

NEW KIND OF "SAUCER"

OTTAWA, Thursday.

People at Brockville (Ontario) have seen a new kind of flying saucer.

They said that it was like a "floating light bulb" which moved over the city at about 7000 feet.

They said it moved in a north - westerly direction and stayed in view for about half an hour.

As it disappeared, they said, it was joined by a second small light.