

SNAPPED FLYING SAUCER

Milan, Saturday. — An Italian draughtsman, Gian Pietro Monguzzi, 29, claims that he had photographed a flying saucer and its pilot.

He said that the saucer landed on a glacier in the Bernina group of the Italian Alps two months ago when he was climbing there with his wife.

"The flying saucer touched down for a few minutes and a figure in human shape wearing a sort of diving suit got out and walked around the saucer as if inspecting it," Monguzzi declared.

"The figure then re-entered the saucer and it took off without a sound at breath-taking speed. It disappeared in the direction of Switzerland."
