

CASUALTY FROM FLYING SAUCER

Rome, Today: Arnaldo Capelli, of Sesto Sangiovanni, near Milan, is believed to be the world's first fatal casualty of "flying saucers". He looked up when a group of people pointed skywards—and a lorry ran over him.