

SAUCERS AGAIN ?:

UNKNOWN OBJECTS SPOTTED NEAR WASHINGTON

Washington, July 28. — Jet fighters made an attempt to intercept unknown objects in the sky over Washington last night after they had been spotted by radar.

This was the second time within a week that unidentified objects had been radar observed in the vicinity of the nation's capital.

Air Force officials said between four and 12 objects were picked up on the radar screen in the vicinity of Washington. Two jet fighter interceptors ordered up to make a check were directed to the objects by radar. One of the Jet pilots reported sighting four lights in front approximately ten miles away, but they disappeared before he could overtake them.
