

LIMA EAST NEWS

Several residents of this and the surrounding districts have noticed a strange light in the sky during the week-end. This light has had quite a number wondering what it was, but others knew it to be the new aerial beacon at Benalla. This light can be seen quite clearly when it is not raining or on a clear night.

Several trees of silver wattle in the bush have been seen in full blossom.