

Flying saucer story daily

The fascinating report on flying saucers—"Is Another World Watching Us?"—by noted British scientist Gerald Heard begins on Page Five of the "Brisbane Telegraph" today.

Gerald Heard is the author of "The Ascent of Humanity," "This Surprising World," and other works on the mysteries of the universe.

He was specially commissioned to investigate and report on the great mystery of the flying saucers, and he has produced what is one of the most amazing documents of modern times.

The "Brisbane Telegraph" has secured the exclusive Queensland rights to the report.

An instalment will be published daily on Page Five.
