

A MESSAGE FROM MARS.

LONDON, January 17, 1.15 p.m.

Following upon the report made by Nikola Tesla of strange indications observed at Colorado, which he interprets as waves of communication from Mars, the authorities at Lowell Observatory make a coincident report.

In December there was observed a shaft of light projected from Mars, lasting seventy minutes.