

FLYING SAUCERS SEEN OVER MEDITERRANEAN

LISBON, Wednesday. — A shining "flying saucer" was seen yesterday over Alcobaca, 80 miles north of Lisbon.

Reports reaching here said that the object, flying northwards with a trail of black smoke, was cigar-shaped.

Two "flying saucers" were reported on Monday night flying across French Morocco in a west-east direction. They were said to have left greyish misty trails behind them.
