

THE "FLYING SAUCER" NEW PUB

LONDON (A.P.). — Drinking beer in the village inns of Britain under the famed signs of "The Pig and Whistle" and "The King's Head" is getting old fashioned.

The new look in inn signs has the modern note.

The "Flying Saucer" is to be the name of a new inn in Kent and the "Jet and Whittle" in Gloucestershire, in recognition of Sir Frank Whittle's work on the jet engine.
