

MAN THOUGHT FLYING SAUCER CHASED HIM

KALGOORLIE.—During a terrific windstorm last night, a resident was horrified to see a vast circular shape bearing down on him.

The "saucer" landed with an awful crash in scrub by the roadside and the man did not wait upon the order of his going.

A few minutes later a glass of brandy was chattering against his teeth.

"I've nearly been knocked by a flying saucer," he shivered.

A courageous soul investigated and found the "saucer"—the top of a 1000-gallon tank which the wind had hurled more than 100 yards.
