

FLYING SAUCER?

At about 4 p.m. last Sunday, while they were playing golf at Wubin, Messrs. Stan Birch and J. Bycroft observed in the south-eastern sky, a blue object shaped like a disc. The weather was clear and the object floated in the sky for a minute before it disappeared suddenly.