

WORLD WAR III

LATEST "gen." on the flying saucer is that they are potential weapons for World War III when they will be used by their owners to disrupt weather conditions and so upset the enemy. Though there have been no reports of flying saucers in Australia there must have been a few about at nights. Weather here has been topsy-turvy for several years now.