
JIMMY SHEAHAN SCORES THREE TRIES

Gundagai Reserves Defeat Harden 9 Points to 2

Emulating a flying saucer, the Jugiong streak, Jimmy Sheahan notched three tries in the Reserve grade match against Harden yesterday, which Gundagai won by 9 points to 2.

The Gundagai team revealed much better form than they had in previous games. They had more dash and there was a set purpose in all their movements.

The trio of tries annexed by Sheahan resulted from splendidly combined movements, with the strong running winger exerting all his pace and strength to reach the line. None of the scores were converted. The ball was difficult to handle, being wet and heavy.

A reserve grade forward who is improving with every game is Reg. Luff. At this rate of progress it will be difficult to keep Luff out of the be difficult to keep Luff out of the first grade side.

Barry Jones, who looked as though he would develop into a champion some seasons ago, had his first run in two years. The tall winger showed that he was short of a gallop, but that he has lost none of his determination.

The game was fast but the sodden state of the ground was a deterrent to good, open play, and the teams acquitted themselves well in spite of this handicap.
