
STRANGE LIGHTS.

Certain belated citizens of Bathurst reported late last night that they saw strange lights in the sky, and after a short interval made out the framework of an aeroplane. The machine circled the town and then flew away in the direction of Sydney.