

JET-PLANES, NOT SAUCERS

LITHGOW, Friday. — R.A.A.F. jet-fighter planes, shining like silver discs and throwing off a vapour trail at a great height over Lithgow this week, frightened some housewives, who thought the objects were flying saucers.

An R.A.A.F. spokesman said to-day the women had seen new jets on manoeuvres.