

Britain Recognises Flying Saucer

London, Nov. 19.—The British War Office has officially recognised the "flying saucer."

A War Office report said that on November 3, an anti-aircraft unit in south-east London picked up a signal on its radar screen and followed the track of an "object" which appeared "circular or spherical and white in colour."

The object was also seen through a telescope by men of the same unit on the same day.