

Saucer again

LONDON, Sat. (A.A.P.).—Six men saw what they claimed was a "Flying Saucer" over Ramsay, in the Isle of Man, yesterday morning.

The men, engineering workers, were having their mid-morning break by an open factory door when they saw the object.

"It was a long, narrow, oblong, with rounded corners," one of the men said.