

"Saucers" leave smoke trails

LISBON, Wednesday.—
A shining "flying saucer" seen yesterday over Alcobaca, 80 miles north of Lisbon, was cigar-shaped and flying northward, trailing a smoke track, according to reports reaching Lisbon.

Two "flying saucers" were reported last night flying across French Morocco in an easterly direction, leaving greyish, misty trails.—AAE.