

THE ORIGINAL flying saucer? This picture was published in America with an article that says there is competent evidence that flying saucers are real aircraft of revolutionary design, developed in the United States. This scale model, built in 1942, is mounted for wind tunnel tests at the laboratory of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics. It is

OF THE NATIONAL Advisory Committee for Aeronautics. It is driven by two piston engines.
