

A Picture— Of What?

DARWIN, Fri: A picture purporting to be a photograph of a flying saucer was published in the Alice Springs newspaper Centralian Advocate yesterday.

Editor Jim Bowditch said he found the picture and a note under the door one morning. The note was not signed.

The unknown photographer wrote that he was taking pictures of Mt. Gillem (overlooking Alice Springs) on January 15 when suddenly a huge round-looking object came from behind Mt. Gillem and the town.

It was not travelling fast, and he took the picture.

"I could have taken more," he wrote. "But I just looked."
