

MINISTER'S DENIAL

Reports that a submarine had been seen off the coast of North Queensland were without foundation, and were to be regretted, said the Minister for Defence (Brigadier Street) on Saturday.

The continued rumours of strange lights and submarines seen off the Queensland coast were completely at variance with the facts which official investigation had disclosed.
