

“SAUCERS” SECRECY ATTACKED

Needless Waste, Say Critics

From Our Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—American newspapers to-day criticised the Government for not revealing earlier the true nature of “flying saucers.”

The editor of the weekly magazine “Aviation,” Robert H. Wood, said to-day that the Government’s three-year silence was a scandal.

The “New York Times” also asked why there was any need for secrecy.
