

Made Flying Saucer

STUNT HAT with a model plane thrust through the crown is worn by miniature plane maker Arthur Sanger, of Southampton, as he tests his latest creation—a flying saucer. The saucer took him three months to build, is powered by a Jetex rocket motor, and flies for 30 seconds up to heights of 100 feet.