

Flying saucer in the field

Graham Cox, of Richmond (left) had made a mighty leap over Richmond ground on Saturday and marked a high one, when suddenly the ball was knocked from his grasp by some mysterious object which hovered at an even greater altitude. It was South's giant ruckman Jim Taylor.

ruckman Jim Taylor.