

New Report Of Flying Saucers

SYDNEY — The latest flying saucer story, reported in New South Wales, comes from Lismore on the North Coast.

Residents of nearby Swan Hill say they saw a strange object in the sky.

They said it was about the size of a football and resembled a bright light which disappeared across the sky towards the northwest.