

Flying Saucer at Diggers' Rodeo

People who think there is no such thing as a flying saucer will be able to see one with their own eyes at the Gloucester Diggers' rodeo on December 5 and 6.

Flying Saucer is one of the greatest unriden buckjumpers in the country to-day.

Rodeo organiser, Mr. Les Farley, said to-day that Flying Saucer was being loaned to the Gloucester rodeo by the Dungog rodeo committee who will give £20 to any one who can ride him there on November 29.

Local horse Black Satin will also be among the outstanding team of buckjumpers at the Gloucester rodeo. He maintained his record of being unriden by throwing one of the best local riders at the recent show sports.

Rated as one of the top line riders in the game to-day local rough rider Harold Germon hopes to draw either Flying Saucer or Black Satin.

Among the many well-known visiting boys from all over the country who will be competing at this year's Gloucester rodeo are three rough riders from South Australia.
