

"Flying Saucer" Was Boys' Hoax

LONDON, March 31: A flying saucer reported to have been seen over Milan had a simple explanation, police found.

Three boys had attached rockets to a large metal disc and set them off from the roof of a high building.