

Saucer Seen Over Britain

LONDON, June 7.

The first official report of a "flying saucer" over Britain was made yesterday by the pilot of a Meteor jet fighter.

Fighter Command and meteorological experts have investigated the report and state there is no evidence it was other than some natural phenomenon.