

Mystery Solved

RESIDENTS of High St. and East Launceston were convinced yesterday that there was a "flying saucer" over the city. Telephones were kept busy for some time. A resident of High St. said a shining object kept darting across the sky. The riddle was solved when someone saw boys on St. George's Square hauling in a large silken kite.