

“Saucer” Over N.Z.

AN announcer over a commercial radio station at Christchurch (N.Z.) told listeners yesterday morning that a flying saucer had been seen over the city the previous night, and that an unidentified object had crash landed in a city park and was being studied by scientists. He added that the reports were unconfirmed.