Why do Vampires Have Such Appeal Today?

WHY DO VAMPIRES HAVE SUCH APPEAL?

(Particularly to teenage girls)

Questioner: (Thank you, we respect that) . We have one from Avaton. He asks, "Why all of a sudden so many vampire books and movies and series on TV? On cable alone there must be at least five series and then all those "Twilight" books and movies for teenage girls. Why do vampires have such appeal, particularly to teenage girls these days? There just seems to be a vampire consciousness and our gay friend Michael has for years fantasized about vampires and reads all the books, sees the movies over and over again. Is there any connection?"

Cosmic Awareness: There is indeed a connection, in that the vampire legends come from the truth of the extraterrestrial beings that feed off of the life force energy. The blood is symbolic of the life force and the tapping in to the life force through the sucking out of the blood is an action of these vampiric beings, psychic vampires as well that have been around since the dawn of time, for the extraterrestrial Orions and Reptilians have long used the life force of their victims and their subjects.

In the ancient lands of Babylonia the Orions, who were personified as the gods, often partook in blood-letting ceremonies where the blood was drunk of those victims that were tortured in the torture chambers. The Orions were established as the gods of the Babylonian people. These are the first cases of vampirism. This vampirism also occurs not only in the physical but also in the spectral realms, which are those realms that are beyond the physical and there are those beings that attach themselves to the auras of individuals.

Why Ouija Boards should be Avoided

This is a quite common occurrence, often occurring at the ages where there is no perception of danger, such as the teenagers involved in activities such as the Ouija board. It is for this reason that the Ouija board is considered by many as something that should be avoided, and this Awareness would affirm this. It is a back door that many do not realize they are opening. This Awareness would also recommend that unless the individuals who use the Ouija board know what they are doing and know how to protect themselves, that this Awareness would not recommend that the Ouija board be used. The perception of the young girls in particular, but young men also, that there is something mysterious about Ouija boards is what opens them up to an attack on their astral bodies, their auric bodies.

There are many entities and energy shells that are just beyond the third dimensional perception that would attach themselves to an entity and suck from them their life force energies. These vampires of the ethereal can be invited in through such inadvertent attempts at playing with the Ouija board. They can also occur when individuals use substances such as alcohol and drugs that creates a rip in the aura that again allows them in. Accidents can also create situations where the aura is disturbed, that allows such entities in, and they then connect to the auric fields of the individual.

Mental illness is often the result of such entities that have attached themselves to the mental and emotional layers of the aura, and even though they are not exactly stuck to the neck of the individual, they are stuck in the auric energies and can do much damage and create the experience of a voice talking to the individual to the point that the individual will not be able to discern his or her own thoughts because of the entities that have attached themselves, or a single entity that may have attached itself. All of this is where the legends of vampires come from, and also connected to this is the understanding of the Reptilians and the Orions that can live in fourth dimensional reality, an intersecting plane that can again attach itself to certain individuals and draw from them their life force energies.

These are all connections to the vampire mythology that have the basis of truth behind them. Vampires truly originate from creatures and beings that would drain the life force energies from their victims, be it through a physical draining, such as the drinking of the blood and the life force in the body, or a psychic draining that occurs on the non-corporeal levels.

As to why this is so popular at this time, especially amongst young girls, is that it has been romanticized. You do not see the gruesome creatures that once proliferated the screen as images of vampires. The original Nosferatu movies did not show a cute young teenager boy, but a gruesome being, a troll-like gremlin that was anything but attractive. Even the entity that played Dracula in the 30's was not seen as a cute boy, but an older man that would suck the blood from his victims. There was more of a repulsive nature to the presentation of vampires.

This started to change when the entities Tom Cruise and Brad Pitt played vampires in the movie Interview With a Vampire, and this is when the romanticization of vampires began. It was with an ulterior motive, for those behind these films are very heavily connected into the Reptilian and Orion sources and controls. It was seen by the Orions that it was desired to put a different slant on vampires and vampirism, for there would be more and more cases of this emerging and they wished it to have a positive face and not a negative face.

They understood that if it was romanticized, if those who were portrayed as the vampires were made into attractive vampires with great sex appeal, then this would create a new impression, a new willingness to experience vampirism. The truth of this matter is that a vampire steals one's life force energy. There is nothing cute about this, and there is nothing attractive about this. This is in deadly earnest, and this is something that must not be called into one's life, but must be strictly avoided.

The young girls and young men who have fallen under this umbrella of misperception around vampirism are in a sense being brainwashed. This brainwashing is further continued with the popularity of vampires, as evidenced by the many shows and programs that are currently available that glorify vampires, and that make them sex objects and heroes. These are all misconceptions of the truth for the purpose of misleading the masses, so that when the invasion of the vampires is taking place, and it is already underway, it will not ever be perceived in the way it might once have been perceived.

What the "Invasion of the Vampires" really means

By 'invasion of the vampires', what this Awareness is saying is that part of the plan for the destruction of humanity on the planet is that many will be killed off and drained off, their life force being sucked from them and stored for the benefit of those beings who have long lived on the life force of humans. It is seen that those in charge and in control, those whom this Awareness has called the Elite, the Powers That Be, will also see that which is coming, and do see that which is coming, and do understand that they have to create for themselves nutrition that can provide for their life requirements, their life force. It is seen that many will be taken, their life force taken from them, sucked from them and stored in such a way. Those who are the Elite, those who will not ascend, knowing they will not ascend will have use of the life force of the victims that has been stolen, and that the popularization of vampires right now is to offset that which will be occurring in greater amounts as the time toward Ascension approaches.

It is seen by this Awareness that many who are the Elite, many who are in power and in charge are not of a high enough vibrational nature or consciousness to ascend to the higher planes. They themselves know this, and they know that there is a collapse of the planet and of civilization ahead, and as this Awareness has said, they are preparing for this, for they cannot move to the higher planes and they wish to ensure not only that they will still be in charge after the events are completed but that there will be a food source available for them, and that there will be reserves of energy life force drained from many victims that they could live off for many years to come. All of this is part and parcel of the popularization of vampires and that which is seen on television so readily has indeed a darker side behind it.

UPDATE ON THE PLANET NIBIRU

Questioner: (I see). Question please. With regard to the Elite benefiting from the life force energies, would by chance this also include those beings that are on the planet Nibiru that will be visiting shortly? Or is it just going to swing on by Earth and not stop?

Cosmic Awareness: It is not seen that this is being done for the benefit of those on the planet Nibiru. It is seen that some may come onto this planet but it is seen that this is a separate issue altogether. It is seen that many, many millennia ago a battle did occur between those in Nibiru and those who colonized the planet Earth. There was a power struggle once upon a time and certain of those members left Nibiru to make Earth the source of their power, the source of their lives. They enjoyed being gods on a planet where they were revered.

There are others in Nibiru that never went this direction, and who were oppositional at that time, and there was a great battle that was fought amongst them at that time. The Nibiruans are of the Orion/Reptilian stocks but there is seen to be a difference as well and it is not seen by this Awareness at this time that mankind is being prepared for those of Nibiru who may come visiting.

Questioner: (Thank you) Does humanity need to be concerned if they do visit?

Cosmic Awareness: It is simply not seen that there is an intent to come onto the planet by the majority. There may be some on Nibiru who would still like to join their brethren on the planet, for they share certain ideals and views with them, but this is seen to be a rather low number and one that does not elicit concern from this Awareness nor should it elicit concern from members.

Questioner: Very good. Thank you for that reassurance.

Cosmic Awareness: The reassurance is a small one, for those who are truly the dangerous ones are already on the planet doing their thing. They certainly are and more!) Ok, I'd like to read the next question. Thank you for that information. Avaton will be pleased as well as the members.

WHO OWNS THE UNITED STATES?

Okay, I'd like to read the next question We have something from Susoni. She writes, "Who owns the United States? The census envelope arrived yesterday and with it came some very interesting new information. On the face of the envelope under the line U.S. Census Form Enclosed is the very large and very bold statement YOUR RESPONSE IS REQUIRED BY LAW. Then centered at the top of the envelope was this 'creative' logo from the US Department of Commerce, Economics and Statistics administration, U.S. Census Bureau. Under a magnifying glass you can easily read the "R" inside the circle directly to the right of the "S" in United States. The symbol ® stands for "registered" as in commercial registration of this image; indicating that the phrase it follows is privately owned and that any use of it (in this case the two words "United States") beyond the owners' specific authorization is prohibited! The question is: Who owns the registration of the words "United States" when these two words are being used together to define not just an aspect of this republic, but the entirety of the nation as a state and as a country? And if those two words can be privately owned and then used in the process that counts the people to determine how much money each district will receive based on population numbers; what does this say about the "nation" that has now obviously become privately owned, not to mention the people within what has become a privately owned corporation? Have the people of what was the United States without the ® been purchased, along with the actual former name of this country? So -- who owns us now?" Comments please on her question please?

<http://www.rense.com/general90/own.htm>

Cosmic Awareness: The answer to this question is an answer that is already known by many. It is the royal family and the Queen of England that own the United States through certain formalities that were put into place many centuries ago. While there was a battle fought for the independence of the colonial states of America, there were behind-the-scene deals that were also collectively negotiated at the time that gave ownership to the Queen. It would be actually more correct to say that she retained the ownership of those states of the former colonies that have now come together under the banner of the United States.

When this Awareness says it is the Queen and the royal family, but behind this are also those of the Royal Power Elite that still claim to own every citizen of the United States of America, and the census process is the way that they keep tabs on their product, on the ownership of their subjects, their slaves. By stamping that it is a legal requirement ensures that each and every individual who does partake in the census is giving their approval to their ownership by a master that they do not even know of. There is no understanding whatsoever by the majority of the peoples of the United States that there is a foreign interest that allegedly owns them through formal contracts and agreements made before their birth by leaders that were already corrupted, and that were already bought and paid for by those Powers That Be.

While the royal Windsor family is the head of this group, it is a European background that is behind this, this being through that ruling family of the Rothschilds. The Rockefellers are those here in America who created a counter Elite family that also has some claim to own the rights of the country and of the citizens that inhabit the country. It is one of the reasons why there is a conflict between these two Elite families. They are both vying for complete control and ownership, but it is still seen at this time that it is the British claim, the claim of the royal family and of the Rothschilds that is the deeper one.

This claim is more recognized in the country North of the United States, that being Canada, where the Queen is still considered the sovereign head of the country. It is felt that it is a figurehead role, but in truth the recognition that she is the sovereign head proclaims loudly and clearly that she is the owner of this country known as Canada. In the United States the battle has raged between the two factions, in particular the Rockefellers and those who would support them and the Rothschilds and the Queen and the Windsors as to who owns the United States of America.

It is simply not seen that even with the American Revolution against the British monarchy that this was completely decided at the time. It is more that it simply went underground, and thus she is not the proclaimed head of the country as she is in Canada and in other British Commonwealth countries, but a hidden owner of the land. One would even say, perhaps more accurately, that she is one of the stockholders of the corporation, that is, the corporation of the United States of America. It is this that has been registered, the corporate entity that is the United States, and this corporate entity is that which is considered to hold all of the assets of the United States. The assets include all resources and products and peoples.

The people are seen as a commodity by those who own the country, and as such they have the rightful rule and control of the land, even though the illusion is given to the enslaved people that they have freedom -- the freedom to choose their own leaders, the freedom to govern themselves. This is but an illusion to keep the masses ignorant and asleep so that they do not rise up against those who have ownership, against those families and government officials who have sold out to their owners that which is their duty to govern on behalf of the people of the United States of America.

Should it ever be revealed and accepted by the people that this is the case, and that this is so -- the fear amongst those who are the Elite, those who have the power of control, is that the people would rise up and in a mass-action go against the leaders of the country, against the government and against those who are the Elite. This last happened in the French Revolution, where the mobs became those who were in control and they rose up and destroyed the aristocrats of France, taking their power. Unfortunately, even that was a planned event to get rid of certain Elite families that were not favored.

It was a coup d'etat in France that put those who had the new power into power and the people were ultimately used, but it was also that which served as a warning to all those who may not have had allegiance to a certain group, to be aware that they could also be rounded up and destroyed as easily as the French aristocrats were destroyed at that time. There is a long history of backstabbing and counter plots against one another and this is still occurring at this time. It is seen that recent events with the Bushes against the Europeans are a case in point, where they went into the military base to steal gold and it was there that the Colonel who went berserk was set up as the reason why so many were killed; this event occurring several months ago.

This is part of an example of how there is still a battle amongst those who are in charge, those who have control, and it is seen by this Awareness that this is a weakness that eventually may well be utilized to finally break the stranglehold that is held on the United States of America and the people of this nation. It is not seen that there will necessarily be a mass-uprising, for it is seen that with the events that are unfolding, certain geological events may well break the stranglehold that is currently in place, but for this to happen it is also seen that the United States may well cease to be an effective world power and may be reduced in nature to that of what is now known as a Third World nation.

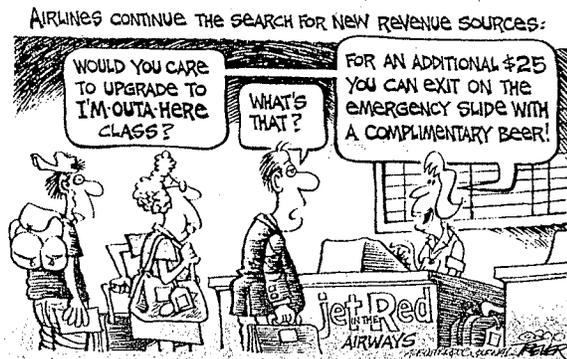

This is only one level of understanding of course. What is important is that those who are faced with the choice of participating or not participating in the census survey must decide in themselves who owns them. The fact that it is claimed by a group of beings, Elite or not, that they own the United States, and that they are the Corporation United States and they have the right to all its assets, people included, does not make this so, and does not make this true. This is an equivalent situation of the Europeans who came into the New York area and bought all of New York from the Indians of the region for a handful of beads and trinkets. The natives knew that they could not own the land; therefore in their minds they thought they were pulling the wool over the eyes of those who would give them nice trinkets for something they did not own.

Unfortunately the natives did not recognize or understand that those who were coming into the land had the alternative way of thinking that land could be owned and that this was a perpetuation of the Elite strategy of buying up and owning as much land as possible. In their mind it was a binding contract, this buying of the land for a handful of beads and trinkets and they treated it as such and they are still treating it as such. It is their claim that they do indeed own this land and all who live within its borders, and all are considered by Corporate US to be their assets.

This is not recognized in the eyes of God Almighty, the Great Spirit, the Great Creator; the Divine. Each and every human being is free and autonomous and it is

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings; nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. only in a thought process that one would give oneself to be owned or to accept that this is at all the case, that makes it so in the minds of those who believe it to be so. Therefore, what this Awareness is suggesting is that all American citizens, all peoples of the world are free and autonomous and are not owned by any who make a claim to have ownership, and it is in this understanding and awareness that one will claim their true freedom.

The unfortunate truth is that most are totally unaware of the situation. They presume a freedom that they do not understand and never truly make a claim for their freedom, for it does mean that one has to be active and to stand up and proclaim one's freedom. By simply assuming and carrying on as if one is free in this ignorant state of consciousness, unfortunately does not help the claim towards freedom, as it must be done with total understanding and perception. When one proclaims oneself free, and proclaims oneself a sole corporation, that one is indeed a free being, a corporation unto oneself and one's soul; this is one way of freeing oneself from corporate ownership. One proclaims themselves as a sole entity, a sole corporation.

There are writings on this to be found, but this Awareness will not pursue this matter further than Its statements that It has just made. However, one must always see themselves as completely totally free and autonomous and make the proclamation that it is so, for it is indeed so.

Questioner: (That was very interesting). There's another like question with regard to something that was mentioned. The chap who was set up, is he still safe... he hasn't been disposed of has he?

Cosmic Awareness: This Awareness is slightly confused as to which chap you are referring to.

Questioner: I'm sorry. The one that was involved with the military in the Bush-Clinton scenario, where he was set up by others to take attention away from the gold that was trying to be retrieved.

Cosmic Awareness: This being the Colonel, the psychiatrist. He will be charged and found guilty. He is a brain-controlled subject and he is an entity who was always meant to be used as all entities as far as those who have power and dominion feel this to be so, that they have the right to use any, to sacrifice any in order to maintain their hold and their control. It is not seen by them that there is anything at fault here by their actions; that they set a man up to take the fall for them. Why should one man's life matter when the lives of thousands in the World Trade Center buildings did not matter, or when the lives of hundreds of thousands in Afghanistan and Iraq do not matter?

This is all part of their mentality of complete ownership and the right to do what they wish to those that they do not consider as human beings. They do not consider those who they have dominion over as anything but chattel to be used as they will, and when they will. What matters the life of one man that they have set up when they so abuse the rights of millions?

Questioner: That's quite true. That's really unfortunate for him, and his family as well.

Cosmic Awareness: This Awareness would say to this that it must always be remembered that he had a soul plan, that he came on to the planet to live a life and this was part of the plan of his life. It is not seen that it was simply an accident and that he was targeted to be used this way. The greater awareness of his being and of his soul understood that this would be part of his life's journey and in doing this he will compensate for other actions in other lifetimes, where he himself created chaos and many died as a result. This is part of a retribution perhaps, but it must be seen more as a way for him to even the books and to free his soul of the karma it had incurred through other lifetimes, one in particular.

Questioner: I understand and this is respected. Thank you for that explanation).

WHAT DOES "BAR" IN LAW MEAN?

We have another question from Mayford Davis on the same topic of the United States government being a private corporation. It's written: "I may be wrong but I believe United States government is owned by the Queen of England. Ask any BAR card attorney what BAR stands for. It is "British Accredited Registry" and why would attorneys in the courts of America have to be registered under British authority? What is perceived to be the truth is false and what seems to be false is actually the truth. You just need to look beyond what you are told by the talking heads on radio and mainstream media. The truth is not within them!" And there was a side-comment by Bruce Curtis, "Put a lien on the trademark, that'll fix 'em!" Your comments please?

Cosmic Awareness: This simply confirms that which this Awareness has spoken. It also must be remembered that the actions of those elected officials are not actions that support those who allegedly elected them, but rather support another sovereign, in this case the Queen of England, and also support the ruling families, those who have the power and charge. It is to be remembered that Washington DC is not part of the United States of America; it is the District of Columbia. Therefore, in truth those who are the elected officials are not serving the people of the United States, whether they were elected in various regions of the United States or not. They are serving the corporate identity of the United States owned by the Queen and others of the European Power Elite and this is how it was done, in that which is the District of Columbia, Washington DC.

If their actions were ever to be queried, this being the actions of the elected officials, they would have to be removed from the District of Columbia and tried in their own local districts where they were elected, for only there could they be tried on charges of treason. To try them in the District of Columbia would still maintain that they are under the protection of those who have power, those who claim the land as their own.

And now the GOOD News!

The example also given that the BAR is a British authority registration indicates whom those individuals work for, whether they are aware of this or not. There are many other examples that prove this to be the case. All of this is so, but this Awareness will also now point out the good news: that this is all now destined to come to conclusion in short order. This has been a scenario that has been playing out for hundreds of years, but it is not a scenario that is seen to continue to play out for hundreds or thousands of years more, not in its present way at least.

It is seen that the Ascension process will do much to alter that which has been played out for so long, and that many will finally be freed from the enslavement and oppression of the Power Elite that have held such power and such control for so long. Those who must still live out realities under this oppression do so by the choice of their soul, and it is still because there is something there for them to experience in a new way down the line. The Power Elite's hold on the planet is soon to be broken and it is this that must now be focused on; not simply knowing that there are others who have hidden power who have been in charge for so long, but rather holding that even if this were so, profound and radical changes are very soon coming down the pipeline that will create a new reality, a new series of realities that will no longer be under dominion and control of the Power Elite that have charge and dominion at this time.

Questioner: I see. That would be good news. Thank you, thank you very much)

ADOLF HITLER & WORLD WAR II

(The Incongruity of Obama a War President awarded the Nobel Prize for Peace!)

Questioner: Still on politics, this question comes from Hans Wilhelm in western Connecticut. He writes, "I have one question with regard to Awareness' comment in last Revelations on page 15. Awareness says: "This Awareness points out the incongruity of a president who is a war president receiving the Nobel Prize for peace, to stand in front of the world and proclaim that sometimes there is a need for force and aggression to squelch that which is opposition to the perceived good of the world. This is indeed hypocritical ... and yet reflective of the nature of consciousness that is held on the planet at this time." My question is: According to Awareness, how should USA and Britain have acted upon the rapidly expanding Nazi invasions and attacks during the Second World War? Should they have gone the "French route" and simply surrendered? According to Awareness' reply, the D-Day invasion by America would have been "wrong" or at least a low nature of consciousness at the time. I would love to have this explained more by Awareness sometime." And he writes, "Best, Hans." Your thoughts please?

Cosmic Awareness: There are many layers and levels to this situation and to that which occurred. It must be always understood that while it is presented that one madman rose to power and created a regime of madmen, all with the intent and purpose to seek world domination and control, this is but an image that has been created for the world to digest, to justify the actions against this madman. It is not saying that this entity known as Adolf Hitler was not a crazy and mad individual, but it must be also seen that he was used as a puppet as well. He was funded by those in power in the West.

Hitler and Nazi Party were Funded by Jews and Bank of England

Hitler and his Nazi party for example, were funded by the Bank of England under a Jewish chairman and the Jewish National League also did supply monies from the United States to put Hitler and his party into power. They helped bring him to the position he was seeking and then he allegedly turned against those who had fed them. There is an axiom: "Do not bite the hand that feeds you" and that is exactly what the entity Adolf Hitler did. He betrayed the very ones who thought that they were buying him and controlled him, and that wanted to use him as a puppet.

When this occurred there was no recourse but to take back the lands he possessed and owned. Then it was portrayed that he and his party were madmen seeking world domination. In some ways, and this Awareness understands It is on slippery footing here, in some ways Adolf Hitler saw himself as a savior of the world against the Zionists and the Elite Powers of the world, and that he needed to fight against them. This by no way justifies that which occurred and the actions of Hitler and the Nazi party, It is simply saying that the entity saw himself not as a madman but as a savior and felt he was justified in his actions against the Jewish people and against those who would go against him and his Aryan nation.

Ultimately, there is no justification for madness of this scale that caused so much damage, death and suffering. There is no justification for the incarceration and execution of millions of individuals. There is no justification at any level for war and annihilation. On one level it can be seen that the actions of those many who thought they were fighting a true tyrant and madman are not to be dismissed but to be exalted, for in their way those who enlisted, those who came forward were seeking to stop the madness, seeking to prevent an individual and a group from creating a world of madness.

Their intent and their desire as they sat on the boats heading for the Normandy beaches was true and pure and this Awareness would never demean them or dismiss them for taking part in such an action. They of course being all of the Allied troops that took part in the war in Europe and also the war in Japan, for they were truly doing this for the noblest of purposes. Unfortunately, what is not seen or understood even today is how those who have dominion, those who are in charge have manipulated all of the events and circumstances.

Bush Used the Same Grounds to Declare War on Iraq

They used the people then and still use the people today to justify actions of greed and corruption. It was not too long ago where the President of the United States of America stood up and declared that the country of Iraq had weapons of mass destruction and that the Americans must go in to vanquish this tyrant, this madman and his group of madmen, and that the Americans did go in and they did attack a sovereign nation, justifying their actions on the same grounds that justified the actions in the Second World War, of protecting the democracy and the freedoms of the United States of America.

Where this Awareness says that those who went to war in the Second World War believed that they were doing something of a high nature, it should also be said that many of the soldiers who went to Iraq and to Afghanistan believed the same thing, and believe even now that they are truly the patriots of the United States of America, protecting the freedoms of their brothers and sisters in America. While this is genuine and sincere, it does little to help understand that there are deeper reasons behind such conflicts. They are never accidental, they are always designed and planned out in advance to achieve certain goals, and to support certain groups, the Elite groups that have behind them reasons for what they do.

The Secret Oil Pipeline across Afghanistan

It is not a well-known fact, for example, that a pipeline was built across Afghanistan in order to bring oil out of Kyrgyzstan and the interior of Russia and around the Caspian Sea, because there was no way to transport this oil out. A year to the day that an oil official presented this to Congress, that an action would be needed to defeat the Taliban that would make the building of the pipeline possible across Afghanistan, the invasion of Afghanistan occurred. And yet many to this day do not know that there is a pipeline or that many of the troops that are in Afghanistan are there to protect the pipeline.

Later, when the former puppet of the CIA turned against his CIA handlers, it was decided that it was imperative to remove this rabid puppy of the CIA, and actions were planned that would see the invasion of Iraq and this too then occurred, also under the guise of protecting the United States of America from the actions of a madman and ensuring democracy and freedom in the United States. These are now beginning to wear thin as excuses and this Awareness would say to those who have the consciousness to perceive these events, to look deeply into them and to understand that this Awareness has never faulted the individual beliefs and actions of those who would take part in such events, but It does question and query the reasons behind the military action in the first place, whether it be in the Second World War to fight the tyranny of the Nazi party and the man who was known as Adolf Hitler or to depose a modern day tyrant, Saddam Hussein. All of this has ulterior planning and motive behind it. This Awareness always asks the readers to look deeply and to ask many questions.

Questioner: How about... did Hitler consider all Jewish people to be Zionists? Is this why he had them tagged with an armband?

Cosmic Awareness: Popular belief would state this is so, but Hitler did understand there was a difference between Zionists, those who used the Jewish people and the Jewish religion for their own world plans of domination and enslavement, and the Jewish people themselves. Unfortunately, the man himself had ulterior personal motives to hate the Jewish people, and even though he understood there was a difference between the Zionists and the Jewish people he did decide to lump them all in the same mold. He did, after all, think that from the Jewish people came the Zionists, and therefore he did hold that the Jewish people themselves, even though it was the Zionists who held international power, the Jewish people themselves were also corrupted and were also servants to a corrupt lord.

There is much that Hitler knew that would be considered occult in nature, including occult histories behind the peoples of the planet, including the Aryan people and the Jewish people. These are all factors that weighed heavily into his fantasies and constructions of reality that dominated his thinking and his mind and justified his actions. The killing of so many and the initiation of actions that would cost the lives and welfare of millions is never justified, but it was part of a much deeper plan, a much deeper action and that even this has its spiritual backing and purpose.

DID A SATELLITE KILL MICHAEL JACKSON?

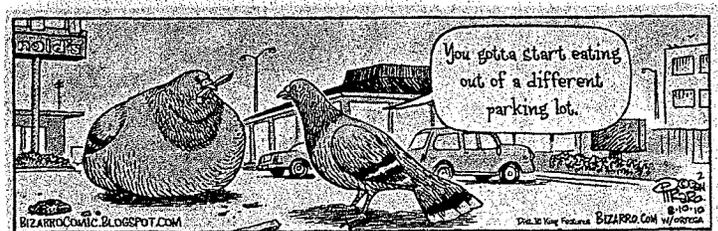

Questioner: Thank you. I never realized that! Ok, we have something with regard to EMR weapons. This comes from F. Joseph Montagna from Portland, Oregon. He writes, "FSB sources reported to President Medvedev that American pop icon Michael Jackson was most assuredly assassinated by the US Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) after an examination of data transmitted by a Russian military cosmos 2450 satellite shows conclusively that immediately prior to the music star's death in Los Angeles an electromagnetic pulse consistent in pattern to EMR weapons looted from the former Soviet Union by the United States was employed at the exact coordinates of the rock star's home. If this is true, then the general public must somehow be informed that there are satellites over our heads armed with EMR weapons capable of killing anyone in the privacy of their own home. I remember reading some time ago that these satellites were put into place over our heads back in 2005. Very alarming!" Your comment please?

Cosmic Awareness: While this is an interesting hypothesis, this Awareness does not see it as an accurate hypothesis as to the death of Michael Jackson. There are matters here that are relevant to the assassination of Michael Jackson, and this Awareness would indeed say that this entity was assassinated, but not through the elaborate means that are described here. It is seen that the discharges that were recorded had another reason. It is seen that they can also be used as a communications type device that sent an order to certain agents in the household of Michael Jackson. It must also be understood that the Russians have nothing personal against Michael Jackson at all, and it is not even seen by this Awareness that this was a Russian action per se.

Why Michael Jackson was ordered to Die

What is seen is that Michael Jackson was preparing to go out on tour and that he had acquired certain information that he felt strongly about, concerning certain factions who have power and control and that he wished to divulge information, especially about the United States of America. He would have been considered dangerous if he was allowed to go out on tour and make his statements, and therefore it is seen that a plot was hatched against him to kill him and it was done through drugs, not through the EMR. This completes the answer from this Awareness.

7000 MARINES NOW IN COSTA RICA?

Questioner: We have some reports; the first one is courtesy of Ted Helinski concerning a recent Sorcha report to Rumor Mills News website. It concerns, "NATO Orders 7000 US Marines to Costa Rica As Gulf Oil Disaster Quake Fears Grow ... the fears that the disastrous oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico is about to rupture the fracture zone lying between North American and Caribbean plates and potentially unleashing upon the Americas a catastrophic earthquake. Also a report entitled: NATO Orders All Critical Assets Moved 100 Miles Inland from Gulf Oil Spill Region.

"Fears lie in the massive amount of abiogenic oil and methane gases being released from the Gulf of Mexico, which many experts are warning could destabilize an already weakened earthquake zone responsible for three other quakes. A total solar eclipse due July 11th, which is Sunday, is disconcerting as the connection with catastrophic earthquakes upon our earth and their association with solar eclipses have long been known and proven. The American government is saying that its rapid movement of these 7000 US Marines to Costa Rica is to help the Central American nation "fight drugs" while at the exact same time, it not only refuses to protect its own drug infested border with Mexico, it has actually sued one of its own states for trying to protect it themselves." Your comment please?

Cosmic Awareness: First of all, this Awareness sees there is validity in this report. There are troop movements occurring at this time, including troop movements to Costa Rica, and including troop movements away from the affected regions of the shoreline around the Gulf. It is seen that potential is there for a massive catastrophic event; an event that this Awareness suggests was triggered intentionally, but was an event that got out of control. It is seen, and this Awareness has stated this, that the oil spill was an intentional event to create a situation that would have affected many and would have affected their livelihoods -- the shutting down of the fishing industry, the crabbing industry, the shrimp industry in the Gulf, the tourist industry, the restaurants and all that is connected with tourism.

Creating Hardships so Martial Law Would Come into Effect

This was a way of creating economic hardship for the reason of bringing martial law into effect. For this reason there has been movements of troops into the region, for it was known that to shut down this section would create hardship on the economy of that region and of the nation. As it is the plan to create economic chaos in order to gain even more control, martial control, the plans of the oil spill can be seen to have been intentional. Unfortunately for those who have participated in this, and who have planned and orchestrated this; it went beyond what their expectations were. It has become a catastrophe beyond their control and they do see that with the build-up of the abiogenic oil that the energies are out of control.

The methane buildup also is crucial in this matter and there is a potential for a mass-event of such catastrophic nature that millions will be affected also in other countries, such as Mexico and Costa Rica, as well as the United States. Even countries on the other side of the world may be affected, for it is seen that there will be an exploding out into the atmosphere of certain gases and oil that may well be carried in the stratosphere around the planet to areas thousands of miles away.

In a private reading given by this Awareness several years ago, it was suggested that there would be an event of major proportions in the Gulf region. This was before the Katrina and Rita hurricanes, and the Interpreter thought that this was what was meant by this Awareness when It originally saw an event coming from the Gulf and proceeding into the heartland of the United States of America. While it is so that the events that are known as Hurricane Katrina and Hurricane Rita did have a devastating effect, it was not exactly what this Awareness was alluding to.

As this was a personal reading at that time and pertinent to the individual it was made for, there has never been a further reference, for there was a dissipating of the energies around the event, until the intentional release of the oil from the Gulf itself and it is now seen again by this Awareness that this can presently come back again in that disastrous release of energies that could occur now due to the buildup of methane gas and the abiogenic gas, the gas that is from the deepest regions of the planet's mantle. This event is also seen as linked, as you have correctly suggested, to certain solar activities.

Solar activities such as solar flares and eclipses have long been connected to the Earth's magnetic fields of resonance and they have had an effect. This unstable situation is indeed critical at this time, but is not guaranteed. Therefore, this Awareness did not speak of this matter earlier, for in some ways It did not wish to energize this possibility. However, now that the question has been directly asked of It, this Awareness does state that there is a potential for catastrophic results here if the event does trigger a mass-explosion. Also, if this does occur it is seen that this will seriously affect the western coast, especially in the region this Awareness has spoken of previously, the region in Southern Oregon and Northern California, as well as other areas along the West Coast that are all lined on the fracture zone, the San Andreas Fault and the Cascadian Fault Lines. Again, these are strong possibilities that are still available to occur, but this Awareness does not guarantee that it will be so, It simply sees this as one of the possible scenarios that could occur and It chooses not to energize this. It simply presents this information and asks individuals to prepare themselves in the event something occurs that will require their rapid response.

Remember also, that even though this Awareness may speak of such catastrophic events as possible occurrences, that It always still recommends that you do not focus your beliefs that you will be part of those experiences directly. While these events may occur and you may well find yourself involved in them, it still does not mean that the involvement must be of a disastrous nature. You can see the events unfolding and do something about it in advance, or even if you find yourself in the middle of the event, not to energize it in advance of the event will ensure that your experiencing of the event will be secondary. This does not mean that you might not be inconvenienced, it simply means it may not be the disaster that it will be for many who need to experience it.

What it Means If You Do Not Experience an Event

This is always the choice: to believe one will experience such things often ensures that one will experience them. To know that they are possible events but that it is unlikely that you will experience it on an individual level is more an insurance that you will not do so. The irony here is that often when one does not experience an event, or even more that if the event never occurs, individuals think that this Awareness or others were incorrect in their predictions. What this Awareness would say, however, is that by not experiencing the event, this shows how effective one was in foregoing the event, of altering their personal reality so that the event simply did not occur. It does not mean that this Awareness or other sources were incorrect in what they were picking up. What it does mean is that the individual who does not experience it was successful in creating a reality for him/herself where this type of disaster simply did not need to be experienced, so they did not experience the event.

This is how it works on the multidimensional level of how one chooses a course that brings to the individual an experience that is correct and right for them. It is not done often through deliberate action, but more through a shift in conscious anticipation in the beliefs one holds, so that one experiences a different reality. The unfortunate matter here is one cannot prove that the other reality, that which was avoided, did not also happen on another line of reality. What one must simply be content with is that they themselves did not call it into their lives. This is, after all, a success and would indeed support what this Awareness says about not focusing on negative events, being aware of them but believing that your reality will simply sidestep such events.

THE BROWN DWARF STAR?

Questioner: (Thank you) We have a related question. It's a short one, I think. "The Oil Spill Was Done to Conceal a Buckling Seabed. The approaching brown dwarf star is plausibly as massive as 10 to 12 Jupiter masses. As this brown dwarf star accelerates into our inner solar system, being gravitationally attracted to our Sun, its enormous magnetic forces are increasingly boiling and churning Earth's magnetic core, while this brown dwarf star's enormous gravitational pull is plucking upon earth's crustal surface, buckling seabeds such as in the Coral Sea and in the Gulf of Mexico, generating sinkholes all over China and generating unprecedentedly frequent high magnitude earthquakes. The report ends with: It is imperative that we, the citizens of the human race, establish a widespread correspondence network in an effort to protect ourselves from the coming scorching, since the Power Elite told Governor Jesse Ventura that, "The people are welcome to knock all day on those multi-ton underground steel doors." Is this report correct please?

Cosmic Awareness: This Awareness suggests that this report is incorrect. It is not seen that there is a brown dwarf sun coming through the solar system or heading towards the sun. It is true that there are forces that are creating instability in the Earth's crust, but it is not seen that a brown dwarf star is the cause of this. There are elements involved here other than the brown dwarf star. Therefore, this Awareness does not support this particular theory, but It can agree that there are effects occurring on the Earth's mantle at this time that are creating unique events.

It must also be remembered that several of the earthquakes were man-made, and triggered with Tesla technology. This has nothing to do with a brown dwarf star but everything to do with the intent of those of the upper echelons who are seeking to control the planet's population and direct it in a certain direction. This report is, to this Awareness, simply fear-mongering and should be ignored.

NIBIRU UPDATE

Questioner: (Good. Thank you) What is up with Nibiru these days and how far away is it?

Cosmic Awareness: Nibiru is one of the elements this Awareness just referred to that is having an effect. It is seen that the planet itself is coming out of the opposite shadow of the sun, or from the opposite side of the sun, and is somewhat parallel to the Earth at this time, and there is seen to be some gravitational forces that are being triggered here, magnetic disturbances in the Earth's magnetic resonance that are also starting to create some of the geological phenomena that are being observed. But again, Nibiru is not at this time close enough to have serious impact, nor is it seen to be close for a time yet.

A BRAVE SOLDIER SPEAKS OUT

Questioner: There is something here from Avaton. He writes: "There is a video on YouTube called The Enemy

Is At Home wherein the speaker, Mike Prysner, a high military officer discussed several sensitive issues: racism in military to justify invasions, his guilt and shame regarding destructive weapons, his own unjustified actions; that war exists only if the military is willing to fight; Powers That Be gain, not the military; military costs involve $450 million a day on occupation; it's profitable only for the government, the banks, CEOs, insurance companies -- his comment being the "real terrorist" is him. The speaker is really brave to speak out because the military has made it more than clear that if you participate, one never speaks out against the war or the military industrial complex on the threat of retaliation or even death. Since this video will be seen by millions, hopefully before they censor it out, it's a good start, and many will begin to speak out because of the bravery of this entity." Your comments please? and this was also in the Editor's "More Wind."

Cosmic Awareness: The individual in speaking out has shown great courage and great bravery. He is speaking from the heart as an individual who was part of the military complex, but did not simply stay in the mindset of the military. Indeed, it is seen that this being is of a high spiritual awareness and consciousness and chose to first of all have the military experience so that he could come forward as he has done to speak eloquently on the situation. Not only can he speak eloquently but he is also an authority on the matter, for he has participated in the event; he has partaken in the war, the death, the destruction and the chaos that it represents.

He has asked questions of himself as to his own participation and he has seen the failing of his ways, of his activities and then he has looked even deeper and asked the questions of why it is so that his nation, his country had to go to war in the first place and why individuals such as himself would be so willing to participate in this event, believing that their government was right and correct and that the patriotic thing to do was to go to war to defend one's country. What kind of defense is the invasion of another country? This is an absurdity, and yet it is an absurdity that has been successfully sold to many young men and women who have joined the military for the purpose of defending their country.

The Military Mind is the Reptilian Mind and Consciousness

This individual also did so but his experience was such that it led to a profound revelation. He saw the error in this and it made him question, but even more it caused him to stand up and to say, "This is wrong!" It must be remembered that the military mind is the reptilian mind and that the hierarchy of the military very much is the reflection of the hierarchy of the reptilian mind and consciousness. To the reptilian mind the life of a warrior is ultimate, and in that life one does not question the orders of one's superiors, one simply follows them.

In a highly evolved and conscious society one is expected to always question such decisions and to debate them freely to come to a collective agreement, but as the government itself is also controlled by the same reptilian consciousness, the same reptilian leadership, the truth of the matter is that the nation has been convinced that the reptilian way of things is the right and correct way. This individual, having experienced this reptilian way, came to his own realization that this was not of the highest nature and that he and others have a responsibility to stand up and to say no, and to object to those who would intimidate every other individual who would stand up and who would say no.

To: avatont@comcast.net

In his own way, by standing up he has made a target of himself, but by doing so in such a public way he has also cleverly protected himself, for if any harm comes to him now, many will believe that which he said was indeed the truth of the matter. In becoming a martyr, which is not his intent, he will achieve even more prominence and recognition and the Powers That Be understand this, so they are in a dilemma of what to do here. It is seen they will try to discredit him and they will try to destroy his reputation. It is even seen that false stories and accusations may well come forward about his military service and his own claims, all of which is to destroy his credibility.

This Awareness says, however, that this too will fail and there is a need for more like him to speak out, for only when others stand up and say no, only when others stand together, joining arms once again and say no, will the situation end. When many come together and say no, then those who are in power must pay attention. The time of Ascension is also playing into this and standing up to say no is also a way of moving forward and achieving a higher consciousness on this matter. Never be afraid to stand up, and never be afraid to say no to those whose evil would corrupt the world and the individual.

The individual Mike Prysner is an individual who has had the courage to stand up and to say no. This indeed shows the power that an individual can achieve, and the impact an individual can have. Imagine the power that many joined together can also have. Never be afraid to stand up for one's principles, for they will always guide you to the proper expression of those views, and in that, one will always find the way forward. This is indeed a time for many individual acts of courage. The most important is the courage to always look within and to always seek to express and to live one's truth. This is the most important matter of all at this time and when one follows this, one will always act courageously, and one will always step forward in unison with that which is Spirit and Spirit's calling. This completes the message from this Awareness.

WORLD EVENTS NOW ACCELERATING

(Are Weird and Strange Events Starting to Occur in your life?)

The times are accelerating very quickly now and there are many events that are starting to occur on the planet and in the lives of many individuals. This Awareness would even say this is occurring in the lives of all, although the events that many are starting to experience are not being understood or recognized as products of these accelerated times and of the shifting energies of the planet and in human consciousness. Those who are seekers of the level of Spirit that lies within them, who are seeking to expand their spiritual awareness, seeking to expand their consciousness, will start to find many events starting to occur to them that are undeniably beyond the ken of that which previously would be considered the confines of reality.

Did you really see what you think you just saw?

Individuals may well start to find curious and even weird events starting to occur in their lives that will occur so quickly sometimes that the individual may even be left shaking their heads wondering if they even truly saw what they thought they saw. This will include such things as glimpses of UFOs or extraterrestrial vessels in the clouds, and unusual cloud formations related to this; extreme climatic events such as is occurring in the world at this time with the major heat waves and the drought-like conditions occurring in areas that do not traditionally suffer such extreme and prolonged heat waves.

There will be events occurring to individuals on a more personal level, individuals experiencing events such as the change in attitudes amongst others who have so long denied any interest in things metaphysical or spiritual. More and more are starting to open up to the fact that something is happening, even though they do not understand what is taking place. It will often be for many a new feeling of things and they will be left with questions and will start to turn to those whom previously they would have rejected and even ridiculed, for they understand that those whom they have rejected and ridiculed in the past were the very ones who have given answers and have understood the events that are unfolding.

Planetary Events are starting to accelerate
(Fall of 2010 Could bring very extraordinary Events)

Other events that are starting to occur have a greater magnitude of destruction as planetary events are starting to accelerate. This Awareness spoke of an increase in earthquake activity, and of course weather activity, some of which has deliberately been manipulated, and some of which is the result of other events, not only on the planet, but also in the sun itself. These events will be seen to also accelerate in the months ahead, and it is seen that the fall of the year 2010 may bring with it some very extraordinary events on the world scale.

This Awareness will conclude by saying that these are all part and parcel of that which has been awaited by many of the Wanderers, and by many spiritual seekers for many years. One of the most frequently made comments of those who are seekers is when will things start to change? This Awareness is giving notice that things have started to change and are starting to become more and more noticeable and less deniable. Keep your eyes and ears and heart open. The mind may at first reject some of the weirder things that may soon begin to transpire, but those who have awaited these events for a long time can suspend the sense of objection to the weirdness of the times.

Be prepared for a very Wild Ride!

Understand that even though events that are unfolding are not always glamorous and not always what appears to be of a highly spiritual evolved level, they are nonetheless events that indicate that changes are taking place and are accelerating. Be prepared for the ride, and for some it may well be a truly wild and woolly ride. For others it may be a much calmer and peaceful merry-go-round of a ride. There are changes happening and this is what now must be seen and understood, and those who see and understand these changes are encouraged to be open to even greater changes that will come later. This completes the opening message from this Awareness.

WHAT'S HAPPENING WITH OUR SUN?

Questioner: Our first question comes from Thomas Love of Vancouver, Washington. It concerns a comet impacting the sun. He writes, "On April 10, 2010 a video of a large comet impacting the sun was taken by the Solar & Heliospheric Observatory telescope and was released to major media outlets, and prior to this on February 24, 2010 an enormous prominence on the sun called a filament is spotted. This filament is the longest one ever recorded by modern technology as it extended over 1,000,000 km from the sun before collapsing into the sun and creating a coronal mass ejection. Now such additions during the time of Ascension cannot be accidental but rather by design. Perhaps Awareness could enlighten us, as it seems the sun is shining more brightly and sunlight is love expressed hyper-dimensionality. Anyway it's food for thought." Your comments please?

Cosmic Awareness: This Awareness would agree that these are not accidental random events that have nothing to do with the unfolding circumstances on the planet itself and with that process that is known as Ascension. There is an increase in the energies of the sun at this time, and it must be remembered that the sun itself is a type of gateway to the higher dimensions, and the sun as a planetary body has a consciousness unlike anything understood by most humans, and it is seen its role is that of a body of consciousness awakening other levels of consciousness, including planet Earth.

There is a symbiotic relationship between the sun and all other planets and all other stellar bodies, and as the energies of consciousness are increasing in the sun, as the energies of love and the expression of that visible force that is seen through the activity of the solar flares and solar activities increase, they will affect the planet and help Planet Earth/Gaia, in her own process of Ascension as she too shifts her consciousness into the higher planes of consciousness. This is also interlinked with universal events that are also unfolding, and ultimately Ascension is not simply an event taking place on Planet Earth and affecting only a handful of creatures, but rather an event of universal proportions that affects all in the broad spectrum of consciousness that is universal awareness and universal consciousness.

As the energies of the sun are activated and increased this will lead to that which on the surface of the Planet Earth appears to be an increase in solar activity. The comet that is filmed and shown to crash into the sun is part of an attraction of the sun on this object as the expanded energies were released. It is as if a magnet increased 1000-fold in its strength and captured the comet, drawing it directly into the sun. The consciousness of the comet merged with the consciousness of the sun and this created a release of stellar energy in the sun itself, a fusion of consciousness that expanded the consciousness of the sun, and this of course has even more increased the solar activities that have occurred since then and are having again a tremendous affect on the planet, literally shaking the planet up at its foundation levels, and preparing it to break free of the chains of oppression that the planet has endured for many eons now.

The oppression this Awareness is talking of is an oppression at the level of consciousness of the planet that has restricted her, that has restrained her from moving forward previously to the degree that she, Planet Earth/ Gaia is now ready to do. It is as if the old cobwebs are being cleared out and the adjustments are being made so that the planet can leap forward in that most amazing event of Ascension that is quickly coming this way, and that is quickly manifesting itself in the events and circumstances of the planet and of those who inhabit the planet, including flora and fauna, and mankind itself. This is all because an extraordinary shift is occurring that is universal in nature, expressed in a solar system that has the sun as its primary focus of light energy consciousness that radiates to all other planets in the solar system, and that is helping Gaia to move forward herself in her own shifting of consciousness, her own shifting of awareness.

A SOLAR TSUNAMI: FIRE IN THE SKIES

Questioner: (Thank you). A like question or commentary came from Vikki at CAC. It concerns Great Ball of Fire. "On August 1, 2010, almost the entire earth-facing side of the sun erupted in a tumult of activity. An image from the Solar Dynamics Observatory of the news-making solar event on August 1 shows the C3-class solar flare, a solar tsunami, multiple filaments of magnetism lifting off the stellar surface, large-scale shaking of the solar corona, radio bursts, a coronal mass ejection, and more. A multi-wavelength extreme ultraviolet snapshot from the Solar Dynamics Observatory shows the sun's northern hemisphere in mid-eruption. The Earth's magnetic field is still reverberating from the solar flare impact on August 3, 2010, which sparked aurorae as far south as Wisconsin and Iowa in the United States. Analysts believe a second solar flare is following behind the first solar flare and could re-energize the fading geomagnetic storm and spark a new round of Northern Lights." Your comment please?

Cosmic Awareness: This activity is that which was initiated earlier, as this Awareness spoke, of the increase in the levels of energetic expression on the surface of the sun, being a reflection of the shakeup that is occurring within the sun or within the consciousness of the sun. The external events are merely the physical manifestation of the inner shifting and the inner changes that are occurring. This Awareness spoke earlier of that activity of the increase in consciousness as affecting other planets, including Mother Earth/Gaia. It also brought the comet crashing into it as part of the process to accelerate the shifting of consciousness within the fabric of the sun. The storms that the entity Vikki has highlighted are simply further evidence of this activity that is occurring at the inner state of consciousness that is held by the sun.

The Aurora Borealis Activity

The Aurora Borealis activity that is occurring is indicative of the symbiotic relationship that also exists between the sun and the earth. As the magnetic energies come across the gulf of space between the sun and the planet Earth, it affects the magnetic stratosphere of the planet, causing the spectacular light-works that are seen in the Aurora Borealis' activities of late. The energies are not only affecting the Aurora Borealis but are causing deep internal shifts in the Earth's crust and mantle and are even affecting the inner core of Planet Earth and the inner sun that resides, for it too is responding to the energies that are being created on the sun.

The symbiotic relationship this Awareness is speaking of has much to do with the connection of the internal sun that lies at the core of Planet Earth with her sister/brother Sun that is the sun Sol in the center of the solar system. There is a form of communication that is occurring between these two bodies, the solar sun Sol and the inner sun of Gaia. This sun also affects Gaia herself, for it is as if the sun that is within her, which links her to Sol is a part of the universal consciousness as well, and is signaling her that the time for her own rebirthing, the shifting in her being and in her consciousness is coming more and more quickly every day.

Destruction and Mayhem is in the works as Ascension nears

The acceleration that is occurring on the planet again is evidence of the acceleration happening at the core level of the planet, and the internal sun that exists there, as well as Sol, the sun of the solar system. Everything is moving forward quickly now, and as Awareness said in Its opening statement and comments, this will start to bring more and more evidence that things are indeed afoot. The energies will not be totally destructive to the point that they will cause the earth to have a total collapse or a total extinction event that will destroy the planet, but the shaking up of both the sun itself, as well as the inner sun and the planet, will cause much destruction and mayhem if one does not understand that what truly is happening is that these bodies are waking up in preparation to movement into a higher strata of consciousness.

The movement on the planet itself, while destructive to some, need not be totally destructive to all, especially if there is that understanding and awareness of what is occurring and an alignment to Mother Earth, as well as to Father Sun, and when one becomes part of the equation, one will be guided to the actions necessary to ensure safety and well-being. This corresponds to that which this Awareness has often spoken of, that being how one's beliefs can indeed manufacture and manifest in such a way that they will lead individuals into calamity or into safety.

This too is all part of the shifting in consciousness that is occurring at multiple levels of consciousness, and to be part of the universal event and part of that which is the solar event of the shifting of consciousness in the sun, as well as the shifting of awareness of Mother Earth, will help those who are seeking to ascend to the highest levels, to proceed along this path of Ascension. It is a harmony that would be created between all movements and all shifts of consciousness that will allow an individual to become more cosmic in nature, more understanding and aware that that which is occurring is not an act of vehemence against human beings, but rather is the ordered sequence of events and unfoldings that have always been the life purpose of the sun and of the earth, as well as all other planets in the solar system.

When one comes into unity with such an understanding, one is part of the process and one will move forward into the higher states of consciousness in a way that is conducive to an orderly transit. When one is objecting to this, and rejecting of it, then one will experience the chaos and upheaval as the planet undergoes certain profound changes as it moves forward in her Ascension process. This will always be a matter of choice for those who see and understand and feel the shifting of energies. Those who are asleep to this, who are unaware, and who are still under the control and manipulation of those certain Powers That Be, will not be able to experience the Ascension in the same way, for their energies are not in alignment with the shifting energies, and are disharmonic to them. Those who stay ignorant, and those who will not awake will unfortunately feel the chaos and upheaval, as spoken.

Options available for those who do and those who don't

Even though this may be the case, and even though many may choose to cross over at this time of chaos and upheaval, there is still that promise that is the original promise of the Divine, and that is the original promise of the soul and Spirit: that all will be returned back into their spiritual essence, where they will be able to awaken again to the truth of their being, and from that point on make choices as to how they would like to proceed, whether or not to come back onto the planet after Ascension has been achieved, and carrying on in a more highly refined manner, or whether they would choose to come back into an historic period of time that precedes the Ascension process that is being experienced at this time; or even whether or not they would wish to come back into the more segregated experience of separation from Spirit that will be keynote on that which is planet B.

These will be options for each and every soul, no matter what the consequences are of their decision of whether to awaken and align themselves to the shifting energies or to stay asleep and to experience them in a more negative way. ALL will still be saved in the sense that there will not be a loss at all of any individual consciousness, whether they choose Ascension or not. This completes this Awareness' answer.

THE ATMOSPHERE COLLAPSING?

(Thank you) . There's a related matter concerning solar activity offered by Larry Kell. He writes: "With the atmosphere temporarily collapsing much more than the drop in solar activity can account for, is there additional information on this please?"

http://www.msnbc.msn.com/id/38270609/ns/technology_and_science-space/?ocid=msntoolbar280

Cosmic Awareness: What is being seen by this Awareness is that this is like the in-breath of Mother Earth as she takes in a breath, preparing herself for a tremendous leap. This will not collapse the atmosphere to the point that it is destructive to humanity, but it creates a thinner shield for certain cosmic rays, stellar rays, solar rays, and bionic rays of those energies that are projected from the sun and the stars. This can be taken by those who are unaware and asleep to be negative in nature and there may be a subsequent experiencing of harm because of this, or it can be seen and understood to be part of the unfolding that is occurring and that the belief is held and the understanding maintained that this is simply a part of the process, and that one will come through this experience without undue harm or disturbance.

This also has much to do with the shifting in consciousness that is occurring, both on Mother Earth and in Father Sun.

WHY EARTHQUAKES ARE ALL 6.2 MILES DEEP

Questioner: Fascinating. Ok, we go now to the HAARP project Blue Beam China earthquake connection)

It comes from Ted Helinski. "It is written there is a very interesting video on YouTube that makes the claim that many of the earthquakes around the world are being caused by the HAARP-like technology. Nothing new there, but what is shown in this video might be some proof of that fact. It turns out that most of the quakes are at a depth of 6.21 miles. In fact it is shown that the last month over 200 of these quakes were all at 6.21 miles. It seems hard to believe that such a thing would be a natural occurrence." Are there comments on this please? (search: HAARP PROJECT BLUEBEAM CHINA EARTHQUAKE CONNECTION PART 3/3)

Cosmic Awareness: The interesting thing in this is that it shows that there are many who are simply unaware of the actions that are occurring already from that which is the level of consciousness that is held by the planet and by the sun. Those who have power on the planet have for so long isolated themselves from a harmonic relationship with the planet and with the solar consciousness and the higher levels of consciousness, and have closed themselves to the Divine for so long that they are still trying to manipulate events to their liking. Those who are the Elite know that the events are now unfolding rapidly that will bring the planet to that departure point that is known as Ascension. Because of their own choices along the way, and because of their continual manipulation of human events and circumstances, the Elite themselves, although they do indeed receive the advantage at this time from their control of the planet, will not be able to ascend, for there is needed a level of harmonic convergence with the energies that are of the planet itself and of the universal consciousness and even solar consciousness.

Because of their choices, because of their use of the fourth dimension to escape the normal cycling of the soul back into Spirit, and because they have been continuous in their effort of domination for so long, their energies are such that they will not be able to pass through the vortexes or the rifts or even to be carried on the planet itself to the higher levels of consciousness. It is as if through their own choice they have decided that they must continue their physical experience, for it is deemed as more important to them than returning back to the Godhead, back into Prime Consciousness, back into the merging with the soul.

Knowing this, they are still trying to maintain this control and manipulate events themselves, such as the triggering of earthquakes that have been experienced of late, not seeing or fully understanding that there are other forces now that will take those energies they released through such technology as HAARP technology, and create more natural consequences of those manipulated and staged events. As to the fact that much of this activity happens at that distance in the Earth 6.2 miles down, it is seen that there is a layer at this time that extends evenly around the planet, in streams around the planet.

If one can hit an intersection point of these streaming energy layers, it can be carried along the stream and trigger the seismologic events that have been occurring. What is not fully understood though is that these events are about to truly become out of the control of those who have used the HAARP technology. Already other events are occurring, and when the HAARP technology is used there are deflections of that energy released by HAARP that are expressing themselves in other regions as events not necessarily designed or planned, but an expression nonetheless of the released, rebounding energy of HAARP along these streams at that level, that then are released randomly in other areas of the planet.

Because those who have power and dominion at this time refuse to cease their activities, there is the likelihood that combining their activities with the unfolding events and the moving energies that are occurring naturally on the planet because of the Ascension process, that there will be many catastrophic events occurring more and more on the planet, affecting more and more of the populace. This is only part of the understanding of what is occurring, for one must always understand that everything that is seen on the surface is also occurring below the surface, and is also occurring above the surface. It even can be understood that those atmospheric events that are occurring are part and parcel of the surface events, and are part and parcel of the seismic underground events.

Even this is only on the surface level, for one must also understand that there is a shifting in consciousness that is not only planetary, but also solar as well as universal. This is a grand event indeed and is one of the reasons why so much attention is being focused on the Planet Earth herself, for this is a central point in all that is unfolding. This Ascension process that the planet is going through is part of the greater events that are triggering events on planet Earth. It is indeed a very symbiotic relationship. This completes this answer at this time, but this Awareness will always be available to fill in more details later on.

HAARP TECHNOLOGY ENERGIES IN CANADA

Questioner: Is it possible that the massive slide of mud and ice from the Capricorn glacier near Meager Creek and the Lillooet River in British Columbia -- is this possibly also a side event to the HAARP energies, which the basic facilities I believe are in Alaska which is north of British Columbia and also is the flooding in Pakistan, is that also affected in some way?

Cosmic Awareness: Indeed, these two events are related to the HAARP technology and the release of the HAARP energies. It is not that they were planned events, but rather more of the nature of what this Awareness was speaking to when It said that the HAARP energies go down to their crossing point streams, the streams that are flowing energetically at that level of the planet at 6.2 miles. The energetic flow also is a flow of magma and lava and there are energies here that are not yet understood, even by those who use that which is the HAARP technology.

The current flooding in Pakistan

The events in British Columbia as well as Pakistan are indeed directly the result of the release of the HAARP technology to initiate events elsewhere in the planet, and the energies released bounced back and took alternate streams and emerged upwards, creating events such as the mass-melting of the glacier in British Columbia, which then released a tremendous flow of water that directly caused the massive landslide that occurred. Equally, the stream energies also emerged above the skies in Pakistan, for the energies released can affect the atmosphere. As it is the typical rainy season, the monsoon season in Pakistan and in Asia, when you add more energy it creates an even bigger event, a greater release of moisture and rain that directly created the flooding in Pakistan.

High Heat and What "Global Warming" really is

The random release of these energies are also seriously affecting the climate of the planet and that which is talked about so often in the media as global warming is actually more the result of the manipulation by HAARP technology of the substrata and of the streams of energy that are moving in the crust of the planet, in the mantle, and their release into the atmosphere is creating the events of high heat and abundant rainfall in other areas; high heat, drought-like conditions in some regions, such as the eastern seaboard of the United States into the Midwest and the northern climates of Russia. Other areas, such as Pakistan, for example, are experiencing moisture and heavier than normal rainfall, as are the central regions of Canada and down into the United States.

These are all results of the manipulation of the energies of HAARP that are being now released inadvertently, although this Awareness would say that those who have dominion on this matter, and who are in charge understand that it is their own technology that is starting to have these results, but because this seems to still be suiting the needs and desires of those in charge, there is no shutting off of the HAARP technology. Also, what is occurring is that in some ways the use of the different technologies has gotten away somewhat from those who are in charge, and now events are starting to occur because they are being fueled not by the power sources that release HAARP technology, but by the powers and energies of Mother Earth and Father Sun that are now starting to become activated to a higher degree, and the acceleration is occurring that will create the conditions erupting as they are now starting to do, out of the hands of those who have for so long manipulated these events.

Those in charge simply do not yet "get it;" there are other forces now, other levels of consciousness that are working on this matter, including those of the Galactic Federation, who are still working behind the scenes. This completes the answer of this Awareness at this time.

Questioner: (Thank you) Everything does seem to boomerang, doesn't it?

Cosmic Awareness: This Awareness would agree, but it must be always remembered that each sentient being, be it a human being, a planetary being, or a solar being, has a life purpose, and a life destiny. While the life of a human being may be much limited by comparison to that of the planet Earth or of the sun or stars -- still the life purpose chosen by each and every individual will suit the needs of that individual as they seek to expand their consciousness and bring back the experience to the soul itself.

This also occurs at the planetary level, for the planetary consciousness of Gaia is also seeking to advance itself as she seeks to increase her awareness, and increase her own consciousness. This too can be said of the sun itself, which is also a gateway to the higher levels of consciousness on this planet and within the consciousness of the sun. It is all interrelated, but also very individual at the same time. Thus, an individual may wish to have a full Ascension experience, and is opening up their level of consciousness to engage this and to have this; while their neighbor, their brother, their sister and their friend may choose not to have such an experience, and may choose to shut it down, for their soul purpose is to have a different experience.

Planet "B" Will act as a home base for many

Mother Earth/Gaia has her own prerequisite that she is seeking to fulfill and accomplish as she starts to shift into those higher levels. Yet another part of that which is Gaia is choosing not to move forward, and is choosing to stay asleep, thus creating this splitting of the two earths that this Awareness has so often spoken of as planet A and planet B. This will provide for the many who do not seek to have a personal experience of Ascension at this time, a home base from which they can continue their own personal experiences and fulfill themselves and their spiritual needs at the same time. Does this address your comment?

THAT MAJORITY OF ENTITIES STILL ASLEEP (More on Manifesting the New Reality)

Questioner: Yes it does, I always wondered. Thank you. It's most appreciated) We have something from Tim Gray concerning manifesting a new reality. He writes, "Awareness asked for some questions about manifesting this new reality so I will offer three questions. Awareness has acknowledged the many layers of the complex Machiavellian control mechanisms placed on society at all levels, including the inducement to infighting within the "resistance groups" and the proliferation of mind control. This can be plainly observed on any of the popular "conspiracy" discussion forums, where there is constant argument and name-calling with almost no substance or constructive relationship building.

In the last newsletter Awareness acknowledged that 30% of humanity is awake to the point that they recognize things are not right and must change. This still leaves well over 4 1/2 billion human beings who are asleep and are just as likely to contribute to keeping the rest enslaved, as they are simply consenting to the "Blue Beam deception, false Messiah scenario", etc. In view of the foregoing, how will the mass populace awaken to the Orion deception enough to put up a rebellion or resistance?" Your comment please?

Cosmic Awareness: This Awareness would start by saying, "Why should they? Why should those who are still asleep, those who are still under the control of those Machiavellian forces wake up if it suits their life purpose, their soul purpose to have this experience? What must be understood here is there are no unwilling hostages in this matter. The assumption that those who are asleep are somehow victims to the machinations of those who have power and control is not entirely correct. It is only correct if viewed from a certain limited perspective that is very dualistic in nature, a perspective that says that those who are controlled and manipulated and used are the victims of those who have power, those who are in charge, and those who are in charge and who do this are the evil ones, are the corrupt ones, are the ones who are wrong, while those who are asleep are indeed victims to those machinations, and those who are asleep have no choice in the matter, and have no way of changing their fate.

What if the fate of these 'victims' is to have this experience

What if their fate is to have this experience? What if the soul chose in advance, knowing what was coming, that it would choose to have such an experience, to keep that container that is the human body entrapped in a physical reality and the mind, that is the middle self, would not awaken to the truth of its multidimensionality in physical form? Then it would be understood that even though it appears that the individual is a victim to those in charge and in control, the truth would really be that they are choosing at the deepest level of their being to have this experience.

What is necessary for Ascension and what is happening now is that more and more of those who are experiencing human life are starting to ask questions, are starting to awaken, and those whose life purpose, whose soul purpose is to awaken to the con that they have lived all of their lives and have been part of and party to for eons, are now in a position where they are choosing to have an experience of awakening that will lead them to be available for Ascension. It is seen that by the time Ascension occurs, at least 40% of human consciousness will have reached a stage where they can ascend to a degree that suits their soul purpose. It is seen further that there is a 20% grouping that will be on the fence somewhat, who will know that there are new levels of consciousness, new experiences that are different than what was given to them as the fundamentals of the human experience. Not all will then choose to leap into the higher realms of consciousness, trusting that they will be taken forward in their experience. Many will be very afraid to do so and will wind up being part of the group of beings who are still choosing to have the experience of being completely enmired in physicality, and even experiencing a deeper loss of their spiritual nature or their spiritual understanding of their connection to the Divine, to the soul and to God Itself.

These are all choices that are made based on the understanding of what life purpose one wishes to experience or what their soul purpose is. To think that they are simply victims at the complete control of those evil masters is not quite correct, and even those who are in charge know this as a deep and powerful truth. Only those who are choosing to come with them, even if they are still asleep, are those that they can affect. Those that they manage to convince, are those truly that are seeking and desirous of that experience. Those in charge, those who have dominion, know this truth and they still understand that while this is so and they are allowed to play their games, they may keep certain individuals in their web of deception. Ultimately each and every being can escape this web of deception if they truly wish to and if it is their soul purpose of this life.

WHEN WILL THE EXPERIMENT BE COMPLETE?

Questioner: Thank you). I think you answered his next question. His last question: "Although I feel as though the experiment in separation is complete inside my heart and I feel no connection to the darkness and evil deception of the Orion force, as I have removed myself from it to as complete a degree as physically possible, yet each day I still wake up and observe it around me defining and structuring the physical world that we exist in. My questions are: How will the Orion control structures in place today collapse? When will the experiment in separation from Unity Consciousness embodied by the Orion force of darkness be complete?" Your comment please?

Cosmic Awareness: It will be complete when it is complete. This is a question that cannot be answered, for it is assuming there is a timescale involved and therefore the Orion timescale may still take 3 million years or 20 million years, but it has a finite time to it. This is not quite so, for time is simultaneous; all time is occurring at the same moment. What can be said however is that it will take as long as it takes for those who are having this experience to choose another experience and then to move on. For some it will seem as if millions of years are needed for this to be accomplished, while for others it will occur in the twinkling of an eye, the blinking of an eye. Thus it is difficult to answer this question.

What is more important is that the entity himself is starting to become more and more aware of his own role in this matter, of his own desire and choice not to be part of the machinations of those who are seeking to manipulate consciousness and to keep a large element asleep.

He is beginning to understand that as it is his choice not to experience any longer the results of the machination of those forces that have dominion and who are in charge, he will not experience this reality. The matter is somewhat complicated at this time, for it is still the case that the planet itself, human beings and humanity itself, are still largely under the sway of those Orion types and the reptilian types that have controlled and manipulated human consciousness for eons.

While Ascension also represents a breaking away from those who have had dominion for so long, it is not yet a completed act; it is in the process of unfolding. Therefore, it is easy to look at those who are in charge and wonder if they will ever lose control, and if they will ever go away. This would be an error, for they will not go away, for it is part of the stream of consciousness of the Divine Itself that is choosing to have these experiences of separation and manipulation of the masses. Therefore, as it is part of the Divine, the wish that it would go away is also a wish that the Divine would go away and would not exhibit an understanding that this is part of God's plan as well; and at the same time God has given each and every individual a choice in the matter. It is not that God's plan needs to disappear, but that each and every individual wakes up to a degree that they recognize that they have a choice in the matter, and that in the belief that this is so, the individual events of their lives will begin to change.

Wanderers and "Oppressive Energies"

While this is still in that intersection point of the old and the new, the good and the bad, those who are in charge and those who are finding their own level of power, of choice -- there are still those events that are occurring that are challenging to many who must experience them. This Awareness has called these 'oppressive energies' of these times that affect many of the Light Workers, many of those who are the Wanderers. This Awareness encourages those individuals who are awake or awakening to be patient and to be trusting that they are indeed aware of those deeper truths that will guide them eventually into the stream of consciousness that is about to ascend.

In many ways, they are already in that stream of consciousness and they must release that connection to the events and circumstances of that which is the planetary level of consciousness that is still very much in focus at this time. They must become as the entity Tim Gray has noted, the observer of these events, trying not to be triggered by them, but observing them, seeing them as indications of that which is currently so, and yet seeing also in other actions that are starting to emerge more and more- evidence that change is happening and that this change will bring stranger and weirder events in the immediate future.

By staying in a neutral and detached position to that which is unfolding, this will allow those many who are affected by the oppressive energies, a way to come through them. This does not mean that they will not occasionally fall to those energies and be oppressed by them, but what must be held onto, especially at this time, is the deeper trust and knowing that this too shall pass and that the Ascension will unfold as planned.

Questioner: (Question please). The words "all time occurring at the same time"; is this a reference to parallel dimensions or frequencies?

Cosmic Awareness: This can be so understood. The parallel universes are all occurring at this time, and the way to reach them is to focus on them as being the individual's reality. Thus if one wishes to experience a parallel reality where those who are the oppressors, those who are the Elite, those who have dominion, is no longer their reality, then one must simply begin that process of knowing this is not so for them. The problem here is that this is not necessarily an instantaneous event, although as seen from the perspective of this Awareness, It would call this an instantaneous event. However, because the individual on the physical plane is in a dense vibrational energy, there is nothing instant about this to them and it feels to be a long and drawn-out process. But eventually they will be in that reality where those who have charge are no longer in charge, for the reality will have unfolded in such a way that those were once the oppressors have gone their own way, and the individual now is free to experience the new reality that exists parallel to that which one might find themselves in at this time.

Questioner: It explains it, thank you.

Cosmic Awareness: This explains it, but this Awareness is aware that many questions will come of this explanation.

THE PROCESS OF ASCENSION IS TO GROW UP

Questioner: It is a deep, deep subject, indeed.

Cosmic Awareness: It must be understood in some ways, that the Ascension process can be represented as a growth from an infantile state of consciousness to that of an adult, all within the space of a very short time. It would be as if the child is suddenly an adult and lives as an adult with full understanding and in awareness. This is a hard concept for many to attain, for humanity is very infantile in its nature, wishing to believe in simplistic concepts that have been handed down to them over many generations. They wish to believe that those in charge are those who have their best welfare. They wish to believe that having lots of money will make their lives go better and they will be happier. They wish to believe that believing in a rigid God that hands down laws and commandments will guarantee them eternal happiness.

To Leave behind simplistic and naïve beliefs

The process of Ascension is as well as anything the process of growing up, of becoming the adult and leaving behind the things of a child, including the simplistic and naïve beliefs that so many still hold now. This maturation is a process that involves the consciousness of those growing up, but those who have reached higher levels of awareness and perception are still living in the domain of those who have not grown up, and as there are many more who have not yet achieved this new maturity and yet still have power, it is difficult for those who have reached higher levels of conscious awareness and who have grown up, to not feel the effect of those many who still have charge. Even though the adults understand clearly what is now needed, they are not yet in control.

This will come when those who have chosen to have that experience of Ascension complete this journey and are then in a position where they find themselves in the presence of many, many adults indeed.

MYSTERIOUS SIGNALS FROM OUTER SPACE

Questioner: Wonderful! Thank you). We have something from Judy Chan concerning mysterious radio waves or signals. She writes, "A newsscientist.com article concerns an unknown object in the nearby galaxy M-82 has started sending out radio waves or signals. The co-discoverers said they had no idea what it is. Could Awareness please explain what this event is about

ARE GIANT UNDERWATER HUMANOIDS LIVING IN RUSSIA'S LAKE BAIKAL?

Questioner: His next question: "Are there really giant amphibious humanoids swimming underwater without air tanks in Russia's Lake Baikal? How did they get here or there, is there a UFO base in that region and also in the Indian Ocean?" Your comment please?

Cosmic Awareness: This lake is a very deep lake. It extends deeply into the mantle of the Earth and connects to a series of underground rivers and seas. These beings are indeed valid and they come from the deeper recesses of the planet itself up through these deep-water openings into such lakes as Lake Baikal or Loch Ness in Scotland. Indeed that which is known as the Loch Ness monster, Nessie, is such a creature that comes from the deeper regions of the planet, the deeper depositories, the underground oceans and seas where these creatures are more abundant. Occasionally they do make their way up through the crust to these very deep-water openings in these regions, including India, and including mountain lakes in Canada and the United States, where sightings of such creatures as Otopogo or other equivalent creatures are reported from time to time. Therefore, this Awareness would substantiate that these creatures are indeed valid and are real.

MORE ON THE TUNGUSKA EXPLOSION

Questioner: Hmm... amazing). Larry's next question: "Who were the strange non-Russian investigators who went to the Tunguska explosion site soon after it happened to collect data and then disappeared? Was this truly the result of a conflict between two UFOs?"

Cosmic Awareness: It is seen that the Tunguska explosion in the early 20th century was indeed an explosion of a nuclear nature. It is seen that a craft exploded, causing this blast that one could see as nuclear in nature. Thus there was indeed a conflict and those who came down were extraterrestrial beings that needed to collect evidence of what had occurred. In a manner of speaking, they were looking for the black box of that vehicle that had crashed, for it contained much evidence of what had occurred and the matter went in front of an arbitration board, so to speak, where decisions were made as to what occurred.

It is seen ultimately that it was a conflict between Orion forces and Galactic Federation forces, with the loss of a Galactic Federation ship at that time. Indeed, this Awareness would even add that both ships were lost, but only one crashed and the matter was brought before a Galactic Council, for at that time the Galactic Federation was not in the same position of opposition and was trying to act legally, as it would be understood today, in conflict resolution, trying to come up with a mediated solution. This failed however, and the matter has escalated since and the opposition is much, much stronger now.

Questioner: What was the timeframe of this?

Cosmic Awareness: Approximately 1919.

Questioner: Thank you. Do you have a closing message please?

IT'S TIME TO TAKE THE NEXT STEP

Cosmic Awareness: This Awareness has indeed been talking today about strange and weird events and phenomena. It has deliberately pushed the mantle further back, and has introduced some new concepts into what this Awareness would call 'multidimensionality'.

It has introduced these concepts at this time, for It is felt that those who read of this and hear of this are now ready to expand their thinking, and to expand their consciousness to a new level. That is why also many will start to see the weird events that are unfolding and will also start to understand that those events that are being presented to them over the media are events that often have a much deeper answer or cause, and they will not so easily be led into gullibility about what has occurred and what is occurring.

Be prepared now for these interesting events to accelerate, for the players involved, even those cosmic players are upping the ante, and are increasing the odds. This is, as this Awareness has often said, a most interesting time, and it presents to one and all the option that in interesting times, interesting people come forward and interesting events unfold. Each and every one who hears this message, and reads this message is indeed an interesting being in the process of unfolding into a truer knowledge, a deeper knowledge of who and what they are. It is indeed a time to take the next step and to grow up a little more in the universe of that which is, versus that which what one thinks is and what one was taught is. The time is unfolding and unfolding quickly at this time. This Awareness is complete.
