

MOSCOW CRITICISES FLY- ING SAUCER STORIES

LONDON, Sun.: Moscow radio said yesterday that stories of flying saucers were "just another old moth-eaten imperialist trick that was being dragged out of the junk closet."

It said that American stories of flying saucers and mysterious submarines off the United States' coast were campaigns to boost the munitions business.