

SAUCER WAS A BALLOON

SYDNEY, August 26.—
Many people thought they saw a flying saucer over Sydney between 10 a.m. and midday to-day, but investigation showed it was a weather balloon.

The first of many reports was that detectives and staff at the C.I.B. building had seen "a large white disc float across the sky" about midday.