

Claims to Have Photographed Flying Saucer

LONDON: Reuter's Milan representative says that an Italian draughtsman, Gian Pietro Monguzzi (29), claimed yesterday that he had photographed a flying saucer and its pilot.

He said the saucer landed in the glacier Bernina group of the Italian Alps two months ago when he was climbing there with his wife.

"The flying saucer touched down for a few minutes, and a human shape wearing a sort of diving suit got out and walked round the saucer as if inspecting it," he said.

Monguzzi declared the figure then re-entered the saucer and it took off without a sound at breathtaking speed in the direction of Switzerland.

Monguzzi said he sold the photographs to a French photographs to a French magazine.