

Big Reward for "Saucer" Proof

New York.—Mr. Milton Reynolds, ball-point pen millionaire, today offered a reward of 25,000 dollars (£11,162) for scientific proof of the existence of flying saucers.

He said he meant by "flying saucer" an object "in the commonly accepted sense of an interplanetary flying object, guided by living beings from another planet."