creature after they're finished doing whatever it is that they created this for?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

When a creature is not seen to be beneficial to the overall plans, and is seen to be of no true merit, it is destroyed.

Questioner: Do these creatures have a soul or anything similar?

Cosmic Awareness:

These creatures do not have a soul in the manner of a human soul. They do have a higher level of consciousness, for there is still that which is the group soul, for example, of cows that would bring it back into an alignment with that which is the soul aspect of the cow. These beings, even though they are mutants and are considered to be freaks, still have that element of the soul within them that gives them a quality of spirit. This is released upon death and re-integrates itself into the larger matrix of that which is the Divine, that which is God Consciousness. It will never be lost, and it is simply released from the anguish of a difficult life, a life that nonetheless is about creating a new type of creature. Each creature can be understood to have a soul or a heightened consciousness that makes it more than an inanimate object or more than a plant, and yet it is not human as a human soul. It is the soul of this unique creature and all such unique creatures that are honored, and retained within the soul fabric of the Divine, of that which is God.

Questioner: I see). Would the soul of that creature choose such an experience as do humans or is this entirely different?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is seen to be entirely different.

PIERRE TEILHARD DE CHARDIN'S FAMOUS QUOTE

Questioner: (Thank you) .Our next topic is philosophy. The question comes from Lloyd Klapperich, no location. It concerns Teilhard de Chardin. Please ask Awareness to comment on the following quote, its accuracy and applicability to current times and, based on its validity, how it might best be placed in a point of reference in order to positively affect the current state of the world. The quote is: "We are not human beings having a spiritual experience; We are spiritual beings having a human experience."-Pierre Teilhard de Chardin. Your comments please?

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness is familiar with the Christian mystic philosopher Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and he was once a Jesuit priest. He was once of that order of the secret structure of the Catholic Church. He was given much information and knowledge but he was a true seeker of the Highest Truth. He did not allow that which was the secret mission of the Jesuits to intrude in his higher calling, but used that position to foster for him a life stance that would allow him the opportunity to delve deeply into the Truth of Spirit. It was a mystical Truth he understood and ascribed to. In some ways he was a radical of his time and broke away from his Jesuit background, much to the chagrin of his earlier handlers and masters, but he was an intelligent man and in time became very respected for his attitudes, his beliefs, and his philosophies.

His Writings Became the Groundwork for Many Mystical Thinkers

He was that mystical philosopher, who first correctly identified that man was Spirit having a physical experience, versus being a physical being trying to understand whether it had a spiritual component. His thinking and his writings became the groundwork of many more modern mystical thinkers, more modern philosophers who are incorporating the understanding that mankind has a strong spiritual quality. In this he has become a favorite of many modern-day philosophers, who hold that man has a higher spiritual nature. This is a man who did much to help many in these modern times start to appreciate that which has since become known as New Age mysticism, and New Age thinking, and he is a man of great worth and reputation.

Questioner: Thank you. Is there additional?

Cosmic Awareness: There is no more additional, unless there is an additional specific question. It is seen that there is also a dark side behind this individual, but it was more overshadowed by his desire to see the Truth, speak the Truth and share the Truth, and as all humans have a dark side, he used this as a way to purify himself as he strove to reach the higher realization of his spirit being, his being of Spirit in the physical. Unless there is a more specific question, this Awareness is complete on this topic.

DIVINE LANGUAGE AND SACRED SYMBOLS WITH POWER

Questioner: No, I have no other questions but I do thank you. We now go to Noah Phillips of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. His question concerns man's original creative, magical language or symbol. He writes: "Since humanity has been on Earth, what language or symbol has the most spiritual power? In other words, what is man's original creative magical language or symbol? Example: If I wanted to cure someone's mental malady, could I use certain "words" and symbols? It just occurred to me that CAC does have a chart of symbols. Is that for dreams or some other use?" Your observations please?

Cosmic Awareness:

There was indeed that which would have been understood to be the sacred language. This Awareness could even say there has been several ancient tongues once spoken that were more connected to the spiritual nature of man. Sanskrit is one such language and many of the words that described modern concepts of Spirit, of mysticism, and of an esoteric nature had their roots in Sanskrit. The word "chakra" is one such word, for example. This is not quite the same as sacred symbols that in their symbology represented many concepts, and many layers and levels of Truth.

The Star of David as a Healing Symbol

One such symbol is that which is the Star of David, which this Awareness has described as the fusion of the two concepts of "As above so below and so below as above". The triangle pointing upwards is the physical seeking to know the "as above", and the "as above", that which is Spirit, is that which is the triangle, seeking to know itself in physical expression.

The two fused together create an energetic understanding that goes beyond the simple communication via words and this hexagonal star-shaped symbol was often used in healing ceremonies, where individuals were put into the center of the hexagonal star, where they were at the heart of the healing energies of the spirit and physical, and much other knowledge was then applied in the process of healing within the magical energetics of such a symbol. The pentacle is also such a symbol, as are other forms and shapes and symbols themselves.

This becomes very complex, much more complex than this Awareness is able to speak on at this time. It simply wishes to state that there is an energy behind that which was the sacred spiritual language, an energy of the Divine, and in that energy there was great vibrational force and often this vibrational force, when attuned to the highest frequency had strength and power, unknown to modern man, who has forgotten the mystical language, the spiritual symbolic language that was once the Divine language of the Gods.

This is in the process of being rediscovered, and the words of power are being rediscovered. This is not seen as a prominent action by a consorted number of individuals, but is seen as the actions of one or two who are working in isolation to understand the connections between the power of words, the energy, the force, the resonance behind words and that which was once considered the Divine language, the language of the Gods. This Awareness does not have sufficient energy at this time to go deeper into this matter; therefore this Awareness is complete on this topic.

A GROUP VISUALIZATION/ MEDITATION TO HEAL PLANET EARTH

(Thank you). There is a question from Tim Gray, no location. It concerns the 144 group visualization meditation. "I have a question about a group visualization/meditation for 144 entities that Awareness might suggest in the future. Awareness has said that if 144 individuals can all agree to visualize/meditate on the same subject at the same time it can have a tremendous exponential effect on reality. Can Awareness please suggest a specific focus, appropriate for our current times that the membership can endeavor to meditate upon on a regular basis now? Thanks again." and it's signed Tim." Your comments please?

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness does not see a singular image that It can suggest at this time. There are many images, many symbols that can be used. This Awareness will present a symbol that It has spoken of several times in recent times, this being the Star of David. There is that which is known as the Merkabah, the three-dimensional Star of David, the two tetrahedron pyramid, triangular pyramid shapes intercepting, one 3 sided pyramid pointing downwards, one 3 sided pyramid pointing upwards, intersecting and creating the three-dimensional Merkabah, Star of David image. It is suggested that those who wish can see planet Earth in the center of this Merkabah figure and that the Merkabah itself be seen to be the purest energy of the Divine God, and holding the heart on the planet and on this magical figure is that which would place the planet on the higher resonances of the Divine, as it is held in the heart of the Divine.

This is the image, symbol, and shape that this Awareness would ask individuals to meditate on. The confusion this Awareness had at the beginning was that it was not clear to this Awareness if the entity Tim Gray was asking for a specific time for 144 of the members to come together to hold this image, and It does not see that as happening easily. Therefore, this Awareness simply asks that individuals in their own personal meditation use this image, see the planet held in the center of the Merkabah, infusing it with divine light and unconditional love, and infusing it with the energies of the Divine. Then it will not matter whether it is 144 coming together at the same time, or the accumulative effect of many who energize this symbolic representation, this image that will help fuse the planet with the higher energies of the Divine. This Awareness is complete.

SECRETS OF MANIFESTING

Questioner: (Thank you). We have a question from ZoeyZen in California. It concerns manifesting on the Earth plane. "My question concerns the whole topic of manifesting on this Earth plane. Manifestation seems to be an art and a science. I have had times of seamless manifestation. The following story is one: my friend wanted pizza, but the local pizza place was closed. We drove over the hill, not knowing if there was a pizza parlor in the next town. We parked at a place in front of a pizza place, which appeared to be closed, with chairs on the tables. The energy just swept me out of the car, pushed on the unlocked doors and said to the kid behind the counter, "I know you are closed but do you have two pieces of pizza?" He twinkled and said "No cost, here is a large pizza someone didn't pick up."

Manifesting -- the lottery, a new car, an excellent soul-mate relationship, living with passion, creating out of this passion, setting up a communal living place in Costa Rica -- shouldn't be that much different. There are so many books lately: The Secret and the variations: The Secret and The Secret Missed, The Idiots Law of Attraction, the Jerry and Esther Hicks Abraham channeling." That is her first question. Are there any comments on this please?

Cosmic Awareness:

The secrets to manifestation are being released steadily. The truth of manifestation is that manifestation occurs constantly, and that all humans manifest constantly. But because this is a third dimensional reality where instantaneous results are not the norm, often that which is manifested takes a time to appear. Often because it is an extended period of time that must pass before the manifestation occurs, many never realize that what is happening is the manifestation of their own thoughts, and their own beliefs. Further to this, humans are kept ignorant of their power and capacity to manifest. They are told they do not have such power, that life is nothing but a random series of events that occur to individuals, that there is no intent and/or design behind one's life, and that one may have a capacity to direct one's life, to force one's life, and to build one's life on certain premises and principles, but it does not mean that a random event cannot come about and knock it all down.

On the Earth Dimension Manifestation is in Slow Motion

Because third dimensional manifestation is manifestation in slow motion, and because of the lack of knowledge and the ignorance around the capacity of humans to manifest, even the denial of their ability to manifest, humans do not truly believe that they can make something appear or can manifest something out of thin air. This is especially so when it is with the large ticket items, such as a car, a house, or a relationship. The low ticket items, such as pizza are easier to manifest, for there is not such entrenched beliefs around such matters and often when and if something of this nature occurs the majority of people simply think of this as a coincidence. They do not understand, recognize or perceive that perhaps something more than a coincidence is occurring, and perhaps even something of a magical nature has occurred.

Why the Majority Does not Accept that Manifesting is Possible

Since humans are not taught to believe in magic or not taught to understand the Divine principles behind manifestation, the majority simply does not accept that manifesting is at all possible. What this entity's questions and thoughts provoke is that perhaps manifesting should be very simple indeed, and as she has pointed out there are those books and those experts now that are trying to explain the proper use of the powers to manifest. These are indeed ancient powers and as the book The Secret implies, it has been known by certain individuals, certain groups, and certain powers basically since the dawn of time. Those are the same powers who now control to the degree where most individuals simply do not understand or believe that they can manifest anything at all, and if they do, if something does come about more often it is discounted as simply a coincidence.

The entity ZoeyZen is correct in that it should become easier and easier now, especially in these times where there is an acceleration of the energies of consciousness. Thus it is that more and more individuals are starting to recognize the acts of manifestation that occur, for they are speeding up, and they are not as much in slow motion as once was the case. Thus it is that she could have an experience whereby going to the next town and parking in front of a pizza place, that the whole trip to that town was a focus of finding a place where they could get pizza. Not only did they find this location, but it exceeded their expectations, for instead of only two pieces they were handed a whole complete pizza.

Watch for your own Manifesting to Speed Up

(Luke Skywalker's Example is given)

Examples such as this are becoming more and more prevalent, and this Awareness asks the membership to pay attention to their own manifestation process, and to seeing how they are starting to manifest the little things so much quicker now. There truly is not much to separate the manifestation of small objects and curious events than it is to manifest what this Awareness called the big-ticket items. There is an example of how humans are confined in their thinking to doing big things that are considered impossible. This Awareness speaks of an example in that which is the Star Wars movie, where the entity Luke Skywalker sought to levitate the spacecraft that was bogged down in the marsh. He had, before this, levitated a huge boulder up into the air, but when it came to levitating the spacecraft his mind could not accept that he could do such a thing as levitate so large an object.

There is no Difference Between $One Million and Ten Dollars

As his Master Yoda pointed out, there was no difference between the boulder and the spacecraft; it was simply that the entity Luke Skywalker did not believe he could do such a thing. In his mind it was too huge, too large, and it was impossible. Such a process also occurs with the ability to manifest. Most individuals do not have a problem with small things, and it is almost with a sense of playfulness that such things can occur. Often the smaller things, the small ticket items will appear, but the big-ticket items will be blocked from manifestation. Somehow it is impossible to manifest $1 million but to call $10 into one's life is much simpler. This Awareness asserts, as does the Master Yoda, that there is no difference between $1 million and $10. If one can visualize and see $10 coming to them from some source then they should indeed be able to also see $1 million coming to them as well.

If YOU don't believe then the Low Self will NOT Energize it

What limits an individual of course, as this Awareness is saying, is the simple belief held at the subconscious level that this is not possible. Because it is held as impossible, the low self will not energize this matter, it will not manifest it, and it will not create the appearance of $1 million. This is what is now being contended by many. It is this blockage, this lack of faith that is being questioned, and many of these books and many of these experts are now trying to explain this, and are trying to break free from this. This Awareness says that this is a work in progress. Those who are interested in manifestation continue manifesting as they can, imagining as they can, imaging as they can that which they are seeking to manifest. If it appears this is a failure, this is simply because there are still conditions applying that create a negative belief system against such manifestation.

The Collective Belief of the Planet also Prevents Manifestation

There is also the aspect of the energies of the planet not supporting such things. Therefore, it is not simply that on a personal level an individual cannot fully believe that they can manifest, but there is also the collective belief against such manifestation happening quickly and therefore, because it is a long-standing collective belief, this too very much modifies the ability of individuals to manifest the miracles they seek. This Awareness is complete with the first part of the entity's questions.

MANIFESTING AND ATTRACTING: WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE?

Questioner: (Thank you). The next part concerns manifesting and attracting. She asks: "What is the dynamics, the interplay and the difference between manifesting and attracting?" Your comments please?

Cosmic Awareness:

Manifesting is that action whereupon intent is put out, the intent to create, and to manifest that which is desired. Attracting is where the intent is not as focused, and that individual rather becomes a point of attraction, and is open to receiving that which is requested. A sense of attraction may develop for example in the individual so that they may hold that they are a magnet for money. As a money magnet, money will always be attracted to them, they will always attract money and this is different than an individual who, with intent puts out that they wish to manifest a degree of money, or an object, and that they wish to manifest that which is their intent. This is the main difference between manifesting with intent and being an attraction and allowing that which is desired to come to one.

Questioner: (I see). There's another part to this question. She writes: "I do see that probably a book that would sell commercially could be made about the topic of manifesting and attracting and how to actually do it. Do you have any comments on that please?"

Cosmic Awareness: The only comment this Awareness would present is that It is in agreement to what the entity ZoeyZen has said.

THE SOUL AND THE BODY: A DISCONNECT?

(More on the Low Self and the Middle Self)

Questioner: (Thank you). Ok, the next question, the possible method or theory to manifesting. "One theory of manifesting is that one puts oneself into the place – feeling, seeing, hearing, sensing how good it will be to have the object of one's manifestation, such as driving a new car. Others point out this doesn't work because the soul is ahead of the body, and doesn't have the cooperation of use of the body. Others have said the soul is frequently ahead of the body. Also others say that the more we inhabit our bodies the better for us spiritually, mentally, emotionally and physically, and perhaps for attraction/manifestation." Comments on this please?

Cosmic Awareness: This Awareness is not quite certain what is meant by the soul being ahead of the body. In this comment what seems to be suggested is that there is a disconnection between the soul, which this Awareness in this case will call the middle self, and that which is the body, which can also be called the low self. This disconnection is the normal state of affairs in the human condition, and the two work, not together but often are in opposition to one another. This, of course, is not even including the energy of that which is the High Self in this process. If the middle self and the low self are not in agreement then it is unlikely that manifestation will be successful, especially if it is the case that the low self does not endorse that which is being manifested or that which is being requested to be manifested.

If the Low Self Doesn't Believe it, You Can't Manifest

Therefore, if the low self for example, does not hold that it is correct and right or proper to manifest a large amount of money because of certain beliefs and attitudes that may have developed at an early stage, then the low self, no matter whether the middle self says it wishes to manifest money or not, will NOT manifest the money requested. In other words, an individual could well intend and say that they wish to have $1 million, or that they wish to win $1 million. They can even visualize what it will be like to win $1 million, how they will spend it, how happy it will make them, how they may share it, how they may use this money, and what they may buy -- they may do all of this, but if in the end the low self, the subconscious holds that money is evil, and money is corrupt, and that nobody can get money without working hard for that money, then the low self will automatically block the manifesting of a large amount of money, even though the middle self requested this.

It is Important to get the Low Self on Board

Therefore, the middle self, that which can also be understood as the soul of the individual, that which is the soul consciousness residing in the physical body; when the middle self requests this, but it is not able to convey this to the low self, then it is in disconnection. This could be considered the soul-self being ahead of the body. One of the most important things to realize in the art of manifestation is to get the low self on board, and to help it understand that the High Self, and the middle self in their desiring of a situation may indeed be correct in what is desired, and what is being requested.

The middle self on its own has less success convincing the low self as when the middle self and the High Self work in union. Ultimately, the low self needs to be on board for manifestation to occur. This is the part in that book which is known as The Secret that was never revealed or discussed, and was not even presented or considered, and it is why so many who have tried to use that which was presented in the book The Secret were unable to manifest as was suggested in the book itself. They did not have full compliance or agreement from the low self and therefore the low self simply either blocked the action of manifesting and attracting that which was requested, or it simply did not create it, it did not energize it, and it did not manifest that which was being requested. Does this answer this question or is there a need to explain further?

OUT OF THE BODY MANIFESTING

Questioner: I think that's got the gist of it. The membership can offer additional questions on it, should they desire to do so. Thank you)

Her next question, "How does it work to be "out of the body", dreaming of one's next step, what one wants to manifest? How does this relate to the astral body or does it?" Your comment please?

Cosmic Awareness: That which this Awareness described a moment ago as the middle self is that which is the soul body, and the soul body should be understood and considered a visitor into the physical realm, and in its way the middle self as a visitor is not housed 24/7 in the physical body, and it does depart the physical body mostly in an unconscious way, mostly during that which is known as the dream state. When an action is achieved, the middle self, the conscious mind, can leave the body while in a more conscious state, and this is known as astral projection or out-of-body experience. It is the same process, but the difference is that one is committed in an act of conscious manipulation or separation or projection, whereas the majority of cases happened at a time of unconsciousness or at a time where the body had fallen asleep.

Switching the Avatar Body in the Movie Avatar

This Awareness wishes to present an analogy to help individuals understand how this might work. Recently there was a film by the name Avatar that was released. This film has created a great stir and a great sensation, and in this film it was presented that the hero laid his body into a coffin-like machine, a sarcophagus-type apparatus that allowed him to shift his conscious mind into the prefabricated biomechanical body that was known as the Avatar. He could fully function in this body, engaging the indigenous people, living with them, experiencing with them and in this way became as one of them, but at a certain time his real body would need sustenance, would need to go to the bathroom, or would need to take a break and it was at this time that his Avatar body would go to sleep and he would return back into his real body, which was crippled.

When he returned he could be of the real world, but it became the case that with time he felt more real and more alive in his Avatar body. This very much parallels that which occurs through the Spirit self, the middle self -- it enters into a body that allows it to have a physical experience in a third dimensional reality, but at certain times it must leave that body to take care of other needs. Indeed, there have been those experiments done where individuals were awoken at the time of dreaming. As this took place over a course of days it was seen that the individuals, even though they were receiving much sleep, were being denied of precious dreamtime and it was noted that these individuals were quickly becoming psychotic. It was such a problem that the experiment needed to be terminated before it was completed, because of the danger of permanent damage to those individuals who were being awoken when their middle self was leaving the body to have out of body experiences, experiences in higher dimensional states.

What Astral Projection Really Is

This is what is considered on some planes as astral projection, but astral projection, as this Awareness has explained, is simply that occurrence when the mind, the middle self is aware, versus when it exits and leaves the body in a state of unconsciousness. Also the astral-projected form does not reach the same higher spiritual levels, the higher levels of consciousness that occur when the body itself is totally unconscious, and the middle self is free to return to those higher elevated states and dimensions.

THE ASTRAL BODY

Questioner: (I see). If the soul body is the conscious mind, this goes into her next question; "Would you explain more about the astral body, where it is located and if it may be different for different people, how to ground it, and how to cooperate with it more effectively?" In this case would this be considered the low self?

Cosmic Awareness: This is definitely not the low self. The astral body can be understood as the layer of the aura that is the layer of the mental. The body has the auric body around it and there are these seven layers, including the final layer of the body itself, that compose the total energetic being that is the human being, and the level that is the mental level is that which is of the mind. Therefore, energies of mind and of consciousness are created on this mental level, the astral level, and when death occurs, that which is the middle self will completely depart from the body and the seven layers, dispensing with them, separating them into their components, into separate energies.

The Emotional and Mental Bodies

There is that which is the layer of the emotional, for example, so there is an emotional residue that continues on even after the death of the body, as is the same for the mental level. The emotional and mental are those layers closest to the body and that moving outward from the body, the body being the first, or the seventh if one comes from outside, moving in first. If one travels from the body outward, around the body itself is that which is the layer of the emotional energy. Surrounding that is the layer of the astral, the mind. Around that is the layer of the etheric, the spirit body. Around that is the energy of the feminine consciousness, the Goddess energies. Around that is the solar, masculine, God property energy layer, and then finally there is that which is the cosmic energy layer.

As one dissipates those energies, especially the energies of the emotional body and the astral/mental body, these energies are then reabsorbed into the greater vibrational force of the universe. The astral mind energies and the emotional layer energies have a much stronger personal signature or personal energy to them and that is why they often may remain on the Earth planet, seeking out to continue their experiences. Unfortunately, that which was the body that they surrounded has disappeared and ceased to be and it was the physical body that contributed the life force energy to nourish these layers of the astral body and the auric body. This is why when those energies refused to dissipate or are of a negative energy level or nature, such as the emotional body that would have surrounded an addict for example, that these energy shells seek to find another that they can attach to and survive on.

Vampires, Specters and Ghosts

This is one of the ways that beings attach themselves to live human beings and is part of that mythos of the vampire. The mind energies also may do this to continue their stimulation. These shells of their former being may have such potency and power that they are almost individualized, yet they lack that which is the spiritual quality that once composed the total human being. These may also be understood to be specters and ghosts that often stay attached to a place or roam the world seeking further expression and connection to living beings. These are all part of that which occurs after the death and the lack of the proper re-absorption of the being into the universal vibrational energies, into the Divine energies. This Awareness asks if this completes the question or if there is more that needs to be answered.

Questioner: There is a couple: she carried on, "Where is it located?" Well this was answered, and part of the question: "If it may be different for different people, how to ground it and how to cooperate with it more effectively?" In view of what you have already spoken, if the astral body is the mental, isn't this a case of "choice" for the person to do this?

Cosmic Awareness:

It can be understood to be a case of choice. These energies are somewhat abstract, although they may begin to see themselves as true beings, or a true expression of a true being. The problem is that they are residual energy shells and they do need to be re-absorbed into the Universal Divine energy. As a sense of identity is developed, this often leads to an unwillingness to be reabsorbed, and that which is the soul fraction, even that which is the low self consciousness have been released upon death and they continue the journey at those elevated levels of reality, whereas the emotional body and the mental bodies are confined on the physical-third dimensional realm. They do not ascend, but they still seek to express themselves. This is largely due to a lack of training and education, a misunderstanding, or a lack of understanding even, of what a full complete total human being is and therefore, these two aspects of the body continue to have a type of existence, even though they are shallow by comparison to what once was.

When the Physical Body Dies

For the majority of individuals, when the body dies and the middle self and low self are released, a natural occurrence is for the various layers of the auric body to be dispelled, disbanded, to be broken up and to be absorbed. It is only occasionally that these two layers in particular of the auric body continue to exist. One, for example, because of the emotional need to absorb emotional experiences still, and one because of the mental need to carry on functioning and an unwillingness to let go. Both are empty, both no longer have a human quality, but both are in existence if they are not re-absorbed. Both have historical precedents, both are seen and known in all of the folklore of all of the cultures of humanity since the dawn of time.

This Awareness at this time does feel complete. There is no closing message.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. WHY B.P. WILL NEVER PAY WHAT IT PROMISED

Question: The first question concerns the Gulf oil crisis. Several questions and comments have been received from the membership concerning this recent disaster. As Awareness has discussed this situation already, these questions from ZoeyZen, Ted Helinski and Larry Kell have been excerpted and are presented for additional comments. The first one: A simple accident? Are these scenarios where it could have been deliberate, from profit to shorting BP stock, a continuing mission to poison the planet or by people opposed to offshore drilling, such as an experiment that got out of control or to further Middle Eastern wars for oil? Would you like these one at a time?

Cosmic Awareness: This is so. Please present these questions one at a time.

Questioner: All right, this was the first comment where it was asked if it was a simple accident or deliberate?

Cosmic Awareness: This Awareness has already stated that this was not strictly speaking an accident. There are too many revealing factors that show this to be the case. There is the fact that the company BP started to sell off stock relatively close to the event; there was much dumping of BP stock by certain informed individuals. This most definitely suggests that there was insider knowledge of what was coming down the pipes, or unfortunately in this case, what was coming up the pipe. Because of this, those who knew what the plan was, those who are at the top echelon and have the knowledge of what is planned took full advantage and sold off their stocks.

Further to this, it is to be observed what will occur with BP stocks in the future, for it is seen that part of the plan is to bankrupt BP, to have them declare bankruptcy. Those entities who own this stock, who are the controllers of this corporation are already preparing to bail out, this is the plan; but they will not be hard hit for subsidiary companies will be created. There are already plans for 31 different subsidiary companies, perhaps more; maybe less when all is said and done that will take over the activities of the former corporation known as BP. Unfortunately, it is seen as a way of getting out of the financial responsibility for compensation to the many who are being seriously impacted by this man-made disaster. This is before any consideration of who will pay for the cleanup costs, and who will restore the fishery industry or the wildlife and the environment. This is simply in line with those many who will have

Further Proof it was a Planned Event

Furthermore, proof that this was a planned event can be found in BP's own actions on the drilling rig itself. Certain whistleblowers have come forward now who have declared that BP arbitrarily dismissed warnings that were given by various individuals, warning that there was a serious breach of safety protocols -- not once, not twice but many times over did this occur in the months preceding the "accident". The word "accident" must have quotation marks around it to help delineate this was not an accident. Because of this, the evidence is available that shows that BP was gearing up for an event, combined with the selling off of 40% of its stock in advance of the event itself, this clearly indicates that something was planned, and that something was up.

Thus when the rig itself did explode it should not have been a shock to those who knew what was coming, and in fact it was not a shock. Furthermore, the level of destruction itself indicates that this was a major event, for it is known that there are often accidents on oilrigs, but none to the degree of this particular disaster. While there are accidents on oilrigs, they do not generally blow up as this one did, nor are they destroyed completely and totally. This too was planned. In other words, the plan was not to have any remains of the oil rig they could work from successfully, but one that was destroyed to such a degree that along with the shattered pipes, it would become an impediment to effective actions.

All of these events were planned and staged so that the claim could be made afterwards that this was an "accident." Of course, this Awareness is not saying that the workers on the rig site itself knew what was happening. Indeed it was they who spoke out against things they were seeing and noting and it is so that an extra new crew of unknown individuals was brought onto the oilrig a few days before the event itself. This too was part of the planning. All of this of course is not reaching the presses but is being exposed more and more through the Internet and through other sources. It is even seen that there is a likelihood that the exact nature of this planned event may be exposed if the proper authorities, who have as the true concern for the American people and the environment, get their way and if they are allowed to present certain information.

The MMS Agency was in on the Plan

However it must be also be remembered and realized that the planning for this event also includes the MMS, that agency that sanctioned the drilling operations of BP and all other oil companies in the first place, and that knew there were serious flaws in the protocols, in the transgressions, in the flawed safety plans, and even the proposed cleanup plans in the event that there was any oil spill, and yet they allowed the BP organization/corporation to go ahead. So it must also be seen and understood that there are even within the government, agencies that will continue to try to block an investigation on this matter, who will continue to try to cover up what the truth is and that these people are still in power in the government itself.

If the Event is ever Exposed Many Heads will Roll

Therefore, if this event does truly come to light it will be at the cost of many heads rolling who will be exposed, who will be charged and who will be held accountable. At this point the way of it is that those who are responsible fully expect to dance out of the situation without any implication to them, or any charging or punishment to them occurring. This is the thought and the plan at this time, but this Awareness does see new energies presenting themselves, those energies of the new shifting consciousness that are beginning to understand that the feeble excuses of a handful of people at the top are but lies and cover-ups and that the truth must win out, and the truth must be released so those who have been the most affected, as well as the world in general, will finally start to see how it is that corporations truly work, how governments are not of the people and for the people, but governments for multinational corporations and that they are the true masters of the government.

Awareness Asks us all to Start Energizing the Concept of Responsibility and Exposure so Justice can Occur

This is all part of a scenario of change that is also part of the Ascension process. Therefore, this Awareness would ask all who are concerned with these matters to start energizing the concept of responsibility and exposé; that those who have perpetrated these most serious of crimes be exposed for the terrible criminals they truly are, and be brought to justice so that the world begins to wake up, and so that humanity starts to become aware of what is occurring.

Those who choose to generate energy towards this will also begin to experience it as their reality, as they see those who are accountable being charged and being prosecuted and being punished. This is part of the awakening of consciousness and the accepting of responsibility for the planet by those who understand that it is not good enough to simply blame others and expect others to do things for you, but also to be part of the voice that demands justice and that will no longer tolerate deceit and deception.

This too can now occur as a new set of principles unfold, as new beliefs supporting the changing of consciousness and the changing of how these things work begins to emerge more and more. This event can be seen in one way if one wishes to stay in the negative energy, as the start of a negative decline of events that are unfolding, man-made and natural disasters, or it could also be seen as the start of a new way of things, where those who have been arrogant in their power for so long start to be held accountable.

This can quickly spread into all other areas, such as government, such as finance, and such as healthcare, and the consciousness of the planet can begin to change because of the events that are unfolding at this time. It is a choice that this Awareness of course recommends; that the choice be one to bring new consciousness, new awareness to play and that those who seek to experience a new reality, an enlightened reality, start to envision this as being so, start to energize this as being so, and it will begin to happen for them as they participate in a world and in a reality where this is indeed so. This Awareness is complete the first part of this question.

Questioner: Thank you) There was a news report President Obama has ordered BP to pay for damages. This is interesting and also ironic, as aren't the Powers That Be, of whom many are intricately involved, ultimately responsible for this scenario?

Cosmic Awareness: This is so, but it must also be understood that the president has already suffered from his lack of assertive authority in this matter and he is seeking to look now like a man of action, when the truth is that he had been ordered not to act or react too strongly. But now his very job is on the line and this could be the beginning of a downward spiral for this individual. He already is courting much disfavor from previous actions and from the lack of fulfillment of political promises he made to get elected. The oil disaster could be seen to be the final nail in his coffin if he cannot shift public opinion about his lack of authority in the matter.

The Plan is to Bankrupt British Petroleum Corp.

As this Awareness has already said, the plan is to bankrupt BP, to disembowel it and to let it go the way of the dodo. You cannot make dodo pie anymore, for the dodo bird no longer exists. How can you claim compensation from a company who's no longer on the scene, and that does not exist? The individuals who will gain from it will metamorphosize into the subsidiary companies that are already being planned, and that are already in the books as that which will replace the corporation of BP. But many, not only in America but around the world will be seriously affected if this does happen as planned.

There are many in England who will lose their life's savings, who will no longer have a pension fund, for so many in England have pension funds that are tied into the corporate assets of BP. If BP no longer exists then those individuals will lose their pensions and be up the creek as well. This is seen by many as a way of getting out of a problem, but it must always be remembered it is not a reaction but a plan that was drawn up, a plan where the sacrifice of the corporation was deemed appropriate to promote the New World Order plans that have long been planned and held ready to go. This is a big step towards this being so. Therefore, if it is already the intent to destroy the corporation, and it is already understood by those in the know, then it should not be a surprise to many when events unfold in the not-too-distant future that support the actions this Awareness is describing. That completes this answer at this time.

WHY ALIENS WON'T HELP

Questioner: Thank you) It carries on concerning the offshore oil leak. If advanced aliens are interested in the health of this planet, why haven't they sealed the leak?

Cosmic Awareness: It must be understood that the technologies are actually available to seal the leak without the advanced extraterrestrial beings involving themselves. There are technologies to retrieve the oil even from the water, to siphon it out of the seawater and even to reclaim it. There are many technologies available that can clean the oil off the beaches or even prevent the oil from reaching the beaches, and these solutions are not solutions that will harm the environment. They are ecologically friendly solutions, even incredibly simple solutions, such as using hay and grasses to attract oil and then picking the hay and grass up. Were the hay and grasses applied in advance then much of the tar that is now reaching the beaches would be soaked into the hay and the grasses being used and these could be continuously replaced in those areas where the oil is starting to come onto the beaches. Therefore, this too is part of the plan, part of the manipulation that is occurring.

Why is it, for example, that the chemical that is being used to disperse the oils is one that is relatively ineffective, and that is highly toxic? It is because the owner and CEO of the company is an ex-BP employee with personal friendships to the higher echelon of BP. Be aware that this indicates graft and corruption and there will be kickbacks for those officials who used this company and this product. At the same time it is interesting to note how the simple solutions, those that are ecologically available and that are ecologically friendly are not being pursued. By 'ecologically available' this Awareness is speaking of how there are products on the land: the hay, the bluegrass, and other products that could be used easily to help this situation, and yet even though these are presented online on the Internet, for some reason the experts know nothing of these solutions, are seemingly blind to them and unaware of them.

How is it that the majority of the people know of these solutions and yet those who claim to be the experts know nothing of it? This again smacks of complicity in this matter, of planned ineffectiveness. It is not a mistake that these agencies often stood around waiting for nothing, knowing that they really were not there to help the problem but only to put on a show of trying to stop this problem. One of the reasons for the show was to build up the sense of hopelessness and fear in the people, for again, as this Awareness has spoken before, this is a planned event, partially to destroy the morale of the people, to destroy their livelihoods, to even bring the dangers to their doorsteps or their beach fronts; all of this is definitely of a planned nature.

The Danger of Highly Toxic Hydrocarbons in the Oil

This Awareness wishes also now to comment on the danger of the hydrocarbons that are also highly toxic. The hydrocarbons that are in the oil, that are now not only in the water, not only on the beaches and in the wetlands and the grasses, but also the molecules of hydrocarbons that are in the air itself; and that these too are very dangerous to breathe in, to absorb through the skin, and that this is a form of pollution that has not yet even really been looked at or discussed. It is a possibility that as more and more concentrations of oil get closer and closer to the shoreline, that the hydrocarbons in the air will become a health risk to many individuals, and there is even seen an ultimate plan to remove many of the citizens of that area.

The Plan Also is to Relocate Citizens of the Area

It is not simply that they wish to close down the shrimp industry and the fishing industry and the tourist industry, they also wish to relocate many of the individuals in that area. This too is part of the plan as to why this event was allowed to happen, and it is seen by this Awareness that if it reaches its most extreme conclusion that many will be moved to camps inland, but that once the hydrocarbons are released into the air at such a volume, that even moving the population will not actually change the fact that these hydrocarbons will now be in the air, circulating not only in the region where the oil slicks are washing onto the beaches, but will move with the air currents all around the globe, all around the planet and can seriously compromise weather conditions and also the quality of the air itself that is breathed in by humans on opposite sides of the globe, such is the seriousness of this event.

It must be understood that these are planned events that were planned many, many years ago. This Awareness has spoken of these events many times in the past. The Gathering Storm being one time that this Awareness spoke out strongly of plans that were being introduced and carried out. It speaks out again, for this is another of those times where it is imperative that human consciousness elevates itself and begins to see the truth of this situation. It is time for the change in consciousness to occur, where many will understand what is truly happening and choose not to experience this as their reality that they engage in. Remember also that as you choose other realities, events will flow in a more natural order and flow will seem just by themselves to lead to more positive conclusions.
