

NUN SEES "SAUCER"

VATICAN CITY.—A nun and an Italian army officer saw a "flying saucer" in the sky over Asti, near Turin, according to a report published by the Vatican newspaper, "Osservatore Romano."

The "saucer" was described as being about the size of a car steering wheel. It was visible for a minute.
