WAS IT MacDONALD.

NO TIDINGS OF MISSING AIR-MAN.

The passengers and crew of the steamer Montclare, bound for Liverpool, eagerly watched during the voyage for signs of Commander MacDonald on his attempt to fly from Newfoundland to Ireland in a Moth. They report seeing a strange light in the sky astern at 6.30 on Thursday night, when the Montclare was 150 miles west of Tory Island. The light was later seen to drop from the sky with a streaming tail.
