

"FLYING SAUCER"

SYDNEY: The flying saucer which many people saw in southern Queensland and northern N.S.W. on Wednesday night has been identified as a meteor.

The Government Astronomer, Mr. Harley Wood, said it was about 80 miles up in the air and was travelling at about 25 miles a second.