There were also slight
heat waves in the air.
Mrs Kathlyn May, of Flat- "These people were the wood West Virginia, said she and six boys climbed a hill most scared people I've ever behind the town after her seen." Mr Stewart added two small sons had told her "People don't make up that they had seen a bright that kind of story that object come down quickly."

But police last night laughed the reports off as hysteria. They said the so-called monster had grown from 7 ft to 17 ft. in 24 hours.

Gene Lemon, 17, was leading the group up the hill when he said he saw what appeared to be a pair of bright eyes in a tree.

When he shone his light on it, he saw a 10 ft. monster with a "blood-red face and a green body that seemed to glow."

Mrs May said the monster started towards them moving with a floating, bouncing motion.

"There was an overpowering, gaseous smell that burned my nostrils and made me sick," added Mrs. May
