

STILL SEEING 'EM

New York, June 23.—A flying saucer "roaring like thunder at over 1,000 miles per hour" was reported early Wednesday at Oakland, California, where three control tower officers said a disc-shaped object dived five times over Hamilton ~~air~~ base. They said it approached at altitudes between 2,000 and 5,000 feet shooting blue flame.