beaten, going down by a short head to Chatide.

The stewards issued a strong warning to W. Smart, who rode Tuckout.

Their report read: "In our opinion Smart showed excessive lack of judgment amounting almost to incompetence."

Chatide was ridden by E. Wilson, who had his first mount after disqualification for a year.

He had ridden Chatide in his jumping lessons, and was promised the mount on the gelding by his former trainer, the late R. C. Hubbert.

Wilson, however, said he could not ride Chatide in the hurdle race which he won at Victoria Park.

which he won at Victoria Park yesterday week as he was not fit enough.

Smart was on Chatide at Victoria Park.
