

YES, THEY'RE SEEN AGAIN

Sydney, Sat: Latest Flying Saucer story reported in NSW comes from Lismore on the north coast, where residents of nearby Swan Hill say they saw a strange object in the sky.

They said it was about the size of a football and resembled a bright light which disappeared across the sky towards the north-west.