
A METEOR

BRISBANE, Tuesday — A meteor fell last night a few miles east of Georgetown. A few minutes afterwards a number of explosions were heard, followed by a roaring noise. Many people ran out of their houses, thinking that an earthquake was about to occur.
