

You wouldn't read about it

SOME time ago a man reported that he was shot at by men from a flying saucer; then a Perth business woman received a message from the late Karol Tapci thanking her for what she had done on his behalf; and to cap the lot an airman said he had flown through a flying saucer. There are moves to ban certain comics for children, but why not start on certain adults first?—Blue Hills, Bruce Rock.

